

OUR ANNUAL REDUCTION IN

Photos..

COMMENCES

August 30th, Old Settlers' Day

And lasts through September only. This is our regular yearly offer and is made so as to enable everyone to procure a dozen of our first class Photos. Look at these prices.

ARTIST CABINETS, Per Dozen, $1.98 PLATINUM CABINETS, Per Dozen, $2.78

One Dollar cheaper than you can get the same class of work done for any reliable studio.

ANOTHER OFFER! To all customers having pictures made or giving us an order from any negative we have made previous to this we will make a

Life Size Enlargement

For $1.00. We want you to come and see these pictures as they are better than you can get from any agent at double the price. Remember these prices last through September only.

A. H. Brown, Prop'r.

J. L. WARBASSE, DEALER IN

Pianos, Organs, Sewing Machines AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

NEW MUSIC STORE.

We have another music store, And John L. Warbasse is the man Who run it, and we'll tell you more About it if we can. He's putting in a stock of goods Which he'll be pleased to show and sell As low as possible and live, And he will treat you well.

He will be pleased to have you call At any time his goods to see, And therefore he invites you all, Whoever you may be, To "come right in." He'll be at home To everybody far and near, And if you buy, this little "poem" Fulfills its mission here.

A lady clerk will be in charge When Mr. Warbasse isn't in, And if she plays she'll beat the band Or never play ag'in. Thus you may hear as well as see The instrument, and—on the sly— We want to say, you'll surely be Well satisfied to buy.

H. F. HODGES, Denison, Iowa.

Plumbing, Pumps, Pipe Fittings

Estimates Furnished on Heating Apparatus of all Kinds.

THE BEST WORKMANSHIP GUARANTEED.

Get His Figures and Save Money. Friday

Review for Fine Work

CHARTER OAK CHATS

B. A. Romans, of Denison, was an Oak caller Thursday.

F. Loomis and K. Miller started for Des Moines Thursday evening.

Mrs. Mike Capps is spending the week with friends at Sioux City.

John McKane is looking over the prospects of South Dakota this week.

Cecil Barclay went to Dow City Wednesday to work in the hotel for B. Slocumb.

Geo. Knight and family have returned from a six weeks outing at Lake Okoboji.

Mrs. Bornholdt and daughters, Lillie and Mabel, went to Boone on a visit Wednesday.

Miss Finley returned to Sioux City Thursday, after a weeks visit with Mrs. McVey.

Mrs. F. Jones and son Arthur returned Wednesday from a visit with friends at Monticello.

E. P. Andrews started Thursday noon for Des Moines, where he will run a stand during the Fair.

There seems to be some competition among our grain buyers of late, they are now offering 58 cents for wheat.

Mrs. Fred Davis and son started Thursday morning for a visit with friends Emmetsburg and Canton, S. D.

Hugh McWilliams, of Whiting, stopped here for a short visit with his nephews, D. H. and Dr. McWilliams, on his way home from Denison Thursday.

Among those who attended the M. W. A. picnic at Dunlap Wednesday were the Misses Ella McMahon and cousin from Des Moines, Florence Abbott, Anna O'Doherty and Mrs. McMahon and McVey.

The eight-year old son of Albert Maas came to town with his father Thursday and being very thirsty, went into Schurke's store and took a cup of kerosene, thinking it was water, and swallowed the whole of it. Fortunately Dr. McWilliams was near and gave him a hypodermic injection that caused him to throw it up.

On Monday evening occurred a banquet given by the Masonic lodge of this place. Special work had been prepared for the evening after which the members and visitors went to the Charter Oak House where they sat down to as elegant a spread as Charter Oak has ever seen. Toasts and merry-making were in order until a late hour when a fraternal goodnight was given and each returned to their respective homes. The out of town visitors were Musser, Welch, Scott, Sweet, Putzier and Jarvis of Mapleton, O'Doherty and Soggy of Ute.

HAPPENINGS AT VAIL.

O. Rowley was a Beaver visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. R. J. Long is visiting at the Wallace House.

Walter Gable was an Omaha passenger Wednesday.

Twelve car loads of feeders were shipped in Thursday morning.

Rev. Tweed of Manilla will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ieu Hulce are visiting at Dunlap with V. Hulce and family.

Mrs. Wagner of Des Moines was here Wednesday disposing of her property.

Nick Nelson, C. Paine and Thomas Adams transacted business at Omaha this week.

