Miss Lydia Belle Kuehnle returned from Chicago on Sunday evening a few days in advance of her parents in order to be present at the opening of school. She is a faithful little Miss.

J. C. Kelly spent several days of last week in Des Moines. While there he gave his order for a fine new delivery wagon for his pop manufacture. We expect it will be a beauty.

The dance and amateur theater given last night by the Militaerische Bruderschaft was well attended and was an enjoyable affair. It was in the nature of a celebration of the 30th anniversary of the battle of Sedan, which took place Sept. 2d, 1870.

The Misses Biggs entertained a number of their friends at their home in Goodrich township on last Friday evening. Some time was spent in playing games, after which delicious refreshments were served. At a late hour the company parted, feeling that the evening had only passed too quick.

Mr and Mrs. Matt Hugg have been called upon to mourn the loss of their bright little eleven months old girl, Salome Esther. She was such a bright, winsome child and had so entwined herself about her parents hearts that their grief is great indeed. We would express our most sincere sympathy for them in their great affliction. The little one died on Sunday noon, Sept. 2nd, and was buried this afternoon, the services being held at the German Methodist church, Rev. G. C. Claussen officiating.

Hon. H. C. Laub returned on Saturday evening from a business visit in Chicago.

Mrs. I. A. Underhill returned Saturday evening from a few weeks visit at Excelsior, Minn.

Mrs. Geo. Naeve and children returned Saturday afternoon from an extended visit at Lake Okoboji.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rath have returned from their Wisconsin trip and report a most enjoyable visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Jordan, of Dunlap, were visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Raine, on Sunday.

A number of parties purchased fancy hogs while at the state fair and Crawford county is now the richer by a number of finely bred animals.

A letter from Hot Springs tells us that Mrs. J. Fred Meyers stood the long journey well and is now comfortably settled at the famous health resort.

Mr. Alfred Schuler was a Denison caller on Tuesday and ordered his R-view sent to South McAlester, Indian Territory, which place he intends to make his in the future.

Arrangements have been made to stop trains Nos. 4 and 5 on Sept. 11th, 12th and 13th in Vall, West Side and Arcadia, which will make it very convenient for those who want to visit the Carroll county Fair.

Dr. J. I. Gibson left on Monday evening for Rockwell City on professional business. Mrs. Gibson and daughter joined him at that place today and together they will enjoy a few days recreation at Spirit Lake and Jackson, Minnesota.

Last week Denison was afflicted by a couple of street evangelists, who professed to have a corner on salvation. Later it was found that they were not what they claimed, and that on the contrary, although passing as man and wife they were not such. They were fired from the respectable household in which they found shelter and were sent on their way. These traveling hypocrites do great harm to the cause of real religion. Our people and our churches should be careful of these wolves in sheeps' clothing.

BOY ON THEIR HANDS.

Geo. Cain, of Denison, Held by Police at Waterloo, Iowa.

Waterloo, Sept. 3.—The police of this city have an 8-year-old boy on their hands and they are in a quandary as to what to do with him. A few days ago he turned up at the home of a man by the name of Smith, a dealer in melons. Mr. Smith kept him until last night, but could learn nothing from him as to where his home was. He was brought to Waterloo last evening and Policeman Frank Fluett took him in charge. To the inquiries of the policeman the boy said that his name was George Cain, and that he had a mother and step-father living near Denison, Iowa. He said his step-father's name was Walter Norris, and that he was a section man for the Illinois Central at Denison. The boy also said his father had sent him to the reform school, but that he had run away from there. He did not know how he came to Mr. Smith's home nor where he had been before that. The police thought that the story the boy was telling was not quite clear, but Marshal Wetlaufer decided to investigate and this morning telegraphed to Denison, receiving the reply that no man by the name of Norris was known there. Officer Fluett took the little waif home with him, and after his ragged and dirty clothes had been removed, and he had been put through the process of a bath, he presented quite a respectable appearance. He will be kept in the officer's family for the present, until his case can be investigated.

A PRINCELY TEAM.

Towering Proboscians and Double-Humped Camels in Silver Harness.

Caesar made many triumphal entries into Rome, and taxed to the utmost the ingenuity of the gentlemen who got up his larger entrances to provide new ideas for him. He entered with kings hitched with golden chains to his chariots, drawing him through the Via This or That to his palace, and was sometimes borne by chariots drawn by the fair and peerless daughters of glorious Roma; but never even in his triumphal entries did he or could he have been drawn by great teams of ponderous proboscians and huge double-humped camels, as are many of the golden chariots seen in the Lemen Brothers' marvelous street parade, and not one, but many teams of elephants and camels drawing golden chariots, while caparisoned beyond comparison in silk and silver-mounted harness, and bearing in the chariots the exalted rulers of the arenic world—the world's champions and the big show's stars.

