

DENISON AND VICINITY

The revival services at the Baptist church closed on Sunday evening.

Miss Edith Gillmor is enjoying a visit from her cousin, Miss Gillmor, of Davenport.

Miss Naoma Mead of Odebolt is a holiday guest at the home of Mr. A. Currier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker spent Christmas time with their relatives in Charter Oak.

Supt. H. V. Failor leaves this morning for a visit at his home in Newton and to attend the state teachers' meeting at Des Moines.

Miss Carrie Soehl, after spending Christmas with her people in Denison returned to her pedagogical duties near Buck Grove.

Mr. Ben Greek who has been visiting his uncle, Mr. S. B. Greek, for the past few weeks returned on Monday to his home in Onawa.

Messrs. Jacob and Joseph Orkin went to Winterset for the holidays. The boys at Carroll also went in and they had a family reunion.

Messrs. Max and Simon Sime were made glad yesterday by a visit from their uncle, M. A. I. Sime, one of the prominent merchants of Toledo, Iowa.

Cards are out inviting the ladies of the Penelope club to a reception to be given them at the home of Mrs. J. P. Conner on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock.

Many friends are glad to see Mr. Maurice Schofield, of Corning, California, back in Denison visiting his old home. He is a guest at the home of Mr. Albert Helsey.

Mr. Chas. Cramer has accepted the position as bill clerk for the Illinois Central at the Denison office. The Central seems to have a leaning toward the Philippine veterans.

Prof. L. C. Rumsel started on a journey eastward to day taking orders for Sime's Oneakt Sale Slips. This afternoon Mr. Francis Gable visited Logan on the same mission.

Rev. Talbot held services in the Episcopal church on Sunday evening, to which there was a good sized congregation. The singing of the male choir was a pleasing feature of the service.

The merchants generally say this was the best Christmas trade Denison has ever enjoyed. We believe the generous advertising which brought many buyers from other towns, added largely to the sales.

We learn that Mr. Julius Lehfeldt has sold his Montana ranch and has purchased a large general merchandise store at Chinook. We are sure he will be successful as Julius is one of the salt of the earth.

Mr. J. H. Lorenzen has sold his Denison residence to Mr. Hans. Bahr for the consideration of $1425. Mr. Lorenzen has not made his plans for the future as yet but he says Denison is too good a town to leave permanently.

The post-office broke the record of money order sales for one day, last Saturday. The record was held by Postmaster McAlpin with a record of thirty-seven orders, but Mr. Boynton went him two better on Saturday.

Mr. Gaylord Weeks who now holds the position of bridge inspector on the new line of the Northwestern with headquarters at Mason City, is in town for a brief holiday. Gaylord is getting right to the front—and staying there.

Mr. Cook, brother-in-law of John James, arrived in Denison on Saturday from Nebraska, and will spend the week in Denison. Mr. Cook was at one time a resident of Crawford, but says he sees many changes have taken place.

Mrs. S. G. Wright is spending the week in Denison arriving Saturday from Anubon where she had been visiting. Mr. Wright came up from Omaha Sunday evening and together they spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tucker.

Mr. A. G. Johnson, formerly of Crawford, but now of Sioux City, has been visiting in the county the past ten days. He had some business at the court house. While in the city Mr. Johnson took occasion to enroll his name on the REVIEW list.

Rev. Father Alexander Hetherington of county Langford, Ireland, has arrived in Denison and will have charge of St. Rose of Lima parish during Rev. Father Farrelly's absence in Europe. Rev. Father Farrelly intends starting as soon after January 8th as possible.

A male choir has been organized at the Episcopal church, composed of the following young men: Horace Gregory, John Shaw Van, Harry Morris, James Walker, Clarence Davis, Arthur Beard and a son of Mrs. Fred Wahl. Mrs. Wahl is training the choir, which is sure to be a success, as the boys are very enthusiastic.

Married, in Washington township, at the residence of the bride's parents, December 25, 1899, Mr. John F. Justice and Miss Leora Igon, Rev. A. G. Martyn officiating. The well wishes and congratulations of many friends are extended the young couple in their entrance upon married life.

A JOKE ON THE SHERIFF.

Sheriff Bell Detected With Railroad Property in His Hands. No Prosecution Likely to Follow.

Sheriff Bell took his Christmas dinner in Dow City and thereby hangs a tale. Some of the boys say it was the plum pudding served with wine sauce, others say Hank was thinking too hard about his official duties. But at any rate when he went to the depot to take the train for Denison he stepped into the waiting room, set his grip down and began talking to a friend. When the train came in he was still busy talking, and he reached behind him, grabbed the grip and boarded the cars. When the conductor came through the train had to be backed up for our illustrious sheriff had carefully carried the company's half-filled coal scuttle to the train and left his grip in the waiting room. A special telegram to the REVIEW from Marvin Hughitt, president of the Northwestern, states that although the sheriff was caught black-handed with the property of the company in his hands, on account of his good reputation in the past, no prosecution will follow. The sheriff's office is upstairs in the court house and any one calling on the sheriff this week will receive a pleasant smile and a cigar.

COURT MATTERS.

Mr. Sachra Gets $1500 Damages From the City of Manila.

The jury in the case of Sachra vs. Manila came to an agreement at midnight on Saturday and prepared a sealed verdict which was delivered to the court this morning. The jury awarded Mr. Sachra $1500 for injuries resulting from a defective sidewalk. $1500 seems to be a popular verdict in such cases. To-day the case of Wm. Kunze vs. the Ft. Dodge & Omaha R'y is on trial. Two similar cases are on the docket for to-morrow.

