

NO FRIDAY REVIEW.

The Review expects to move back to its old quarters this week and for that reason there will be no Friday issue of the paper this week. Our readers and correspondents are requested to take notice. We will try to make next Tuesday's paper enough better to make up for the omission and we wish in advance to thank our readers for their patience and consideration. It is no small matter to move the heavy presses and material of a large printing office. It will require several days of hard labor to get things in running order and this makes it impossible for us to issue two papers this week.

Respectfully,
Meyers & Tucker.

OBITUARY.

Nancy M. Smith was born in Seneca county, New York, Sept. 21, 1820. She was married to Timothy Maloney in 1852. In the following year they moved to Whiteside county, Illinois, where a residence of about twenty-three years was maintained. In 1876 they came to Crawford county, Iowa. Their union was broken nine years ago by the death of her husband. Since that time she has lived with her son and daughter. She was the mother of six children, two of whom are living, Mr. J. S. Maloney and Mrs. Thomas Norris, both of Denison.

Mrs. Maloney was converted and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal church in early life and maintained this relation to the time of her death. During the past ten years she experienced the encroachment of feeble health; but a week, however, of almost painless illness preceded the end. In the morning of October 20, she sank to rest as one who falls asleep after a day of wearying toil.

The funeral was conducted Monday forenoon at the residence of Thomas Norris. Old time friends from the Pleasant Hill community, where she had lived twenty years, served as pall bearers.

The Bryan and Coker love feast cost $12 per plate. Pretty high living for this friend of the common people and in pretty poor company too.

Justice E. Gulick performed the marriage ceremony that made Henry Meeves and Matilda Ohl, both of Dunlap, husband and wife. The ceremony took place this forenoon.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

Little Son of H. G. Iseminger Killed by Falling Timber.

Little Wm. Russell Iseminger the eight year old son of Wm. Iseminger, living near Buck Grove was killed on Sunday afternoon while swinging in the barn. The swing was fastened to a timber in the loft of the barn, the timber broke and one end fell on his temple crushing it badly. He lived but a few hours after the accident. The funeral was held this forenoon at the home and interment was made in Oakland Cemetery. This is one of the saddest accidents of the year. We can not express deeply enough our sympathy with the bereaved parents who saw the life crushed from their boy and they powerless to help.

MRS. PUMP DANGEROUSLY ILL.

We greatly regret to learn that Mrs. John Pump is dangerously ill. She has been sick for some time, growing steadily worse and at this time the physicians have serious doubts as to her recovery. Mrs. Pump is a most estimable lady and her many friends are anxiously awaiting news of her improvement in health.

COURT NEWS.

Court adjourned today. In the case of Bates vs Charter Oak the court directed a verdict for the defendant.

In the case of McMinnee vs Smith the court over ruled Defts motion for new trial and reduced the verdict to $500. The courts attention is now being taken up by probate and matters of minor importance.

The democratic committee and the candidates are holding a secret session this afternoon. They are evidently scared by the drift toward McKinley and Prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kelly entertained six young ladies at dinner last Sunday in honor of their eleventh wedding anniversary. It is to be hoped that this pleasant glimpse at the Kelly home will induce the young ladies to make haste and do likewise.

Mrs. A. Oswald left this morning for Des Moines where she will attend the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star as a representative of Sylvan Chapter, No. 207 of Denison. Mrs. Oswald will make a good representative for the Denison members of the order.

Judge Conner spoke to three large and enthusiastic meetings last week at Boone, Humbolt and Pocahontas. He had large and enthusiastic crowds at each place. This week he speaks in the northern part of the district beginning tonight at Forest City.

A new music store is soon to open in the building now occupied by the Review plant. Mr. McNery of Boone will be the proprietor and the business will be in charge of Mr. N. A. Chambers and Mr. McNaughton both of Boone. We wish the new comers success and welcome them to the best city between Boone and Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Heaviland entertained a large number of young people at their home on Monday evening, in honor of Miss Katie Owens, for whom she is that she is soon to leave our midst. The amusements of the evening were games, music and singing. The hostess served a bounteous supper and the young folks report a very enjoyable time.

"Great Is Tammany, and Coker Is Its Prophet."—Words of William Jennings Bryan at New York, October 16th, 1900.

Charles Young has come back from Mattoon, Ill. to nurse his broken leg. The fracture is not a bad one and it is expected that he will soon be around again. Clyde James accompanied Charles home returning to his work with the company this evening.

Mr. William Wilson Dawes left on Monday for Chicago on an important errand. Friends here have received invitations to a wedding feast, the occasion being Mr. Dawes' marriage to Miss Lillian Georgian of Chicago. The wedding will take place on Thursday, Oct. 25. Mr. Dawes is a bright, industrious and pleasing young man, and for many years has been a trusted employ of the Adams Express Company in Chicago. We wish the young couple every happiness.

EPWORTH LEAGUE SOCIAL.

The Epworth League held a most successful social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Voss last Friday evening. The prevailing epidemic of guess games took the form of portraits and the young folks showed themselves very familiar with the faces of celebrities. Music selections by Misses Clammer and Dent and a reading by Miss Webster were much enjoyed by all. The lunch was all that could be asked and Mr. and Mrs. Voss made everyone at home most cordially. The coffers of the League are some ten dollars richer and the young people are one more evening of pure enjoyment ahead as a result of the social.

Lookout for a change of time table on the Northwestern next Sunday. The flyers will fly faster than ever.

Miss Brennecke of Marshalltown returned to her home Monday after a weeks visit with her friend, Mrs. Carl F. Kuehnle.

Messrs. Kelly, Brown, Meeves, Tamm and Chrestensen are contemplating a duck hunting expedition to Wall Lake this week.

Mrs. J. N. Bradley returned on Saturday from her visit in Des Moines where she was elected Vice President of the Equal Suffrage Association.

Mr. Leon Vasser of Dunlap visited Denison over Sunday. Next week he will come back to Denison to enter the employ of the Review office. We will still need another good compositor. The Review is doing business these days.

Bryan asks if "you can see anything in the flag that represents a subject." Mr. Bryan has never been in North Carolina, or perhaps the laboring men of that state are not represented in the flag any more than they are at the polls.

Mr. Lon F. Chapin spent several days of last week visiting old time Denison friends. Mr. Chapin is now business manager of the Pasadena Daily News and his friends are glad to note that he is in good health and prospering finely.

Messrs. Wightman, W. H. Marshall and E. Fink are the proud possessors of "Fremont" badges. These men have voted the republican ticket since 1856 and they are mighty proud of it and they have reason to be.

Mr. Hervey Smith McCowan the famous lecturer is in town and will lecture on this and tomorrow evenings.

Everything seems to be going the good old McKinley way. The best judges prophecy that McKinley will have the largest popular plurality ever given a candidate for president. This is the time to get on the national band wagon and vote for the winner.

Hogs were $2.80 in October, 1896. They are selling now for $4.20. A farm wagon cost $60 then and it costs the same now. How many less pounds of pork does it take to buy a wagon now than it did in 1896? Send all answers to the office of the Bulletin, Denison, Iowa.

The Review editor goes to Kenwood tonight to talk politics in joint debate with Mr. O'Hare. There is no intention in the mind of either party to debate simply to show wit at each other's expense. It will be an earnest effort to get at the real truth of the issues involved. We expect the Bulletin to tell of our lamentable failure in its next issue with its customary fair mindedness.
