A REGULAR FROST.

Democratic Speakers Fail to Interest Their Audience.

We understand that our democratic friends were greatly disappointed with the speeches delivered here on Tuesday evening by Col. Jos. Eiboeck and the democratic candidate for congress Mr. Dale, of Boone. We have heard many democrats openly assert that the meeting did more harm than good, and that they hoped the democratic state committee would not allow them to continue in the campaign. Col. Eiboeck is a brainy writer, but is not a good speaker and he is not enough in touch with the democratic policies to stir a democratic audience. Mr. Dale's speech was devoid of interest and had few redeeming features. We have heard our democratic friends criticize Mr. Dale's conduct while in the city and we believe his visit made a host of votes for Judge Conner. Thus far in the campaign every democratic meeting has been a failure and the campaign managers are becoming discouraged.

WHO WERE THE FIVE?

The Des Moines papers, still actuated by their pre-convention hostility to Judge Conner, and sore at the Greene county men for their steadfast adherence to his colors, are industriously endeavoring to damage by insinuation the clean record of our solid delegation. It is low business. The statement that five of the Greene delegation stood ready to bolt Conner Wednesday morning is an inexcusable and willful falsehood. The matter has gone so far that it is well that Greene county and the public should know that when the agents of the "combine" came to our delegation Wednesday morning saying we were "expected" to do this and that they were given very clear intimation that Greene county was for Conner, and they retreated in confusion. The Greene county men stand pat on their record in the convention, and resent the insulting insinuation referred to.—Jefferson Bee.

Mrs. Naeve and Miss Alice Knaul are spending a few days in Omaha.

Miss Ella Wagoner went to Omaha Wednesday to remain for some time.

Mrs. D. W. Walker and children of Waterloo, visited Denison friends and relatives this week.

Mrs. J. H. Mahoney and son went to Omaha yesterday for a two week's visit with relatives.

Julius Piper arrived on Wednesday morning from Montana, where he has spent the past season.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sievers was the scene of a pleasant surprise party last evening. All those present report a most enjoyable time.

Messrs. Henry and Paul Schwartz and E. Nielsen arrived last Wednesday from Montana for a short visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. Oscar Ainsworth and Mrs. E. O. Thiem went to Deloit yesterday to see their father, Mr. M. Ainsworth, for whom it was necessary to call medical assistance.

Editor Hungerford and Attorney Saul, of Carroll, were in Denison Wednesday returning from the Fort Dodge convention.

Robert Ewall has accepted a position as clerk in U. G. Johnson & Co.'s store and he no doubt will fill the position with credit to himself, as he is a bright industrious young man.

The interlocking switch at Arion will be put in operation next week. Therefore the fast trains will not stop at that place hereafter as they have been doing on account of the crossing.

Born, on Tuesday, Sept. 25, 1900, to Mr. and Mrs. B. Y. Nicholson, a son. The Review joins a host of friends in congratulations and we trust the young republican may grow to be an honor to the name he bears.

Our people have planned a grand surprise on Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wygant this evening, this being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. They are among our most estimable and popular people and they hold a warm place in the hearts of all.

The October number of McClure's opens with an article on "The Strategy of National Campaigns," attractively illustrated by Jay Hambridge. The frontispiece, showing Governor Roosevelt and Senator Hanna in conference at Republican National Headquarters, and the strikingly original portraits of Cleveland, Blaine, Quay, Croker, Bryan and others, lend especial interest to this paper on the tactics of party managers in the Presidential campaigns of the past twenty-five years. The author has been in the thick of the fight and has evidently been brought very closely into contact with the great leaders in the battles which he describes.

Mr. Chas. Richardson, of Jackson township, and Miss Carrie M. Miller were married at the home of the bride in Milford township on Thursday evening, Sept. 20, 1900. Rev. Eaton of Vail, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Jonathan Miller of Milford township, and is a young lady of a kind and loving disposition and in every fitted to take up her new duties. The happy groom is a hardworking and prosperous young farmer of Jackson township. They will make their home until spring with Mr. Miller, when they move onto their farm in Jackson township. The Review extends congratulations, and joins with their host of friends in wishing them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

SHORT NOTICE.

Is all we have for the ratification meeting to be held in Denison to-morrow night. It is all that is needed.

A BIRTHDAY.

Capt. Wm. Farnilton, of Denison, Iowa, who has been visiting his daughters, Mesdames J. M. Morton and E. Small, celebrated his 75th birthday at the home of the latter last Sunday. The captain was born in Ohio and came to this county in the early 50's, taking after coming here a prominent interest in public affairs, having served as deputy sheriff, deputy clerk of the courts, clerk of the courts for two terms and member of the board of supervisors during the 60's. When resident here he probably knew more of the then residents of the county than any other man in it. Capt. Farnilton was captain of Co. F of the 44th Rgt., Iowa Vol. Inf'y. in the War of the Rebellion. His friends wish him many additional and happy returns of his natal day.—The Clinton Advertiser.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire through the columns of the Review to thank all those who in so many ways assisted in the caring for our beloved wife and mother during her illness and death. May He who rules the universe reward you.

The Bulletin has done expanded so it says. It has swallowed the Deloit News and will hereafter furnish democratic doctrine to the republicans of Deloit. The editor of the News told us that counting exchanges, dead heads and extras, he printed nearly 120 papers each week. The Bulletin's list must therefore be nearly doubled.

DENISON AGAIN HONORED.

The Aberdeen-Angus herd of W. A. McHenry has again made a clean sweep at the great Illinois State fair, where the combined forces from the eastern and western circuits met in solid phalanx. This herd won the Premier honors of both aged and young herds, champion aged and young bull, champion aged and young females, in fact covering all the prizes won at the Iowa and Minnesota State fairs. They will go to St. Louis next week, and after taking the ribbons offered there will return to Denison and rest on their honors until December when they will go to the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago, where the combined beef cattle interests will be shown and sales of each breed will be made by the managers of each breed. The Aberdeen-Angus association offer five thousand dollars in prizes for their cattle. Mr. McHenry will contribute four animals to the sale. Denison is now looked upon as headquarters of America for the best Angus cattle and Mr. McHenry is determined to hold the Premiership.

FROM HAMILTON COUNTY.

Hon. James P. Conner is one of the strong, well balanced leaders of the republican party in Iowa and is certain to bring honor to himself and the big Tenth District in Congress. He was born in Indiana in 1851 and is therefore in the prime of fully developed manhood. He came to Iowa in 1854 and after graduating from the Upper Iowa University in 1872, entered the practice of law at Denison, Iowa, which city has ever since been his home. He was elected District Attorney for the 13th district in 1880 and in 1884 was elected Judge of the Circuit Court, in which capacity he served with distinction for six years. He is conceded to be one of the ablest jurists in western Iowa, and a man of the highest character. He has been an active and energetic worker in the cause of republicanism for over twenty years and his extensive acquaintance throughout the district and the state—combined to his peculiar fitness for the position—make him an exceptionally strong candidate.—Webster City Freeman-Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jobe, who have been visiting old time friends in Chicago and other places in Illinois the past month, returned to their home in Denison yesterday morning. They report a most enjoyable time.

Miss Agnes King went to Omaha this morning to spend the day.
