

What is the QUESTION

If it is a question of a Chest Protector or Cough and Cold Remedies, choose the former every time. The latter may be effective, but there's the inconvenience. The Chest Protector prevents coughs and colds. It's a sort of insurance policy, and the rate isn't high. Not with the handsome chamomis and felt-lined Protectors which we are selling from 75c to $3.00. We are selling to ruin our cough medicine trade by selling everybody a Chest Protector.

Crawford County State Bank. DENISON, IOWA.

The Best Security for Depositors. Farm Loans at Five Per Cent Interest.

This Bank is incorporated under the laws of the State of Iowa. This gives the best security to all depositors, not only to the amount of stock, but the personal property of each shareholder is held to the amount of his share for any loss to the bank. Incorporated banks are under the control of the State Auditor, who can at any time examine the business, and according to his investigation the published statements are made. Depositors in an incorporated bank have more security than the confidence imposed in the officers. They have the best security, because the capital stock can not be used at pleasure for outside speculation and investment. The Crawford County State Bank is the best incorporated banking institution in the County. A general banking business done.

DEPORTING FILIPINOS.

General MacArthur Sends Captured Leaders to the Island of Guam—Compliments Thirty-seventh Regiment.

Manila, Jan. 8.—General MacArthur has ordered the deportation of Generals Ricarte, Del Pilar, Hizon, Llanera and Santos to the island of Guam. Nine regimental and four subordinate officers with eight civilians, including Trias, Tecson and Mabini, notorious assistants of the insurrectionists, have also been ordered to be deported. It is General MacArthur's intention to hold most of the active leaders of the rebels, who have been captured, in Guam until peace has been declared. General MacArthur, accompanied by his staff, reviewed the Thirty-seventh regiment of volunteer infantry on the Luneta field yesterday. All the companies were together almost for the first time since the regiment was organized. After the review the regiment was drawn up in close order and General MacArthur, in a farewell address, congratulated the officers and men on their bravery, discipline and judgment, concluding his remarks with a hearty "God bless you, comrades." The Thirty-seventh will sail for home on the transport Sheridan, Thursday.

Warren Elected President.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—William S. Warren was yesterday unanimously re-elected president of the board of trade for the ensuing year. This means a continuance of the aggressive attitude of the board in its fight against bucket shops and the resultant controversy with the telegraph companies. In accepting the renomination Mr. Warren made this the issue. Its opponents were not numerous enough to nominate an opposing candidate.

THE BOARD TAKES ACTION

Seats Those Elected at the Last Election.

MR. LANGLEY FILLS A PROTEST.

Emil Kruger Resigns; J. T. Carey Has Not As Yet. The New Officers, Interesting Session of the Board.

The Board of Supervisors met on Monday morning, and when Auditor Carey rose to give the oath of office Mr. Langley responded to the call and was sworn in along with Mr. Molter and Mr. Schroeder. Chairman Rhodenbaugh immediately called the Board to order, and upon motion, Messrs. Schroeder and Molter were recognized as members of the Board, thus leaving Mr. Langley out. Mr. Holland was present but did not take the oath of office. Mr. Langley quietly entered his protest and stated that he stood upon his rights, not merely from a personal standpoint, but in order that the Board might not take any action which in case the Titus Amendment is held to be valid, would make illegal all the acts done by the Board as now constituted. We believe the Board is absolutely wrong in its position; we do not accuse them of intentional wrong doing, however.

Mr. Kruger resigned his position as Clerk, and Mr. Frank Faul has taken possession of the office. We understand that he will retain Mr. N. J. Wheeler as his deputy, at least for some time, until he can become better acquainted with the duties of the office. As a matter of prudence, we understand that Mr. Carey has not resigned the position of Auditor; he does not stand as a dog in the manger, but wishes the Board to take the responsibility upon itself, so that in case the amendment is upheld his skirts will be clear. Mr. Collins is on hand and we understand will assume the duties of the office upon the direction of the Board.

Mr. W. A. McHenry is spending the week at Ames, attending the school of instruction in horse and cattle judgment. This is entirely a new department, but is so popular that several hundred cattle men are in attendance.

We wish to thank our many subscribers who have been so prompt with their remittances for the Review. We wish to assure them that this is appreciated, and to our other subscribers we wish to say that the cash system will be strictly adhered to.

Mr. Louis Love of Arion visited us this week. He will open up a large general store there on Saturday next. He shows his belief in pushing things by advertising in the county paper, and sending his subscription to the Great and Only. We believe there is room for such a store in Arion, and wish Mr. Love success. He has until recently, conducted a store in Lake City and is highly recommended by his old time friends.

BOERS LOCATED BY KNOX.

Result in Several British Officers and Privates Are Killed and Wounded.

