The Democratic county convention will be held on Saturday, April 28.

Mrs. Eugene Gulick returned on Saturday from her Des Moines visit.

Mrs. J. D. McCracken and son visited A. Oswald and family for several days last week.

Francis A. Brogan, an Omaha attorney, transacted business in Denison on Monday.

Express Messenger Kooser is now able to resume his duties on the Boyer Valley line.

We regret to learn that Miss Beryl Coles is sick with the quinsy at her home in Chariton.

Rev. and Mrs. A. Austin, of Jefferson, are in the city visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Laub.

Born on Saturday, April 14, to Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Faus, a daughter. The REVIEW congratulates.

Messrs. Frank and Henry Faul are enjoying a visit from their sister Miss Katie Faul, of Council Bluffs.

A very good story, "The Count's Apology," appears in this number. It is good reading for a rainy day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rice, of Marshalltown, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kelly on Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Wiggins and Misses Besie and Jessie Robertson spent Monday, their mother's birthday, in Dow City.

Mrs. Florence Wygant Aylesworth and her little one, of Council Bluffs, are visiting the folks at home this week.

P. W. Harding, of Charter Oak, is among the attorneys brought to Denison this week by the session of court.

J. H. Gable returned last Saturday from a trip to Colorado. He reports heavy falls of snow in the mountains.

The rains were hard on Easter bonnets but good for spring crops, so we guess we can stand it if the ladies can.

Mat Rumsey expects to leave to-day for his home in California after a three week's visit with his mother, Mrs. S. B. Greek.

Mrs. James Hill, of Cascade, Iowa, who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Bateson, returned to her home on Monday.

J. H. Rustin, president of the Fairmont Creamery Co., has been in Denison this week looking after the company's growing plant at this place.

Mr. R. C. Bond father of Dr. L. L. Bond, started last evening for his home in Milton Junction Wisconsin. He has been spending the winter in Denison.

Mr. Wm. Marquardt was at Carroll Saturday visiting his wife who is receiving treatment under Dr. Wright. He reports Mrs. Marquardt as improving.

The Coterie club meets with Mrs. H. A. Boyle on next Thursday afternoon. At this hospitable home the club members are certain to have an enjoyable time.

Hon. J. F. Lavender of Rockwell City is in Denison this week getting ready for the trial of the case of Moore vs. McHenry, which is set for next Thursday.

Rainy weather rather put a damper on the Easter services at the various churches, nevertheless the programs were well carried out and the congregations were large.

Mr. Greenize of the Harrison county Marble and Granite Co. was in Denison today. The company is located in Woodbine and is pushing for business all over western Iowa. Mr. Frank Howard will represent the company in Denison and vicinity. Frank is a hustler and will doubtless secure many orders.

Fresh Buttermilk. At the creamery 5c per gallon. 29-31*

GABLE DID WELL.

The Anamosa Journal speaking of the Denison representative in the high school declamatory contest, Mr. Chas. H. Gable, says: "The selection was good, the number strong, and many of the audience placed the contestant in the front rank."

WELCOME.

THE REVIEW extends a cordial greeting to the many old subscribers who have again had their names enrolled on the REVIEW list since April 1. It was a most unpleasant task to cut off some of the old subscribers and we are glad that they have taken no offense, but are coming back into the fold and helping us to establish our cash system.

MRS. KOCH DEAD.

News comes to Denison that Mrs. Joseph Koch died at her home in Washington township last night of pneumonia. The deceased was a young woman who was greatly loved and esteemed by all who knew her. She leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss. We understand the remains will be taken to Ft. Madison Iowa, for interment.

PALACE BAKERY IMPROVEMENT.

Mr. M. M. Bradbury has not rested content until he has made his bakery first class in every respect. In order to do still better work he has recently employed an Omaha expert to rebuild his bake oven. Although an expensive job, Mr. Bradbury thinks he got the worth of his money and that he can now turn out as fine bread as can be baked in America.

