THREE HOLD UPS.

Two or three holdups were reported to have taken place last night but the only one that has been brought to trial up to this time, was in the case of Parker H. Dexter, complaining witness, and against Robert Peckering and Frank Healy charged with robbery. It seems that Dexter was in company with the other two and they knowing he had money on his person, induced him to walk down the track with them and then held him up taking three dollars in money, a silver watch and a telescope.

Policemen Retman and Muir were notified and they started in search of the men and finally succeeded in finding Haley hiding around a building near by. Seeing the marshal and others approaching, it is claimed by persons in the company that he snapped his revolver 3 times at them but each time it missed fire. Mr. Retman then turned his bull's-eye lantern on him covering him with his revolver while Marshal John McClellan went up and searched him and found a razor and the watch. He was then taken up and shortly after Robert Peckering and Frank Sullivan were also arrested. It is thought that Peckering and Sullivan are guilty of carrying away a trunk, that was on the trucks on the platform and breaking it open. The trunk was carried about 300 feet west of Mrs. Wm. Hagen's place and there broken open and the contents scattered around. The articles were placed back in the trunk and returned to the depot. Peckering and Haley were brought before Justice Montgomery and bound over to the next term of court on a $300 bond and the complaining witness Dexter was bound over on a $100 bond. County Attorney O'Hare appeared for the prosecution.

Frank Haley also held up young Clarence Erickson but did not get anything from him.

Another case is reported in which Edward Enright and Mr. Powell were returning home from the show and as they were passing the West Denison Mills a man jumped out and grabbed Mr. Enright by the arm and told him he had to go with him to the I. O. yards. Mr. Enright resisted and the man struck him over the head with a stone. Mr. Powell ran as soon as the man seized Mr. Enright as he had considerable money on his person. Mr. Enright is confined to his home on account of the injuries received.

DEATH OF ALBERT M. CURTIS.

Mr. Albert M. Curtis died at his home in Jackson township, Nov. 14th, after an invalidism of four years. Mr. Curtis was born in Ohio June 17, 1851, and came to Clinton county, Iowa, with his parents when a boy. He lived in Clinton until 1874, at which time he came to Crawford county and bought land in Jackson township, where he lived until the time of his death. He leaves a wife, a daughter, a son, a mother and two brothers, who sincerely mourn his departure.

"SEE HERE, SHAW!"

A company of Indians called on Governor Shaw the other day to ask him to intercede for them for what they consider their rights. They object to the compulsion recently adopted by the government to induce them to attend school. One girl about eighteen years old was shut up in the school and a test case was made in the courts, the courts deciding that she must go to school, although she had married; it being shown that the marriage was largely contracted to prevent the school business. The Indians strenuously object to the school and asked the governor to see that their children over fourteen, at least, were not compelled to go. The governor asked the interpreter to say to them that he might consider the advisability of seeing if those over fourteen could not be left out of school if the Indians would see to it that those under fourteen should go. The interpreter, in starting the conversation for the Indians, translated their greeting as: "See here, Shaw!" which created a laugh in the company. The school for the Tama Indians is located at Toledo, and this has been criticized. It is understood that the school is not for the Tama Indians alone, but for all the Indians who wish to attend. For that reason it was put in town instead of on the reservation.

Miss Effa Mae Tuttle finished her fall term at the D. N. C. and is now taking a six weeks' vacation at her home in Greenfield, Iowa.

Mr. Emil Hensen of Montana arrived to-day from Philadelphia, Penn. with his wife. They will visit here a short time before going on to Montana.

Ex Governor Drake added $28,000 to his already princely gifts to Drake University. There are very few men as generous and kind hearted as General Drake. His character is so unselfish that selfish men have not been able to comprehend it. They sought to find ulterior motives for many of the good deeds which sprang from a charitable heart as spontaneously as the cooling waters which spring from the heart of the woodland hillside. He is the most generous kind and lovable man we ever met and the pleasant memories of what we fondly hope is a mutual friendship shall abide with us through all the years.

Charley Christensen has decided to work at the barber business the coming winter. His brother, J. D., has added a third chair to his shop and Chas. will assist him.

Miss Anna Faus returned to her home at Cherokee on Thursday. During her stay in Denison Miss Faus made many friends, who trust she may at some future time find opportunity to again visit our city.

