

W. A. MCHENRY, Pres. SEARS MCHENRY, Cashier

First National Bank.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, $125,000.00. DEPOSITS, 425,000.00. LOANS, 450,000.00.

With our thirty years of experience in the banking business and our large capital and constant increasing deposits we are able to take care of our customers at the lowest rates.

Luney Bros.' Land and Investment Company.

We have for sale several thousand acres of Northern Pacific R. R. Land in North Dakota and Minnesota which is well adapted to agriculture, stock raising and general farming.

LUNNEY BROS. & CO. MILL, Denison, Iowa.

BANK OF DENISON.

General Banking Business Conducted. Exchange Bought and Sold. Long and Short Time Loans at Lowest Rates. Interest Paid on Time Deposits.

SHAW, KUEHNLE & BEARD, LAWYERS.

REAL ESTATE LOANS AT LOWEST RATES.

Capital $100,000. Deposits, $300,000

Crawford County State Bank, DENISON, IOWA.

The Best Security for Depositors. Farm Loans at Five Per Cent Interest.

This Bank is incorporated under the laws of the State of Iowa. This gives the best security to all depositors, not only to the amount of stock, but the personal property of each shareholder is hidden to the amount of his share for any loss to the bank.

Passage Tickets Sold. Insurance Written. Loans Negotiated. L. CORNWELL, President. GEORGE NAEVE, M. J. JONES, Cashier. C. J. KEMMING, Asst. Cashier.

This Space Reserved For E. T. DOBSON, Real Estate and Insurance. Deloit, Iowa.

Business and residence lots for sale. Also contiguous farm property. Correspondence solicited.

What is Home

Without a Garland Heater or a lovely Steel Range. We don't take a back seat for any Steel Range or Cook Stove on the market.

J. G. WYGANT.

A NEW Lunch Counter

On Main Street,

We will have a first-class Lunch Counter ready for patrons the first of the week. Everything neat, clean and orderly.

Four doors North of P. O. WILCOX & WRIGHT.

HAPPENINGS AT BELL ALL ABOUT DELOIT.

Sol Miller was at the hub Saturday. Dick Baber made his Bell friends a visit Sunday.

Alex Bell, of Dow City, was a Bell visitor Wednesday. Thos. Rule and family were visiting friends at Dunlap Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Burgess was at Deloit last week visiting her son Ed. Mrs. John Stearenson is visiting relatives and friends at Manning.

Mr. C. Couran, of Kenwood, was visiting friends in town Sunday. Mrs. B. H. Wiggins and daughter Deeka were guests at Mrs. Jay Bell's Tuesday.

C. H. Bramley, James Scott and R. Bell are attending court at Denison, serving as jury men. Chris Thompson returned home Saturday from Omaha, where he had been visiting his brother Tom.

Pat and Mike Burk of near Defiance were up this way last Tuesday. Mrs. Fred Olsen who has been quite sick for some time, is better at present.

Dr. W. B. Evans of Arion was in town on professional business Thursday. The M. E. church will have a Christmas tree at their church in town Xmas Eve.

Arvin Kennedy of Mapleton was visiting old friends in this vicinity last week. H. Gibson of near Dow City was at the Grove on business matters last week.

Fred Olsen, our popular butcher, is quite sick at present to the regret of his friends. J. O'Meara and W. White of Dow City were in town to visit friends one day last week.

W. V. Whaley, the rushing insurance man of Dow City, was in town on business Wednesday. Died, James Mitchell, one of the pioneers of the county. He leaves four sons and three daughters to mourn his loss.

The I. C. men are busy setting telephone poles. Quite a number from this vicinity attended O. L. Fink's sale on Tuesday.

Mrs. O. R. Ainsworth is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Cruzan, this week. Mrs. Alma Prentice and family will move back to her old home this week. We are glad to welcome them again to our midst.

Be sure to come and bring your little ones to the Christmas festivities in Deloit. Both churches are arranging for a good time on Monday evening.

Wm. Marr is home for a few days. Mrs. A. Graves was calling in Arion Monday.

C. W. Underhill spent Sunday with his family. S. Underhill and Lulu were Dow City visitors Saturday.

Mrs. D. J. Butler and Mrs. Richards visited Denison Monday. W. W. Coon attended the Barsity sale and purchased two cows.

J. L. Maurer was out inspecting his farms in Paradise one day last week. Dr. Coon was in Deloit Monday examining Woodmen for the lodge at that place.

Mrs. Joseph Larson, of Rodney, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Green. Geo. Reynolds has purchased the land (80 acres) formerly owned by Mrs. Durant.

