EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

NOT THE EDITORS FAULT.

One of our subscribers has commented upon the fact that neither of the Denison papers seem to contain so many purely personal mentions as they did in the days gone by. We must acknowledge that this is true. In the days when Denison had but one railroad and but two trains a day that carried any considerable amount of local travel, it was an easy matter for the news-gatherer to go to those trains and then and there collect about all the personal happenings of the town. At present there are twenty trains a day, each bringing a few people to our city, the trains on the Northwestern and the Illinois Central arrive at almost identical times and it would thus take the services of two men to be present at the incoming and outgoing of the trains. Our resources are not such as to permit this, and for this reason we would ask our friends to let us know when anything of a news character happens to them or their friends. It would help us greatly and we are sure that both of the Denison papers would be pleased to publish all the news they can get. As personal mentions decline however, what is called "local" news increases. There are more happenings of a public character than ever before and the columns of the papers contain much of such matter. Do not criticize the papers until you have tried to help them and find that they do not respond.

THE EXPENSE OF GOVERNMENT.

The papers opposing the present administration are endeavoring to make much capital over the fact that the expenses of this government are increasing year by year, but they have done so in democratic as well as in republican times. During republican times the people have generally been in better condition to meet these expenses, but we do not care at this time to enter into an argument over so obvious a fact. It is natural that the government of seventy millions of people should cost more than the government of sixty millions, and as the country increases in population and in the total amount of business done, the expenses will keep pace with that increase. All large corporations and those people who have reduced business to a fine art, have learned that it is not the amount of expense incurred which counts but the proportion of the expense to the total business. Thus each office of the American Express Company, each station of a railroad is required each month to make a statement of the percentage of the expenses to the gross business. The expense of the government may well be compared to the expense of a private business. It is government which makes possible good business conditions, it is government which gives security to investments and to business of all kinds. The government protects us from frauds of all kinds. It is to watch over our currency and to see that the merchant is not overwhelmed with counterfeits, it is to watch over our mails and see that business is expedited in this way. It is to protect the ships of commerce from hidden reefs and dangerous shoals along our coast line. It is to protect our citizens no matter in what part of the world they may be, and all this and the hundred and one other departments of our government cost money. If the papers that are indulging in unreasoning comment as to the expense of government will investigate, they will find that the proportion of expense to the business done has not increased but rather has diminished. This is the only standard by which to judge.

A TEMPTATION OVERCOME.

We published in our last issue the answer made by the Carroll Herald to a personal attack made upon it and others by the Boone Republican. The Republican is both unkind and ungenerous in its statements and we would not follow its footsteps. We would not for a moment insinuate that post office disappointment may have had as much to do in Brother Kneeder's case as post office appointment is claimed to have had in others. We would not suggest that had a certain party attended a certain dinner all might have been forgiven, and the goose occupying an elevated and honored position in the Republican's sanctum. We will not be thus unkind, we thrust the temptation from us as worthy only of a mind who can see in such bright minds as those of Messrs. Hungerford and Ingham and Roberts nothing loftier than a well organized appetite for office. As for the Review, we have no apologies to make. It is bound hand and foot to the Shaw-Dolliver-Conner combine if such an octopus exists. It has the warmest kind of a spot in its heart for them all, and is not a bit ashamed to own it. Two of the men are among its dearest friends, men whom the editor has known and honored from childhood, men whom he knows can be trusted in the little things as well as the big things of life. As for the other man; well a man must have been disappointed in his dinner arrangements who would not love the genial Dolliver. We would advise Mr. Kneeder to read the "Optimist", a magazine published in Boone, Iowa, and see if he cannot glean from its pages some ray of hope for the future. Perhaps he can discover the promise of some better land where there shall be no men bigger than himself.

THAT SIGH OF RELIEF.

Mr. Bryan is endeavoring to perpetuate himself by the publication of a newspaper. We have no fault to find with Mr. Bryan for so doing, we believe he will be an honor rather than a discredit to the profession, but we do not believe that he can again impose himself or his theories upon the American people. We know that hundreds of democrats in this very democratic county of Crawford breathed a sigh of happy relief when they knew that Mr. Bryan was defeated. Many of these men believed in his theories but deep down in their hearts was the conviction that it was better to leave well enough alone. They believed in Bryan but they were not cock-sure and the palpable fact was before them that the country had survived four years of republicanism and was in a fairly thriving condition, in fact, that it was in better condition than it was before Mr. McKinley took the reins of power. This was the reason for the sigh of relief and we hope that these same democrats will study events closely during the next four years and if prosperity continues we hope they will vote as they think and not simply as they have been in the habit of voting. In other words we hope the people will learn more and more to think for themselves and will learn that it pays to be honest with themselves rather than to cheat their consciences by sticking to party rather than to good judgment. The republican party is now on trial as it has been for the past four years. It will make mistakes just as it has in the past but it is to be judged not by its errors alone but by the general results of its policies. The republican party has made one serious mistake during this session of congress in that it did not insist that representation should be restricted wherever suffrage is restricted. It is a mistake that is but a repetition of the mistakes made in the days of the Missouri Compromise and the Omnibus Bill and the other acts by which statesmen sought to compromise with justice before the civil war. It is a mistake of which the people as a whole will some day repent in sack-cloth and ashes. But the making of this mistake does not prove that the republican party is wrong any more than one ill-advised act should condemn a man in the eyes of the community for a life-time.

POSTOFFICE APPOINTMENTS.

The following is a list of the latest post office recommendations and appointments in the Tenth District as made by Congressman Conner:

At Dakotah, Humboldt county, Mr. Perry Davis, newly appointed.

At Vinje, Winnebago county, Mr. O. C. Strom, newly appointed.

At Dedham, Carroll county, Mr. A. J. Young, continued.

At Kentner, Carroll county, Mrs. Julia Tuttle, newly appointed.

At Curlew, Palo Alto county, Mr. H. C. Wiley, newly appointed.

At Mallard, Palo Alto county, Eleroy O. Goodlaxon, newly appointed.

At Ruthven, Palo Alto county, N. D. Anthony, recommended.

At Rolfe, Pocahontas county, Marion Bruce, recommended.

At Lilly, Pocahontas county, Mrs. M. A. Regan, newly appointed.

At Gruver, Emmet county, Mr. C. Higinbotham, newly appointed.

At Burnside, Webster county, J. E. Manchester, newly appointed. F. A. PINNEY.

It may be expected as certain that the Des Moines Leader will oppose Governor Shaw for a third term, or even for the presidency. The Leader as a leader in Republican politics in Iowa is a huge joke. It is the source of ceaseless and convulsive amusement.—Carroll Herald
