REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.

For Mayor.....A. D. WILSON,
For Treasurer.....E. S. PLIMPTON,
For Assessor.....W. M. McLENNAN,
For Solicitor.....A. J. BOND,
Alderman 1st Ward.....W. D. FAUS,
Alderman 2nd Ward.....A. H. BROWN,
Alderman 3rd Ward.....MAX SIME.

The above is the republican city ticket nominated by one of the largest and most harmonious caucuses ever held in the city. There was a contest in but one case and that was of such a friendly nature that it engendered no hard feelings in any quarter. Seventy-five votes were cast on one ballot showing how general was the interest manifested.

The ticket is a good clean one, made up of men who can be trusted to the fullest extent. It is a ticket that it will be a pleasure for every republican to support.

The Ward Caucuses.

The ward caucuses were first held and all showed above the average attendance. In the first ward Mr. A. J. Bond was selected as chairman and Mr. E. T. Cochran as secretary. A ballot for the candidate for alderman resulted as follows; W. D. Faus 15, L. A. Sewell 5, M. E. Jones 2, Cyrus Beard 2, Iseminger, Gulick and Weeks 1 each. Mr. Faus having received a majority of all votes cast was declared the nominee and the nomination was made unanimous. The second warders were not so many in number. U. G. Johnson was chosen to preside and P. W. Meyers as secretary. After a brief informal discussion of the situation the nomination of Mr. A. H. Brown was made by acclamation. U. G. Johnson was elected as ward committeeman in place of G. F. Lochmiller, resigned.

The third ward caucus organized by the election of Dr. Wright as chairman and Herman Harthun as secretary. Max Sime was presented as a candidate for re-nomination and Mr. Morris presented the name of Harry Poorman. Mr. Poorman said that he did not desire the nomination and the nomination of Mr. Sime was made by acclamation.

GENERAL CAUCUS.

Immediately after the ward caucuses the general or city caucus was held in the city hall. Dr. Wright was elected chairman, E. F. Tucker secretary and Max Sime, M. E. Jones and P. W. Meyers as tellers.

On motion the caucus took an informal ballot for candidate for Mayor. The result of the vote was as follows: Wilson 32; Gulick 7; B. Y. Nicholson 8; C. L. Nicholson 4; A. J. Bond 4; scattering 13. It being clearly the wish of the majority that Mr. Wilson should be the nominee, a motion to make it unanimous prevailed.

The next office balloted upon was that of City Treasurer. The informal ballot gave Plimpton 37, Voss 29 and Jones 4. On motion a formal ballot was taken which resulted, Plimpton 40 and Voss 35. Mr. Plimpton was declared the nominee. Mr. McLennan was re-nominated for Solicitor by acclamation as was also Mr. A. J. Bond for Assessor. After his nomination Mr. Wilson was called upon and made a few appropriate remarks thanking the caucus for the nomination. The nominations give very general satisfaction among all classes of republicans. Mr. Wilson has so long been identified with our city and its interests that he needs no introduction to the people who know that "Doug" is perfectly reliable in any emergency. After a long and successful business career here Mr. Wilson has retired and he is thus in such a position that he can act fearlessly for the best interests of the city without fear or favor. He is in all respects an ideal candidate and Denison will be fortunate indeed should he be its next chief magistrate.

The remaining candidates have all filled their offices before with honor and credit to themselves and to the city. It was for this reason that they were re-nominated. Mr. Plimpton as a treasurer, has a long record of honesty and helpfulness behind him. Mr. Bond filled the very arduous office of assessor with great credit and Mr. McLennan made such a good record as city solicitor that not a few of his friends urged him to be a candidate for Mayor.

The aldermanic ticket is as good as the general ticket. Mr. W. D. Faus although a young man has already shown that he is made of the right kind of stuff. He not only believes in the principles of the Republican party but has through undaunted energy won the respect and confidence of the voters of his ward, who will see that he is elected by a large majority.

Mr. Max Sime succeeds himself as alderman in the third ward and he has made a good record. The past two years have been most important ones in legislation, and Mr. Sime has always had the wishes of the people at heart. His record stands as an example of his ability. A. H. Brown nominee for alderman in the second ward is one of the most popular men in town and will pole a big vote. Anything that Bert undertakes is generally carried out. He has made a success of his own business and is therefore capable of handling affairs of a public nature. He is now occupying the responsible position as Chancellor Commander in the Knights of Pythias order, and rules with an arm of steel. Mr. Brown will be elected.

The ticket as named above is the best possible one and we predict the election of every man.

THE PASSION PLAY.

As Produced by Peasants of Ober-Ammergau, Babaria, Every Ten Years.

