"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it is not to be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."—W. J. Bryan.

WE GLOAT, A FEW.

This is Denison. The biggest Town of its size In Iowa. It gets what it goes after; It likes everybody just now, But some liguors Like some liguors Are better than others. We have a statesman On every corner, A Congressman in the valley And a Governor. If you want anything come to Denison and be happy. The best thing about Denison Is That it wins On its merit. Its candidates are the best candidates.

It stands by its district And its district Stands by it. That's why we yell And shout And whoop'er-up generally. We're "IT." So please excuse us While we yell; Hurrah for Conner! Hurrah for Shaw! Hurrah for Denison! Hurrah for Crawford! Hurrah for Conner! And Webs.e And Calhoun And Emmet And Kossuth, you bet And a tiger For Humboldt And Pocahontas And a faint Dim Distant echo For the fishless "pool."

HERE'S TO COWLES.

Dear Gardner:—We wish to express our sincere thanks for your splendid generalship, your magnificent leadership, your matchless courage in the face of supposed defeat, your steadfast friendship and absolute loyalty. If there is anything we can do for your friends in future we should consider it a favor to be allowed to reciprocate.

Yours sincerely,

CRAWFORD COUNTY.

DOING PRETTY WELL, THANKS.

The Des Moines Capital says, "The Governor will survive his now famous letter." At last reports the Governor's pulse was strong and even, with lower temperature. The Governor was not in the political wreck as reported early on Wednesday morning.

Senator Warren Garst came to Denison Wednesday afternoon to rejoice with us over the nomination of Judge Conner.

JUDGE CONNER'S NOMINATION.

In the selection of Judge James P. Conner, of Denison, as their candidate to succeed Senator Dolliver in the lower house of congress the republicans of the Tenth district have made a most admirable choice. Judge Conner is not new to the public knowledge or to the public service. He is an Indianian by birth, but an Iowan by growth, all of his active years having been spent in this state. His first public service was rendered in the office of district attorney for the Thirteenth judicial district of Iowa to which he was called in 1880. His record there was so satisfactory that he was advanced to the position of circuit judge in 1884. When the legislature rearranged the judicial districts in 1886 Judge Conner was re-elected unanimously in the new Sixth district, made up of the counties of Greene, Crawford, Carroll, Sac, Ida and Calhoun. At the expiration of his term he declined re-election, preferring the professional and business opportunities of private life. Since that time Judge Conner has been eminently successful in the practice of his profession and in business ventures. He is now a director and one of the largest stockholders in the Crawford County State bank, of Denison, and is also president of the Denison Business Men's Association. The estimation in which Judge Conner was held in his district was shown at the convention which first nominated Dolliver. At that convention Judge Conner was one of the leading candidates and missed nomination by only a few votes. Ultimately his strength was used to aid in the nomination of Dolliver, a debt which Mr. Dolliver's friends did not fail to remember in the present contest.

Judge Conner is a man of affairs. He has fine presence, giving the impression of dignity and strength of character. He will not drop out of sight down in Washington. As a nomination at the hands of the republican party in the Tenth district is equivalent to an election, there is no question that Judge Conner will succeed Senator Dolliver in the house. Neither is there any question that he will prove a most creditable and effective representative of his constituents in that body.

From the lower viewpoint of practical politics the republicans of the Tenth district have also done well in the nomination of Judge Conner. Geographically, the nominee is a representative of the far south section of the district, which has been demanding recognition. He is also a personal friend of Gov Shaw, a fact which has been made the basis of the argument in some quarters that he should be defeated as a matter of humiliation to the governor and of satisfaction to the governor's political enemies. The bringing of another's personality into the consideration of a candidate's fitness for office is always a poor argument, and the Tenth district republicans have done wisely in rebuking it. Owing to the persistency with which the anti-Shaw arguments were used in opposition to Conner there is no question that his nomination may be considered a personal triumph for Gov. Shaw. From any point of view, however, that fact may be considered a mere detail. The important point is that the republicans of the Tenth district have nominated a man of whom only good words will be said all over the district, a man who is certain of election by a large majority and a man in every way worthy to take a place among the influential delegation which the Iowa republicans will send to the house of representatives. That the selection was made from such a large field of candidates in such a general spirit of good nature speaks well for the spirit of Tenth district republicanism.—Sioux City Journal.

CONGRESSMAN J. P. CONNER.

James P. Conner, of Denison, one of the most eminent of Iowa jurists, will hereafter represent the Tenth district of Iowa in congress, the republicans of that district having given him the nomination Wednesday on the ninety-sixth ballot, after one of the closest and most exciting contests in the history of the party in that section. The convention met Tuesday, but adjourned to Wednesday after holding a night session and taking ninety ballots without reaching a decisive vote. Judge Conner led the big field of eleven candidates from the very start, but there was nothing sure about the result until the last ballot was completed. The convention has done well, for it has named a man for successor to Congressman Dolliver who will bring naught but honor and fame to his district and state. Judge Conner has been a staunch republican all his life, was a delegate to the Republican National convention in 1892, and is "the original Shaw man," he having sent the telegram to The Register in 1897 that first announced to the state the gubernatorial candidacy of L. M. Shaw. Judge Conner has acquired fame as a criminal lawyer and prosecutor, and he is an orator of no little ability. Physically as well as mentally equipped by nature with the best of her stores, he is a man who will command attention in Washington, and will assist in keeping Iowa's magic name at the head of the list.—Iowa State Register.