London, Jan. 8.—The war office received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener:
Yesterday Babbington engaged Delarey's and Steenkamp's commandos at Naauwpoort. The enemy was forced to retire to the northwest. Our casualties have not yet been received, but are reported slight. A Boer doctor admitted that 20 Boers were killed and wounded. Commandant Duprez was taken prisoner.
It appears from reports of the wounded who have arrived at Hellerton that a detachment 120 strong belonging to Knox's command came into contact with a superior force near Lindley. I regret to say that Lieutenant Laing, two other officers and 15 men were killed and two officers and 20 men wounded. No details have come from Knox of this action.
It is reported that 1,500 Boers are nearing the town of Sutherland and that other parties are close upon Richmond. The invaders have reached Calvinia, and are expected at Clanwilliam within a few days. Scouts report that the Boer commandos under Delarey and Steenkamp, in the Bufferspoort district, number 5,000.

WAITING ON DEWET.

Dutch Command He Will Sweep Everything Before Him When He Appears in Cape Colony.

Piquetburg Read, Cape Colony, Jan. 8.—The Boers insist that their present incursion is only a big patrol, preparatory to an invasion in force by General Dewet. The latter's influence over the Dutch is so enormous that there is no doubt his actual presence would result in a general rising. The Dutch have unbounded faith that if he had a sufficient supply of arms and ammunition, General Dewet, who is regarded as the Napoleon of the campaign, would even now be able to bring the war to a successful termination.
Cape Town, Jan. 8.—At a meeting of Afrikaner members of the Cape parliament, it was resolved to send J. X. Morriam, former treasurer of Cape Colony; J. W. Sauer, former commissioner of public works, and J. P. Hofmeier to England to represent the state of affairs in South Africa to the government, parliament and the people of Great Britain.
General Brabant has arrived here to complete the organization of the colonial forces.

DEATH OF CARL MORTON.

Former Secretary's Son Dies at His Home in Waukegan From Pneumonia.

Nebraska City, Jan. 8.—News of the death of Carl Morton, at his home in Waukegan, yesterday, came as a great shock to this community. The cause of his death was pneumonia, which he contracted only a few days ago. Carl Morton was born in this city 35 years ago. He was the youngest son of former Secretary J. Sterling Morton. He resided here until last April, at which time he removed to Waukegan to take charge of the United States sugar refinery. Up to this time he had been general manager of the starch factory here and was interested in other local enterprises. He leaves a widow, who is a daughter of Robert Payne of this city, and two children.

ARMOUR FUNERAL.

Will Be Held From the Prairie Avenue Home Tomorrow Afternoon—Remains to Lie in State.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—The funeral of the late Philip D. Armour will be held at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home, 2115 Prairie avenue. Those who desire to look upon the face of Mr. Armour will be given the opportunity prior to the funeral. The body will lie in state at the Armour home from 9 a. m. until noon.

PHILIP D. ARMOUR.

While the holding of the funeral from the house will necessarily restrict the number in attendance, all of the Armour employes in Chicago, who number thousands, will be invited to view the body during the morning hours.
Rev. Frank W. Gunsaulus will preach the funeral sermon. The burial will be in the family lot at Graceland and the pall bearers will be business associates of the deceased. On the day of the funeral all of the plants and offices of the Armour company in Chicago and other cities will be closed for the entire day.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 8.—The cases of ex-Governor W. S. Taylor, ex-Secretary of State Charles Finley, Berry Howard and John L. Powers, charged with being accessories before the fact to the murder of William Goebel, were called in the circuit court yesterday and continued until the spring term, none of them being in custody. The case of W. H. Culton, Grech Golden and Wharton Golden was also continued. It is not believed the grand jury empaneled yesterday will return any additional indictments in connection with the assassination.

Suicides on the Street.

North Platte, Neb., Jan. 8.—A man supposed to be H. L. Prouty of Des Moines, from papers found on his person, jumped off the east-bound passenger train here yesterday, ran though the Pacific hotel and south two blocks, bought cartridges at a hardware store and went out upon the street and shot himself through the head. The doctors say he cannot live. Papers in his pocket show that he was discharged from St. Luke's hospital, San Francisco, Jan. 4, this year. The conductor reports that he became insane on the train.

One Bullet Out, One Remains.

Fremont, Neb., Jan. 8.—The doctors tried to get the bullets that were shot into William Rhea by the posse that captured him as one of the bandits who killed Herman Zahn at Snyder, Friday night. A 32-caliber bullet was taken from his left leg back of the knee. It was found impossible to get the bullet that was lodged in the apex of the right lung. There were no developments in the case.

Colorado Strike Settled.

