

ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish to thank the public for their liberal patronage during the Holiday season and will say I am preparing to stock up with New Goods for the spring and summer trade and from time to time, through the columns of this paper, I will call your attention to the bargains in my line, and will try to do so without copying my advertisements from some out-of-town paper or using some other dealer's ideas in what I have to say in regard to my goods. Thanking you for your time in reading this and wishing you a Happy New Year, I am yours for business and mutual benefit for another year.

W. M. BYRNES,
At The Anchor, x x x x Vail, Iowa.

NOTE:—The above "Ad" was refused by the Vail Observer, for what reason we cannot see.

The First Sign!

Of a Cold should remind you that the best time to take something is at the beginning. It should also remind you that the best remedy to head off a spell of sneezing, coughing and general unpleasantness is a "COLD TABLET". We have the following brands of tablets. x x x x x x x x

Cascara Bromo-Quinine; Laxative Bromo-Quinine; Weeks' Break-Up-Cold Tablets. Krause's Cold Cure.

They stimulate the depressed nerves, allay fever and start the vital machinery to running with its accustomed smoothness. A 25c box often prevents a several dollars' cold.

ARMSTRONG DRUG CO.

Family Druggists, Denison, Iowa.

THE PALACE BAKERY

Is the Standard of Excellence in All Things Eatable

The Best Bread The Best Cakes
The Best Pies The Best Candies
The Best Cigars The Best Fruits and Oysters

M. M. Bradbury,
PROPRIETOR.

FINE HOUSE FOR SALE!

Seven Room House, Fine Location. Rents Readily at $14.00 Per Month. No Better Investment Could be Made. If You Wish to Buy.....

INQUIRE AT THE REVIEW OFFICE FOR FULL INFORMATION.

NOTICE OF PROBATE OF WILL.
State of Iowa, In Probate
Crawford County.
In the District Court of Iowa, in and for Crawford County, Notice of the reading and probate of Will.
To Whom It May Concern:
You and each of you are hereby notified to appear at the court house in Denison, Crawford County, on the 19th day of February, 1901, at nine o'clock a. m. to then and there attend the probate of an instrument in writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Ardat late of said county, deceased, at which time and place you will appear and show cause, if any you know, why said will should not be admitted to probate.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the seal of the District Court this 22nd day of October, 1900.
Emil Kruger, Clerk.

GASH for acceptable ideas. State if patented. THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md. Subscription price of the Patent Record $2.00 per annum. Samples free.

DOW CITY HAPPENINGS

The churches here are observing the week of prayer.
John Howorth, of the Green Cattle Company, returned Sunday morning with a car load of western horses.
Bert Wiley returned to Chicago, Sunday, after spending the holidays with friends at home. Bert is attending Rush Medical College and has but one year more to finish the course.
Miss Madge Eyer, of What Cheer, spent a few days here last week visiting her sister, Miss Maud, the efficient clerk at Black & Slocumb's department store.
B. B. Keith moved his stock of groceries into the Wood building this week, where he is now located in one of the neatest store rooms in town.
We understand John Vengrovich will occupy the room made vacant by B. B. Keith. John finds there is no place for him like Dow City.
Judge W. L. Green, spent a few days here this week, looking after his farm interests here.
Dave Houston, of the Green Cattle Company, left for the west last week.
The ice harvest has begun here. Mr. Butterworth is filling his ice house.
A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Riddle on Monday of this week.
Miss Kelley and sister, of Denison, spent Sunday with Mrs. Sterrett at the City Hotel.
A convention of the Woodmen of America of Crawford county is being held here, but as we go to press we have not learned of the work transacted. We will give a fine account next week.
The Rebecca lodge here had their installation of officers here on Wednesday night, after which a banquet was served. It was not our pleasure to be there, but from those who were we learn that a most enjoyable evening was spent.

JOHNSONVILLE NEWS.

F. L. Johnson went to Houston, Minn., last Wednesday.
John Larson, of south of Kiron, was a business caller in our burg, last Wednesday.
Oscar Johnson visited with relatives in Ida county last week.
P. W. Weberg and Miss Anna Anderson were Denison callers last Wednesday.
Roy Christenson returned to his home in Omaha last Wednesday, after having visited with relatives and friends here over the holidays.
David Johnson transacted business in Denison last Thursday.
The coal dealers no doubt like this cold weather.
Miss Olive Nelson is on the sick list. Her many young friends hope for her speedy recovery.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lindberg on Friday, Jan. 4, 1901, a son. We congratulate.
The Baptist and Mission churches and pastors are working together during the prayer week. An abundance of spiritual blessings is prayed and hoped for.
Mrs. A. J. Johnson and son, Charles, visited with friends in Sac county last Monday.
Cards are out announcing the uniting marriage two of our well-known young people next week, and we understand there are more to come soon.