IS WELL LIKED.

The Review want column fills a long felt need in the community. It is becoming better patronized and more interesting with each issue.

Every subscriber has a right to use this column absolutely free once during the year. If you want to use it a second time but a cent a word. A trial will convince you that this is the cheapest and most satisfactory manner to let your wants be known.

JUDGE CHURCH WILL SPEAK.

At the Mother's Round Table Meeting Tomorrow Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Romans will entertain the Mother's Round Table and all interested friends at their hospitable home tomorrow evening and they extend a personal invitation to teachers and parents to be present. The discussion led by Prof. Holmes on "What Constitutes Success in Life" and participated in by Judge Z. A. Church, Judge J. A. Connor and Messrs P. E. C. Lally and E. S. Plimpton promises to be of great interest. After the literary program light refreshments will be served. Interest in this meeting is being aroused by the fact that the National Mother's Congress meets in Des Moines next month. Mrs. R. A. Romans and Mrs. G. L. Caswell will represent the Denison Association.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

The editor has become stage struck. We are positively going to appear in the great four act drama to be given at the opera house next Monday. There are some others in the cast, but that is a minor matter. We have always felt an inward longing, for better and nobler things, we have felt that as an editor we were not fully appreciated by some of our democratic friends and we have yearned to show our abilities in other fields, fields where partisanship enters not, neither county printing. We are going to star in the low comedy part and if we do not forget our lines or get the "business" mixed up, we are going to be the event of the season.

N. B. We have purchased a patent stale egg and vegetable protector so you cannot hurt our feelings in that way. Laughter and applause will be duly appreciated. As a special inducement we offer one week's free subscription to the man who laughs the loudest—except in Act 4—there are solemn and delicious moments in Act 4, which positively must not be disturbed by vulgar applause.

BACK FROM BURMAH.

Mrs. Albert Seagrave and Children Return From India's Coral Strand.

Mrs. Albert Seagrave and her four children arrived in Denison on Saturday. Mrs. Seagrave left Rangoon in November and has been spending the winter in Oakland, California, fearing to expose her children to the rigors of a northern winter. There was joy in the Seagrave home over the safe arrival. Mr. Seagrave will remain in India for another year before returning to America. Mrs. Seagrave was born in India, but received her education in this country. She has been a loyal helpful helpmate in her husband's missionary work and our people will be greatly interested in her stories of life in the far east. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Seagrave of Woodbine, and Mr. Fred Seagrave and two children of Charter Oak came to Denison to greet the wanderers and Mr. John Cushing went on Saturday to meet them at Council Bluffs.

County Attorney O'Hare informs us that his father, Mr. Hugh O'Hare, has accepted the editorship of the Ottumwa Democrat, one of the strongest democratic dailies in the state. Mr. O'Hare was formerly editor of the Iowa City Press and is a journalist of experience and ability.

Otto Moenck is now window trimmer at J. P. Miller & Co's. and his work is proving very attractive. The big store has recently been painted up inside and it presents a very pretty and fresh appearance.

The editor's Easter dinner was made happy by the presence of two wild ducks, which were the trophies of Lou Baer's marksmanship at Wall Lake last week. Lou has our permission to go again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Seemann have rented their house to Mr. Fred Pratt. Mrs. Seemann intends visiting at home awhile, and then expects to go to DuBuque, where she will take lessons in the art of engraving.

Mrs. Samuel Stewart and two children started this morning for Medina, North Dakota. A number of her relatives and friends were at the depot to bid her a final farewell and wish her good luck on her journey.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church are to have a social Friday evening, April 20th, at Mrs. Ley's. Refreshments will be served for which 10 cents will be charged. They are anxious to have a large attendance.

Miss Maude Hunter gave a birthday party at her home in Dunlap on Sunday last and a number from Denison were in attendance. Among those going down were the Misses Mary and Clara Beard, Clara and Mabel McAbren and Grace Baer.

