Patterns in Nainsook and Swisses and all overs. They are incomparable.

Black Goods Open'ng

This is one of the most satisfactory stocks in the store. It is equally strong in Staples and Novelties. Every season many of the most fancy weaves are captured by us as soon as designed. City Politics.

The republican city caucuses will be held tomorrow (Wednesday) night and it is to be hoped that they will be largely attended and that wise counsels will prevail. Our city needs good officials and it is the duty of the republican majority to furnish them.

For mayor, Mr. Hugo Gebert and Mr. Max Sime have been mentioned but both have declined to allow their names to be presented before the caucuses. At present it must be confessed that the republicans are a good deal at sea on the mayoralty.

For councilman from the first ward, Mr. Warren Faus and Mr. L. A. Sewall have both been mentioned. Mr. Sewall's candidacy is somewhat hampered by the fact that he is now on the school board, but both are good, safe and representative men. In the 2d ward, Mr. A. H. Brown has been prominently mentioned; while Mr. Brown is not seeking the nomination it is understood that he would accept it if offered him. In the 3d ward, there is no opposition to the renomination of Mr. Max Sime. He has made a good official, so good in fact that his friends have been urging him to be a candidate for mayor.

For treasurer, the names of Mr. E. S. Plimpton and Mr. C. L. Voss, are spoken of. Mr. Plimpton has a splendid official record behind him, while Mr. Voss is one of the most popular young men of the city. For solicitor, Mr. McLennan and for assessor, Mr. A. J. Bond have no opposition so far as we have heard.

The democratic ticket is in about as chaotic a condition as the republican. For mayor, Messrs. Ivens, Wheeler and Harry Luney are mentioned. The first ward alderman is apt to go by default in order to keep republicans away from the polls in that ward. The second ward nomination should go to Mr. J. P. Jones, in the third ward an unsuccessful effort has been made to induce John Carey to be a candidate. Who their other nominees will be we do not know and in fact it is a matter of little importance, as this is a republican year in Denison.

CITY SCHOOL ELECTION.

Largest Vote Ever Polled in a Similar Election.—Romans Wins by a Scratch.

The Denison school election held yesterday was one of the most interesting ever held here. On Saturday evening a citizens caucus was held at which B. Y. Nicholson and J. B. Romans were placed in nomination. The election opened quietly but it developed that there was considerable opposition to Mr. Romans and a desire upon the part of many to re-elect A. J. Bond. About three o'clock in the afternoon friends of Mr. Bond had some tickets printed and from that time on the contest was a quiet but determined one. The result was the polling of 308 votes, out of which Nicholson polled 206, Romans 165 and Bond 146. Had Mr. Bond been in the field a few hours earlier he would have been elected as more than enough of his friends voted before his name came out to have turned the election in his favor.

Mr. Romans made a personal canvass and had his man Burch out with a carriage bringing voters to the polls. The contest was not however a personal one to any extent. Many republicans voted for Mr. Romans feeling grateful for the very excellent work he has done toward aiding in securing the location of a state normal here. The REVIEW is in the habit of giving every man his due and wishes to say that Mr. Romans' work in this line has been wholly commendable, unselfish and disinterested we congratulate him upon that fact.

Mr. Bond has been on the board for several years and has done good work. One thing which brought him many votes was the feeling that the members of the board who had done so well in the erection of the new school house should be rewarded by another term.

TAKEN FOR TRAMPS.

J. Brunner, C. H. Reinholdt, John Guelck, Henry Rohr and R. Wohlers, all prominent business men of this city, went to Manila Tuesday noon to view the ruins of a building and hardware stock left by a fire which occurred there early Sunday morning. The estimated loss is $2,000.

The party returned home on a freight in the evening. Having purchased their tickets for Manning, they left the depot to "take" their train, but the wheels had commenced to turn. The train was a long one, extending back some fifty-yards west of the platform.

Seeing at a glance that to wait for or even run to meet the caboose would mean to ride on that train, the gentlemen swung themselves into an empty box car and soon, places to hold on to were at a premium. Arriving at Aspinwall the operator happened to spy the men and, rushing to his instrument, he sent over the wire to the night operator in Manning this warning: "No. 72 is loaded with tramps; look out for them!" And he did; but no tramps were detected.—Manning Monitor.

SHAW'S FATHER DEAD.

PASS'G AWAY AT THE ADVANCED AGE OF EIGHTY-FOUR YEARS.

Morrisville, Vt. — Special.—Boardman Shaw, father of Gov. Shaw, of Iowa, died at his home here Tuesday night, aged 84 years.

Boardman O. Shaw was born in the town of Morrisville, Vt., in the month of August, 1816—the same town in which he passed away. The most of his life was spent in that town. For several years he lived upon a farm in the town of Stowe. For about three years he resided in Iowa, but found it more congenial to return to his native home. Mr. Shaw was married twice. His first wife was Louisa Spaulding, who died in 1854. He afterwards married Susan McClutcheon, the widow of a soldier who died in the civil war. There were three children in the family, Leslie M., the present governor of Iowa; Dutton W., a prominent business man residing in Manila, Iowa; and Cora, a daughter who died in 1898—Governor Shaw being called home at that time to attend the funeral.