Denver, Jan. 8.—The strike of the coal miners in the northern Colorado coal fields was practically settled last night. A mass meeting of the strikers was held, at which it was decided that the men should return to work in the mines which are willing to pay the scale asked. This includes all the mines except those of the Northern Coal company.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Mrs. Vina Grady, white, was brutally murdered at her home in Zanesville, O., Monday by Adrian Madison, a colored barber.
The explosion of an oil tank Monday started a blaze which destroyed most of the business portion of Syracuse, Ind. Loss, $50,000.
The car department building of the Southern railway shops at Princeton, Ind., was destroyed by fire Monday. The loss is estimated at $50,000.
Dr. George Taylor Stewart was Monday appointed superintendent of Bellevue hospital, New York, with power to remove any doctor or nurse.
Frederick E. Rittman, recently appointed auditor for the war department, vice Frank Morris, who was killed by Samuel McDonald, assumed his new duties Monday.

WELCOMED TO LONDON.

Reception to Lord Roberts Unmarred by Disgraceful Scenes.

London, Jan. 4.—Crowds of people flocked to points of vantage along the route to be followed by Lord Roberts, from Paddington station to Buckingham palace, during the early hours of the morning, but the numbers in no way compared with those that gathered at the demonstration in honor of the return of the city volunteers from South Africa.

Warned by occurrences at the time of the volunteers' return, the police furnished barriers to prevent crushing, and 15,000 regular troops in addition to thousands of police lined the route.

Lord Roberts was greeted by the Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of York, the Duke of Connaught and the Duke of Cambridge. The members of the royal family shook hands heartily with the field marshal, while the bands played the national anthem. The Prince of Wales, with Lady Roberts, then left the railroad station in a royal carriage drawn by six horses and escorted by Life Guards, preceding Lord Roberts to Buckingham palace. The Roberts party proceeded to Buckingham palace by way of Hyde park and Piccadilly. Deafening cheers greeted the field marshal and new commander-in-chief of the forces along all parts of the route. The roar of welcome rolled on increasingly until the veteran commander entered the gates of the palace.

After midnight the streets cleared rapidly and the newspapers this morning are able to congratulate the hero unmarred with disgraceful scenes.

LONDON MORE HOPEFUL

From Every Quarter of Cape Colony Come Reports of Active Recruiting of Local Forces—Better Feeling Prevails.

London, Jan. 4.—Advices from Cape Town this morning are more hopeful, owing to the active recruiting of local forces in all quarters and a better feeling prevails in London, based upon the prospect of Lord Roberts taking the reins at the war office. From Sydney, N. S. W., it is reported that there is quite a rush of men there to join the new contingents, 500 having volunteered.

Reports of Lord Kitchener's conference with the Boers also tends to remove anxiety.

Cape Town, Jan. 4.—The military authorities are preparing for all contingencies. It has been decided to transfer the Boer prisoners from camps to transports. Farmers coming in from near Carvaron, describe the Boers as traveling in parallel columns, with numerous flanking columns of horsemen, carrying off everything eatable. It appears that they are accompanied by strings of pack horses, lightly loaded.

Colesberg telegraphs that Kritzinger's commando is crossing the Middleberg district, but is getting few if any recruits. Here in Cape Town such business men as are unable to leave are organizing a town guard, composed of the leading citizens. The commercial companies have asked the mayor to call a mass meeting to urge the government to suppress dialoyal newspapers and to proclaim martial law.
The British battleship Monarch landed men and guns to relieve the troops for service northward. It is believed the guns will be sent up the country.

Six thousand, five hundred South African irregulars have been recruited during the last eight weeks.
The Boers in the Transvaal have been exceedingly active in the last week, daily attacking trains, convoys and isolated posts. In most cases they have been repulsed and the railways are now working more regularly.

The wedding of Mr. Frank Fee and Miss Margaret Conry takes place today. May every joy and happiness attend them.

Mrs. Megrin, of Odebolt, better known here by her maiden name as Miss Anna Platt, spent Sunday as a guest at the King home.

G. W. Pooler died at the home of his niece, Florence Q. Hope in Denison, Iowa, on January 6, 1901, aged 74 years 11 months and three days. Mr. Pooler was born in Portland county, New York and was a member of the Illinois state militia, and with that company tendered his services to his country and served through the Civil war. He afterward moved to St. Joseph, Mo., where he lived nearly thirty-five years during which time he engaged in the business of house and sign painting, and dealt in painter's supplies. Next year he would have celebrated his golden wedding. The funeral was held from the home of Mrs. Hope at 10:00 a. m. yesterday under the auspices of the Masonic order, Rev. A. G. Martyn leading in prayer. He was a good man, true to all the duties of life, and many friends and relatives mourn his death.