The people of Denison and vicinity will be given an opportunity to witness and hear an illustrated lecture on "The Passion Play" which will be given in Denison on March 30. This is something which should not be missed; it is a part of the history in the Fatherland, being presented in Bavaria every ten years by the peasants since 1683, and represents all the principle events in Christ's life during the week ending with his crucifixion, burial and resurrection. This production will be made by means of a magnifying glass, and under the auspices of the Catholic society. We can recommend the entertainment to our citizens and trust for a large turnout.

MARRIED.

Robinson—Dillenberger—At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Adam Short, in Vail, on Wednesday, March 14, Mr. John Robinson and Miss Emma Dillenberger, Rev. Eaton of the M. E. church officiating.

The wedding ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends, at the hour of six o'clock. Immediately afterward the merry company partook of a bounteous supper prepared by the bride's mother.

The groom, John R. Robinson, is the second son of Mrs. J. C. Robinson of Milford township, a young man raised in this county, and one whose friends are numerous. He has been very successful as a farmer and stockraiser. Together with his brother he has conducted the large stock business carried on by his father, and has reached that position in life where he can in a measure be independent.

The bride is also a production of Crawford county, having lived here all her life; is a lady of education and refinement and is therefore in every way fitted as a companion to the man of her choice.

The happy couple will make their home on the old farm where they will soon be "at home" to their friends. Among the out of town guests present were: Mrs. Claude Esterly of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barnett of Boone, Miss Anna Mae Strong of Rockwell City, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bollen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scaggs and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson of Denison.

The editor leaves this (Thursday) for Washington, D. C. called there by a telegram telling of the severe illness of his mother, Mrs. J. Fred Meyers. It will be Saturday noon before he can reach her, and it seems a fearfully long journey with a sick mother at the end of the line. We know that her multitude of friends here will join in their prayers for her recovery.

Mr. P. E. C. Lally has been in South Omaha this week, where he was called to defend Mr. Tim Fineran, who was arrested at that place charged with holding a man up and robbing him. It seems that on December 2, Mr. Fineran went to South Omaha to visit relatives, and while there one morning was told the police were looking for him. He immediately set out to find the policeman, and introduced himself. The policeman placed Tim under arrest and he was lodged in jail, notwithstanding his plea of innocence. Mr. Pat Fineran father of the accused, happened to be in the city at the time, and hearing of the affair gave bonds and his son was released to appear later. On Monday Attorney Lally went down and the case came up for hearing. The man claiming he was the victim of the hold-up appeared and positively identified Fineran as the robber (?). Of course Mr. Lally saw through the scheme and while he had some hard work, he succeeded in clearing his client, the jury being eleven to one for acquittal. Mr. Fineran had no difficulty in proving his innocence after an opportunity had been given him. The police force—in fact the entire city of South Omaha—is controlled by gamblers, and, unless a stranger is not careful he will be buncoed in one way or another. Mr. Lally is to be congratulated upon his success in rescuing his man from the clutches of the South Omaha octopus.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The mumps! O, the mumps! Lawyer Beard gave his second talk on commercial law Tuesday morning.

WEDDING BELLS.

Married—At the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday, March 14 at 11 o'clock a. m., Mr. C. J. G. Larson and Miss Blanche H. Hodkin, Rev. E. Miller D. E., of Shenandoah, Iowa, officiating.

The groom is one of Crawford county's most intelligent farmers. He has recently purchased a farm near Denison where he and his estimable lady will reside.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hodkin of Willow township. She has proved to be one of Crawford county's most successful teachers having had eight years experience.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous dinner. Many friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Larson smooth sailing on their voyage o'er life's sea.

PETITION FILLED.

The saloon petition was filed with the county auditor Wednesday. Three or four hundred more voters signed the petition than was necessary to make the 65 per cent as required by the law and all names have been secured carefully and correctly so that there is no chance of failure when the board makes a canvass of the names next April. In every town in the county enough names were secured so that all may have saloons if they so desire. The towns that came nearest to not getting the required per cent were Dow City and Arion, and the names in this township will be carefully canvassed for errors.

The above means everything in the art of fitting shoes. From the very narrow foot to the very wide one. Most merchants will try to fit a very narrow foot with a D or C at most where they should wear AA, consequently the foot works forward in the shoe and always has a cramped feeling. We don't have to do that. We have all the widths so we can fit each foot as it should be. We don't put on a shoe and tell you it fits unless it does. It must fit—the PROPER shoe is always put on the proper foot here. Bear in mind we are the only shoe house in western Iowa that makes the fitting of shoes a study and we have the stock from which to fit you as you should be. Satisfactory customers and good shoes is the motto of
