

NEW ART STORE. MRS. O. M. CAMPBELL

Teacher in all classes of Decorative Needle Work. A fine line of STAMPED LINENS and ART NEEDLES. Also complete line of POTTER'S WASH SILKS. See display at

CAMPBELL'S JEWELRY STORE

The Palace Bakery Maintains Its Reputation

For having the BEST of everything in its line.

Fresh Bread
Cakes
Oysters.

Fresh Nuts
Fruit
Candies.

In fact, it is the "FRESHEST" place in town.

M. M. BRADBURY, Proprietor.

E. T. DOBSON,

Real Estate and Insurance

Notary Public and conveyancer. Abstracts furnished. Titles examined. Only soundest and best insurance companies represented. Collections will receive prompt attention. Sole owner of

DOBSON'S SOUTHWIEW First Improvement Addition to Deloit (residence property). Also Dobson's Resubdivision of East Half of Block 21, original town of Deloit. I have some desirable

FARM PROPERTY near Deloit for sale. If you have any property for sale list it with me. I am prepared to show property at any time. I can furnish any amount of 5 per cent money on improved farms to borrowers.

BUSINESS CHANCES at Deloit—A good opening for an up-to-date first class $2 per day Hotel, a Millinery, Jeweler, Photographer, harness stock and repairer, shoemaker, furniture store, brick plant, flouring and exchange mill, canning and pickle factory, and other enterprises. All inquiries from business men of capital and experience answered promptly. Office in German-American Bank.

Deloit, - - - Iowa.

A Severe Cold Destroys

The delicate coating of your lungs and opens the way for Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Consumption

ANTI-KAWF

Soothe the irritated membranes, promotes expectoration, and, by removing the cause, STOPS THE COUGH. There is none just as good as Anti-Kawf for cold. Your druggist can supply you. 3mo 11.

Luney Bros.' Land and Investment Company.

We have for sale the Colorado Colony Co's, Irrigated Lands, situated in the beautiful South Platte Valley, Colorado. They are especially adapted to the raising of stock and very large crops of wheat, barley, and oats and all kinds of vegetables; also a good fruit country. Alfalfa is one of the most profitable crops made from it. The demand far exceeds the supply at $5 per bushel, and farms are made from it. The demand far exceeds the supply at $5 per bushel, and farms are made from it. The demand far exceeds the supply at $5 per bushel, and farms are made from it.

LUNNEY BROS. & CO. MILL, Denison, Iowa.

KIRON CHRONICLES

Mr. S. A. Nordholm and family moved to Kiron the first of the week.

Mitt Childress of Deloit visited our locality the first of the week circulating the saloon petition.

Mr. John Wingquist departed Tuesday for Big Springs, S. D. to visit friends and look at the country.

Miss Annie Bergman of little Falls, Minnesota, is visiting friends and relatives in Ida Co. and Kiron which she has not seen for over thirty years.

Chas. Swanson and Erick Larson arrived home from Shanandoah on Wednesday where they have been attending college. Their many friends are pleased to see them back.

Mr. Peter Haman and two sons all successful farmers near Schleswig visited our busy burg on Tuesday. While here they invested in seven farm implements of our machine man V. E. Michaelson.

Ward Bros are busily at work this week in getting things in shape for launching the Kiron Sentinel, the first number is to appear next week. It will make its appearance weekly four pages—seven columns reading matter. We welcome the enterprise and its editors to our burg and wish for them success in a large measure.

Mrs. M. Supter visited Kiron on Tuesday. She was accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Theo. Bundt of Arcadia who is spending a few days at her old home. We are sorry to learn that Mr. Supter intends to move his estimable family to the vicinity of Deloit this week. Their stay of ten years in our near locality has made them many lasting friends who regret to have them move away.

HAPPENINGS AT VAIL.

Dan'l Clark of Carroll was a Vail visitor Thursday.

Ben King returned Thursday to his home in California.

Wm. Dobson of Dunlap attended the Alberts funeral Thursday.

Mr. Capt. Farnilton visited at the DeWolf home the first of the week.

Maggie Short left Thursday for a few days' visit with her parents at Honey Creek.

Messrs. John Cook and Pat Lane were among the Denison people who were down Thursday.

