

WIESE CASE CONTINUED.

The case of the State against Wiese was continued until next Thursday at the request of his attorney, Mr. McLennan. Mr. McLennan was obliged to act in his capacity as Justice of the Peace on the day set for the hearing and hence asked postponement.

Mrs. J. W. Campbell, of Humbolt, Neb., mother of O. M. Campbell, arrived in Denison on Tuesday of this week, for a visit with her son.

Mr. W. G. Mullinger and Mr. R. R. Morrow were two of the staunch friends of the REVIEW to remember it with advanced subscriptions this morning.

Deputy Treasurer O'Brien has purchased one of Mr. J. H. Jones' houses in the second ward. We are glad that Dennis is to become a permanent citizen.

This is a season for lodge banquets and installation, and the caterers of the city have been busy nearly every evening in providing good things for the inner lodge man.

L. E. Bringelson and Dolk, of Deloit, were Denison visitors this week, remaining in our city over Tuesday night, Mr. Dolk having business before the board of supervisors.

In another column we publish an interesting letter from Mr. Alle Rae, describing his passage through the Suez canal. The REVIEW is very glad to publish these interesting letters.

We notice from the Des Moines Capital that the music at the funeral of Mr. Harry Prouty of Des Moines was furnished by Mrs. Romans-Bradley of Denison, Mrs. Phoebe Dorr, Mr. Dale Stanley and Mr. Ernest Harwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Graves, of Dow City, spent Tuesday in Denison. Mr. Graves informs us that he has been highly successful in his mining operations in Colorado, and he is very enthusiastic as to mining investments.

Mrs. Hattie Allen spent Sunday in Dunlap.

Mr. Z. T. Nixon was a Tuesday visitor in Denison.

Mrs. Sears McHenry visited Logan relatives this week.

Mr. C. F. Cassaday is still confined to the house with the grippe.

Mr. O. A. Lambert of Arion, was a Wednesday visitor in Denison.

Mrs. Jensen of Dunlap, visited with her sister, Mrs. Morgan, this week.

Mr. R. A. Sloumber and daughter of Dow City, spent yesterday in Denison.

Mr. George Servoss returned on Monday from his work at Council Bluffs.

Mesdames Faine and Rohwer of West Side, were Thursday visitors in Denison.

Mr. J. N. Bradley is in Omaha attending the implement dealer's convention.

Mr. C. E. Heitt of Charter Oak, transacted business in Denison on Tuesday.

Many friends are glad to see Mr. E. C. Sage about again after his five weeks of illness.

Mrs. E. A. McKim and Miss Tucker of Deloit, spent Tuesday with their Denison friends.

Mr. Jerry O'Connor of East Boyer township, was one of the many farmers in town yesterday.

The "Calumet" has turned over a new leaf with the first of the year and is keeping open all night.

Mr. Armstrong of the Family Drug Store, returned on Wednesday morning from a visit at Iowa Falls.

"The Boys" half page advertisement in this issue cannot fail to attract attention. They are to have a great clearing sale which means low prices to all.

The Bulletin is still publishing the real estate transfers of last century. The Bulletin is improving.

Chris Kemming has been at Schleswig this week, while Mr. Kruger was making the office transfer to Mr. Frank Faul.

Mr. James Rood, of Buck Grove, was a Denison visitor today, and added his name to the list of REVIEW subscribers.

On last Tuesday Mrs. W. C. Pollock was called to Elgin, Ill., to the sick bed of her father, a gentleman ninety years of age, a man who has in all these years rarely experienced a sick day. We trust Mrs. Pollock may find him improved in health.

Mr. J. H. Gable is enjoying a visit from his father, Rev. John Gable of Ollie, Iowa. Rev. Gable is a splendidly preserved man of his years and shows that he has led a consistent Christian life by the very look of his eye. He will find that his son has done well here, that he is loved and respected by his neighbors and townsmen, and that all are numbered among his friends.

The Penelope club spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Frank Pfarr last Tuesday. The meeting was jolly and sociable as the gatherings of this club always are, and Mrs. Pfarr served a most delicious lunch. The Penelope club remembered its president, Mrs. J. P. Conner, at Christmas time, with a very elegant fan, which they fondly hope she is now fluttering in the midst of Washington society.

The REVIEW failed to chronicle the hours of pain and joy and sorrow that came to the household of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scott on the twenty-ninth of last month. A beautiful twelve pound son was born to them and they rejoiced that he would be a companion for their little girl. He was not destined to be with them long however, and after but a few short hours of this life the Heavenly Father called him home. We profoundly sympathize with the parents in their grief.

The first regular installation of the Brotherhood of American Yeoman was held in the Redmen's hall on January 4th, 1901. The following named officers were installed: H. F. A. W. Wiggins; W. P. C. H. Bolles; M. C. Will Donagan; C. I. V. Jackson; O. John Schnoor; M. A. J. W. Woodland. A number of friends were present, who together with the members at the close of the installation ceremonies, participated in an oyster supper which all enjoyed. The lodge is in its infancy, but is making rapid progress.

We publish in this issue an advertisement for the well-known furniture dealer of Yail, Mr. W. M. Byrnes. The REVIEW does not attempt to enter the field to take business from other local papers of the county, but it does not refuse legitimate advertising. We are informed that the advertisement in question was refused by the Observer. We do not question the Observer's right to refuse any advertisement, which it may consider objectionable, but from our standpoint the advertiser pays for the space and is entitled to say what he pleases so long as the matter is neither libelous, profane or improper.

