

DENISON AND VICINITY

The Girl from Chili. The next club dance will be held on December 29th. The Vail Observer issues a holiday supplement this week. Mr. Theo. Kuhl of Manilla visited Denison on Wednesday. Mr. Fred Rose returned Tuesday from Dell Rapids, South Dakota. Agent Joe P. Smith of Vail was in Denison on business Wednesday. Vail blacksmiths have raised the price of horseshoeing 25 per cent. T. J. Garrison and Mrs. Ray Garrison took the morning train for Omaha. Messrs. Jno. Cook and Alfred Wright visited Vail friends on Wednesday. The Coterie Club meets next Thursday, December 21, with Mrs. Max Sims. Mr. Thomas Rae was in Denison Thursday attending to business matters. The REVIEW is publishing Christmas editions regularly twice a week this month. Mr. I. Austin is now employed at Deloit as book buyer for the firm of Mundt & Rowland. Mr. Herbert Seagrave of Woodbine is in the city today visiting relatives and friends. Messrs. Samuel Stewart, L. Nicholson and W. W. Cushman went to North Dakota yesterday. A J. Gary has established a skating rink in the baseball park. Its 16 to 1 that he makes a go of it. The Bulletin unites its two issues into one this week and so presents a very creditable Christmas edition. Miss Nellie Pennell of Charter Oak visited Denison friends this week, returning to her home on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Rose are enjoying a visit from their daughter, Mrs. Lulu Chriss, until after the holidays. Children's Day at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon. All the little folks are cordially invited. Let the children go. Miss Alice Stevens was obliged to leave her work as stenographer several days of this week on account of sickness. Be sure to read O. M. Campbell's new ad in this issue. You can save money by dealing with him besides helping the poor of your town. Denison has been favored with the presence of a number of prominent railroad officials of both the Northwestern and Illinois Central, roads this week. The special meetings being held at the First Baptist church are proving a success. Large audiences attend each evening and great interest is being manifested. Mr. B. C. Wood, state deputy of the Woodmen of the World, was in the city on Wednesday. He expressed himself as very much pleased with the condition of the local camp. It is rumored that Mr. W. O. Litten, until recently Asst. Supt. of the Iowa division of the Northwestern, will be superintendent of the Illinois Central's new line from Fort Dodge to Omaha. Evangelistic services will begin at the Baptist church Monday evening, Dec 18th. The acting pastor, Rev. H. F. Tibbets will conduct the meeting. Subject Monday evening "Leavers and Lifters." On next Sabbath evening Rev. Bentley will preach on the subject "Hell and its Location," at the Baptist church. Every one should hear this sermon and all are most cordially invited to attend. Gen'l Superintendent A. W. Sullivan, Asst. Gen'l Supt. T. J. Hardigan, Supt. of Transportation Higgins and Div. Supt. C. K. Dixon, all of the Illinois Central, passed through Denison yesterday on a special train. The Welch building soon to be occupied by Lyman and Vassar is looking as fresh as a daisy under the vivifying administration of paper and paint. The boys are fixing up a model lunch room and restaurant and will soon be ready for business. Our Catholic people are succeeding admirably in an effort to pay off the church indebtedness, about a thousand dollars having been collected the past couple of weeks. The young people of the congregation will give a grand ball and banquet at the Germania hall Wednesday evening of next week, December 20, 1899, to which they cordially invite the patronage of the public. Did you begin the "Story of an African Farm" published in our last issue? If not, you should have for it is one of the strongest novels ever written. It is not merely a story of adventure but breathes a deep spirit of humanity that cannot but be helpful. The continuation of this story will be found in our issue of next Tuesday. In the meantime be sure and read the opening chapters.

COURT IN SESSION.

