MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM

To be Observed at Denison on May 30th.

MRS. CHRISTINE SNYDER SPEAKS

G. A. R. Post and Auxiliaries Will Participate in Exercises. Hon. Jacob Sims Will Speak in Opera House

May 30th was set apart by Congress as a national memorial day in honor of the dead heroes of the civil war. What is nobler than to give one's life for his country, and should we not honor these men who left us this grand heritage, a re-united, undivided country? The members of the Grand Army of the Republic are subject to discipline for the failure to be present at these memorial services, and if it be true that we owe our present greatness to these men it is our sacred duty also as citizens to observe the day in a reverent spirit. It is not a day of hilarity. It is a day to pay homage to the nation's dead. They gave their lives for our country's redemption; therefore let this day be free from ball games and all kinds of amusements. Let us all with one accord gather at the cemetery, scatter the sweetest flowers of springtime to their memory, and recall the blessing that have come to us through their sacrifices.

PROGRAM

Procession will form on Main street, right resting on Broadway, at 9:30 a. m., in the following order and proceed to the cemetery.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Galt

There are few bearded men in China. Men who have grandchildren may wear a mustache, and many take advantage of the privilege and are called "old hair men."

Twice a year, in the first week in April and October, the Chinese carry food to their dead.

"ALL THINGS ARE OURS."

In accordance with the customary graduation exercises, Rev. E. M. Holmes of the First M. E. church, delivered the baccalaureate address to the outgoing Senior class of the High School, at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. The services were most impressive to all. The large crowd in attendance testified to this by the close attention. The church was seated throughout by the congregations of each church. The decoration consists of the beautiful flowers and flags that were used in the morning memorial services and were kindly donated for the purpose by the Woman's Relief Corp.

Promptly at eight the class and teachers entered in a body and occupied the front pews of the central body. After the usual opening service of song and prayer, Rev. Martyr presented Dr. Holmes to the congregation. Then followed a most logical and thoughtful address. His text was taken from Paul's admonitions to the Corinthians, II Book, Chapter 3, Verse 21. "Therefore let no man glory in men, for all things are ours." After reciting the events that called forth this epistle by Paul, a forceful dissertation on it was given. How man's mind is inclined to self-boycancy by nature! How swift are his flights and cruel his falls! The successful scholar and the successful man of business were dealt with. "To succeed today means success tomorrow." Nothing can be counted upon the past or present for the future, only what is done with thoroughness. "The mind the masterpiece of God's workmanship, is capable of anything—of grasping the arts and languages with a tenacious hold and even the sciences and philosophy of the past with force." Everything is brought out by experiments; yet "all things are ours." False ambition lead Alexander, Caesar and Napoleon to wretched death. The man that puts his trust in true power, Christ, becomes capable of anything. Success is theirs, even the winning of the kingdoms and thrones of the earth can be experienced, yet counterbalancing this are the sorrows and trials, the fears of this world. But with firm faith in the true God and his explicit teachings and helps, one can overcome all these exigencies with immunity.

Following upon this were his words of advice and guidance to the class and after praying that God might preserve each member to rely upon His words the services closed for the class of 1901.

SYNOPSIS.

ACT I.
Room in Roger's house—Confession of Dave's love for Esmeralda. Mrs. Rogers sells the farm. A startling revelation. Mr. Rogers wants to save the old homestead. Mrs. Rogers refuses. Estabrook's promise.

ACT II.
Studio in Paris. Estabrook gets news of Rogers. Mr. Rogers recognizes Estabrook. "Couldn't you make a stand?" Dave comes. Estabrook gives him news of Esmeralda. "I am indeed a rich man if Esmeralda loves me."

ACT III.
Room in Rogers' house in Paris during a ball. Desmond finds out that Estabrook loves Nora. "Why should I want you to go?" Nora and Estabrook take a great interest in the Rogerses. Mr. Rogers makes an appeal to the Marquis. Mrs. Rogers hears that Dave is in Paris. Esmeralda defies the Marquis and Mrs. Rogers. "We'll find Dave, won't we, father?"

ACT IV.
Same as Act 2. "I shall be rather sorry—for Jack," Estabrook tells Nora of his love. Mr. Rogers gives him his blessing. Defies Mrs. Rogers. Dave and Esmeralda reunited. "Mrs. Rogers, I'm the man!" Mrs. Rogers defeated. The letter. "And we are together."

THE KIRON CHRONICLE

Mr. Frank Ogren went to Odebolt on Saturday morning to join a crowd bound for Sac City for a few days visit there.

Rev. A. P. Hanson went to Lake View on Saturday afternoon to conduct services in the Swedish settlement south of that town over Sunday.

Messrs. Jacob C. Peterson and Fred Fredrichson shipped each two cars of hogs to Chicago on Monday evening.

Mr. Oscar Berggren is home for a few days vacation from the Denison college. Mr. Berggren was one of the contestants from the Denison college in the oratorical contest at Sac City and received second.

Otto Clauson was in town Wednesday and to judge from his appearance one would think he had undergone a siege of starvation but it being a two weeks tussle with intense rheumatism which he is just over.

Editor Ward has concluded to spend his spare moments selling books, newspapers, magazines, lead pencils and buffalo lodge buttons. Editor Ward believes in gaining the top of the ladder success.

John F. Engberg is away at present in Nebraska inspecting land. If nothing in the line would suit him he will go on to Kansas. We hope the lands there will not lure this enterprising farmer and his family from our midst.

Mr. John Swanson and son Leonard went to Big Springs, S. D. last Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Gust Swanson and other friends who moved there last spring from this locality. If Mr. Swanson can find a suitable farm he will rent one there for next year.

Meetings at the mission church have been postponed on Sunday next, owing to the repairing of the church. The Sunday school will be held at the Kiron school house Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Lars Anderson went to Chicago Saturday evening to spend a few days visiting friends.

Rev. A. Modig made a quick trip to Boyer on Saturday afternoon.

Our Jeweler A. Sedarberg went to Chicago Saturday where he expects to buy new goods for his jewelry store. He will visit his old friend Harvey Williams who is located at Moline Ill.

Chas Dahn now of Charter Oak was shaking hands with our people a few hours on Friday. It was not until after he had left town that we learned that he just came from Denison where an act had been performed which made a Charter Oak lady his wife. They visited friends southwest of town until Saturday when they returned to Charter Oak their future home.

Misses Amy Loomer and Lydia Benson went to Denison on Saturday to attend the Holiness campmeeting for a few days.

Two deaths occurred in the German settlement last week. Mr. Peter Hollander resident eight miles southwest of Kiron died very suddenly of heart failure. He was not feeling well and on reaching home he was helped to bed and a doctor sent for but died ere the doctor arrived. His remains were followed to their last resting at the Nissen cemetery on Wednesday by a large number of friends and relatives. On Tuesday Mrs. F. Funderman who was visiting at the home of her son-in-law Mr. J. Cursten four miles north east of Kiron passed away after a very short illness at the age of 76 years. She was buried at the Nissen cemetery on Thursday.
