FIVE NEW ALDERMEN

Must be Elected This Spring.

Three Regular Terms And Two Vacancies to be Filled. Brown the Only Holdover.

A curious state of affairs exists on the city council. The terms of three of the members expire this spring and there are two vacancies, so that in every ward but the second there will be a full democratic ticket in the field. The place on the council filled by Max Sims has long been vacant, and this will have to be filled by the voters of the third ward. Dr. W. T. Wright's term will also expire this year. His unfortunate accident has deprived him from taking an active part in city affairs for the past few weeks, but he is now able to be about and we believe his friends and neighbors will gladly show their esteem and confidence for him by a re-election if he will accept it.

In the first ward two aldermen are to be elected. Mr. Sam Luney's term expires this year. Mr. Luney has made a careful, conservative and efficient officer and we understand he will be re-nominated by the republicans of his ward.

Mr. W. D. Faus has decided to leave Denison this spring and thus another vacancy is created. Mr. Faus has been a splendid officer and a good citizen and everyone regrets that business changes make it to his advantage to go to another location. Who will be nominated to succeed him is an open question and one which the republicans of the first ward should consider well.

The second ward will vote for but one alderman. Mr. U. G. Johnson is the officer whose term expires. We believe that he has given such excellent satisfaction that there would be but little effectual opposition to his re-election should he be a candidate.

Under all the circumstances it would certainly be to the advantage of the city to retain the old members. The law contemplates that there shall be at least three experienced men on the council all the time, but unfortunate conditions have made it so that unless the old members are re-elected there will be but one old member Mr. A. H. Brown on the aldermanic board.

CRAZY SNAKE IS SULLEN

Prisoner Refuses to Parley With Lieutenant Dixon—His Arrest Likely to End Creek Trouble.

Henrietta, I. T., Jan. 29.—Chitto Harjo, or Crazy Snake, the leader of the warring Creeks, who is a United States prisoner here, remained sullen today and refused to confer with Lieutenant Dixon. It is believed, however, that the wily chief will, sooner or later, show a friendly spirit and that the result will be a prompt ending of the insurrection.

IRISH VIEW OF THE QUEEN.

John Redmond Explains Why Ireland Does Not Weep at Her Bier.
Dublin, Jan. 29.—John Redmond, leader of the United Irish party, speaking at Wexford, said: "All the world assembled in London, not in triumph, but in sorrow, around the bier of her who to English people at least will live in history as a great constitutional sovereign. But Ireland was absent. Ireland, of all her empire, stood apart, sullen and dissatisfied. "Ask your English rulers why. It is not because the Irish race is hard of heart and cold of nature; it is not because of any want of respect for the personal virtues of the woman from whose weary hand the scepter of power is snatched by death. "It is because the reign which is just closed has been for Ireland and all the Irish race more disastrous than any reign in 300 years. During this reign 1,500,000 of our people have emigrated to other lands. "Under the sway of this monarch there have been 40 coercion acts depriving Ireland of its constitutional rights. "What has converted Canada from a land of rebellion to a happy colony would transform Ireland tomorrow from a disaffected to a contented land."

DISPERSES REBELS.

Funston Reports Opposition In His District Confined to Small Bands In the Mountains.

Manila, Jan. 29.—General Funston reports that practically all the organized insurrectionists in his district have been dispersed, with the exception of disconnected bands in the mountains. Sixty-five more rebels in the island of Panay have surrendered to the United States authorities at Cabatuan. George T. Rice, editor of the Daily Bulletin, who was ordered by General MacArthur to be deported because of the publication, in his paper of allegations against Lieutenant Commander William Braunerreuther, captain of the port, sailed yesterday. It was ordered that he be held as a prisoner until his arrival at San Francisco.

The general criminal and civil codes are almost completed. The hearing on the municipal government bill was finished yesterday and the measure will be enacted on Wednesday. Only two natives objected to the church property taxation feature and no objection was entered on behalf of the church or other organization.

Reports from Southern Luzon say there is much dissatisfaction in the insurgent camps. A thousand persons swore allegiance to the United States in a church at Malabon on Sunday.

ENDS IT WITH SHOTS.

South Dakota Man Attempts to Kill Wife and Self.

