Mrs. Chas. Underhill is visiting relatives in Kansas. Her husband is now in that part of the state and expects to meet her and spend a short time visiting friends there.

Hotel Arion is now in charge of Mr. Frank Howard of Denison. He is well and favorably known by many of our citizens and all join in extending him a hand of welcome.

A number were alarmed here by the wind storm Monday night and took refuge in their cellars. Jake Kefford, living southeast of here had the misfortune to have his barn blown down and his grain in the field injured. Mr. Michaelson also had some hay stacks blown over.

Exposition All Right.

A number of prominent Nebraska and Iowa gentlemen were appointed a committee to examine the exhibits, amusements, grounds and general features of the Greater America Exposition. These gentlemen in their report declare the Exposition far beyond their expectations in excellence. They commend it as in every way worthy of public patronage from an educational as well as an entertainment standpoint.

They speak very highly of the Machinery hall, of the Manufacturing and Agricultural buildings.

This report ought to convince the most skeptical.

GOODRICH GOSSIP.

Mrs. J. W. Wilkinson is reported quite ill.

E. Pink and wife were pleasant callers at M. Atsworth's Monday.

Miss Mill is agent for the late war books. We would advise all to patronize her, as she is a worthy young lady.

Sell Montgomery and family returned from their jaunt over the country last week and have taken up their abode in the Chas. Mullenger house.

J. C. Phillips went to Des Moines Monday evening as a delegate to be present at the Republican state convention held there on Wednesday.

Our enterprising neighbor, Henry Otto, is repainting his house and out-buildings; E. Pink is having his large barn repainted, and "there are others" who should follow their example.

There is no use of being lazy, when there is so much work. Men are wanted at Deloit to unload rock, there is plenty of help wanted on the farms in the harvest fields, or you can work on the railroad, all at good wages. We think, when there is plenty of work at good wages, there is prosperity, in spite of the bewailings of some of our democratic friends.
