 Miss Frances French has just completed her term of school in Hanover township. Her work was so acceptable that she was offered the school for a year.
 Messrs. Peter Jebe and Johannes Rosacker, of Ruthven, Iowa, visited Mr. Jebe's brother-in-law, Mr. Jurgen Meggers, of Hanover township, last week.
 Rev. Judd will be in Denison on next Sunday and preach in the Episcopal church both morning and evening. Rev. Judd is an able man and a good audience should greet him.
 At the Baptist church on Sabbath evening the pastor conducts the B. Y. P. U. meeting, and with special music in the church service following preaches on "The Soul's Tragedy." All invited.
 An altercation between a couple of railroad workmen took place on our streets Wednesday afternoon in the presence of a good sized audience, but one "saw" it no arrests were

NEW COUNTY ATTORNEY.

As Mr. O'Hare was elected to fill a vacancy he takes his office at once and he is now county attorney. We understand that he will retain his office at Vail and that Mr. Geo. Richardson will have charge of such matters as may arise at the county seat between sessions of the court.

GENERAL GORDON'S LECTURE.

The lecture delivered by Gen. Jno. B. Gordon on the "Last Days of the Confederacy" was in the nature of a camp fire talk rather than an instructive lecture. Many of the General's stories were witty and must have been particularly entertaining to the old soldiers present. His nicely balanced eulogies, first of a Union and then of a Confederate general were skillfully handled. The lecture took well, and was amusing, but we do not feel that anyone could have derived much benefit or information therefrom. Many of the stories which the general told, were old timers, which have been told at every reunion for the past third of a century. The editor of the REVIEW comes from old fashioned abolition stock and while willing to honor the personal bravery of the men and generals of the South, we cannot forget that they were wrong, and that the final sum of what they fought for, was simply the right to hold human beings in the bonds of slavery. They may all have been Christian gentlemen but we fail to appreciate a Christianity which sanctioned human slavery.

Mrs. J. T. Newcom was a Denison visitor yesterday. Her daughter, Miss Jennie, is attending college and is very much pleased with that institution of learning.

The Odebolt Clarion ceased to exist with this week's issue. The Sac City Democrat purchased the subscription list, and the plant will be removed to a more lucrative field.

Mr. John Wiese has moved from his former residence which will be occupied by Mr. Peter Sander, Jr., to the residence owned by Fred Evers in north Denison.

Mr. Sam H. Coles of Glenwood, Iowa, and Mr. Chas. B. Guthrie of Omaha were the guests of Misses Beryl and Pearl Coles this week. Mr. Coles is on his way to Arizona where he will spend the winter.

Mr. Byron Schwartz is again a welcome visitor in Denison after a year's absence in Montana. He expects to visit here and at Kansas City until about Christmas time and then to return to the far west.

A friend tells us that he does not consider it gambling to bet with the democrats. He won five boxes of cigars on election but says that not a single smoke has materialized as yet.

Mr. Drybread has returned from his visit to the eastern part of the state and is now ready to wait upon all customers. His wife and family arrived on the Thursday afternoon train and will make Denison their home.

Mrs. Hanora Jones, mother of Alderman J. P. Jones, met with a serious accident last Saturday by falling down the cellar stairway at her home. Although considerably bruised and injured she is now able to be about.

Mr. Essex has moved his family from Mr. Theim's where they have been temporarily residing to the house owned by Mr. Thos. Miller on Washington Avenue. Mr. Essex is a civil engineer in the employ of the Northwestern.

H. W. Boeck of near Manilla was in Denison on Wednesday. In the evening he took the train for Davenport where he will visit a few weeks. H. W. says he would feel lost without the REVIEW and has ordered it forwarded to him while in Davenport.

The Germania society should lay a walk of some description over the opening along the south side of Germania hall. Three or four planks would be sufficient for a temporary walk and a great convenience to people who have to travel on that side of the street.

We are informed that it is the intention of the Electric Light Co. to run the lights all night beginning next Monday. We are of the opinion this could be done the year round provided the lights were metered at a slight increase to the company, it certainly would be a great convenience to the patrons.

Mr. Theo. Kuhl, treasurer elect, has been in Denison the past few days looking over the work of the office. He has wisely concluded to retain the services of Treasurer Lorenzen for the first six months of his term. The board of supervisors has raised the amount of the bond required from $90,000 to $100,000 and that of the deputy from $10,000 to $15,000.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Kuehnle was the scene of a merry cinct party given on Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Zeising and Miss Armbruster. Eight tables of players indulged in the friendly contest over the delusive five spots, and this was followed by a delicate luncheon of ice cream and cake. The company adjourned just in time to witness the beginning of the meteoric shower—had there been one.

After April 1st, no pay—no paper.