A neat sum was realized from the social Tuesday night at the Rowley home given by the M. E. ladies.

Miss Margaret O'Connell returned to her home at Moberly, Mo. Thursday morning after several weeks' visit with relatives at Vail.

A party of twelve couple enjoyed a very pleasant time Wednesday night at the A. B. O'Connell home in honor of Miss Margaret O'Connell of Moberly, Mo. Miss O'Connell made many friends here and will be missed by the young people.

The Misses McAndrews entertained a number of their friends very pleasantly on Wednesday with games and music. An elegant repast was served, consisting of Bavarian cream, frappe and fruit. The out of town guests were A. Hape, Geo. Spottswood and Ed Hart of West Side, Chas. Glynn of De Witt and Miss Johnson of Moline, Ill. A nice time is reported by those present.

MILORD TWP. MUTTERINGS.

Myrtle Goff of Denison is visiting at Deloit.

Fay Winans was the guest of Lizzie Hopper Sunday.

Sam James of Denison was a Deloit caller Tuesday.

U. S. Dunbar filled the pastor's place Sunday evening.

Ethel Huckstep visited with Mary Albright Saturday.

Mr. Sealander and family attended M. E. church Sunday evening.

Anderson boys threshed for J. McKim, L. Morris and J. Cose this week.

KIRON CHRONICLES

Harry Johnson commenced teaching on Monday at Otter Creek center.

Mrs. Anna B. Hanson came home on Friday last from her extended trip and visit.

S. N. Sandstrom and son Emil were business visitors at Denison on Saturday last.

Miss Lottie Anderson, of West Side, Iowa, is visiting acquaintances this week in Kiron.

Mr. A. Anderson has been confined to his bed the past week suffering with Rheumatism.

Arthur Huttman, of Sioux City, is enjoying life on the farm for a few weeks at John Erickson's.

Mrs. Mary Anderson is home from Omaha for a few days stay. She is expecting to return to that city.

P. E. Nordell is having an addition built to his residence, the work being done by J. A. Lawrence, of Omaha.

Messrs. B. A. and E. A. Samuelson and their wives of Ida county spent Sunday last at the home of A. Clauson.

Rev. A. Modig drove across the country Friday to Alta, Iowa, where he assisted in a series of meetings held there.

J. Gustafson and wife, John Johnson and the Misses Daisy Larson and Annie Johnson made Lake View a visit the last part of the week.

Rev. Weston and family, of Deloit, drove up to Kiron Sunday afternoon, Rev. Weston filling the pulpit at the Free Mission church in the evening in the absence of Rev. Modig. Many of our people were very pleased to meet him.

Quite a large crowd gathered in Kiron Monday evening to hear the open air concert given by the M. W. A. band of Woodbine, Ia. The music rendered was greatly enjoyed by all and as a band is seldom seen in Kiron it was quite a treat.

The County Sunday School Missionary visited these parts on Sunday and Monday in the interest of the Sunday School. Sunday morning he visited the Sunday schools at the Baptist and Mission churches. He has arranged, we understand, to hold a S. S. convention in Kiron on Sept. 10.

NEWS OF DOW CITY.

Dr. C. W. Carr went to Omaha Tuesday and returned Wednesday.

Judge W. B. Green of Audubon was with us Wednesday on business.

One of the I. C. pile drivers is at work here, this bridge being the last one to drive.

Last Wednesday morning about fifty tickets were sold here for Dunlap where the M. W. A. held a picnic. Many drove down and all report a "hot time."

The railroad camp just west of town pulled up stakes Thursday, having finished the grading in that section. We have not learned where they will locate.

Tuesday evening we were highly favored with some excellent music by the Woodbine band. They had taken an outing at the lakes and were on their way to Dunlap to the M. W. A. picnic.

Died: Verna J. Baber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Baber, was born July 12, 1898 and died August 23, 1899 of cholera infantum. Funeral services were held at the L. D. S. church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in charge of Rev. A. M. Molesworth. About two months ago the little one was taken with whooping cough. The child suffered intensely for several days, but her last hours were calm and peaceful, and she passed away seemingly without a struggle. The sorrowing ones have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

GOODRICH GOSSIP.

Mr. Leaman was busy shelling corn last Saturday.

The pile drivers are at work on M. Ainsworth's land.

Miss Florence Prentice visited over on Big Creek last Sunday.

