

Sime Brothers' Great New Year's Gift!

Men's Suits.

A nice well-made Suit, Fall Opening Price..... $2.75
 All wool Cassimere suit, the latest, opening price $6.00
 Fine gray all- wool suit, Fall Opening Price..... $8.00
 The very finest dress suit, Opening Price..... $9.00

Boys' Long Pants Suits.

A nice suit, Fall Opening Price..... $2.50
 An all wool Boy's suit, Fall Opening Price..... $4.00
 Boy's Knee Pants, actual 40c, 50c and 75c, neat and nobby, price only..... 23c

Children's Suits.

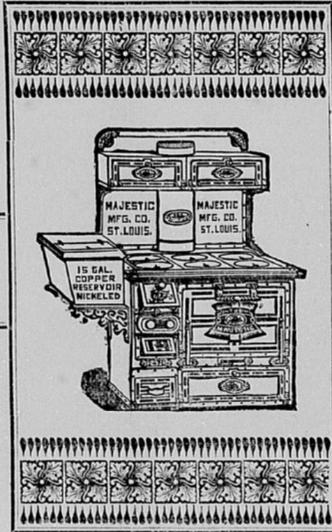

Good Suit, nicely made up, Fall Opening Price $1.00
 Strictly all wool Child's price, Opening Price..... $1.50
 250 Other Patterns From $2 to $4.

Men's Duck Coats.

We sell them as cheap as 75c.
 Heavy rubber lined duck Fall Opening Price..... $1.25
 Very best and largest selection in the city 75c to $2.50
 Wool Underwear at Cotton Prices--From 50c to $1.50.

A Wonderful Stroke! A Daring Dash For Liberality!

Every woman in Denison and vicinity knows about the celebrated Majestic Cooking Range. We know it cooks better with less heat and less fuel than other stove on the market.

A $50.00 Gift Absolutely Free!

A Grand Gift For the Winner!

Somebody Gets This Stove Free of Charge!

Every purchaser of $1 worth of goods receives a coupon. One of these numbers is going to win this No. 245 Majestic Range, with all cooking utensils, all complete. This will be awarded by impartial judges Jan. 1st, 1900. This range has top 33 inches wide, 29 inches deep, six 8-inch lids, 17-inch oven-13 inches high, 15-gallon nickle plate copper reservoir, connected as shown in the illustration, supplying all the hot water desired. Come in and see the stove. Read our prices, then come in and get the values.

Men's Single Pants.

100 styles—Fine Blue Worsted, per pair..... $1.25
 Heavy all wool Pants, price per pair..... $2.00
 Heavy Corduroy Pants, price per pair..... $2.00
 Every Guaranteed to Fit and Not Rip.

Men's Overcoats.

Our Two Great Leading Specials, Bought For the Fall Opening.
 All-wool black and blue Kersey Overcoats, Fall Opening Price..... $8.00
 The very finest all wool, black and blue Kersey Overcoat Fall Opening Price..... $10.00

Fancy Junior and Vestee Suits.

Every mother should see our beautiful line of fancy Vestee Suits, age from 4 to 10, a special Opening Price $1.25 $6.00

Gloves and Mittens.

100 styles—From a good heavy lined mitten at 25c per pair to the very best at $1.00 per pair,
 MEN'S WINTER CAPS—Cloth and Plush, in all styles, price from 25c to..... $1.50

Wool Underwear at Cotton

Prices--From 50c to $1.50.

Sime Brothers, = Exclusive Clothiers, = Denison, Iowa.

CHARTER OAK CHATS

D. H. McWilliams is having a furnace put in his house.
 Ed Goodfrend made a business trip to Arion Monday.
 Guy Raynor, of Denison, was a Sunday visitor at the Oak.
 Rev. and Mrs. Brown, of Mapleton, called on friends here Saturday.
 Miss Marie Barrett, of Dunlap, made a short visit here the last week.
 The Bachelor club gave another dance at Pithan's hall Friday evening.
 Peter Bahnsen visited over Sunday with his brother Louie at Logan.
 James and Lucey Healy, of Kenwood, visited friends here Friday.
 Mrs. F. Benning went to Council Bluffs Friday for a few days visit.
 A. Thorpe, of Manilla, visited over Sunday with his sister, Miss Mary.
 Mrs. C. F. Garrett visited at Arion and Dow City the last of the week.
 Miss E. Hillebrant, of Denison, was canvassing the Oak the last of the week.
 Miss Nellie Drake closed a successful term of school near Schleswig Friday.
 Miss Hattie Holmes has been visiting the last few days with friends in Denison.
 Geo. Knight is transacting business at Coon Rapids and other places this week.
 Mrs. C. H. Weed returned Monday from a visit with her daughter at North Bend, Neb.
 Frank Kemp came from Manning and Orem from Oto to spend Sunday with their parents.
 Mrs. O. M. Criswell returned to her home at Denison Friday after a few days visit with friends here.
 Earl Jones took the train Monday noon for California to join his parents, who moved there last spring.
 L. A. Romans returned from Colfax the last of the week. His trip does not seem to have benefited him very much.
 Mrs. Jobkin and daughter Hannah went to Dubuque the last of the week. Miss Hannah will remain there to attend a sister school.
 "Grandpa and Grandma" Knight went to Council Bluffs Friday and will visit their children there and a daughter at Tekamah during the most of the winter.
 Mrs. D. O. Johnson and children went to Omaha Monday. Her niece, Miss Cecil Matthews, of Omaha, who has been teaching near here, accompanied her.