Freda Larson returned to her home at Des Moines Monday after two weeks visit with Vail relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Thompson have returned from an extended visit with relatives in Minneapolis and Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bradley attended the play Tuesday evening. Mrs. Bradley spent Wednesday morning with Vail friends.

C. E. Price severed his connection with the Traders Bank Thursday. Will Shove will assist Henry Stuck in the management of the bank.

Edgar Christie of Dunlap and Gussie Dunham of Vail were married Tuesday at the M. E. parsonage, Rev. Eaton performing the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Doherty mourn the loss of their baby boy but a few months old. The little one died Thursday morning and will be buried Friday.

Tuesday morning while hauling some hay to his home in Hays township George Alberts fell from the load striking on his head in such a manner as to cause death almost instantly. He was a highly respected and well to do farmer. Mr. Alberts leaves a wife and four children besides two brothers and a sister and scores of friends to mourn his untimely death. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Sweany of Omaha officiating.

A large audience greeted the home talent play "Robert Graham" Tuesday night, and to say they were pleased would be putting it mildly. Joe Duffy, as Robert Graham and Jerry, the tramp, displayed very exceptional ability and demonstrated the fact that he can please his friends in any character. Leslie W. Kinyon as Col. Lee was as natural in that role as when dealing out drugs; A. C. Wood played his usual part that of the villain and did it full justice; Harry Hoffman as Jack Worthington seemed to be perfectly familiar with the many different acts in his part. Mrs. Fannie Glynn as Mrs. Lee filled her part well and gracefully. Mrs. Minnie Keane as Franc really surprised her friends, in this her first appearance on the stage, and made a decided hit. Anna McCarthy as Sadie, proved that she was "faithful but free." Jas Duffy did some specialty work between acts that pleased his hearers and Miss Lizzie Casey rendered some fine selections on the piano.

Tom and Will Leeper who have been in Nebraska the past summer are in town at present.

Postmaster Moffitt is laid up with a bad sprain and is under the doctor's care at present.

Dr. Carr of Dow City has been up this way on professional affairs several days the past week.

Mrs. John Gorman who has been visiting friends and relatives at Kenwood has returned home which causes John to smile.

S. M. Thew living east of town had the misfortune to lose two horses and a mule the same being struck by a fast train on the Milwaukee.

Married, at the Catholic parsonage, Feb. 27 Mr. Will Berndt and Miss Anna Mathias, Rev. Tierney officiating. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

For growing colts Raven Food purifies the blood, regulates the kidneys, cures scours and exterminates worms. It cures colds, coughs, distemper, pink eye and heaves in horses. It is good for overworked horses and old horses, and prevents mares from dropping their colts prematurely. Try dollar box to cure no pay and money returned. For sale by John Schnour, Harness dealer, Denison, Iowa.

FOR SALE
Three registered Short Horn bulls, from the celebrated Golden Horn. For particulars apply to Aug. Brandt & son, Buck Grove, Iowa. 15-4t

CHARTER OAK CHATS

"Editor" McVey was an Arion caller Thursday.

T. Thompson called on friends at Council Bluffs Tuesday.

W. W. Cushman was shaking hands with friends here Thursday.

G. B. Goodfriend drove over to Ricketts on business Wednesday.

J. G. Shumaker of Sioux City transacted business here Thursday.

Mrs. J. Snyder and children returned Thursday from a visit at Arion.

Mrs. M. Riddle visited a couple of days this week with her parents.

Sam Atwood of Ticonic spent a few days with friends here this week.

Mr. N. Cole of Dow City is here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cole.

Franz Riedesel made a business trip to Carroll county the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ohl from near Dunlap was shopping at the Oak Wednesday.

Miss Burmeister of Ute visited the first of the week with her cousin Miss Anna Bock.

Mr. William Wilson is moving this week into his house lately purchased of Mr. Palmer.

Miss Mabel Nelbit of Waterloo Neb. is visiting the family of her uncle D. H. McWilliams.

W. Malone and family started this morning for Ohio where they expect to make their future home.

Mrs. I. Harris went to Council Bluffs Wednesday to make the acquaintance of a new grand daughter.

The children of the primary room have had a vacation this week as Miss Glassburner has been unable to teach.

Mrs. D. H. McWilliams visited at Denison the first of the week. Mrs. Luney accompanied her home Wednesday.

J. McDole moved this week into Martin Neals house near the red bridge. There seems to be a good demand for houses here this spring.