C. S. Butler has purchased 40 acres of land from L. C. Butler. Tois land joins Charlie's farm on the west and will make a nice addition to his place. Foreman Geo. McDonald has been given the section east from Arion and Foreman Costener has been given a section at Deloit and has gone there to take charge.

Mrs. Stilson visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barsity, of North Grove Thursday. She reports that their sale went off well and that they expect to move to Arion to live in the near future.

Mrs. H. Robbins, a former resident of Dow City, visited old friends in town last week. She reports her son Jay living in Iola, Kansas, and her daughters, Nettie and Jennie, living in Story county, Iowa, near Nevada.

Levi Green's hotel took fire from a large range in the kitchen Saturday morning. A hole two feet wide and eight feet high was burned through the wall into the parlor before the fire was discovered and put out. Quite a narrow escape and we congratulate Mr. Green and all the property owners in that block.

L. C. Butler took a "spin" to Denison on last Wednesday in a novel way. He mounted the little five wheeled hand car at the Northwestern depot and worked his passage both ways. He had a passenger on his return trip, Will Corey, and Chin says Will held the car down so that it was no "vacation" pumping it alone.

To all a merry Xmas and happy New Year. Uncle E. A. McKim is on the sick list this week. John Lentz was seen on our streets Thursday.

Aleatha Tucker was a Denison guest Thursday afternoon. N. Delivan is receiving a visit from his nephew, Charles Ochenpaugh.

Miss Edith Dobson and Lovina Wedlock were in Denison Wednesday. John and Ed Judy of W. Va. are visiting their uncle, J. L. Riggleman.

Excellent winter weather so far and one can hardly realize Christmas is here. T. C. Dobson and wife spent a few days at their home near Odeboit this week.

Miss Benjie Dawson and brother, Cliff, took the train for Denison Wednesday. Parties were in Deloit Thursday attaching the telephone wire to the Hunt store building.

E. T. Dobson returned to St. Joseph, Mo., this week, where he will spend the holidays with his family. Mr. Noble has finished moving the store building and is placing the foundation under it this week.

Mrs. Amanda Hunt of Missouri is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. Hunt, and other relatives and friends at this place. A. H. Rudd and wife, of Dow City, came up on the Central Monday and visited in Deloit, returning home in the evening.

Deloit appreciates its train convenience at present. We can go to Denison in the morning and return for dinner or stay all day. J. E. Schuler moved to Deloit Tuesday into the house he recently built. Deloit welcomes Mr. Schuler and his estimable family.

S. Horr and C. D. McKim expect to enlarge the postoffice building and add another room and put in a larger stock of goods in the near future. J. T. Turner expects his two grand children from Horner, Kansas, (Mr. and Mrs. G. Stovall's oldest children) to spend the holidays at his home.

M. E. NOTES. An old fashioned Xmas tree will be held at the church Monday evening to which everybody is invited. Special meetings will begin on New Year.

Boyer and vicinity is being canvassed for a new church with good success. A new church will be erected as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

Chas. Vette spent Sunday in Denison. Schroeder's dance next Tuesday, December 26.

The new houses of Messrs. Kuhlmann, Boisen and Boock will soon be completed. B. S. Noble was down from Ida Grove last Friday.

Fred B-rendes made a business trip to Kiron Tuesday. There will be a horse sale at our stock yards December 28.

Joe Batterson of Lake City visited friends in town Tuesday. Adam Anchstetter of Arthur was a Schleswig visitor Tuesday.

S. W. Meyers went to Denison Tuesday afternoon on business. We are pleased to note that Mrs. Sales is able to be out again.

Albert Schultz and sister of Hanover were taking in sights in Schleswig Sunday. Mr. Stemple, manager of the Stewart Lumber Co. at Ricketts, was in town last Friday.

Mr. Wolf of Morgan township has bought a half interest in the Krohnke's livery barn. Our enterprising farmer, August Jochims, was transacting business in town Monday.

The Misses Cronquist and Hansen of Kiron were very pleasant callers Wednesday evening. The depot is completed and the carpenters have returned to their homes in Cedar Rapids.

Miss May Cavanaugh who is teaching in No. 1, Morgan township, was in town Tuesday evening. Jurgen Krohnke celebrated his 54th birthday Monday night. An enjoyable time was had by every one present.

F. B. Mitchell, representing the Fort Dodge grocery house was in town Wednesday in the interest of the house. Era James of Minnesota has taken up his abode in Schleswig for the winter. He is working at the restaurant.

The many friends of Henry Naeve, who had his hand smashed in a cornsheller some time ago, were glad to see him in town Monday. The entertainment given by Prof. Seger Saturday night was a grand success, the best ever given in Schleswig. Miss Minnie Voss carried away the prize for the handsomest lady there.

The Kiron Chronicle.

Remarkable December weather. A Merry, Merry Christmas to the REVIEW editors and all its readers.