NEWS FROM PARADISE

Paradise has been visited by some good cold weather lately.
Miss Gene Arnold spent her two weeks vacation with her parents at Bell.
Some of the Paradise young people attended the dance at Chas. Smith's New Years eve.
William and Sam Walters who have been visiting in Paradise for a few days left for Omaha Wednesday.
Mrs. John Stephens was trading in Dow City Monday.
Mrs. Amelia Dent of Lincoln, Neb. visited relatives in this vicinity during the holidays.
Henry Detlefsen who has been quite sick is on the mend.
A. L. Rule and children of Dunlap visited relatives in Paradise Sunday.
Henry Galland of Dow City was in Paradise last week trying to purchase mules.
Miss Anna and Jennie Rae of Union called on friends in this community Friday.
John Harper had the pleasure of entertaining the shellers Tuesday.
Clarence Bryan left on Sunday for Ames where he will stay for a few days.
Mrs. Aurelia Parsons of Denison is visiting at the home of her uncle.

Reduced Rates to Salt Lake City, Utah, and Return.

via the North-Western Line. Tickets will be sold on account of Annual Stock Convention, National Stock Association, to be held January 15 to 18. For dates of sale, etc., apply to agents Chicago & North-Western Ry.

WEST SIDE TIDINGS.

Mrs. Sawyer of Galesburg, Ill. arrived here the first of the week for a few weeks visit with her daughter.
Fred Hammer moved his household effects to Ricketts last Tuesday, near which place he has purchased a farm.
W. L. Spottswood has opened a lunch room in P. Greaves' building on Main street.
R. J. Dieter was a Denison visitor Thursday.
William Corbett went to Chicago on Monday with the intention of remaining there during the summer, but after two days residence in the big city he decided that farm life in Iowa was good enough for him, and accordingly returned home Thursday.
Seth Calderwood went to Denison Monday where he will take a course in the Normal School.
Mrs. C. A. Boeck and Mrs. H. J. Moeller went to Carroll Wednesday to visit a few days with the latter's sister, Mrs. R. J. Hall.
Rev. Alfred James was called upon by the Presiding Elder to do some work outside his charge this week. He will preach in Arthur Thursday afternoon and evening, in Mapleton Friday evening and conduct quarterly meeting in Castana Sunday. Rev. Lewis, Pres. of Morning Side college will occupy the pulpit here Sunday Morning and evening.
We are pleased to note the convalescence of Miss Beatrice Gary from an attack of scarlet fever.
Rev. Chas. J. English delivered his popular lecture, "The Search of Diogenes, or Looking for a Man" at the M. E. church Tuesday evening. He was greeted by a fairly good audience whose close attention he held for nearly two hours. The lecture is high class and worthy the highest recommendations.
John Barnhoft shipped six cars of fat cattle to Chicago Tuesday. John and August Barnhoft and Henry Schoessler went in charge.
Frederick Boek went to Denison on Tuesday to be present at a meeting of the Soldier's Relief Board of which he is a member.
Mr. John Rohwer was attending to business matters in Denison Tuesday.

MANILLA NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. John Thorpe came home from Redfield Monday where she had been visiting her parents.
Miss Lottie Blakesley went to Defiance Tuesday for a visit with friends.
T. J. Campbell left on Tuesday for Illinois, where he went to attend the funeral of a sister.
Miss Elsie Naeve left on Monday to join her parents in their new home in Des Moines.
Mrs. S. S. Huff went to Denison Monday to attend the funeral of her niece.
The Presbyterian Aid Society gave a dime social Wednesday evening at the home of E. A. Packard. A large crowd was in attendance and the usual good time was had.
Mrs. Londenslager went to Council Bluffs Tuesday to look for a location. They contemplate moving there in the near future.
The Junior Endeavor held a business meeting at the home of W. L. Paup on Tuesday evening.
T. Brown has been on the sick list during the past week.
B. H. Buffington transacted business in Defiance Monday.
Herbert Kingsbury of Defiance was on our streets Tuesday.
Mr. Hemminger who has been quite sick in the past is slowly improving.