Miss May Dornseil a hat trimmer for a wholesaler house in Des Moines visited the first of the week with her brother I. Harris, stopping on her way from Armour, S. D. to Des Moines.

The school friends of Asa Jones gave him a surprise las. Monday evening, when nineteen of them in a hay rack drawn by four horses, fought their way through the snow to his home. Mrs. Jones was master of the situation, and with the assistance of Miss Bell Goodrich and Sylvia Cavite served the young people with light refreshments. It was four in the morning when the drivers left their charges at their several homes but all say they had a fine time.

BUCK GROVE ITEMS.

Lots of tramps in town.

M. W. A. dance here the 17 of March.

Will White of Dow City is in town at present.

Bert Cruise of near Dunlap was in town Friday.

M. Conway of near Denison was in town Tuesday.

H. Downs liveryman of Arion was on our streets Thursday.

John McNertney of Manilla was a business visitor here last week.

Roe Passmore who has been at Ross, Iowa, for some time is in town.

Messrs. Gigax were at Carroll this week settling up their business affairs.

W. A. Hockett and Jas. Rood were at the county capital on business Tuesday.

Chris Berndt of Aspinwall attended the wedding of his son here last Tuesday.

Quite a few of our boys attended the M. W. A. banquet at Dow City Tuesday.

J. L. Williams who has been quite sick for some time is somewhat better at present.

Millie Bicknell who visited her cousin at Denison for several days has returned home.

Tom and Will Leeper who have been in Nebraska the past summer are in town at present.

Postmaster Moffitt is laid up with a bad sprain and is under the doctor's care at present.

Dr. Carr of Dow City has been up this way on professional affairs several days the past week.

Mrs. John Gorman who has been visiting friends and relatives at Kenwood has returned home which causes John to smile.

S. M. Thew living east of town had the misfortune to lose two horses and a mule the same being struck by a fast train on the Milwaukee.

Married, at the Catholic parsonage, Feb. 27 Mr. Will Berndt and Miss Anna Mathias, Rev. Tierney officiating. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

For growing colts Raven Food purifies the blood, regulates the kidneys, cures scours and exterminates worms. It cures colds, coughs, distemper, pink eye and heaves in horses. It is good for overworked horses and old horses, and prevents mares from dropping their colts prematurely. Try dollar box to cure no pay and money returned. For sale by John Schnour, Harness dealer, Denison, Iowa.

HANOVER MENTIONS

Mr. Quandt was at Denison last Saturday on business.

Misses Julia Schultz and Lizzie Kae pel were Denison visitors last Monday.

Miss Mary Huebner is at Charter Oak learning dressmaking with Miss Tierney.

Robert Glockzien, who is one of the petit jurors for this term of court, spent Sunday at home.

The party at Louis Messenbrink's last Saturday night was largely attended, and all report having had a delightful time.

Messrs. Dan Kronin, D. H. McWilliams, Christ. Kortmann, and sister Lattie were out from town Sunday to attend the wedding of the latter's brother.

We are sorry to learn that Bernard Pautsch, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, is not much improved at this writing. Dr. Jepson, of Sioux City, is the attending physician.

On Wednesday occurred the wedding of Mr. Ed Kolls and Miss Clara E. Buesing, Rev. Runce officiating. We join with the many friends of these young people in extending congratulations and wish them every happiness through life's journey.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schelm will be pleased to learn that their little son George, who has undergone an operation at the hospital in Chicago is slowly recovering, and will be able to walk without crutches when he returns home.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at the Lutheran church last Sunday a double wedding, that of Mr. Richard Brosamle and Miss Hannah Kemming, and Mr. Frederick Kortmann and Miss Minnie Ackelbein, Rev. C. Runge performing the ceremony, which was very impressive. A beautiful wedding march was played by the Hanover band. Each couple was attended by two bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Kemming wore a very handsome gown of navy blue, trimmed in pale blue silk, while Miss Ackelbein wore rich black silk trimmed in peacock blue satin. Both brides wore beautiful wreaths and veils. The grooms were attired in suits of conventional black. The homes of these young people are in this vicinity, and they are highly respected by all who know them. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future. Mr. and Mrs. Brosamle will start life on a farm near town, while Mr. and Mrs. Kortmann will reside in Charter Oak, at which place Mr. K. has an interest in the harness shop.

There occurred at