

SAY!

You had better see the Green Bay Lumber Co about the lumber for that new building you're figuring on putting up. We have an idea that will save you some money on the price.

And we know we can give you better lumber than you get anywhere else. Our stock is bought in large quantities for spot cash and nothing but gilt edge stuff is accepted. We invite the inspection of particular people. Can supply your wants for anything in building material.

ALF WRIGHT
MANAGER. Green Bay Lumber Co.

CHARTER OAK CHATS.

Hank Cummings was a caller Thursday.
Mr. Rankon had business at Sioux City, Tuesday.
Peterson Bros., of Council Bluffs, visited their parents the first of the week.
Oil Inspector Young was over from Denison, Wednesday.
A. Fish and D. Palmer drove to Ricketts, Wednesday.
F. McCord and C. Brown, of Sioux City, are Oak visitors this week.
Louie Bahnsen returned to Battle Creek, Wednesday, after visiting here and at Logan a few days.
Mrs. N. Thompson and son, of Denison, are visiting the family of J. P. Thompson before going to Oklahoma.
Mr. Pazon and children started March 1st for Manning, where they will make their future home.
The spring moving began for certain this week. Mr. Wickwire moved to his farm on the Willow and Thomas Plate of Dow City to his place north of the depot; L. M. Jones will move their house in the east part of town; Editor Hill, who takes possession of the Charter Oak Times, will live in the house vacated by Geo. Deter. Several others are moving from one house to another.

Wm. McVey and family left here the first of the week for their new home at Arion. Their many friends hope they may be very successful.
Mrs. Hall came from Denison, Wednesday, to help take care of her mother, Mrs. Levalley, who is very low.
Monday was Andy Eggers birthday, in the evening a number of his friends gave him an old-fashioned surprise. A fine lunch was served and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.
The fine home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bamford was open Tuesday evening to entertain sixty invited guests, who spent a very pleasant evening with music, games and social conversation. An elaborate three-course lunch was served.
Married, at the M. E. parsonage, Wednesday evening, Feb. 27, by Rev. T. Cannon; Mr. Charley Mackey and Miss Grace Mulheron, both of Charter Oak. These young people have been in our midst from childhood and have many friends who extend congratulations.
The case of Charter Oak vs Lang is calling a good many witnesses from here to Denison this week.

MANILLA NEWS NOTES.

Miss Anna Bock, of Harlan, who has been the guest of her uncle, L. Horstman, for some time past, returned home Monday.
Will Daugherty has been entertaining his brother, Dan, of Hartington, Neb., this week.
Mrs. J. L. Deason, who has been visiting relatives at this place, returned to her home at Arlington, Neb., Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Williams, of Neola, visited at the home of John Hammer, Monday.
Miss Kate Wurtemburger accompanied by Miss Josie Le Mars, left Monday for Des Moines, where they will purchase their new stock of millinery goods.
John Miner, who has been making time with his daughter at DeWitt, visited with friends in town a few days this week.
Mrs. Tom Holmes, of Defiance, was a guest at the home of T. H. Brown, Monday.
Mr. Rheinholdt, of Aspinwall, moved his family and household goods to this place, Tuesday, and are now occupying Arthur Mills house in the south part of town.
Mrs. John Thorpe is rusticiating in the country this week at the home of Mrs. Miller.

How to Cure the Grip.

Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. This remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is really the only serious danger. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip not one case has been reported that did not recover. For sale by C. F. Cassidy & Co.

Messrs. Reuben and Joseph Johnson and Mrs. D. L. Johnson were business callers to the county seat last Friday.

F. L. Johnson visited in Manilla over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lindgren, of Ida county, passed through our burg last Thursday, bound for Denison.

Ira Nelson, a former resident of our community and very well-known here, visited with friends and relatives here last week. He left for Omaha Monday to visit his mother, after which he will leave for Crystal Lake, Minnesota, where he will farm having rented a farm there. We understand that he will not remain "single" much longer, he having found his "choice."

Miss Amy Anderson returned home last Monday from Omaha, where she has made an extended visit. Her friends are glad to see her back home again.

