

DENISON AND VICINITY

Morris Stern returned from Chicago on Thursday. E. C. Chamberlin, jeweler, has a new talk in this issue. Sam V. O'Hare was the guest of J. N. Bradley on Tuesday night. Sears McHenry was transacting business at Vail Thursday afternoon. Mrs. A. D. Randall visited the last few days with relatives in Boone. Mrs. T. J. Kelly spent Thursday afternoon at Carroll visiting friends. Alfred Wright was among those who attended the Hull meeting at Vail. Isaac Hird, of Manilla, spent a few hours in Denison Tuesday evening. Henry Mitchell, of Vail, was in Denison between trains last Wednesday. Mrs. W. T. Wright is enjoying a visit from her sister, who resides at Ute, Ia. Max Sime is happy again. Mrs. Sime and baby are home from their eastern visit. Chas. Schelm, of Hanover township, was doing business in Denison Thursday. Ira Gillmor is now occupying his home recently purchased of Mr. H. C. Rusch. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rusch are now stopping at the home of Mr. John Schnoor in north Denison. Conductor Lucke expects to soon take up his run on the Boyer Valley line. He was in town this week. We desire to call your attention to the advertisement of Stern Bros., which appears in another column. Mrs. Wm. Seemann, who was visiting her parents in Dow City, returned home on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Bateson and Miss Nettie Kelly went to Boone Wednesday afternoon to attend the Baptist convention. We are pleased to add the name of W. J. Sandberg, or Kiron, to our large list of subscribers at that place. Lovers of foot ball should not forget the game on the home grounds tomorrow between Denison and Harlan. The Merry Chase Co. was greeted with a fair house Wednesday evening, and the entertainment is well spoken of. Miss Hoffman, accompanied by Dr. Boyle's little daughter, left last Wednesday evening for her home in Cressona, Pa. Druggist Drybread is down in Delaware county visiting his family. He will return shortly accompanied by them. Mrs. Capt. Partridge returned Thursday afternoon from Woodbine, where she has been visiting relatives the past few days. A. C. Beers, republican candidate for sheriff, was in Vail Friday and made a favorable impression on our people.—Vail Observer. Miss Lillian Garrison left on Tuesday evening for New York and Washington. She will be absent several months during the winter. In another column will be found a notice of stock sale of Andrew Whiteing, which takes place in Hays township on Nov. 3. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Lee came down from Sac City this week to visit the latter's parents before their removal to Waterloo. Mrs. A. Robertson and little granddaughter, Jessie Stone, came up from Dow City and will spend a few days with her daughters. Mr. Mike Miller, formerly of the Carroll Sentinel, later of the Boone Democrat, and still later from Kansas, was in Denison on Thursday. Ned Wilder informs us that he and his family will probably start the coming week for Bridger, Mont., where he will reside in the future. G. A. Comstock of Marion, Iowa, was in Denison on Wednesday. He is running a hotel at that place and seems to have been quite successful. We are informed that Mrs. J. B. Huckstep is quite seriously ill at her home in Milford township. We trust her illness will prove of short duration. Aebischer Bros. have the interior of their market nicely repainted and decorated, which adds greatly to the neatness of the shop. Hagenow & Kott did the work. The college foot ball team drove to Storm Lake Thursday afternoon to play foot ball with the Storm Lake eleven. They feel confident of winning, and we trust they will. Messrs. John Tamm, C. O. Faus, H. D. Meeves, Willard Saul and Harry Luney took the train this morning for the Sioux bottoms, where they will enjoy a few days shooting. Changes are being continually made at the depot grounds. This week the old pump house has been taken down, and soon the water tank will follow and the grounds made ready for new tracks.