Chamberlain, S. D., Jan. 29.—A prominent resident of Buffalo county named Kottellin yesterday shot his wife in the breast, the bullet coming out near the shoulder blade. He afterwards, while parties were going to town after a physician, shot himself through the breast. Both, at last reports, were living, although in a critical condition. Kottellin for several months has been having trouble with his wife, the shooting eventually resulting from a difference over the division of $1,600.

Iowa Board Listens to Complaints.

Des Moines, Jan. 29.—The state board of control heard witnesses yesterday in this city in the case of the charges made against Dr. Druett of the state penitentiary at Anamosa, and incidentally against the management of Warden Hunter. The testimony concludes the investigation begun last week at Anamosa into the various charges made by discharged employes and others, affecting the general management of the institution. The board will have all the evidence transcribed and consider it at leisure. Nothing very serious was disclosed.

Nebraska Electors Visit White House.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Among the visitors at the white house yesterday were the presidential electors from Nebraska, who called to pay their respects to the chief executive. They were accompanied by Senator Thurston, who introduced them to the president.

Tracing a Missing Boy.

San Francisco, Jan. 29.—The mysterious disappearance of Boyle H. Miller from Pinole last August has been brought to the attention of the police by his father, Albion Miller, a wealthy lumber dealer of Minneapolis, Minn. Detectives have been detailed to trace the young man from the time he left Pinole.

Ferrell Must Die.

Columbus, O., Jan. 29.—Governor Nash yesterday denied the application for pardon by Rosslyn H. Ferrell, convicted of murdering Express Messenger Lane. Ferrell will, therefore, be electrocuted in the Ohio penitentiary on March 1.

The Chicago municipal council Monday refused to pass a resolution of sympathy with the people of the British empire on the death of Queen Victoria.

REJECTS RUSSIA'S TERMS. TOWNE ON PHILIPPINES.

China Refuses Conditions In Respect to Manchuria. Pleads for Immediate Cessation of Hostilities.

PREPARING TO SWING AX. HIS SUCCESSOR SWORN IN.

Foreign Envoys Meet to Decide Upon Punishment of Minor Officials—Several Heads Are Likely to Be Cut Off—Native Christians Ostracized.

London, Jan. 29.—The Daily News publishes the following from its Shanghai correspondent: "Sheng, the total, has received a telegram from Li Hung Chang saying that the Russian representatives in Manchuria presented to Tseng Chi, the Tartar general at Sheng King, nine peace conditions, restoring Manchuria to China, but giving Russia absolute control of the province, the latter undertaking in case of war to support China. "As Tseng Chi rejected these conditions Li Hung Chang ordered Cho Ha Pan, the new Tartar general at Hal Lung Kang, to undertake the negotiations. "Strong evidence exists," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Morning Post, wiring yesterday, "that negotiations are on foot between China and Russia with regard to the cession of three eastern provinces."

Punishment of Minor Officials. Peking, Jan. 29.—A meeting of the foreign envoys was held yesterday, attended only by those whose fellow countrymen have been killed in the internal provinces, the object being to decide what punishment should be inflicted upon minor officials. A report will be made to a general meeting of the ministers to be held probably after the funeral of Queen Victoria.

The ministers refuse to state the decision arrived at, but it is believed that few will be beheaded and certainly not the highest officials. Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching have, on their request, had Sheng and Cho Fu appointed to assist in the negotiations.

Reports from the province of Ho Nan say that the native Christians there are not molested, but that they are boycotted and are suffering considerable distress in consequence.

Cuts Off Countess Allowance. New York, Jan. 29.—Justice Beach in the supreme court yesterday handed down a decision continuing the temporary injunction restraining George J. Gould, Edwin Gould, Howard Gould and Helen Gould, as trustees of the estate belonging to their sister, Anna Gould, Countess de Castellane, pending the trial of an action brought by Asher Wertheimer, a London brokerage dealer, against Count and Countess de Castellane for $318,000.

Crown Prince Gets a Garter. Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 29.—The crown prince of Germany, Frederick William, was invested with the Order of the Garter yesterday by King Edward VII. The investiture occurred in the council chamber of Osborne house and was a brilliant function. The high officers of the household, military and civil functionaries and the emperor's entourage, including a party from the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, were present, all in full uniform.

Progress of Boer Invasion. Cape Town, Jan. 29.—It is reported that the invaders have reached the Ondshoorn district, where they had a slight skirmish with the defense forces. Generals Dewet and Paterson with 500 Boers crossed the railroad between Ventersburg and Halffontein Jan. 29. Twenty-five British in ambush killed five of the Boers.