CHARTER OAK CHATS.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schelha returned Monday from a visit at Sioux City.
D. Palmer was a Denison caller Wednesday.
John and Lucy Healy of Kenwood were trading here Wednesday.
Mrs. H. Hansen is visiting friends at Danbury this week.
Abe Hart had business at Des Moines the first of the week.
There was a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Burke, south of town, Monday evening. They will soon move to a farm near Lake View.
Fred Stough of Ida Grove is the guest of Earl Shreve.
There are a good many sick with the grippe in and around the Oak.
A very pleasant party was given Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. McWilliams, in honor of their daughter Jessie's birthday.
Harry Bates was a passenger for Omaha Thursday evening.
L. A. Romans transacted business at Castana the last of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Springer will entertain a large company of friends at their home on Main street, Friday evening.

NEWS ABOUT DELOIT.

William Johnson, Mable and Tracy, started Wednesday with two teams for Laurel, Neb., where Mr. Johnson expects to try farming another season.
Mr. and Mrs. Dick Houlihan are rejoicing over a 10+ pound boy born last week.
Mrs. Anna Nicewanner and daughter are visiting in Logan at present.
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown went to Carroll Wednesday, where Mrs. Brown will undergo a surgical operation.
There were a couple of dances in DeLoit this week.
Mrs. Katie Ginn, sister of Bert and Will Huckstep, arrived from Corvallis, Oregon, last Friday evening, on account of the serious illness of her father, Mr. J. B. Huckstep.
Elder C. J. Hunt started Friday on another ministerial tour in the district.
Jacob Worley was able to be out around town Thursday after being confined to the house a few weeks with la grippe.
Mr. E. L. Johnson and Herbert Nixon went to Dow City Thursday to attend the convention as delegates for the M. W. A. camp at DeLoit.
A good sized congregation was present in DeLoit last Sunday morning, and at Boyer in the afternoon, and profitable communion services were held, many taking part.
Services will be held on January 27 in the interest of the 20th century forward movement. The pastor will preach a sermon at the morning service and at night. A platform will be held and addresses delivered by five laymen.
A new chapel organ of the Epworth manufacture has been purchased for the new church at Boyer.
J. E. Cuizan and wife, Chas. E. Cuizan and wife, E. R. Snell and daughter, Bertha, and U. S. Dunbar, also Frank Nixon and family, from DeLoit, braved the severe weather and attended the dedicatory services at Boyer, Dec. 30th.

THE KIRON CHRONICLE

Chas. O. Swanson left on Saturday for Shepsoah, Iowa where he will take a course in the business college.
Kiron is without a butcher shop, Sanders and Dolk having closed their business last week. Some energetic butcher who could put in a side line together with the butcher business will find a good location here.
Mrs. Halboth of Gray is making a visit at her parental home south of town.
John Swanson is at the present writing compelled to remain in bed, tussling with the grippe.
Edward Miller left on Monday for Pomeroy where his future days of activity will be spent.
La Grippe is making his unwelcome visits in our midst and the recipients of his visits in most cases retire for a couple of days.
Miss Annie Johnson made friends at Denison a visit the first of the week.
Miss Amanda Michaelson returned home unexpected to her many friends on Tuesday. She has spent the past fall at Flandreau, S. D. where she has been engaged in the millinery business. She spent a few days in Sioux City and after a short visit at home she will go to Chicago.
Mrs. and Mrs. N. P. Nordfvere agreeably surprised on Sunday night at the home of Willie Nelson by a number of their old neighbors and friends who gathered to bid them farewell. The company presented them with a set of solid silver spoons. Mayor Pomeroy making a nice little speech in behalf of those present.
P. M. Sjogren has a sale of his stock and farm machinery advertised to take place on January 29 as he will retire from the farming list.
Cards are out announcing the marriage of Otto Clauson to Miss Emma Lundberg on January 16. Otto has been trying to batch these winter months but finally determined to agree with many others that it is not well for man to live alone.
Kiron has a new livery barn. Messrs. N. P. Swanson and Emil Mauritz have rented the Reinkin barn and have commenced business. With two good livery barns Kiron has no need of footing it.
Mrs. Ella Rodgers of Rolf, Iowa is a visitor this week with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burrows.
Mrs. Harry Settle of Wyoming is in Kiron this week making a short visit with her sister, Mrs. R. M. Getman.
Strahn Bros. is the name of the new firm whom have launched out into the business circle of our town, having bought out the mercantile business of C. J. Chinberg. The firm is composed of gentlemen of grit, ability and business integrity, who have grown up in our midst and have a large circle of acquaintances in this locality and from whom they will draw their share of patronage. Will Strahn has had a number of years experience in the mercantile business and Olaf Strahn has been in the employ of Norclius & Nordell in this town where he acquired his experience in the business. May success attend them.
Mr. N. P. Nord and family took their departure on Tuesday for their new home in Oklahoma. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.