Arthur Green is ill with tonsillitis. Read every page of the REVIEW. Something good on each page. Tommie Servoss and sisters, Mayme and Annie, of Vail, passed through our city today on their way to Modale. In another column will be found an announcement from Seemann Bros., in which they say their Mr. R. F. Brower, optician, will be at their store on Nov. 6 to 11. The rains of this week have been very welcome by every one. Especially have they been beneficial to our farmers, the pastures are renewed, rivers and wells replenish, and fall plowing made possible. The Sabbath morning services at the Baptist church will consist of interesting reports from the state convention by various members and in the evening a song and praise service, the choir taking the leading part. The Presbyterian ladies are busy preparing for their annual supper and bazaar. The articles for sale will be displayed in booths representing the Seven Ages. It will be held at Opera House on afternoon and evening of Dec. 13. Roadmaster Schomweg of the Boyer Valley has arrived in Denison with his family and has moved into the Gulick house, recently erected on the corner of Broadway and Washington Avenue. We welcome them to our city. City Solicitor McLennan received a telegram on Thursday, saying his father, who lives at Blanchard, Iowa, was seriously ill. Mr. McLennan took the afternoon train for that place. It is the hope of many friends that he may find his father's condition improved. In reply to a question as to whether the Philippine war should still be carried on or stopped our own James Armstrong of Company C, says: "It would be a nice thing indeed, to surrender to Aguinaldo. Don't mention it. We are a loyal regiment—not the kind the yellow papers are looking for." The Daily Iowa Capital has sent one of its editorial writers, Mr. John Briar, to San Francisco, to report everything pertaining to the arrival of the Fifty-first Iowa, and Mr. Briar is doing excellent work. No other daily newspaper in Iowa has sent a special man to San Francisco. Mr. T. J. Garrison, who returned from Chicago this morning, informs us that Miss Lillian changed her plans before leaving for the east, and will spend a week in Washington city and visit Miss Meyers. Mr. Garrison says he met Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tabor in Chicago, and that they were having such a good time that they do not know when they will return. The Davenport Democrat of the 17th inst. announced the marriage of W. C. Rollins and Miss Theresa Meyer for the 18th inst. As we knew this to be a little previous, we did not clip it. However the many friends of this couple will be pleased to know they were married Wednesday and returned today. They will occupy the house vacated by Ira Gillmor. Miss Abbie Bailey has tendered her resignation as assistant of the Traders Bank, which she has so faithfully filled. Henry Stuck will fill the vacancy caused by Miss Bailey's resignation. Mr. Stuck comes to us well recommended, he having filled the cashiership for a long time at J. P. Miller & Co. Mr. Stuck is a bright young German American and will make a valuable accession to Vail.—Vail Observer. Mr. Alex Haines had the misfortune to hurt his thumb recently while at work on the new German Methodist church. The accident unfitted him for work and would have been a serious misfortune to him, had he not carried accident insurance in the Woodmen of the World accident insurance company, as it was a claim was made and promptly his ten dollars a week for the two weeks enforced idleness was returned to him. Since our last report the following gentlemen have received their naturalization papers: Harold Johnson, Jacob Broders, Theo. W. Holling, Marcus Wulf, Morris Dethlefsen, Henry Gronenberg, Oka Willmer, Chris Rossow, Wm. Brandt, Peter Peters, J. E. Nielsen, H. F. Muenschler, John Pirwitz, Pat Houlihan, Peter C. Christensen, Morris Stern, Julius Wulf, Eddie Nelson, Johannes Kuehl, John Harder. A license to wed was issued to Mr. Albert Daz and Mrs. S. Dawes on Wednesday, Oct. 25. Mr. Daz has been in Denison during the past season, and during this time he has transacted considerable business at this office and we have always found him to be an honest, square business man. Mrs. Dawes is well known to our citizens. She has provided for and reared to manhood three sons, two of whom are in Chicago holding responsible positions. The other son is in Denison and will assist in the new hotel being erected by his mother. Notice. All friends of the Florence Crittenden Home, who wish to contribute clothing, fruit or other useful articles, are requested to bring same to the house of Mrs. Hope on Walnut street during the coming week. Mrs. R. L. HILL, Committee.

