FOLLOW REESE'S EXAMPLE.

Agitators Will Invaade Kansas Coal Fields Despite the Injunction. KANSAS CITY, Dec. 1.—Discussing the action of Federal Judge Williams, at Fort Scott, Kan., in imprisoning John P. Reese for alleged contempt, James Boston, who is also a member of the national executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, made the assertion that he would do precisely as Mr. Reese had done, and that if Judge Williams should imprison him for contempt his place would be taken by another member of the national executive board, who, too, would do as Reese had done. He added that a member of the board would be kept constantly in the coal fields urging the non-union men there to quit work, despite the federal court's injunction, and that if all the members of the board should be imprisoned, other members would be elected to take their places and fill the federal prisons.

QUIET DAY AT WASHINGTON

All the executive departments, district offices and business houses were closed. At the white house the president and the household spent the day in the usual quiet way. Plans of Silver Republicans.

OMAHA, Dec. 1.—The Silver Republicans in conference here Wednesday planned, it is announced, to ally themselves with and to make use of the "anti-imperialism" agitation and especially in eastern states, where the silver issue does not attract. Co-operation with Edward Atkinson's following will be sought. This is one reason why the Silver Republicans want to hold a big national convention with 2,000 or more delegates next year. Confirmation of this plan came from Fred J. Dubois, former senator from Idaho and chairman of the Silver Republican executive committee.

CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH.

Radical Press Scores Him For His Rap at France. LONDON, Dec. 1.—It has been long since a public speech has been delivered that has excited so much comment as Mr. Chamberlain's yesterday. The Liberal and Radical papers think that England should hold herself from entangling alliances and they attack Mr. Chamberlain hotly for the irritating tone he adopted toward France. They remind the public that this is only a repetition of the "splash" he made in his speech of May 13 last year, when in the same way he incensed Russia.

On the other hand most of the Conservative and moderate Liberal organs comment on the speech with great approval, alleging that there never was a time when such an understanding was more essential between nations who are natural allies for peace and civilization. The Daily Mail remarks: "Once more Mr. Chamberlain has acted as interpreter for the nation. The new alliance of England, United States and Germany, with perhaps Japan thrown in, and Austria and Italy in the background, is something to make those frowning Parisians shiver. If they cannot cease their insults their colonies will be taken from them and be given to Germany and Italy. England has no quarrel with the present French government, but how long will it stand against the machinations of Dr. Leyds and the general staff, who are deliberately seeking to make an Anglo-French war?"

The Graphic says: "The country will be glad to hear that its relations with the United States and Germany are so cordial and so close a character as to justify Mr. Chamberlain in speaking of an understanding amounting to a new triple alliance."