Mrs. W. W. Talcott and Mrs. Geo. Rae, of Dow City, visited over Sunday with their cousin, Mrs. Kavan, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harding.

H. T. Ankeny, of Laurel, Nebraska, is visiting his sister, Mrs. G. W. Holmes. He was a delegate to the Farmers' convention at Boston, Mass. His niece, Miss Julia Davis, of Clinton, is with him and will accompany him to his home in Nebraska.
 The 50th birthday of Abe Hart was celebrated last Wednesday at his home three miles west of town. Among the guests were Mrs. Smith, of Chicago, and Mrs. Criswell, of Denison, sisters of Mr. Hart. Among his presents were a Morris chair and a Meerscham pipe.

METHODIST NOTES.

Usual service at the church next Sunday morning and evening.
 The pastor has returned and filled the pulpit as usual Sunday morning.
 The official board of the church met Monday evening and transacted some important business.
 The Epworth League was well attended last Sabbath evening. Miss Mulhern was the leader.
 Rev. L. C. McEwen preached an excellent sermon at the union service in the M. E. church Sunday evening.
 The fall district conference meets at Lake City Nov. 8, 9 and 10. Dr. Mason, the colored orator, will speak in the evening of the 9th.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.

A large audience was present at the morning services last Sabbath, also an increase at Sabbath school.
 The Junior Endeavorers enjoyed their organ Sunday for the first time and are justly proud of their efforts.
 Rev. W. H. McEwen of Battle Creek, Iowa, a brother of the pastor, will preach next Sabbath morning and evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, the Allwise Father has called into his presence the aged father of our esteemed neighbor E. K. Pachin, therefore be it
 RESOLVED, by Deloit camp No. 5581 M. W. A., that we extend to neighbor Pachin and family our sympathy in their loss of a loving father and husband.
 RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions be printed in the Denison newspapers, and spread upon our records.
 STANLEY BROWNE,
 M. McKIM,
 H. L. NIXON,
 Committee.

KIRON CHRONICLES

Miss Lillie Strahn is home to stay for some time.
 Business called N. P. Swanson to Omaha the first of the week.
 Miss Amanda Michaelson returned to Denison on Thursday after a few weeks' stay at the parental home here.
 Rev. A. Abrahamson, of Oelwein, Iowa, visited a few days last week at the home of his brother-in-law, F. L. Johnson.
 Miss Bena Winstrom came home from Odebolt recently and is spending a few weeks at the home of her brother P. A. Winstrom.
 The Western Union Telegraph Co. has had a large crew at work the past week putting up the telegraph line along the new railroad.
 Miss Annie Berg left on Friday for Colorado to visit friends and to remain over the winter to enjoy the climate and scenery in that state.
 Hansen & Co. will wind up their closing out sale going on now with an auction of the remaining goods on Nov. 9th. Albert Tequist, of Odebolt, will cry the sale.
 Next Tuesday is the day of election. We urge every voter to do his duty and to go and cast his vote for men and principle according to his convictions on political lines. No citizen should stay away from the poll and we believe that no true citizen will.
 Miss Lydia Benson closed a very successful term of school, four miles west of Kiron, on Friday last, being the second term in that district taught by her. We understand her efficient service has been appreciated and she has been secured to teach the fall term.
 The republicans of Stockholm township have nominated the following for the township offices to be voted on at the election next Tuesday: For trustee—August Schurke; for assessor—Z. T. Nixon; for justice of the peace—F. L. Johnson. Each one of these candidates is qualified with required capacity to fill most ably these offices and their election is assured.
 Kiron school closed last Friday with Clara Johnson as teacher. Amy Anderson's school, four miles east of here, ended on Friday, also the school taught by Miss Alma Hanson, two miles south of Kiron. Good satisfaction has been rendered by these three teachers in their respective schools.
 We are informed that the Boyer Valley Banking Co. will open a bank at Kiron not later than Dec. 1. This company is composed of the owners of the First National Bank of Odebolt. Henry Hanson is the president, F. B. Stratford, Vice-President, and W. F. Bay, Secretary. The cashier has not yet been appointed.—Odebolt Chronicle.

Since that item appeared Mr. William J. Sandberg has been appointed cashier. Mr. Sandberg will spend a few weeks at Odebolt to peer into the mysteries of the banking business. We are most pleased that our efficient and deserving friend S. secured the position.

AN ARION LETTER.

