

DENISON AND VICINITY

The republican gain in Crawford was 218 over last year.

Alf. Wright transacted business in Vall yesterday afternoon.

The Mauritz brothers of Kiron made Denison a pleasant call this week.

Born on Friday, November 10, to Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Gary, a son. We congratulate Carroll county has done itself proud by electing A. T. Bennett, republican, for representative.

Messrs. R. A. Romans and Lew Nicholson went to Charter Oak on business Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. B. F. Philbrook gave a one o'clock lunch this afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. W. Campbell.

Messenger Rauch, of the American Express Co., was in Denison between trains Wednesday afternoon.

The Misses Lulu Maguire and Lizzie Casey and Messrs. Joe Duff, Wm. Maguire, Dave Kelly and Ed. Sheridan attended the club-dance here last evening.

The REVIEW is having its hands full lately taking care of its advertising and job work patronage. Let the good work go on.

The depot officials state that they know nothing of a change of time on the Boyer Valley line to take place next Sunday as reported by the Bulletin.

Mrs. J. P. Conner is suffering from an abscess on the back of her head. During her illness her sister, Mrs. Morgan, of Dunlap has been in Denison attending her.

Messrs. Randall and Vette who are now at work in Schleswig, came over to Denison to vote last Tuesday. They just got in in time to increase Shaw's majority in Denison.

The cantata at the opera house to-night promises to be excellent. Much time has been spent in its preparation and Prof. Eastman has done good work in drilling the children.

The figures in the First National bank advertisement should read, surplus $25,000, deposits, 425,000, loans $450,000. The figures indicate how the bank's business has been increasing.

Philippine exhibit at the opera house tonight. John Barge and Chas. Cramer have loaned their relics to the school exhibit. This is one of the most interesting features of the entire exhibit.

The Bulletin is seeking to harmonize its party by calling every democrat who did not support Blume and Flaherty, a skunk. This is good politics; and will tend to bring peace and brotherly love into democratic ranks.

Shaw has broken the record receiving the largest majority ever given a candidate for governor of Iowa. Crawford may well feel proud of Gov. Shaw and proud of the fact that it contributed a gain of 490 to his majority.

Did you read the page advertisement of Rex Stock Food in our last issue? The testimonials published are genuine and the figures prove that the stock food is a paying investment for farmers. Mr. F. J. McCormick will be glad to tell you all about it.

The Bulletin attacks Governor Shaw very bitterly for his talk to the soldiers on Monday night. There has never been a time in the last forty years when a man could talk patriotism without making some democrat mad, but Shaw's immense vote in Denison proves that all democrats are not of that mind.

Penelope club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. T. J. Kelly. The meeting was well attended and the ladies enjoyed a social as well as busy afternoon. Mrs. J. W. Campbell was a welcome guest and Mrs. Kahl was unanimously elected a member of the club. Mrs. Chas. Voss assisted Mrs. Kelly in serving a dainty lunch.

A letter from Washington informs us that Miss Meyers has just been enjoying a most pleasant visit from her friend, Miss Lillian Garrison. During Miss Garrison's stay at the nation's capital she was twice invited to sing at concerts given in the new congressional library building and on both occasions acquitted herself with great credit.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents in Denison on Wednesday evening, November 10, Mr. Jasper Woodland and Miss Grace Aylesworth. The groom is an enterprising young business man who has many friends in the community, the bride is one of Denison's best and most capable young ladies. We wish for them every happiness in their new relation.

Rev. Father M. J. Farrelly is spending the week in northern Iowa and Minnesota settling up some business affairs prior to a long vacation which he expects to take next year. In January he intends leaving for Nice in Southern France, where he will spend the winter months. During the summer he will travel about the continent, returning to Denison in the fall. Father Farrelly has been a most faithful pastor and well deserves a vacation.

THE MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

With this issue we present to our readers the third publication of our Literary Supplement and Monthly Magazine. To readers of fiction this will be a thing of pure delight, as its pages are brim full of good, short stories. The serial "In His Steps" is growing in interest with each number and we know our readers will be interested in the trials and triumphs of those who asked themselves the question, "What Would Jesus Do?" It is with special pleasure that we present the magazine this month under a specially designed heading. This artistic heading was designed for us by Prof. Rasmisel, of the Denison Normal College and is an excellent specimen of his superior workmanship and ability. The monthly magazine has become justly popular with our readers and has come to stay. The December issue will be a double number and a new and exciting serial story will be found in its pages.

A handsome little daughter came on Wednesday, Nov. 8, to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kinker.

Mayor Kemming is improving his lots in east Denison by having them filled with dirt, taken from the street adjacent.

Rev. D. D. Proper, secretary of the Baptist Home Missions Society for the western states, will preach at the First Baptist church next Sabbath morning. The occasion promises to be a most interesting one and a full attendance is urged.

It is reported that the Northwestern is about to add two new trains to its already superior train service. We trust that the Northwestern will soon see the wisdom of stopping all its trains at Denison. There is not another city on its line between Boone and Council Bluffs which originates so much business for the road. Just at what time the new trains will pass through Denison is not known at present.

The last campaign should teach republicans some lessons, the first of which is that there is nothing gained by doing nothing. In those townships where republican literature and speakers were sent there were large gains, but in those townships where a still hunt was relied on nothing was gained. There is nothing in republicanism to be ashamed of and the light of truth and good government should not be "hid under a bushel." The field in which to work is the democratic townships, and the way to work is to try to prove to our democratic friends that their own interests and the interests of the country will be better served by voting the republican ticket. We do not believe there is a place in Crawford county where a speaker of either party will not receive an attentive and respectful hearing. We do not believe there is a man who is not open to conviction. All the clergy in the world have failed in 1900 years to bring everyone to Christianity, so republicans need not feel disheartened if they fail to convince everyone, but the seed will grow and multiply and some day we shall win.