A PERSISTENT YOUNGSTER.

Little Howard Johnson, whose pretty face is so familiar to all, has evidently started out to break his arm and if patient perseverance will do anything he will accomplish his object. On Christmas day he was 'helping' Roy Wiblis-hauser deliver a doll's carriage, when he slipped on the cement walk in front of the Presbyterian church and fell so heavily that the small bone of the right forearm was bent and nearly broken. He was taken to a physician and by evening he was so well that he was able to play on his new drum. He thought to get the full effect of the music by sitting on the drum's head, when the drum tipped up and sent Howard over on his poor lame arm, inflicting another injury. This morning he tripped and fell for a third time on the injured member. We have not heard from him this afternoon. Seriously, however, we hope the bright little fellow will come out of his misfortunes all right.

MARRIED.

JONES—JAMES—At the residence of the bride's parents in east Denison, on Monday evening, December 25, Mr. Chas. M. Jones and Miss Mertie James, Rev. J. B. Harris officiating. The ceremony which made this happy couple man and wife was performed in the presence of some thirty-five friends, and was very impressive. After the ceremony the company sat down to a bounteous dinner to which all did ample justice. The presents were numerous showing the esteem in which the happy couple is held.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John James and has lived in Crawford county all her life. For the past five years she has taught school near Charter Oak, where she was well liked—in fact her directors would release her from duty only while she was being married and she has yet seven weeks of school remaining. The groom is a young man well fitted for the lady of his choice. He owns a nice farm, well stocked, near Charter Oak, is very industrious and starts married life with flattering prospects. The REVIEW joins the friends in wishing the newly married couple every joy and happiness, knowing well that "Jones pays the freight."

The Gable boys came home as expected for Christmas and Mr. S. L. Gable looks as happy as a king. Today the boys are all out hunting on the old farm—and if—if they get lots of rabbits, may be.—No, it is almost too good to be true.

Editorial on page two.

Mr. Ralph Walker spent Christmas in Dow City.

Miss J. Rollinson is spending her vacation at her home.

Maro, the magician at the opera house to-morrow night.

The masons hold high carnival to-night at the opera house.

John Champion, of Vail, spent Xmas with relatives in the city.

Mr. James B. Barrett spent several days of last week in Omaha.

Mart Keane, of Vail, was in Denison on business last Saturday.

Mr. Mat Mill is enjoying a visit from a brother residing in Wisconsin.

Mrs. G. L. Thomas is visiting a few days at the home of A. H. Brown.

The Germania Verein will give a grand ball the evening of the 28th.

Sears McHenry and family spent Christmas with the Harvey's at Logan.

C. M. Russell and wife visited Sunday and Monday with friends at Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tabor returned on Wednesday from a lengthy visit in Chicago.

Mr. Peter Moeller, a brother of August Moeller, returned from Montana this week.

John Michaelsen came up from Council Bluffs and spent Christmas with his relatives.

Miss Edith Wygant returned on Sunday from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Aylesworth at Council Bluffs.

There will be a solemn mass celebrated at midnight at St. Rose of Lima church on December 31st in accordance with the Pope's eucycical in honor of the birth of a new century.

We asked Chamberlin, the jeweler, if he had a merry Christmas, he answered somewhat dolefully, but then brightened up and added that his wife would sail from Liverpool on Saturday and would be home about the last of January.

We regret to learn of a runaway accident which happened to Mrs. Jerry Hassett on the way home from church last Sunday. The team became unmanageable and ran away when several miles south of town. Mrs. Hassett was thrown out and her arm was broken.

The King-Perkins Co. will occupy the opera house all next week with a series of melodramas and comedies. The company is first-class; at Dunlap they are making the success of the season this week. Lovers of good, high grade drama should be sure to attend. They open on Monday night with that familiar but never tiring play, Fanchon the Cricket.

On Sabbath morning the pastor preached on the "Incarnation." Mrs. Bradley sang very effectively a solo and the choir rendered the anthem "Shepherds Abiding in the Fields." In the evening a Christmas praise service was held participated in by choir and congregation. Mrs. Kott sang in her usual pleasing manner and an address on "The Advent" was given by the pastor.

Those quotation books have gone like hot cakes and are still going. The Ladies Aid Society meets at the home of Mrs. E. Gulick on Wednesday at 3 p. m.

Next Sunday evening the pastor will speak upon the theme "Moody and Ingersoll Contrasted."

The services on Sunday were well attended and the audiences were favored with some fine Christmas music by the choir. The pastor's theme in the morning was "Gods great gift of a Saviour." In the evening he spoke upon "The kind of Christianity which the age demands."

The B. Y. P. U. will meet as usual on next Sunday evening at 6:30. Mrs. Frame and family will henceforth be missed from our midst; after spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. Pettis, they go to Milwaukee to reside.

On next Sabbath the pastor will preach a sermon appropriate to the day preceding the new year, and in the evening the Junior Union will give a program.

On Thursday evening it is hoped the prayer meeting will be largely attended by members of the church as special items for consideration are at that time to be presented.

The special meetings at the Baptist church closed last Sunday evening after a period of two weeks, during which time many gave their hearts to Christ. The closing sermon preached by Rev. Bently was one which all were glad to hear, it being interesting and helpful in the highest degree. The subject was "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." At the close of the evening service baptism was administered to a number.