A number of Johnsonvillers attended a program at the school house in "Old" with Miss Clara Johnson as teacher. It being the last day of the term. All report the program a very good one.

Almost everybody complains of "a cold."

Clauson Bros. shelled corn for W. J. Lindburg last Monday.

ARION NEWS LETTER

Arion wants an experienced tinner to put in a hardware and implement store in the building now vacated by the Maurer stock. Mr. Maurer has decided to devote all his time to the banking business and we are glad of this change. Mr. Maurer has ample capital and has proven himself to be an honest and conservative business man.

A gentleman with twelve years experience in steam laundry work, contemplates establishing a plant in our city.

Claus Hofeldt returned to the sheep ranch in Montana, Sunday.

C. H. Martens attended the birthday celebration of his uncle, Mr. Thompson of Charter Oak, Wednesday and Thursday.

The children of the Arion schools are being vaccinated in compliance with the orders of the health officer.
Miss Simpson and Miss Hartick, of Council Bluffs, visited at the Green home over Friday and Saturday, and attended the Woodman ball at Dow City.

Pearl Green is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Reynor were greeting Arion friends, Saturday.

L. Love has moved his family to the north room of his store, to make room for Mr. McVey, who will move his presses and family to our village, Tuesday.

Many of our people attended the concert in Dow City on Saturday evening. It was a very enjoyable time indeed.

W. H. Corey, our popular barber, has purchased a home in Arion.

March 1st is keeping up the usual moving record. Several families are moving.

Would it not be well to adopt some of the laws of our sister nations by enforcing a law compelling children to attend the public schools? There are many children of a school age that are allowed to remain away from school. If the parent and child would realize that a missing link in the chain of education is a disadvantage throughout life, it seems that this would occur less frequently and our teachers who are doing good work throughout the country would feel better paid for efforts.

Mrs. Geo. Rae is sick with pneumonia. Her many friends are anxious for a speedy recovery.

Attorney I. V. Jackson was a pleasant caller here Thursday.

E. T. Cochran was seen here looking after his property in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marr are the proud parents of a little daughter born Feb. 27th.

Mr. McVey is now pleasantly located among us. Mrs. McVey and children arriving Thursday. They will occupy the residence formerly occupied by W. W. Coon.

Mr. Martins attended the masquerade ball at Charter Oak. He thinks it just the place to be nicely entertained.

Dr. Beatty was called in consultation for Mrs. Geo. Rae.

Rev. A. G. Martyn, of Denison, preached an excellent sermon last Sunday.

The editor of the Bulletin will find that it was not policy for him to sling mud at our village in the way he did regarding a party coming in our midst to make his home. There is more than one editor who needs a guardian angel who had better keep the Golden Rule in mind to insure future prosperity.

The genial deputy sheriff made a grave mistake in this place by serving papers on the wrong man. He was willing, however, to furnish the treats and N. P. Underhill considered the joke on the deputy instead of himself and it only affords considerable amusement for the people, and none think it necessary for him to have a guardian.

SCHOOL NOTES.

On account of much sickness the attendance for the past week has not been so good.

Next Friday closes the winter term. Miss Sela and Hazel and Harold Underhill leave next Saturday for Lincoln where they will make their future home. We are sorry that they will no longer be enrolled in our schools.

School election next Monday.

The high school pupils are busy with their reviews.

Maud Boham re-entered school on Monday.

Belle Conroy visited us Wednesday.

Miss Pearl McLean finished her term of school in Hanover township last week and returned to her home at Fremont, Nebraska.

Miss Celia Ehlers is visiting, her parents this week.

Mrs. J. C. Saul is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. E. M. Green has been spending a few days with Mrs. Sweet of Willow township.

Mrs. S. Malone is spending the week at A. H. Cook's.

C. A. Green, of Rolfe Pocahontas county, came down Tuesday for a few days visit with relatives.

A. H. Cook was a Dow City visitor the first of the week.

Lynn Rood visited over Sunday with relatives at Ute.

A. H. Cook and C. A. Green were Charter Oak visitors, Wednesday.

Mrs. H. Saul visited last week with Mrs. J. C. Saul.

