The postmaster general at Washington has notified a number of the postmasters throughout the state that about May 1 the postoffice department will have ready for sale small books containing two cent postage stamps interlined with paraffine paper to prevent premature adhesion. The pages are of six stamps each making a book of convenient size to carry in the pocket or pocketbook. Only three different quantities will be so furnished, however, as follows: A book of 12 two cent stamps a book of 24 two cent stamps and a book of 48 two cent stamps, of the postage value of 24, 48 and 96 cents respectively. Each book will be sold at an advance of 1 cent on the stamp value to cover the cost of binding. The great convenience of these books it is thought will make them very popular and a big demand is anticipated for them.

PETTY THIEVING AT DOW CITY.

Six "hoboes" struck Dow City last night and tried to run the town for a while but were finally all landed in the new jail. Two of them went into Slocomb's store and while one was trying to purchase some small article the other proceeded to take all the clothing he could conveniently carry. But both were arrested and all the stolen articles recovered. This morning they were arraigned before Justice Huntington and received a twenty days' sentence in the county jail. They were brought up from Dow City this afternoon and are now "living easy" in Hotel de Bell.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Prof. Rusmisse goes to Omaha Saturday on business.

Mrs. Brown and daughter Jennie of Manila are visiting at the Dormitory.

There is great interest in commercial work and new students are coming every week. J. C. Stevens of Wall Lake entered for short-hand Monday.

The students were favored by a lecture by Atty. Beard Tuesday on the subject of Courts and Court Reporting. The talk was helpful and greatly appreciated.

All arrangements have been made for the trip by the Glee Club next week. The boys have worked hard and are able to give a good concert as will be proven when they appear in Denison Tuesday, March 20th.

Denison Normal School is under many obligations to Mrs. E. A. Romans for two handsome busts of the Poet Burns and the Composer Wagner. They are very beautiful pieces of art and add much to the appearance of the chapel platform.

The social at the college Wednesday evening was a success and greatly enjoyed by all. The Philippine pictures given by Prof. VanNess with his lantern were made more interesting by the explanation by Prof. Barge as to what he had seen at the same places.

CHARTER OAK CHATS

Mrs. Harris returned from Omaha Thursday.

D. J. Butler was up from Arion on business Wednesday.

Who will be marshal, seems to be the one question in our city politics. J. Kuehl is enjoying a visit with his mother and sister from Davenport this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bassett of Dunlap visited at the home of H. Yeager the first of the week.

Mr. B. Volertson and wife returned Thursday from a visit with friends at Denison.

Jay Stewart moved his family to Sioux City this week where they will make their future home.

Married at the M. E. parsonage, March 7th, Mr. Wilbur Hall and Mrs. Ida Mae Davis, Rev. Thos. Carson officiating.

Charter Oak has two dentists at present. Dr. Leggett formerly of Manila is located over the postoffice in the rooms vacated by Dr. Meyers.

Ferdinand Schelm was 19 years of age Wednesday. His mother and sister had quietly told a number of his friends who greatly surprised him when about 25 of them gathered to spend the evening with him. The evening was very pleasantly spent in merry games until eleven o'clock when an elegant lunch was served. All report a very pleasant time.

A citizens caucus has been called for tomorrow evening to place candidates in nomination for school directors. The past year has been an arduous one for the members of the board, the new high school has been built and the members of the board deserve much credit for the work. It seems that it would be just to recognize the efforts of those members whose terms now expire by giving them another term. Messrs. Nicholson and Bond are good men and should be renominated.

DEATH OF GEORGE ALBERT.

True Facts as to His Unlucky Death—The Community Saddened.

On Tuesday, February 27, 1900, occurred one of the saddest accidents the community surrounding Vail ever witnessed. On that morning George Albert and a few neighbors went to haul hay from the B. L. King farm; while coming home the wagon swung around throwing Mr. Albert out on the opposite side, falling on his head. His neck was broken and he died instantly. This was indeed sad as there were four teams started home at the same time, but Mr. Albert stopped to talk with Mr. King, the others coming on home. There was no one present when the accident occurred except Nels Martinson who worked for Mr. Albert's brother, W. Albert, who hastened for help. Dr. Glynn was brought as soon as possible but found him dead. His home coming was a very sad one to his wife whom he left but a few hours before strong and well.

Mr. Albert being a resident of Crawford for the past twenty-four years, leaves a host of warm friends who extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family. The deceased being of a quiet, jovial disposition, no one knew him but to like him.

George Aaron Albert was born near Low Moor, Clinton county, Iowa, March 17, 1863, and coming to Crawford county when but a child, he has lived here since. He was married February 23, 1889, to Miss Jennie Bell of near Vail. His wife, four sons and one daughter, two brothers and a sister and many friends and neighbors are left to mourn his loss.

The funeral was conducted from the Presbyterian church in Vail, Rev. Sweeney preaching the sermon. The funeral cortege was a large one showing the many friends of the deceased and family.

The following relatives were present: Mrs. Lizzie Raftery, a sister, Logan; John Boyd, cousin, Logan; Aaron Cousins, uncle, Low Moor, Iowa; Wm. Robinson, Dunlap; Robt. Bell, South Dakota; Geo. Lyons and wife, Dunlap; Mrs. Mary Baker, Nebraska; Mrs. Bell, mother-in-law, Nebraska.

The Dunlap Reporter has moved its office and is now nicely located over Hawkin's drug store.
