A new bulletin board has been placed in the waiting room of the depot for the convenience of the trainmen.

Chas. Gossman was a Denison visitor yesterday. He is located at Odebolt and is well pleased with his position.

Telegraphic dispatches announce a snow storm of unusual severity to be raging around Leadville, Colorado. A band of 1,400 sheep, including herder, are lost.

Nora Cavott has been laid up the past week with a lame back, which has kept him from work. Nora has not had a "lay off" in many years and hardly knows how to handle himself.

On Tuesday a special train of 25 cars, all loaded with canned goods, shipped by Paxton & Gallagher of Cedar Rapids to Omaha, passed through Denison over the Chicago & North-Western.

The Illinois Central officials were in the city last evening and took a run up over the new line. There is now at work at Boyer a night and day force—some 125 teams—and work is progressing rapidly.

Mrs. McClellan returned Thursday morning from Des Moines and Osceola, where she has been holding camp-fires. Mrs. McClellan is very earnest in her W. R. C. work and is in great demand at the reunions.

In our last issue a notice—"House for Rent"—appeared among our Special Locals. Before nine o'clock Wednesday there were five applications for the same. Our special local column is watched with great interest.

This office has a large supply of scale books on hand at present. Farmers, who have scales on their places, certainly want a good scale book. There are 500 tickets in each book, four tickets on the page. Call in and get one.

for County Attorney is so busy attending to cases in court, that he cannot get out to see you. His opponent has no cases to keep him busy.

Vote for the man who has both clients and experience.

The first rehearsal of the Denison Orchestra took place Wednesday evening. This musical organization has gained an enviable reputation during its short existence and our people may expect some fine music during the coming winter.

The Epworth Leaguers held a social Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gillmor, to which there was a good attendance. A short program and games of various kinds took up a good part of the evening. Also light refreshments were served.

The foundation for the hotel, being erected by Mrs. Dawes, is now being laid. It is of stone. The building will be a thirty room structure, two stories high. It will be ready for occupancy about January 1, 1900. The site is considered a good one, and no doubt the house will be well patronized.

The friends of Mr. John R. Bagge will be pleased to learn that he has been installed as teacher at the Denison Normal School, taking the position made vacant by the resignation of Miss Ware. Mr. Bagge is a very capable young gentleman and we predict a successful career for him as teacher.

Workmen have the old depot moved to its new location, one block west of the old site, just south of Stone & Temple's lumber yard, where it will be used as a freight depot. Our old pioneers hardly recognize the surroundings in that locality, so many changes are taking place. Even the depot boys themselves will turn toward the old site when going to the depot, through force of habit.

will get the vote of the east end of the county.

The want a man from their section on the board and are entitled to it.

Word has been received that Miss Ethel Austin is quite ill at Everly, Iowa, where she has been teaching. She will come home as soon as she is strong enough to make the trip.

The Elebjos enjoyed a meeting Thursday evening with Miss Beryl Coles at the Romans home. Besides their regular game of progressive dominoes, the piano selections by Miss Ley and violin music by Miss Dow added much to the evening's pleasure, to say nothing of the delicious lunch served by the hostess.

On Wednesday evening the teachers and students of the college were royally entertained by Prof. and Mrs. VanNess at their home on Franklin street. The evening was taken up with music, games and social visiting, and all are loud in praising the hospitality with which they were received. Mr. and Mrs. VanNess have the happiest of homes and their friends are always welcome.

In another column will be found an advertisement over the signature of A. Hartney who now resides at Versailles, Mo., where, as you will see by the advertisement, he is in the real estate business. Versailles is located in Morgan county, Missouri, a county noted for its ore mines, millions of tons of ore being taken out yearly. As seen, Mr. Hartney is selling some splendid farms.

The county physician was called to Dunlap Tuesday to attend the man who was run over, and from him we learn the unfortunate's name was Wm. Broadrick, whose parents live in Omaha. He was on his way from Wall Lake to Omaha when the accident occurred. While conscious yet he could not tell how he got hurt; he did not remember whether he was riding on the train or walking the track. His father was telegraphed and he was taken to Omaha Tuesday afternoon, with slight hopes of his recovery.

The Man from Manila