DOLLIVER IS COMING.

Chairman Nicholson instructs us to announce that Senator J. P. Dolliver will speak in Denison on the evening of Wednesday, September 12th. This will be the first meeting of the campaign in Denison. Every one will be glad to hear the man whom Governor Shaw has honored with the senatorship. Heretofore he has come to us as our eloquent member of congress, we will now greet him as the junior senator from Iowa. The meeting is to be on the same day as the circus and our friends from the country should come in prepared to make a day of it. Have a good time in the afternoon and devote the evening to a consideration of the great public questions of the day. The republicans of Denison might have chosen another day for the great Dolliver meeting had they had the opportunity, but the time of Senator Dolliver is in such demand that it was on this day or not at all during the campaign.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION AT FORT DODGE.

J. P. Dolliver, and also to make a nomination for the full term beginning March 4, 1901, occasioned by the action of the Hon. J. P. Dolliver in resigning the nomination tendered him on May 8th, 1900. The several counties will be entitled to the same representation as in the state convention held August 1, 1900, as follows:

McHENRY'S PRIZE WINNERS.

Below we give a list of the premiums won at the Iowa State Fair last week by the "Doddies" from McHenry Park. This herd of cattle is known all over the United States as the premier herd and it is a great advertisement for our town and county as well as our state. No other herd of any breed of cattle took so many first premiums as did this one. It is a matter of much local pride that such a herd of cattle are owned in our county and it is a great factor in maintaining and building up Iowa as the leading stock and agricultural state of this great union. Mr. McHenry admits that there is not much financial profit to him in keeping up a herd of this reputation but that it is a great source of pleasure to have them and to know that he is instrumental in promoting the best interest of the farmers of our commonwealth.

THE YAKIRA VALLEY, WASHINGTON.

The most attractive irrigation proposition in the United States. All but tropical fruits grow luxuriantly, while alfalfa is a sure and profitable crop. Twenty-acre ranch can be purchased for $600 on easy terms. The Northern Pacific R'y traverses the entire length of the valley, thus ensuring good transportation facilities. Good schools and churches abound, and rural mail routes are established throughout the valley, which will soon be one large village. Thunderstorms are rare and cyclones unknown. The climate, which is very mild, is extremely beneficial to consumption and those afflicted with bronchial and catarrhal troubles. For particulars write to C. W. Mott, Gen. Emigration Agent, Northern Pacific R'y, St. Paul, Minn.

Judge J. P. Conner is receiving most flattering encouragement in his candidacy for congress. We believe he will have almost the unanimous support of the south end of the district, and that with good hard work upon the part of his friends, he will be the nominee of the convention. For the benefit of those who are not personally acquainted with Judge Conner, we give in another column a brief biography of his life of hard work and brilliant achievements. He has been a great power for good in this community and no public enterprise is undertaken without his support and council. As a member of congress he would be steadily republican, reliable in all things, never forgetting a friend, and we believe he would soon take a high rank as a national legislator.

Yesterday was Labor Day. It was generally observed in all the cities of the country.

LOAD of watermelons just received at J. P. Miller & Co.'s. The muscatine melons, the best in the world. Get your's quick.

We understand that owing to ill health, Mr. John White has withdrawn as a candidate for supervisor from the east end of the county. With the withdrawal of Mr. White the board loses a careful, honest and painstaking member. The Review is not so blinded by partisanship but that it can see the merits of a man, even though he be a democratic office holder, and we wish to pay our tribute of esteem to honest John White of Jackson township. He is as good hearted and true a man as it has ever been our pleasure to meet and we regret the serious illness which has caused his retirement from the field and hope that he may recover and yet see many happy days. We understand that with his withdrawal there are several candidates for the nomination to succeed him, chief among which are Messrs. McAndrews, Holland and Molter.

Last week there was a conference in Des Moines, so we are reliably informed, for the purpose of considering the congressional situation in the 10th district. It was supposed to be an anti-machine affair, and while attended by one or two parties from the tenth district, it was also attended by representatives of Des Moines newspapers, several 7th district politicians, one eminent politician of the 9th district, two from the 2nd and another from the 4th. The question which presents itself to the 10th district voter is, "What business had these men from outside districts in meeting to determine the action of the republicans of the big 10th?" For our part, we believe the republicans of the district will resent these attempts of outside interference, and also the attempts of some of the Des Moines newspapers to dictate the nomination, and to injure those candidates to whom they are not friendly. This is entirely a district matter and should be settled in the district and without outside interference. It would seem that these anti-machine politicians are using the most oppressive machine measures themselves and that they took part merely in desire to substitute one machine for another.