Neck Broken and Head Crushed. Calhoun, Neb., Jan. 29.—John Lamburg, a young man working on the Becker-Degen ranch three miles south of Calhoun, was instantly killed here yesterday. He was returning to the ranch with a load of corn when he fell from the wagon in such a way that his neck was broken and his head crushed under the wheels.

Victories for Rebels. New York, Jan. 29.—A dispatch to the Herald from Port Spain, Trinidad, says: "Details have been received here of fierce fighting last week on the main land near Guiria and Carupano, resulting in defeats for the government troops. Several hundred men were killed in the engagements."

Know Nothing of It. Caracas, Jan. 29.—The Venezuelan government professes to have no information regarding the reported seizure of British subjects in Pate Island by an armed expedition from the Venezuelan gunboat Augusto, or the reported occupation of Guaira on the Gulf of Paria by the insurgents.

Proclaims the New King. Pretoria, Jan. 29.—In the presence of Lord Kitchener and his staff at noon, the governor general, Sir Alfred Milner, proclaimed Edward VII to be king of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, defender of the faith, emperor of India and supreme lord of and over the Transvaal.

MANY DID NOT VOTE.

Eleventh Ballot for Senators Differs Little From Its Predecessors.

Lincoln, Jan. 29.—Many absentees, 27, and pairs marked the senatorial ballot yesterday. The change of Currie to Kinkaid eliminates Van Dusen from the list, which is:

The senate Monday listened to an account of the public lands and buildings committee and its improvements at the penitentiary, which many improvements, among which was an electric light plant, were recommended.

Van Boskirk's hide registry bill was passed. The request of Senator Harlan, asking to be excused from the committee on "ugly rumors," was refused by a vote of the senate.

The house passed a bill favoring election of senators, by direct vote of the people.

SHAKES UP TOPEKA.

Mrs. Nation Gives Governor Stanley a Tongue Lashing for His Failure to Close Saloons.

Topeka, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Carrie Nation yesterday invaded the office of Governor William E. Stanley in his chambers in the capitol building and for a solid hour arraigned the chief executive of the state for his failure to close the saloons of Kansas, calling him a "lawbreaker" and "perjurer." Then in turn she visited the offices of Attorney General Godard, County Attorney Nichols and Sheriff Cook and demanded of each that they close the saloons.

When Mrs. Nation entered Governor Stanley's office, she was followed by a crowd of newspaper reporters and others. By turns she administered to Governor Stanley a tongue lashing for his failure to uphold the laws against liquor selling or begged him for aid to carry on her crusade. She put her questions with fierceness and answered them herself without giving the governor time to utter a complete sentence in his own defense. The governor said her motive was good, but her methods bad. She invited the governor to join her in a saloon-smashing crusade.

Finally Governor Stanley volunteered: "You get the prosecuting attorneys of the different counties to put the joint keepers in jail and I'll see that they are not pardoned."

This instantly transformed Mrs. Nation. She fairly beamed with joy and thanking the governor took her departure.

LONE ROBBER GETS $700.

Holds Up Standard Oil Company's Cashier in His Office at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Jan. 29.—At the office of the Standard Oil company, in the southern part of the city, yesterday a young man forced W. E. Irvin, the cashier, at the point of a revolver, into a closet, and after locking him in, made off with about $700 in cash.

Irvin was preparing his cash for the bank when a young man, probably 24 years old, entered the office quietly and placing a revolver at the cashier's head ordered him to retreat to a small closet a few feet away. Irvin complied promptly and the robber turned the key on him. Then, placing the money in sight in his pockets the robber walked from the office a hundred feet to the railway tracks, where he boarded a passing freight train. Irvin was alone and it was some time before he attracted passersby to release him and made the robbery known to the police.

Dr. W. F. Lee is Bound Over.

Beatrice, Neb., Jan. 29.—Dr. W. F. Lee had his preliminary hearing before County Judge Bourne yesterday afternoon on the charge of shooting with intent to kill or wound William Hurn on Sept. 30 of last year. He was bound over to district court in the sum of $1,000. His attorneys and his son appeared as sureties.

TELEGRAMS TERSELY TOLD.

Hurricane-like snowstorms prevail in many parts of Germany.

Orders have been given to put the cruiser New York in commission at the New York navy yard Feb. 15.