H. W. Logsdon moved Thursday to their farm near Dow City. Mr. Wyland will move on the farm vacated by him.

J. C. Saul is on a business trip to Sac county.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Rumor has it that the "dorm" is quarantined, but no one there seems to have experienced the sad affliction.

Miss Webster gave a recital at Gray, Iowa, on the evening of the 22nd, to a large audience.

Miss Mitchell, of Buck Grove, enrolled in the normal department, Monday.

Miss Munson, who has been elocutionary instructor at the Storm Lake college for the past two years, was visiting at the college a few days ago.

The two literary societies will hold a joint meeting in the near future, and render a short program, after which they will have a social. The date will be announced later on.

A few select friends spent Wednesday evening with Miss Scanlan enjoying a social gathering. All report a most pleasant time.

Miss McGrin, who attended school here during last summer's term, was a visitor Tuesday.

A. D. Roullard was a chapel visitor on the 21st, and favored the school with a very interesting talk on his recent trip to the Paris exposition. Mr. Roullard having gone to Paris to serve in the capacity of a U. S. guard, was there during the entire exposition and can tell of many interesting experiences with which he met, both on the journey going over and during his stay there.

Miss Craft, of Dunlap, who is one of the contestants in the contest to be held there, spent two days in Denison this week, receiving special instruction from Miss Webster.

C. F. Kuzhnie visited chapel Monday morning and gave a short talk. He spoke along the line of Washington's life work and showed that while we all couldn't be Washington's or Lincoln's and attain the presidential chair, yet we could take their lives for examples and make the best of the talents given us.

Mr. Schweers, of Arcadia, was shak-hands with old friends, Wednesday. Mr. Schweer was in attendance at school here during last winter.

Misses Riepen and Mueller spent the afternoon of the 21th, visiting at the college.

On Wednesday, Rev. Holmes visited the chapel and addressed the school briefly. He spoke not only of the necessity of thorough preparation for this life's work, but emphasized particularly the living of a true and pure life as the only passport to the enjoyment of that life which is to come.

Prof. Healey, principal of the Aspinwall schools, was visiting at the college Thursday, a short vacation having been granted him while the pupils are nursing their lame arms, the result of vaccination.

Miss Webster took the afternoon train Friday for West Side, at which place she will give an entertainment in the evening. From here she goes to Gildden, where she will give an entertainment Saturday evening. Miss Webster is unsurpassed in Iowa as a reciter, and all who have an opportunity to hear her are always pleased.

Mr. Meyers, editor of the Review, gave a talk in the chapel Thursday, taking for the subject, "Newspaper Work." This is the first of a series of talks to be given by the citizens of Denison along various lines. Mr. Meyers, in his talk stated some of the requisites in order to become a successful editor, showed the necessity of having a very general education and strongly advocated for anyone who anticipated entering the newspaper work, a careful study of the modern languages. All were delighted to have heard him and wish that it may be his pleasure to come often.

Mr. Wilson, while playing football with the boys Thursday, received quite severe fall, which will confine him to his room for awhile. We sincerely hope that it will not prove to be dangerous and that he may soon be able to be with us again.

Levitt's

CLOSING OUT SALE!

Having decided to go out of business I will offer for sale at x x x

AUCTION

My entire stock of Merchandise, including all the new purchases for spring. Sale begins on x x

SATURDAY March 9th

LEVITT'S BROADWAY, DENISON, IOWA

BIG AUCTION OF THOROUGHbred

Shorthorn Cattle!

Messrs. F. F. Brown, E. Kruger and B. E. Mitchell will sell at Public Auction

AT LAUBS BARN DENISON, IOWA,

... ON ...

Saturday, March 16

One of the Best Herds of Cattle in Iowa, consisting of

50 THOROBRED 50 Shorthorns

These Cattle are of the best strains and breeding qualities. The herd is gathered from Iowa, Missouri and Kansas prize winners and it will pay to investigate and be present at the sale.

LIBERAL TERMS WILL BE GIVEN

Terms are cash, but bankable notes with 8 per cent interest payable in one year will be taken.

B. E. MITCHELL,
COL. F. M. WOODS, AUCTIONEER