Mr. Shaw suffered from a paralytic stroke about three years ago and it was a stroke of the same character which caused death at 4:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon last. Governor Shaw reached Morrisville this morning and the funeral will be held on Friday. Mr. Shaw was visiting in Iowa at the time of the first inauguration of his son as chief executive of that state.

Mr. Shaw was a well known figure in Denison and our people learned to love the kindly old man with his quiet ways and intelligent face. The sympathy of many friends go out to Gov. Shaw and D. W. Shaw in their bereavement.

COLLEGE GLEE CLUB.

Eighteen jolly college boys accompanied by Prof. Eastman, M. S. Terry, and Miss Tuttle started yesterday for Dow City where they gave the first of their series of concerts. The boys made a fine appearance in their brand new dress suits and their singing scored a great success with their Dow City audience. Their schedule for the week is, Dunlap, Tuesday; Charter Oak, Wednesday; Glidden, Thursday, and West Side, Friday. On March 20th, they will give a grand concert in Denison for which reserved seats are now on sale at Johnson's. The boys have been doing good work in rehearsals and we believe they will have a successful tour.

WHERE IS HENRY C. BOOCK?

Henry C. Boock commonly known as Curly, has not been heard of or seen by any of his family since last Wednesday. Mr. Boock is traveling salesman for J. Snyder, wholesale vegetable, fruit and cigar man, of Omaha, and usually came to his home in West Side every Saturday night to remain over Sunday but last Saturday night he failed to come and his whereabouts are unknown either by his wife or best friends, and neither does the wholesale house know where he is. Mr. Joe Fulton, a conductor on the C. & N. W. R. R., saw Mr. Boock at the Tremont House at Council Bluffs last Sunday evening about 7 o'clock in company with Tim O'Leary, but that nothing was noticed in him unusual.

On Tuesday evening his brother Chris Boock was telegraphed for at Ida Grove and on Wednesday morning he is in company with Mr. John F. Grote went to Omaha and Council Bluffs in search. On reaching the Bluffs inquiry was made of the O'Learys but nothing could be learned and up to this writing no further information has been received. It was known that Mr. Boock did collect for his firm and sometimes carried considerable money. His friends fear some foul work has befallen him. The theory that some might have that he has absconded can hardly be believed as there is no cause known that would indicate it. However it is very strange and we hope it will turn out all right yet.—West Side Journal.

McKEEVER'S FINE TRIP.

Letter from J. H. McKeever Tells of His Proposed European Trip.

The following letter received by a Denison friend from Mr. J. H. McKeever formerly of the Review office, tells of a three months' trip to Europe which he will soon make. Mr. McKeever is one of the brightest newspaper men ever in Denison and we have often regretted our inability to keep him with us. Mr. McKeever says in his letter:

I shall leave Moline March 19, although I don't sail until March 31. The time intervening I am going to spend in Ohio visiting my sister and then a couple of days in Washington, one in Baltimore, and a day extra in Philadelphia. I sail from Philadelphia on the steamer, Belgeland, of the American line. This is a boat somewhat slower than some of the big ones out of New York and likewise cheaper. Hence, you can see why McKeever sails from this port. The passage will take about ten or twelve days and I am dead certain that the first few days out will be longer than the whole remainder of the voyage, for I shall certainly be seasick. But then I am not worrying about that, it's bad while it lasts but there is an end to it always.

Queenstown, Ireland, is to be my port of entry and there I will embark, and mounting my wheel ride through the Killarney lake region. I'm counting on getting fine sport out of my wheel trip through the British Isles for that is the way I shall do them. Going from Ireland I will strike Scotland at Edinburgh and Glasgow and then ride into the country made famous by Scott's stories. Then down through England to London, visiting meanwhile the old abbeys and cathedral towns of that country, Shakespeare's home sure, and the places near the metropolis. I want to stay three or four or five days in London and then go over to Paris. In Paris, I hope to be able to stay about a month, seeing the fair and the points around that wonderful city. After Paris I have hopes of riding into Holland and Belgium and then Germany and Switzerland, to see the places where the scenes were laid of those little German books we used to read. In coming home I want to go south through Italy, sailing from Naples out through the Mediterranean sea, past Gibraltar and home to New York.

SMALLPOX DECREASING.

Mapleton Press—There is not a single new case of smallpox to report this week, and there are not to exceed three cases in the town or surrounding country, and they are rapidly recovering. The quarantine has this week been raised from several families—who were supposed to have been exposed or in which a case had developed, and it is hoped that by our next issue everybody will be up and fumigated.

CAN GO TO SCHOOL.

Mr. Addison Morgan of Manilla has asked an injunction against the Manilla school board to restrain them from expelling his children from school because they have not been vaccinated. Mr. Morgan affirms that there is no small pox in Manilla or in Crawford county and that the public health does not demand such stringent measures. Judge Church has granted a temporary injunction and the Morgan children can now go to school. The question involved is a delicate one. When the public health demands, the officials should have power to compel vaccination or any other method to prevent the spread of disease.
