THE TEACHERS' CONVENTION.

Large Gathering at Sioux City. Crawford County in Evidence.

The teachers' convention held at Sioux City last week was a great success. The Sioux City Journal gives an excellent account of the proceedings and from it we find a number of things of particular interest to Crawford county people. Among the list of those present we find: A. G. Myers, W. C. Van Ness, Mrs. W. J. McAhren, Gertrude French, Mabel McAhren, Margaret King, Maud Bryan, and Ida Craft of Denison, and Mildred Wiggins, Susie A. Craft, F. R. Schafer, and Francis Lawrence of Dow City.

DENISON ABROAD.

A Brilliant Wedding at Which Miss McHenry Acted as Maid of Honor.

From the society columns of a Pasadena (Ca.) daily, we clip the following notice of a brilliant wedding at which Miss McHenry played an important part. Our people are always interested in the social successes of our home men and women. Mr. Nash, the groom, was at one time a prominent business man of Ida Grove.

Easter week is supposed to be the week of weddings and Pasadena has in the past two days given away four brides, but by far the prettiest and smartest wedding of the week, perhaps indeed, of the entire season, was that of Miss Eleanor Gertrude Goodrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Holmes Goodrich, to Mr. Frederick Chaffee Nash, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Nash, which was solemnized on Tuesday evening in the Lincoln Avenue church, Rev. R. L. Bruce performing the impressive ceremony.

First, came the ushers, Dr. Scudder and Walter Fisher, Ed Grosvenbyke and Ed Hart, walking two and two, followed by the four maids, Misses Lila Dalrymple, Alice Markham, Marie Markham and Katherine Scudder, walking alone. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Abbie McHenry of Iowa, who was exquisitely frocked in French embroidered net over azule pink liberty silk. The under slip was made with a broad double ruffle of accordion pleated taffeta, while the net overdress, which was embroidered with pink carnations and lilies of the valley, was edged with narrow ruckings of white liberty silk. The décollete bodice was made with a bertha of rare Duchesse lace, while the girdle was of pink mirror velvet. In her hair she wore an aigrette of white ostrich tips and carried a large cluster of pink carnations and maiden-hair ferns.

The other day a gentleman says: "Are there no well diggers in your city? Don't any of them advertise? I have been looking your paper through and can not find a man." We had to say that there were none advertising but that we hoped some of them would drop in and place their order soon. Yet there are some people who look upon advertising as a waste of money.

Died, Sunday morning, April 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Weber the child, Hazel Corey, at the age of two years, one month and four days, of lung fever, pneumonia and bronchitis. The funeral was held at the house Monday at 2 o'clock and from there to German-Luthern church and to cemetery, Rev. Lothringer officiating.

In our last issue we mentioned the death of Mr. Jas. P. Bosley. We were unable at the time to get a full account of his death. Mr. Bosley was born July 26, 1828, in Ohio and came to Iowa when 22 years of age. He was married in Hardin county to Miss Elizabeth King and seven children were born to them, three of whom are living. The deceased had been a member of the Odd Fellows lodge for fifty years and had held all the chairs of the order and was held in the highest respect by that order, being a member at Lake City. For the past ten years the deceased had made his home in Jackson, Miss., and came to Denison on April 5, where he died April 20. A good christian man is taken to his last resting place.

Patrons of the Denison postoffice can now secure stamp books. Mr. Boynton informs us he has a supply on hand. These books are very handy, are made to fit the pocket and keep stamps in good condition. Twelve two-cent stamps are sold for a quarter, twenty-four for 40 cents and 48 for 97 cents. The Denison office was the third one in Iowa receiving these stamp books.

The following list of letters remain uncalled for in the postoffice at Denison, Iowa, up to April 23, 1900. If not called for, same will be sent to the dead letter office. Parties calling for letters please say advertised letters.

ABERDEEN.

"Aberdeen" played to a big house last night in spite of the inclement weather. Although the play was late in beginning, the Denison orchestra kept the audience in good humor by its excellent music. We believe we are fully justified in saying that the performance was better than many "professional" entertainments which have been given here. Mr. Lawrence Russell both in his part and in his work as drill master showed himself to be an expert, and it is indeed astonishing that he could produce such good results from raw material in the space of ten days. Miss Dora Swearingen played the part of Agnes very creditably. As for the local players they all did their parts well. Miss Grace Baer, Ralph Seymour, John Harrison and B. H. Foderberg, who had the tragedy parts acted so realistically that more than once they brought their audience to tears, a very high compliment to their ability. Dr. C. S. Leech filled the difficult role of "villain" with power and feeling. Miss Fay Cook as the graceful sourette made one of the hits of the play and her specialty between acts was enthusiastically encored. The comedy parts by Miss Edith Lunney and Mr. Harry Lunney were very funny indeed and their make-ups were perfect. Mr. Andrew Stewart as Sergeant Tracy was a typical, brave, light-hearted soldier boy and he did especially well in the difficult battle scene. Mr. Fred Rose in his double role as the Spaniard and as village rector did well indeed. Excessive modesty forbids us to mention the part of "William Augustus Devine," but it might have been worse. The play has enough of plot to make it interesting and enough of comedy to serve as a relief for the pathetic parts. The gross receipts of the performance were over $100 and the Log rolling fund is some $85 richer on account of it. The Woodmen wish to thank the citizens for their generous patronage and to express their confidence and esteem for Mr. Russell.

The Denison Orchestra Concert takes place on Friday, May 4th, at which time the music loving people of our city will have an opportunity of again hearing a good concert. Secure your seats at Johnson's book store.

The ball game between the Vail and Jackson township clubs played at Vail, resulted in a victory for the Jacksonians, the score standing 21 to 23. The Vailites lay their defeat to the fact that their new uniforms were not ready. Manager Fanske should get the suits immediately.

Mr. F. L. Evans was up from Audubon on Sunday. He informs us that he has worked enough in that city to keep him engaged for a year yet. He has now in course of construction four large buildings and is at present planning an opera house. Mr. Evans is an excellent mechanic and contractor and gets all the work he can handle.

Mr. L. A. Sewell spent Sunday in Charter Oak visiting with Mr. Abbott before he left for Alaska. Mr. Sewell sent a number of things by Mr. Abbott to his son, John. The last heard from John was that he was averaging $400 per week practicing dentistry. Verily there are more ways than one of finding gold at Cape Nome.