Postmaster S. N. Sandstrum transacted business at Denison Tuesday.

Richard Lundell one of Ida Grove's merchants, was called to Kiron on business matters Tuesday.

W. J. Sandberg left on Monday for Odeboit to remain a few days in the interests of Kiron's new bank.

Miss Alice Sandberg came home on the Tuesday forenoon passenger train from Omaha where several days had been spent visiting friends.

Rev. J. Mauritzon has our thanks for the proceedings below written by him of the large meeting held by the Swedish Lutherans last week.

Mr. A. L. Pomeroy of Stratford, Iowa, arrived last week and will be the manager of the Trans Mississippi Grain Co's. elevator at this place. Welcome to our town, Mr. Pomeroy.

The Rev. J. Mauritzon of the Lutheran church at Kiron and Rev. Leonard E. Telleen of Odeboit exchanged pulpits last Sunday. Rev. Mauritzon conducted communion services at Odeboit.

On Monday afternoon the little three year old child of K. Mattson tipped a coffeepot of boiling coffee from the stove and was severely scalded. The little one's sufferings were very intense, but at present is doing nicely.

An early Christmas morning service will be held at the Mission church and also at the Baptist church. The Lutherans will also observe the early morning service at their church and high mass services at eleven o'clock on Christmas Day.

Messrs. Emel and Axle Nelson arrived in Kiron Tuesday afternoon to visit relatives and friends for some time. The boys have been in the Klondyke regions for some time and seem to have been very successful. Axle Nelson has a claim he has received a good offer for but does not feel inclined to dispose of it. The claim adjoining it which is being worked has struck fine gold at a depth of ten feet. After a visit here the boys go to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on business connected with their claim and from there they return to Klondyke. There many friends are very pleased to see them.

Mrs. Ellen Stone has a neat new house completed and will soon move into it.

Kiron still needs a good grist mill, hardware store, watchmaker and jeweler and a restaurant.

Two saloons—one in operation by A. Reinke, the other to be opened soon by Adam Anstelter of Arthur, Iowa.

S. A. Nordholm has commenced the erection of a house near the railroad track and will occupy it as soon as it is finished.

N. P. Nord will erect a commodious dwelling in the spring and with his wife, will become residents of our little town.

The Trans Mississippi Grain elevator Co. of Nebraska has a good elevator to handle the cereal products of our farmers.

The Nye & Schneider Elevator Co. of Fremont is speculating on putting up a large elevator, work to commence after January 1.

In the spring we will have a millinery establishment by Miss Lundberg who has experience and talents sufficient to make it pay.

R. L. Anderson is having a neat and good sized residence erected and as soon as completed will move in with his estimable family.

F. M. Pomeroy recently a resident of Stratford presides at the depot, being operator, freight and express agent combined, a most jovial and accommodating gentleman.

The Baptist church was moved from its former site where it has stood for a number of years. Either the old parsonage will be moved in the spring or a new one will be erected.

The Mission church was moved from the old town of Kiron and was the first church in the new town. In the spring a new parsonage will be erected. A large barn is being completed for the minister's team and for other teams during church hours.

John A. Lawrence and family, late residents of Omaha but former Kiron people, are having a portion of their new house completed to live in. It will make a fine residence when extended and completed. Mr. Lawrence is a first-class carpenter, does wood work of all sorts, draws plans and gives estimates on house buildings.

Mission Church, Rev. A. Modig, Pastor. Services every Sunday morning 11:00 a. m. Services every Sunday evening 7:30 p. m. Wednesday evening Prayer Meeting 7:30 p. m. Friday evening Bible Study 7:30 p. m. Sunday School, Sunday morning, 10:00 a. m.—E. E. Clauson, Superintendent and R. L. Anderson, Secretary

Baptist Church, Rev. A. P. Hanson, Pastor. Services Sunday morning 11:00 a. m. Services Sunday evening 7:30 p. m. Thursday evening Prayer meeting 7:30 p. m. Young Peoples' meeting Tuesday evening 7:00 p. m. Choir Practice, Friday evening 7:00 p. m. Miss Elsie Erickson, Organist.

Sunday School, Sunday morning, 10:00 a. m.—Mrs. A. B. Hanson, Superintendent, and Erick S. Larson, Secy. Lutheran Church, Rev. J. Mauritzon, Pastor. Services Sunday morning 10:00 a. m. Every other Sunday evening 7:00 p. m. Every other Sunday afternoon at Bloom School House 3:00 p. m. Sunday School, Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m.—A. P. Lendblad, Superintendent and Mabel Lundell, Secy.

Ship your Cattle and Hogs to South Omaha.

Ship your Cattle and Hogs to South Omaha.