Steamer Holland Wrecked.

Rotterdam, Jan. 29.—The steamer Holland, from London, was wrecked at the northern pier while entering Nieuwewaterweg, at the entrance of the river Maas, yesterday. The captain and six men have been saved. The Holland parted amidships and 16 of those on board were drowned.

Snow Blocked in England.

London, Jan. 29.—The storm continues along the coasts and inland, accompanied by heavy snows. Widespread damage has been done. The telegraph lines are down and the roads are blocked with snow. A number of minor wrecks have been reported.

FIVE KILLED IN A WRECK.

Disastrous Collision on the Baltimore and Ohio.

VICTIMS ALL TRAINMEN.

Engineer Was Asleep and Mistook First Section of a Passing Train for the Second. Two Engines and Ten Loaded Cars Demolished by the Crash.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 29.—A disastrous wreck occurred on the Baltimore and Ohio road yesterday. Two freight trains collided one mile west of Petroleum and five men, all well known railroaders, were killed. The dead:

J. D. WATSON, engineer.
N. CURTINBY, brakeman.
J. G. BAILEY, brakeman.
J. T. BAILEY, brakeman.
C. CUNNINGHAM, brakeman.

The collision occurred in a deep cut that is on a curve, and both trains were going at a good rate of speed. The two, together with a great crash and piled up derailed engines and cars as it was the cut.

being asleep and any of the engine section of a passing train the first one. Engineer Davidson, who the second, with slight injuries, thinking the second, pulled his train on to the track and sped onward to what we seem to have necessarily been death. Two engines and ten loaded cars were wrecked.

England May Declare War.

New York, Jan. 29.—A special Herford from Washington says: learned now that the claim of Venezuela to Pato island, from which Venezuelan gunboat Augusto took several British subjects, is contested Great Britain and that the question of the nation to which the island belongs has never been satisfied. This will have an important bearing on the course, in connection with the negotiations which the British government will make to Venezuela. Britain, if it insists on its sovereignty over the island can declare the gunboat an act of war and demand instant reparation.

Snowbound Passengers Rescued.

Fredrick, Md., Jan. 29.—The wreck and Philadelphia train left yesterday afternoon over Pennsylvania railroad, encountered snow drift at Shurtlet's cut, 20 north, where it became completely snowbound and remained so p. m., when the four coaches with passengers were extricated from their perilous position. Within half an hour the snow was over seven feet deep and the passengers were greatly annoyed as they could see nothing but sheets of snow sweeping down the mountains, encircling them sight.

Armour Legatees Get This.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—The estate of late Philip D. Armour, according to petition for letters testamentary in probate court yesterday, is at $15,000,000. Of this, $14,000,000 ready. This estate is distributed among the members of the family, the legatees named in the will being: Malvina G. Armour, widow; J. Ogden Armour, son; D. and Lester Armour, grandsons. The executors named in the will were the widow and son.

Tried to Murder Detective.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—Enemies of Joseph Wilhoff, a detective for the Evanston Anti-Saloon league, planned to murder him and attempted to execute the crime last night at Wilhoff's home, 214 Fletcher street. Concealed near the rear door of the detective's house three men waited for him to come out and when he made his appearance he was seized from behind, felled to the ground and stabbed in the region of the heart.

Cat Causes Baby's Death.

Sioux City, Jan. 29.—The family cat in the home of Charles Schlotman, a farmer, near Jefferson, S. D., a few miles from here, brushed against a lighted lamp which was standing on a table beside the crib in which Cora, the 2-months-old daughter, was sleeping. The lamp was overturned on the child, which was immediately wrapped in flames. The father was badly burned in a vain effort to rescue the infant.

Mrs. Lease Must Be Present.

Wichita, Kan., Jan. 29.—Judge Dale of the district court yesterday insisted that Mrs. Mary E. Lease must positively be present when her petition for a divorce is taken up. Her attorney sought to have the court grant her a divorce without putting her to the expense of a journey from New York.

Woman Knocked Down by a Footpad.

Kansas City, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Rade-maker of Kansas City, Kan., was knocked down and rendered unconscious near her home by a footpad last night. Her assailant struck her with a club and becoming alarmed ran away without robbing her.

A. I. Hodey, a grocer in Kansas City, Kan., was slung by a robber last night. He is in a precarious condition. The robbers escaped.