The Chicago Times Herald states today that the administration's choice of a vice-presidential candidate is Senator W. B. Allison, of Iowa. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of the choice but it is exceedingly doubtful if Iowa's senior senator will accept.

We are informed that Miss Sophia Baile is expected home from Iowa City this week. Miss Baile is obliged to leave her school work on account of her eyes. Her many friends greatly regret the necessity which has compelled her to abandon her work for the present.

Faus Bros have obtained the contract for putting in storm caves at the school houses in Hays township. The caves will be of cement, the contract calling for nine caves for a total consideration of $1080. The Faus Bros will do a first class job as they always do.

Mr. E. S. Plimpton informs us that he expects to build several new houses in Denison this spring but that he cannot go ahead with the work on account of the scarcity of brick. Mr. Plimpton is one of the few wealthy men of Denison who have given their attention to building up the town.

Denison ladies will be kept busy to-morrow. In the afternoon is the apron sale at the city hall and in the evening occurs the Mother's Round Table meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Romans. The Presbyterian L. A. S. also meets in the afternoon and the Eastern Star in the evening.

See the burning of Rome, the cruel pagan gladiators, the great arena scene at the opera house, Tuesday evening, April 24th, on which occasion our citizens will have an opportunity of witnessing Frederick Clark's magnificent production of the great play of the day, "Quo Vadis." No one should miss it.

J. T. Haugh is just in receipt of a letter from Rev. Father M. J. Farrelly, written from Beymoth, Syria, March 30. Father Farrelly said that he had spent the last thirty days in the saddle and pretty well tired out. He expected to be in Constantinople in a few days. He further says that he may be home by July 4th.

The following extract is taken from the Bloomington, Ill., Bulletin: "Frederick Clark's company presented 'Quo Vadis' to a very large and appreciative audience at the opera house last night. This is probably the strongest company of players that has ever appeared in this city. It was not a company of one or two stars but a company of all stars."

Mr. John F. O'Hare brother of our county attorney, was in Denison this week. Mr. O'Hare is representing the Modern Accident Insurance company. He is a pleasant and affable young man and expressed himself as much pleased with the success his brother has met at the hands of Crawford county people.

A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Maude Hunter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Philbrook last evening. It was Miss Hunter's birthday—her sixteenth we believe, and sixteen young people gathered to celebrate it. The party was given by Mrs. Philbrook, and Mrs. J. P. Conner assisted in serving a delightful lunch. The evening was spent with a cinch contest in which Miss Anna Shumaker and Mr. Chester Lyman carried off the prizes.

Agent Casner has been inquiring as to the proper grade of the street leading up town from the Central depot. He says there is some talk of the Centrals running a temporary track up the street and graveling it provided the city will do its share in preparing the roadway. The council should push this matter for all there is in it. A six foot walk should also be ordered on both sides of Main street to the North-western station.

W. L. Myers, traveling salesman for Edwards-Stanwood Shoe Company, of Chicago, and a brother-in-law of our foreman, A. A. Runkle, is in the city today.

Messrs Flinn and Kelleher opened up their saloon—the sixth in Denison—in the Fargo House building on Saturday evening. They have as handsome a bar as there is in the city and they profess their desire to run an orderly and law abiding place. Denison now receives $5,400 per year from its saloons.

Mr. Gordon Gary and Miss Emma Hoffman were married at Charter Oak last Sunday by Rev. L. Hild of Ute. We have not the pleasure of knowing the fair bride but we know Gordon as one of the brightest and best young men in Crawford county. He has been a successful teacher and has always been upright and straightforward. We are most sincere in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gary every happiness.

Mr. A. Daz opened up the bar in connection with his hotel the North-western house last Saturday night. Mr. Daz has shown his faith in Denison by the expenditure of a large amount of money in the erection of a hotel near the depot. His hotel is well kept, neat and new, the meals are first class and the sleeping apartments pleasant and comfortable. The hotel is convenient for transients and there is no reason why it should not do a good business.