RAE—On Oct. 23, 1899, at the home of his parents, Mr. Willie Rae, aged 29 years. The deceased was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rae. He was born and grew to manhood at the family home near Dow City and there he entered the eternal rest. He early became connected with the M. E. church, being a member of the catechism class of Rev. H. H. Barton and was by him taken into membership of the church. He had been for ten years a sufferer from disease and exemplified his Christian experience by his patience and cheerfulness during his affliction. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church in Dow City by the pastor, Rev. Molesworth, who preached an excellent sermon from the text "To die is gain." The church was fittingly draped about the altar, pulpit and organ and there were a number of wreaths and bouquets of flowers tastefully arranged. The edifice was filled with sympathizing friends who followed to his last resting place at the Dow City cemetery the remains of the deceased. Mrs. Stephens of Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. Temple, Mr. Harker, Mr. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Pierce of Denison were among those present from outside the neighborhood. The pall bearers were Roy Roup, Edgar Bruner, Wilson Talcott, Paul Poiteviu, Robert Woodruff and Henry Scott. AN INTERESTING CASE. The district court has been wrestling all the week with the case of the Fort Dodge and Omaha vs Cashus Newcom. This was the first of a series of suits relative to the amount of damages to be paid by the company for right of way. The testimony as to the amount of damage done Mr. Newcom's farm was about as varied as the number of witnesses. The jury fixed the damage at $1200, which is considered as being a victory for Mr. Newcom. The court is now trying the case of the State vs Queeman who is on trial for the alleged robbery of a section man from Aspinwall. The robbery is said to have taken place on a freight train between Arion and Denison. The attorneys are Conner and Shaw Van for the State and Cyrus Beard and Mr. Sutton of Omaha for the defense. This trial will be followed by that of Rooney who has been indicted for the same offense as that with which Queeman is charged. Court will adjourn Saturday. HIGH SCHOOL NOTES. This is the new yell which every H. S. student should know! H ya! Hoyal Hoyal Hoyal! Kill Kallie! Kaze Kozick! B. ckey! Iee! Whow! Gee Haw Hurrah for Denison! Rahl! Rahl! Rahl! Miss Rollinson has taken up the new plan of prose composition in the advance Latin classes. These lessons come every Monday. The H. S. class in elocution has but eight more lessons, but the members are satisfied that they have gained great help in the short time. At the close of the term there will be a pronunciation contest between the H. S. class and the general class at the college. Miss Raine is preparing a milk maid drill, a number of little girls from the sixth and seventh grades being the little maids. This drill will be given Nov. 11 at the school exhibition. The children of today take as much interest in needle work as did the children of years ago. Several girls are making quilts, sofa pillows and various other things for the exhibition. Last week was a fatal one for the H. S. record. On Monday there were three tardies and several since besides the many absences! This record does not compare very well with Council Bluffs or the Omaha High School. The football team played a game with Jefferson last Friday. The score was 5 to 0 in favor of Denison. Some think that Denison cannot win a game on home grounds but it can. The topics of trusts and expansion are among the important subjects that have been taken up the year in the general lessons. Mr. Failor has taken each up from both sides of the standpoint. Many other subjects have been given and the disturbances in the Transvaal have been carefully followed from the beginning. These lessons take but fifteen minutes of the day, yet they are the most interesting and instructive of any study and even if they do not convey knowledge to all they awaken an interest for the wordly events. COLLEGE CULLINGS. The second term of the college opens Nov. 12th. The first term has slipped away very rapidly. Mr. Whaley, of Dow City, is spending a few weeks in college. He has a school in Liberty Center. Mr. Eastman sang at the revival meetings at Manilla last Friday evening. The meetings are being held in the Presbyterian church and good crowds are in attendance. The musical people of Manilla are endeavoring to organize a chorus of 20 male voices and one of 30 women's voices, both choruses to be under the direction of Mr. Eastman. Mr. Ph. A. Schlumberger has returned from Omaha where he has purchased a nice clean stock of drugs and will soon have his drug store in operation.