Remember the big M. E. picnic Saturday, August 26 at Deloit.

E. R. Snell had the misfortune to fall off a load of hay and hurt his back.

The severe wind last Saturday evening did considerable damage to grain stacks. In some places they were turned over.

Anderson Bros., with their steam thrasher, opened up business last Friday afternoon on the James McKim farm.

Sell Montgomery's mother and sister visited him last Friday, and he and family accompanied them home to Charter Oak.

There are plenty of people who will go into your pasture and strip the plum trees, tear the grape vines down, gather the half ripe hazel nuts without even asking. We often wonder what they would think of us were we to go into their cornfields and gather their corn, etc? Wouldn't it be "just awful?"

AN ARION LETTER, BUCK GROVE ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Underhill drove to Defiance Sunday.

Seymour Bond of Moorhead spent Sunday with Arion friends.

A number from here attended the Woodmen picnic at Dunlap.

Ed Jones of Correctionville was a welcome caller here Tuesday.

Nearly two hundred men are now working here on the new road.

Fred Butler is now time keeper for the Illinois Central at this place.

Miss Jennie Austin of Denison was calling on friends here this week.

W. W. Coon drove to Denison with Elder Bateson after church services Sunday.

We have a photographer with us this week. It is reported that fine work is being done.

A vacant store building has been converted into a boarding house to accommodate the laborers.

N. H. Copeland and wife of Omaha have been visiting at the home of their parents, G. N. Copeland.

Foreman McRae of the steam pile driver was quite badly injured by falling several feet. He is now improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Westerman are the proud parents of a baby boy who came to make his home with them on August 21st.

Mr. Ryan, who came here last February, has just completed his contract on the grade. He and his family left here Monday.

Last Tuesday Dr. Evans was called to the home of Jas. Griffin: His little five year old son had been bitten by a rattle snake. Mr. Griffin is to be congratulated on the way he treated the patient until the arrival of a physician. The boy is improving nicely.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Miss H. Spotswood is visiting her sister in Shaller.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolhiser are visiting their daughter and son-in-law in Omaha.

Mrs. James Lewis and children are visiting among friends in Clinton county.

R. Chapman and wife of Des Moines are here spending a few days with the old folks.

Mrs. Lida Jewitt and the Misses Jewitts have returned to their old home in Wheaton, Ill.

John Oleson and wife of Wall Lake stopped in to visit old friends of Clinton county on their way to Manning and Manila.

John Barnhoff received two carloads of feeders from Omaha and H. Schoenjohn three carloads from Des Moines Wednesday.

Sadie Burrows passed through Tuesday en route for her old home in Colorado. Her old friend and schoolmate, Miss Grote, accompanied her down the road.

The lawn social at C. W. Payne's Wednesday night was a very pleasant affair. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening and both young and old were made to feel at home.

The remains of Mrs. A. P. Fellingham were taken to Venora, Ill., Sunday night in charge of Mr. Fellingham and Dave Fellingham and wife of Boone. Brief services were held at the house, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Richards of the M. E. church, at which many friends and neighbors were present. John Fellingham, the youngest son, arrived home Monday to attend his mother's funeral. The funeral train passed through Cedar Rapids while he was there waiting for the train west, but was not aware of the fact until he arrived at West Side.

PARADISE PUNCHES

G. V. Sordan, Jay Bell and Thos. Rae were Denison callers yesterday.

Prof. Schafer and wife of Dow City were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marks Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Liese and family of Charter Oak called on Paradise friends Thursday.

Mrs. Houstou and her mother, Mrs. Blackman, were visiting Dow City relatives one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrick attended the funeral of Baber's child Thursday at Dow City.

J. E. Gorman has been appointed general freight agent of the Atchinson, Poplar and Santa Fe railway, to succeed F. C. Gray who recently resigned. Three fatal accidents have occurred in the Tyrolse Alps during the last few days. The victims include a landed proprietor named Maurer and his guide. Because she declined his proposal of marriage, Jerome Turner of Redwood City, Cal., Thursday night, shot and killed Miss Lillie Stalker and then shot himself.

A dispatch from Rome reports the throwing of a dynamite bomb into the villa of the archbishop of Gallipoli, seriously damaging the walls of the building. The steamer Portland arrived at San Francisco Thursday from Unalaska, with 60 returning prospectors and $1,500,000 in gold. The bulk of the treasure is from Cape Nome district.

