Gable anticipates a very pleasant Holiday week as he expects three sons to return to Denison for a family reunion. G. H. Gable will come from Council Bluffs, Louis Gable from Genoa, Neb., and S. L. Jr., from South Dakota. After today the Review force will be kept busy printing Sime's Oneakt Sale Slip. About 50,000 have been ordered for use in Denison and wherever they have been shown by agents in other towns they sold readily. There is no doubt, but that Mr. Sime has struck a good thing and something that every business man needs.

CHRISTMAS WEEK.

This is Christmas week, the jolliest and merriest of all the year. We believe there is hundred times more pleasure in buying things for loved ones, in thinking how much pleasure we are going to give others and in anticipation of the surprises in store for us than there is in the actual receipt of gifts. This has been a good year for nearly every family in Crawford county, and there is no reason why every stocking should not be filled with Christmas delights. You will not save any money by shutting your purse with a snap at Christmas time. The joy and the good will of the season will lengthen your days and lighten your heart, and make those about you do more for you in the future if you only let them. A mean man is always at his worst at Christmas time because his conduct is so in contrast with the spirit of the occasion. Loosen up—Do not go into debt, but spend your spare change, for as Ingersoll once said "love is the only investment that pays ten per cent to lender and borrower both."

I. O. O. F. OFFICERS.

The following are the chosen officers for the ensuing year: N. G. Jno Mount; V. G., H. W. ... all secretary, Adolph Stueber; treasurer, John Baker.

Rev. Judd held services at the Episcopal church on last Sunday, both morning and evening. As it was not generally known the congregations at both services were not large. The reverend gentleman preached a very strong sermon in the evening.

In the mayor's court this morning Frank McHue, a railroad workman, was arraigned on the charge of receiving stolen property. The property in question was a coat stolen from Rippen's saloon and which was found in McHue's possession. The mayor fined him $10 and costs.