READY TO TALK PEACE.

Instructions to Minister Conger Ready to Be Sent.
 Washington, Sept. 28.—Minister Conger has been advised by the state department of the substance of the replies made by this government last Friday to the overtures of Germany, Russia, and China respecting China, which clearly indicate to him the general nature of the instructions he is to receive. Moreover, by this time he is informed of the orders issued to General Chaffee to reduce his force to a legion guard. The note to China specifically pointed out the lines on which this government will issue its instructions to its minister. In this connection it is said at the state department that Mr. Conger will put these negotiations in motion without any purpose of acting for any government other than the United States, although the government steadily keeps in mind that the United States is but one of several nations mutually interested in obtaining a common end, and it is hoped that the effect of Mr. Conger's making a beginning toward negotiations may be to induce other powers to follow.

LETTERS FROM PEKING.

Mrs. Conger Describes Relief of the City by the Allies.
 Des Moines, Sept. 28.—Letters from Peking were received in Des Moines yesterday from Mrs. Edwin H. Conger and her niece, Miss Mary Pierce. Mrs. Conger describes the relief of the city by 50,000 troops, including 10,000 Americans, on the afternoon of Aug. 14. The attacks of the Boxers on the preceding nights, she says were almost fatal to the ministers and their parties, who were huddled in the legation. They were living on half a pound of dog meat a day when the siege was relieved. Miss Pierce describes the narrow escape of Minister Conger on July 24.

"He stood in the doorway," she says, "talking with the American surgeon when a spent bullet penetrated the surgeon's leg, just missing the American minister. Another bullet made a hole in the Declaration of Independence that hung above Mr. Conger's desk."

Brutal Murder in Wyoming.

Cheyenne, Sept. 28.—Word has been received here of a brutal murder committed at a lonely spot north of Cora. Wyo. Fred Butler, recognized as a tough character in the mountains, quarreled with a man named Hyatt at the Hardesty road ranch. Hyatt was beastly drunk and Butler is said to have broken his neck with one blow from a 45-caliber revolver, afterwards firing several shots into his prostrate body. Butler escaped to the mountains and a posse is in hot pursuit.

Looking for a Winter Camp.

Tien Tsin, Sept. 24.—General Chaffee has arrived and conferred with the staff officers of different departments with a view of establishing a winter base in the vicinity of Tien Tsin. He paid a visit to Tong Ku, making a general inspection. The present plan is understood to be tentative and based upon the possible retention of the existing force. The plan contemplates placing the troops under canvas outside the city.

MEETING OF ARCHBISHOPS.

All but Two of Those in United States Expected to Attend.

Washington, Sept. 28.—The meeting of American archbishops at the Catholic university here has been set for Wednesday, Oct. 10. It is believed that at least 12 of the 14 archbishops governing provinces in this country will attend the convocation. Archbishop Feehan's ill-health probably will prevent his attendance. Dr. Chapelle, archbishop of New Orleans, is at Manila as apostolic delegate to the Philippines. There will be several prominent suffragan bishops in Washington coincident with the meeting, as on Oct. 9 the board of directors or trustees of the Catholic university is to assemble in yearly session. Cardinal Gibbons, as head of the American hierarchy, will preside at both meetings.

FLOODS IN TEXAS.

Brazos is Out of Its Banks at Waco—Trinity River is Again Rising at Fort Worth and Dallas.

Houston, Sept. 28.—The Brazos river is still rising at Waco and an overflow now seems certain. Advices from the lower Brazos are to the effect that backwater has inundated the lowlands flooded last spring, but has not broken over its banks. The river has, with the exception of a few hours yesterday, been constantly rising for six days, a record breaker as to length of time.

The Trinity is again rising at Fort Worth and Dallas. A special from the former place says the bottoms are inundated to a depth of from three to five feet and has a very serious aspect.

Advices from the lower Trinity says that the flood is passing without much damage resulting. The rise in the Colorado river has reached Columbus and two piers in the Southern Pacific bridge have gone, interrupting railway traffic to the west.

Robbers Tap Jewelry Store.

Cozad, Neb., Sept. 28.—A daring burglary was committed here Wednesday night. The jewelry store of R. S. Thornton was entered, the safe blown and the entire contents, amounting to about $1,500 worth of jewelry and $40 in cash, taken. The postoffice, located in the same room, was robbed of a small amount of change. No clue as yet to the robbers. This is the second time this store has been robbed within the last four months. A concerted effort on the part of the business men of the town will be made to capture the thieves.

Two Missions Destroyed.

Hong Kong, Sept. 28.—The American Presbyterian and Catholic missions at Shek Lung, on the East river, have been destroyed. The priest in charge of the Catholic mission escaped and was protected by a mandarin.