Case of Scriber vs. Johnson Occupies Yesterday. The Grand Jury is at Work on Arion Case. Court convened on Wednesday with Judge Z. A. Church presiding. So far the work of the court has been highly uninteresting for spectators, although some sensational cases may be on before the term closes. The case of Scriber & Johnson occupied the attention of the court on Thursday. It was a case of settlement of accounts and was tried before the Judge. The assignment of cases is as follows: Monday, Dec. 18—C. Harm vs. Hanigan. Wm. Ruchta vs. L. Romans. Tuesday, Dec. 19, W. Purdy vs. C. W. Campbell. B. Sachra vs. Manilla. Wednesday, Dec. 20, Wm. Kunze vs. Ft. D. & O. R. R. Co. Thursday, Dec. 21, P. Beermaker vs. Ft. D. & O. R. R. Co. W. A. McHenry vs. Ft. D. & O. R. R. Co. The grand jury is hard at work. The Arion case was before them yesterday, and we understand there are several other indictments pending. We hope the county attorney will see that the Schleswig matter receives due attention. The grand jury consists of Thos. Hopper, foreman, Rudolph Kohls, Pat. Bieme, A. P. Hart, C. J. Johnson, F. Jacobs and John Wunder, with Chas. Cramer acting as clerk. TWO WEDDINGS. Married, on Tuesday evening, December 12, Mr. William Frank Henderson and Miss Edna Maude Simm rman, also on December 13, Mr. Walter Cole and Miss Anna Brickman, all of Denison. Both ceremonies were performed at the Baptist parsonage. Rev. F. W. Batesou officiating. We extend sincere congratulations to the young people and wish them every happiness in life. THE CARTER-REYNOLDS CO. Many Denison friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Seymour or Louise Carter as is her stage name, is now at the head of a company of her own together with Mr. Wilson Reynolds. The press notices she receives indicate that she is progressing rapidly in her chosen profession and that she has a bright future before her. We understand the company is billed for Denison this winter and if so it will have crowded houses. PRESBYTERIAN BAZAAR. The handsome sum of $170 was the gross receipts of the Presbyterian bazaar, supper and entertainment given at the opera house on Wednesday afternoon and evening. The booths representing the seven ages, were filled with pretty things for the holidays and nearly all the goods displayed found a ready market. The supper was bountiful and appreciated by the suppers given by our Presbyterian ladies always are. In the evening a short program was given consisting of vocal solos by Mrs. J. N. Bradley and Mrs. John Kott, a violin solo by Miss Whitten and recitations by Miss Edith Mae Luney. A PLEASANT SURPRISE. The ladies of the Linn Grove Woodmen Circle are carrying out a pleasant surprise this afternoon on Mrs. F. J. McCormick and Baby McCormick. The ladies have gone prepared for the best kind of a time not the least of which will consist in the presentation of a little gold ring to be given to the latest arrival in the McCormick household. Linn Grove Circle is one of Denison's most prosperous lodges. The ladies are ever helpful and sociable and eager for every opportunity to show their affection for their sister members. Here's to Baby McCormick and the warm hearted ladies of the Linn Grove. DEATH OF MISS HANNAH LYNCH. Miss Hannah Lynch, a cousin of the prominent contractor J. D. Lynch, died at their temporary residence in Denison on Wednesday afternoon, December 13th. Miss Lynch was in her 38th year and had resided in Denison since April. She was born in Iowa but had resided in Minnesota until recently. The funeral was held this afternoon at 3 p. m. at St. Rose of Lima's church, Rev. Father Farrelly officiating. Mrs. Michael Welsh, Miss Katie Lynch and Miss B. Lynch, of Glenville, Minn., all sisters of the deceased, were present, as well as Mr. Michael Welsh, Mrs. D. Lynch and Mr. J. D. Lynch. Our sympathies go out to the sorrowing relatives. The remains were taken to Alexis, Illinois, for interment. NEW CENTRAL TRAINS. The Illinois Central will put on regular trains between Fort Dodge and Omaha next Monday. The schedule provides for three trains a day each way. We are unable to give any information at this time relative to the time cards of the freights—one a way freight and the other for through business, but the third train will be a passenger, arriving here from Council Bluffs about noon and reaching Fort Dodge about 2 P. M. Going west it will leave Fort Dodge about 3 P. M., pass through Denison about 5:30, reaching Council Bluffs about 7:30 P. M. This train will be a great accommodation to those wishing to go west from Denison in the evening as the Northwestern has no local west bound train after 1:30 P. M. The train will also be very convenient for those wishing to transact business in Deloit or Boyer in the afternoon. On January 1st a new through train will be put on making fast through connections to Chicago. This train will go east at night and west in the morning.

A BRIDE'S PARTY.

This was not strictly the case but that is what they called the elegant afternoon reception given yesterday by Mrs. R. A. Romans complimentary to Mrs. Hattie Weeks Garrison and Mrs. Sarah Temple Ott. Miss Jessie Weeks and Miss Grace Temple, younger sisters of the honored guests, admitted the guests who numbered about forty. The beautiful Romans home was handsomely decorated with palms and potted plants. The guests were conducted to the parlors where they were graciously received by the hostess and by Mesdames Garrison and Ott. The afternoon was brightened by numerous piano duets by Misses Ley and Romans and by a beautiful vocal solo by Mrs. John Kott. The "game" of the afternoon was a class in soft sculpturing in which chewing gum was the "piece de resistance." The first prize was awarded for a handsome double rose modeled by Mrs. W. R. Kirkup. There were numerous candidates for the "booby" prize and this award was decided by a "spell down" in which Mrs. J. L. Ainsworth was the victor. After the laughter excited by the contests had subsided an elegant luncheon was served of which the menu was as follows: Escalloped Oysters, Cheese Wafers, Olives, Bread-sandwiches, Coffee, Ice Cream, Salted Nuts, Cocoanut cake, Mahogany Cake, Lady Fingers, Orange Sticks. The reception afforded a most pleasant opportunity for meeting a number of the ladies who recently made Denison their home as well as of greeting the guests of honor who are two of Denison's most popular and best beloved young ladies. It was indeed a most pleasurable gathering as is always the case when Mrs. Romans entertains. The frost is playing havoc with F. Young's sign board. Mrs. R. A. Slocumb, of Dow City, was a Denison visitor yesterday. Attorney P. W. Haiding, of Charter Oak, was in Denison yesterday. Attorney L. E. Goodwin, came over from Charter Oak yesterday on legal business. The ladies interested are hereby notified that the table cloths, etc., used at the opera house Wednesday were taken to the Presbyterian parsonage where they may be secured by those to whom they belong. Green McAhren has purchased the Wilson and Fargo House busses and will hereafter operate the city bus and transfer line. He is also having a fine new bus constructed to run between the two depots. The fare will be twenty-five cents for the round trip. The free bus system has long been an imposition on our hotels and this is a step in the right direction. We believe Mr. McAhren's new enterprise will be a success. STATEMENT OF THE Condition of Crawford County State Bank.