The REVIEW has no time or space to answer all the dirty flings in this weeks Bulletin. We shall take pleasure in discussing some of these matters next week. The charges of "boodle" are unfounded, and maliciously false, they are equally insulting to republicans and democrats. If a republican offered a bribe some democrat must have taken it, surely it was not necessary for republicans to buy republican votes. The charges made by the Bulletin are so serious that if true the guilty parties should be indicted and punished. Not a guilty man should escape. The REVIEW will shield no man guilty of bribe taking or bribe giving. The facts are that no such corruption took place. The Bulletin gang received a severe rebuke in the last election. If the normal majority is 420 democratic as the Bulletin claims, at least 150 democrats must have voted against Blume. Does the Bulletin mean that these 150 democrats sold their votes?

Mr. E. S. Plimpton returned this morning from the sad journey to the death bed of his mother. Upon learning of his mother's sickness, Mr. Plimpton started immediately for the old Rhode Island home, telegraphing ahead that he was coming. Mother love, that greatest power on earth, sustained the weak and dying body till once again the mother's eyes might rest upon her first born child. We can imagine the hungry mother heart sustaining the agonies of pain, counting off the hours and minutes before the son's arrival. With the evening shadows came the son she had loved so long and faithfully. How that meeting must have robbed death of its sting. There was a revival of strength and life and then as the excitement of joy passed the soul quietly and peacefully drifted to eternity.

Mrs. C. E. Plimpton was 87 years of age, she died at her home in Pawtucket, R. I., on the evening of Nov. 1st. The funeral services were held on the following Friday. Mrs. Plimpton left four children, three sons and one daughter. Mr. E. S. Plimpton and Mr. Silas Plimpton, two of her sons so well known here, have the sympathy of our community in their grief. Thus closed a long and well spent Christian life.

PIONEER CITIZEN DEAD

Mr. L. C. Goodrich Passes Away After Long Illness.

AN ESTEEMED CITIZEN.

L. C. Goodrich for Forty-five Years a Resident of Denison, Dies on Thursday, Nov. 9 -Funeral Tomorrow.

Mr. Leverett C. Goodrich, one of Denison's pioneer citizens, died at his home on Thursday, November 9. Mr. Goodrich had been in feeble health for nearly two years his invalidism dating from an attack of the gripe. During these many months his health has been bad but it was not until the last six weeks that he was confined to his bed.

Mr. Goodrich was not only a pioneer but he was one of the most active men in building up the new country into a flourishing commonwealth. He was careful, prudent and industrious, his farm was a model not only of good husbandry but of genial hospitality.

It was in times of reverses and misfortunes, however that his character should itself in bold relief. He cheerfully made the best of ill fortune and by his fortitude and bravery gave an example to all. His name has always been associated with the strictest honor and integrity.

He was unpretentious and modest, but kindly and charitable in all his dealings. He was one of the men who bore his part in life's battle actively and well, good fortune did not make him vain nor misfortune sour his kindness. Our entire community will mourn with the faithful wife and daughters and his memory will live long in our hearts.

Leverett C. Goodrich was a son of Isaac B. Goodrich, one of the first men to settle in Crawford county. He was born in Kalamazoo, Mich., April 17, 1838, and came to Denison with his father's family in 1854. In April 1855 he was married to Miss Rachel Turman and their third of a century of married life has been one of mutual helpfulness and trust. Three daughters were born to them, Mrs. Della Der of Le Mars, Iowa, Mrs. Margaret DeWolf of Toronto, Canada, and Miss Jessie, who has remained at home as a loyal helper and companion. Soon after his marriage Mr. Goodrich began work on a 45 acre tract of unimproved land in Denison township, under his careful management this grew to a farm of large proportions. The latter years of his life have been spent in Denison and he dies having the respect of all.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church, Rev. J. B. Harris officiating.

SCHLUMBERGER'S PHARMACY.

Mr. Ph. A. Schlumberger will open his new drug store for business tomorrow. The store is one of the most attractive in appearance of any in the city. Mr. Schlumberger has spared no expense in refitting the room. The front is handsomely grained, the walls beautifully papered with blue tints against which the white fixtures show very prettily. The store is filled with an absolutely fresh stock of goods, and it is one of the largest stocks ever brought to Denison. Mr. Schlumberger has been fortunate in engaging the services of Mr. Harry Luney as clerk, he is well known, popular and obliging. Mr. Schlumberger is an expert pharmacist and chemist and with his pretty new store we prophesy for him abundant success.

GRAND METEORIC DISPLAY.

Two Hundred Thousand Miles of Leonids Will Be Visible.

Quite beyond the conception of the human mind is the spectacle that will be witnessed by nearly the entire civilized world on the night of Nov. 13 next, when two hundred thousand miles of meteorites traversing the heavens in a fixed course will rush past the earth in their never ending voyage through space.

Upon coming in contact with the atmosphere of the earth and subject to its gravity, countless millions of these flying particles will fall and become ignited with the rapidity of their flight. The blue canopy of the heavens will be lighted by great lines of vivid fire crossing each other in every direction, while dazzling globes of multi-colored flame will add variety to the awful splendor of this rain of fire, which is one of the grandest spectacles of all history. The fact that they ignite and dissolve on contact with the atmosphere here is all that saves the earth from destruction by them.

This spectacle, which will be visible in nearly the whole surface of the globe, is the great fall of the meteorites known as the Leonids, so called from the fact that the radiant point of the November meteors is in the constellation Leo. It occurs regularly every thirty-three years, the last appearance being in November, 1866, when it was viewed in various parts of the world and led many people to believe that it was but the beginning of the earth's destruction by fire, the end of the world.