Mr. Patrick Crowe comes as a god-send to paragraphs in this intellectual oldrums of the holidays, says the St. Paul Pioneer Press. Though they are not fond of crow this one is their meat. Mr. Cudaby's offer of $25,000 for the apprehension of Crow makes enticing crow bait. Never did the crow fly as this Crowe flies. The successful subsidy of Crowe puts ship subsidy in an eclipse. It is said, even, that Pat is indulging himself in a quiet game of croquet over in Baden Baden with Creweker. So persuasive and universal is he that chancier no longer crows but caws. And Crowe is the caws of all this rumpus, and there is fear that in our own senatorial fracas he may disturb the harmony of the cawcuss.—Carroll Herald.

We regret to learn that under the Burleigh Apportionment Bill Iowa will not gain a congressman. We believe that had the Iowa delegation made a determined stand the additional congressman could have easily been obtained. This doubtless means that the congressional districts will remain substantially as they are at present. We doubt the wisdom of thus leaving Iowa under-represented for the next ten years. At present, according to the Leader's figures, the ratio of representation in Iowa is 204,000 to each member, the highest of any important state. Ten years from now it will doubtless be not less than 250,000. Iowa thus will be unjustly represented, not only in congress but in national conventions of both parties. This is a step backward and no congressman should allow his personal interests in maintaining a safe district for himself to stand in the way of Iowa prominence in the councils of the nation.

RESUME WORK ON MONDAY.

The Wilcox Laundry Receives a New Boiler After Some Delay.

Mr. Wilcox has been unable to do any laundry work the past week owing to the fact that some of his machinery had to be replaced. On Thursday he went to Omaha and purchased a new boiler, and the same has arrived and is being set up now. Mr. Wilcox informs us that he will be ready to resume work on Monday, and that his facilities are now better than ever, and patrons are assured of the very best of laundry work to be had anywhere.

NEW TIME CARD.

The Illinois Central will put on a new time card next Sunday. It will be published in our next issue. In the meantime those contemplating a trip on that road should look up the new schedule or they may miss their train.

We understand that Mr. Wm. Larin has given up his position with Mr. Ernst Riepen and is now employed in the implement department of J. B. Romans Company.

Mr. Earl Mooney is back in Denison visiting old friends and making new. Earl was but a boy when he left Denison and will be remembered as the son of our former sheriff, L. P. Mooney.

Mr. T. J. Kelly is confined to his room this week having had an operation of a delicate nature performed on his eye. He is doing nicely however, and expects to be able to go to Chicago next week to purchase goods.

Justice Wm. McLennan held his first trial as justice of the peace on yesterday. The case was that of Voss vs. Wyland. It was a jury trial and lasted nearly all day, resulting in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $20.00 and costs.

The Redmen gave one of their jolly "Smokers" on Tuesday night and the guests say it was one of the most enjoyable social evenings they have spent. The Redmen are making an enviable reputation as the most social of Denison lodges.

A party of Denison young men went out on a hunting expedition yesterday afternoon. They secured two elk, one grizzly bear, one quail and a half dozen severe colds. They had a good time however and that is the principle thing with a hunting expedition.

The members of the Rebecca lodge were greeted with a surprise last evening. During the installation ceremony two of the gentlemen of the order quietly stepped out and ordered a splendid lunch from the Palace Bakery, and as the members were about to leave they were surprised to find everything in readiness for them in the ante-room. A jolly good time ensued as may well be imagined.

The lecture given by Prof. Frude at the opera house last Tuesday evening was very well received and many expressed the hope that he would come again. His lecture was concerning the wonderland of Yellowstone park and was beautifully illustrated by stereoscopic views. This was the last of the series of lectures given under the auspices of the Rebekah lodge.

Mr. A. D. Rouillard is seriously ill. Mr. Will Seemann spent Wednesday in Omaha.

Mrs. J. N. Bradley has been a Des Moines guest this week.

Mrs. Paul Aylesworth returns tomorrow to her home in Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Dave Childs of Dunlap was the guest of Mrs. F. M. Morgan last week.

Mrs. Ira Gillmor is enjoying a visit from her friend, Mrs. Taylor, and daughter.

The Woodmen of the World expect to have a great time tomorrow evening at their installation.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Saul of Paradise township, a son, on Wednesday, Jan. 9th.

Governor and Mrs. Shaw will give a reception at the Savery House in Des Moines on next Monday evening.

A grand mask ball will take place at the opera house next Friday evening under the auspices of the German Verein.

The revival meetings conducted by Rev. Logan are attracting large congregations. The meetings will be continued throughout next week.

Mr. Joseph Mills has been forced to return from one of his trips for the Charter Oak mills on account of sickness. It is feared that he is threatened with lung fever.

We learn that Mrs. J. P. Conner has been ill the greater part of the time since her arrival in Washington. We hope that she may soon recover and be able to enjoy the life of the capital city.

Communion services will be held at the Presbyterian church on next Sabbath morning at 10:30. It is probable that Rev. J. D. Sweeney of Omaha will preach in the evening. All are welcomed to both services, morning and evening.

The editor is under great obligation to the Woodmen of the World, of Wall Lake, for their kindly invitation to address them on Tuesday evening, and for the exceedingly courteous treatment. Their meeting was a fine one, the banquet fit for the gods and our only regret is that the address of the evening was not nearly so good as the roast turkey.