"The Boys" speak to the people through these columns in this issue.

Rev. R. C. Bond of Milton, Junction, Wisconsin, who is in his 57th year, arrived in Denison on Wednesday of this week and will make his home with his son, Dr. L. L. Bond.

Remember the big, eight page twice a-week REVIEW and the Monthly Magazine is only $2.00 a year. 936 pages of news and short stories and clean, instructive reading for 200 cents. No extra price to secure all the reading matter you need.

Paul Will has removed with his family to Holstein, Iowa, at which place he will make his future home. While in business in Denison Mr. Will made many friends by his gentlemanly conduct who wish for him a prosperous future.

Henry Meeves has sold his pacing mare, Posey Follette, to D. W. Waldron at Glidden, receiving the neat sum of $700.00 in hard cash for the animal. Posey is an honest racer, a gentle carriage driver, and one of the fastest horses ever owned in Denison.

Mr. Wilcox, the laundryman, expects to get moved into his new building on Broadway next Monday. His business has increased so much the past year that his present quarters are entirely too small, and he is anxiously awaiting the completion of his new building.

Conductor Mason of the Boyer Valley, will soon sever his connection with the C. & N. W. and go to New Orleans. From New Orleans he will go to St. Charles, La., where he will visit a number of relatives. Mr. Mason's smiling countenance will be greatly missed by patrons of the Boyer Valley line.

From the Vail Observer we note that the happy home of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Milford township was the scene of a very enjoyable party on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are very highly respected people and anyone receiving an invitation to their home is assured of a good time.

Mr. E. C. S. Brainard of Ogden, Utah formerly agent of the C. & N. W. R'y at this place, was in the city this week, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. King. Mr. Brainard has property interests here which demand his attention from time to time and he is always welcomed by his many old friends.

Mr. Stewart McCloy, one of the Central engineers located at Denison, has just returned from his "Old Kentucky Home" where he has been for a visit. Mr. McCloy has made numerous friends during his stay in Denison—in fact no social function is complete without his presence—and all are pleased at his return.

On Saturday Mr. E. C. Sage will ship a car load of heavy draft horses averaging 1600 pounds each, to the pinceries of north Wisconsin. Some of these horses are of his own raising and some he has purchased in the country. Mr. Sage will go with the shipment, which will be made to Grand Rapids, Wis. There is always a good market for heavy draft teams.

Mr. D. B. Pollard, of Oak Park, Ill., has been visiting in Denison and vicinity for the past week. Mr. Pollard owns a fine farm in Jackson township, about a mile and a quarter from the new town of Boyer. Mr. Pollard is much pleased with the growth and prosperity of the county and has subscribed for the REVIEW in order to keep posted on what occurs here.

Dr. Albert Phillips, who has had a successful practice at Vail, Iowa, for the last three years, has come to Sioux City with his family to locate, desiring a larger field for the practice of his profession than a smaller town affords. He will probably take an office in the Brown block. Dr. Phillips formerly lived in Sioux City, and has a large number of friends here.—Sioux City Journal.

We would recommend Bro. Caswell to the Denison Normal college, where he can obtain a thorough education in some of the elementary branches in which he is deficient. He might learn how to spell "choleric" and the meaning of "juxtaposition" and many other things which would give him sufficient knowledge to begin a journalistic career. Above all, if someone could teach him how to behave like a gentleman it would not be amiss. One would think Mr. Romans could have gotten a better man for the money.

E. S. Plimpton handed in his resignation as chorister of the Presbyterian church and superintendent of the Sabbath school last Sunday. Mr. Plimpton expects to leave Schuyler soon. He will go to Salida, Colorado, where, in partnership with J. P. McCollough, he will conduct a department store. Schuyler citizens will greatly miss both the Plimpton and McCollough families from their midst, but our loss will be Salida's gain, and the best wishes for success and happiness in their new home from a host of friends and old-time acquaintances will go with them. Mr. Plimpton will leave here about December 1, and his family, together with Mr. McCollough and his family, will follow about the first of the year.—Schuyler, Neb., News.
 The above relates to E. S. Plimpton, Jr., son of Mr. E. S. Plimpton of Denison.

Professor and Mrs. Frank Hoffman of West Side visited in Denison and took in the school exhibit last Saturday.

Mr. F. S. Stone and wife of Dow City were the guests of W. J. Scriver and wife last evening and attended the Gordon lecture.

About twenty young friends of Theo. Holling were entertained at the home of Mrs. Gregory on Tuesday evening and a most enjoyable time was had.

Miss Grace Wagoner returned to her home in Arkansas yesterday, having spent the summer in Denison, the guest of Mrs. Shaw Van. While here Miss Wagoner's health has improved considerably, and she was able to visit among friends, who were pleased to meet her.