Mr. Riepen has disposed of the German Methodist church property recently purchased by him. Mr. Hugo Gebert and Dr. Philbrook each purchased a lot and the church building was bought by Mr. Oren McAhrea.

On Sabbath morning at the Baptist church there will be special music in recognition of Thanksgiving season. In the evening the pastor will continue the series on "Sidelights from the Book of Genesis", treating the "Call of Abraham."

Miss Anna McCarthy is expected to return home on Saturday from Chicago, where she has been receiving treatment for the injury received in falling through a sidewalk in east Denison. While she has improved quite materially, she has by no means fully recovered, only being able to move her arm and hand a little.

We are informed the next number on the lecture course will be the Bendix Concert Co., which will appear at Opera House on Saturday evening, December 2d. This company was secured at a very heavy expense, and those in charge think it the best entertainment of the season. Reserve your tickets Thursday preceding the above date.

The city has been comparatively in darkness the best part of this week owing to a break down at the power house. These mishaps are unavoidable, and yet seem to occur just at the wrong time. On Tuesday evening just as we were getting the REVIEW to press the lights went out and we were compelled to secure lamps. Mr. Wiggant kindly gave us the use of one of his gas burners.

In another column will be found a notice of the sale of Mr. C. Powis, which takes place on his farm in Paradise township on Wednesday, Dec. 6th, 1899. Mr. Powis has some excellent property for sale and no doubt will realize good prices. While in Denison he took occasion to add his name to our ever increasing list of subscribers.

Ed. Steensen, who returned from a visit to Montana recently, is very enthusiastic over that country and thinks some of moving there. He says the cattle and sheep raised are of the finest and no corn is required to feed them. While he owns a nice 180 acre farm six miles from Denison, it is his opinion that the chances for him to make more money are better in Montana. We shall hate to lose so good a citizen as Ed, and trust that he may return to Crawford later.

On Wednesday, Messrs. W. W. Cushman, Carl Gronau and Samuel Luney returned from a land buying trip up in North Dakota and northern Minnesota. While the gentlemen were very much pleased with the land in Minnesota, they decided to try North Dakota, where Messrs. Gronau and Luney each purchased three sections of land and secured option thirty-three thousand acres more. The land is in the vicinity of Jamestown, in Sutsman county and the prices range from $250 to $800 per acre. Grass is nice and green the year round and stock requires no grain. The gentlemen think they have a good bargain, and feel repaid for their trip.

The repertoire company under the direct management of Frank E. Long, which has been playing in this city all week, is a very good organization. The members are all ladies and gentlemen, both on and off the stage. Their acting and jokes are entirely free from all vulgar sayings, and merit the attendance of our best people. All the plays are new and of a refined nature. On Monday evening "California", a very strong piece, was presented to a large audience, Tuesday evening "The Middlemen" held the boards; Wednesday evening "Louisiana" was given and Thursday "The Sunny South." Tonight "The Man from Boston", said to be the finest play in the repertoire, and Saturday afternoon a matinee will be given. Mr. Long is to be congratulated upon having so good a company and the REVIEW heartily recommends them to the amusement loving people.

The friends of the boys who were arrested at Arion for an assault upon A. A. Conrad feel that the article published in the REVIEW of November 17, was too severe and had a tendency to magnify the offence. They say that the actual trouble began because one of the boys thought Mr. Conrad was about to strike him with a hatchet. Afterward, they claim that the boys asked for an immediate trial but were lodged over night in spite of their protests, in a jail not fit for habitation. They also claim that no threats had been made and that the injuries to Mr. Conrad were greatly exaggerated. The REVIEW does not wish to shield anyone guilty of an offense neither does it wish to so inflame the public mind against any man that unwarranted prejudice may exist. We are heartily sorry, sorry beyond expression, that anything of the kind took place, not only on Mr. Conrad's account, but on account of the boys and their friends.

Pay For-Pays You

It is not what you pay for a pair of Shoes or Rubbers, but what they pay you. Did you ever think of it in that way—well, it's a fact. It makes no difference if you pay $10 for a pair of Shoes if the shoes pay you that amount. But you certainly have a complaint to make if you buy a shoe for 98c and only get 50c worth of wear. Now the next time you want a pair of Shoes or Rubbers come in and let us give you a pair you will get full value in. That is the kind we sell—No Shoddy Shoes sold at

Kelly's Shoe Store.