Will Schouten spent Sunday in town.
 Mrs. Geo. Copeland went to Omaha Friday.
 Don Talcott spent Sunday with his parents.
 Al Talcott spent Sunday with Arion relatives.
 C. W. Underhill is spending a few days at home.
 Mrs. E. N. Richards returned from Omaha on Monday.
 Calla Richards attended the lecture in Denison Friday night.
 Tom Murrey is rejoicing over the arrival of a fine girl Sunday.
 Mr. Cummings and Miss Wille spent Monday p. m., with the Richards family.
 D. J. Butler has painted his residence and built a picket fence around his grounds.
 Morris McHenry was in town Saturday setting the grade stakes for the new walks.
 Mrs. C. E. Clark of Osceola, Neb., is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. L. M. Coon.
 Ada Sewell who has been spending a few days at the Richard's home, returned to Denison on Saturday.
 Claus Hanson has purchased the Will Johnson property on Main street and will remodel it into a residence.
 Andy Burns who had typhoid fever left for his home in Chicago last Wednesday. He lost 36 pounds in weight but seems to be good as new.
 Mr. Kennedy was called to his wife in South Dakota on Wednesday. Mrs. Kennedy is very low and the doctors have little hopes of her recovery.
 The Central carpenters began work on our new depot Monday morning. The structure is to be 24x85 ft. with 2 waiting rooms, fine office and large freight room.
 Sheriff Bell was in town Sunday looking after two men who appeared to be insane. One of these men was found by H. Wingrove on Saturday night and it took five men to get him to Arion and lodged in the cooler.

HAPPENINGS AT VAIL.

Lulu Maguire spent Sunday in Omaha.
 Jud Gary of Denison was a Vail visitor Sunday.
 John Detter shipped three cars of stock Sunday.
 John Knowles was a visitor Saturday at Denison.
 John Kachuba of West Side was a Vailite Sunday.
 Nellie McAlpin of Odebolt is visiting with Vail friends.
 Maggie Short visited Saturday with West Side friends.
 Lizzie Casey visited over Sunday with Denison friends.
 Attorney W. C. Saul of Carroll called on Attorney O'Hare Monday.
 Sears McHenry and family visited at the Fitch home last Saturday.
 James Harkins of Clinton visited Vail relatives and friends Monday.
 The Misses Heffelfinger and Smith of Carroll visited Vail friends Saturday.
 Wm. Flaherty of the west end was looking after political fences here last Friday.
 Dennis O'Leary came up from Omaha Monday to attend the Quirk funeral.
 The McHenrys have had the Traders Bank fitted out with a complete burglar alarm system.
 Gus Nelson, section foreman at Manning, came up Saturday and is moving his family to that place.
 Mrs. John Ainsworth of Denison visited Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Shurtliff.
 The Hull speech Thursday night was pronounced the best political speech ever delivered in Vail.
 Johnie Quirk died Sunday morning from injuries received from a fall as reported in Friday's Review. His injuries were not considered so serious and on Saturday he was able to be up some, but during the night he suffered quite a great deal and died Sunday morning about 2 a. m. It was a severe blow to his relatives and many friends. Jack was an industrious young man, had been in the employ of B. O'Donnell as tinner for several years. He had a host of friends, being always jolly and kind to every one. His funeral was held Monday at 3 p. m. from the St. Ann's church where one of the largest funerals occurred ever held in Vail, to pay their last respects to one who will be greatly missed. The wife and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Asa Brown entered school Monday.
 Miss Plimpton visited the Physic class Friday afternoon.
 Miss Mamie Sievers was a high school visitor Monday forenoon.
 The chorus will rehearse with the orchestra next Wednesday night.
 A map of Greece was required of each member of the history class last week.
 There are about sixty high school pupils who will attend the lectures this winter.
 The "A" and "B" classes have been having spell downs on the principal parts of verbs for several days. A good review along this line was needed.
 The pupils of Miss Bryan's and Mrs. Ainsworth's rooms had a quarter day vacation Friday afternoon each having a record of fifty stars. Miss Bryan visited the high school and Mrs. Ainsworth visited Miss Raine's room.
 A return foot ball game was played with Harlan Saturday afternoon. It was a fine game, though some of the boys got a little scratched up. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of Denison. This is the third victory for the team, and they begin to feel that they can really play. There will be a game sometime this week with the college the receipts of which will probably clear the high school of all debt. Their challenge to Sac City has been declined.
 A Growing State—New Towns in Iowa
 Upon the recent extensions of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway in Western Iowa its Land Department has located several new towns as follows:
 NORTHAM—In Buena Vista county 9 miles south of Storm Lake.
 LYTTON—In Sac county 7 miles east of Sac City.
 NEMAHA—In Sac county 12 miles northwest of Sac City.
 LAVINIA—In Calhoun county 6 miles west of Rockwell City.
 VARINA—In Pochantans county 7 miles north of Fondak.
 These towns are located in the finest corn belt and healthiest stock raising district in Iowa, each surrounded by rich and well settled territory.
 If you want business and money now is your opportunity to obtain both by procuring choice lots in these future cities.
 The Railway Company has about 100 other town sites in various states traversed by this great line and will gladly furnish you information concerning same if you will write to H. G. HAUGAN, Land Commissioner, or C. A. PABLEY, General Land Agent, C. M. & St. P. R'y. Co., Milwaukee, Wis.

Save Time and Shrink By Shipping Your Hogs and Cattle to South Omaha.