Frank Evans, of Arion, was in town Thursday.

S. Moffit's sister from the east is making him a visit.

Wm. Edwards took a short trip to Ute last Saturday.

Mrs. Otto Hink and daughter were at Dow City Monday.

Jess Wiley was at the county seat one day this week.

Three steam threshers are at work in this neighborhood.

Martin Conroy, of Arion, was in town last Saturday.

A. Ransom, of Denison, was a Grove visitor last Monday.

Dad Seymour was on the streets of our little city Monday.

Meedames Gigax were shopping at Denison last Saturday.

Peter Soehl and wife, of Denison, were out this way Tuesday.

Marion Cole, the steward at the poor farm, was up this way Friday.

Chas. McHenry, of Dow City, was a business visitor last Thursday.

This part of the county is overrun with peddlers and agents of all kinds.

Mrs. Jack Mitchell, who has been visiting relatives and friends here, has returned to her home at Perry.

Quite a few of our town people took in the excursion to Sioux City last Sunday and we are sorry to say, some of the readers of the Denison Journal were in the crowd.

Church Notes:

GERMAN LUTHERAN.

Married, August 18, Wm. Chr. Peters to Cath. D. Guesing both of Otter Creek twp.; witnesses—Bernhard Guesing and Minna Peters, Rev. F. Lothringer officiating.

Buried, August 22, Henry Albertsen, who died the 20th of summer complaint and teething at the age of 5 months and 18 days leaving the parents, one brother, two grandparents, three aunts, two uncles.

Buried, the 23, Herman Detlef Lucitens who died the 22, of summer complaint at the age of 4 months and 26 days, leaving the parents, one sister, grandfather, grand-uncle, grand-aunt, four uncles, and five aunts.

Buried, August 24, Sears Otto Matthew Timm, who died the 23 of whooping cough and summer complaint aged 4 months, 13 days, leaving parents, grandparents, two sisters, twelve uncles and ten aunts.

September 4, the German Lutheran parochial school will re-open presided over by Rev. F. Lothringer, five days a week.

September 3, German Lutheran services in Washington township, Hink's school house, Rev. F. Lothringer officiating.

September 10, the German Lutherans celebrate their mission festival, the Revs. Berner of Arcadia and Discher of Carroll holding services.

Baptized, August 17, Rev. F. Lothringer officiating, Frank John Smith; August 19, Mary N. Breckling and Lewis Emil Wm. Witt.

KIDNEY TROUBLE is a deceptive disease—don't know it. If you want quick results you can make no mistake by using Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. At drugists in fifty cent and dollar sizes. Sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney trouble. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. OF INTEREST TO STOCKHOLDERS.

FREE TRANSPORTATION TO ATTEND THE ANNUAL MEETING AT CHICAGO.

The Board of Directors of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, at a meeting held July 31, 1897, adopted the following preamble and resolution:

To the end that the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad Company may more readily attend, in person, the annual meetings of stockholders, which the board have resolved to hold in Chicago on the last Wednesday in September in each year, be it

RESOLVED, That until the further order of this board, there may be issued, to each holder one or more shares of the capital stock of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, as registered on the books of the company, a ticket entitling him, or her, to travel free over the company's line from the station on the Illinois Central Railroad nearest to his or her registered address, to Chicago and return, for the purpose of attending, in person, the meetings of stockholders. Such ticket to be good for the journey to Chicago only during the four days immediately preceding, and the day of, the meeting, and for the return journey from Chicago only on the day of the meeting and the four days immediately following, when properly countersigned and stamped in the president's office. (These tickets will now be countersigned and stamped in the office of W. G. Hurry, Assistant Secretary, Chicago.) Such a ticket may be obtained by any registered holder of stock on application, in writing, to the president of the Company in Chicago. Each application must state the full name and address of the stockholder exactly as given in his or her certificate of stock, together with the number and date of such certificate. No more than one person will be carried free in respect to any one holding of stock as registered on the books of the company. By order of the board of directors, A. G. HACKSTAFF, Secretary.

The next annual meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad Company will be held at the office of the company, in Chicago, on Wednesday, September 29, 1899, at noon. For the purpose of this meeting, the Stock Transfer Books will be closed from the close of business on September 12th to the morning of Sept. 25th.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature. Have Time and Shrink By Shipping Your Hogs and Cattle to South Omaha.