

Its Your Draw!

You and we are playing a game of screens. We dealt and we know your hand. Its your draw. If you read you will draw the right screen and will win. If not you will have your house full of flies this summer and have all manner of annoyance with fly traps called screens. Draw the Wheeler Self-Fitting Screen and live in peace and comfort. We guarantee to fit any window

THE KIRON CHRONICLE

Rev. John Sandberg from Neb. is visiting friends here this week.

Mr. Chas A. Johnson went to Lake View on Tuesday for a brief visit.

Quite a number of our people have been at Denison this week taking in the campmeeting.

Bert Loimer was a Denison visitor on Tuesday. While there he saw the McKelley train go through.

Prof. Otto Larson visited friends and relatives in Ida county the latter part of last week and first part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Anderson returned home on Tuesday from their visit to Omaha where they spent an enjoyable time.

Mr. Jacob C. Peterson and Fred Fredrickson went to Chicago on Monday evening with four cars of Stock their own feeding.

Mr. Emil Sandstrom went to Boyer Tuesday afternoon to assist the manager of the Bowman Lumber Co. at that place in some extra work.

Elder Fred Anderson ended his stay with his family on Tuesday and returned to Neb. to resume his religious work under the auspices of the adventists.

P. E. Nordell and Al Lund returned from Redfield S. D. on Tuesday more than pleased with that country and its prospect. While there three good rains fell.

The Kiron Creamery seems to be operating in first class shape and the increase of milk is daily. It receives at present writing over 6,000 pounds daily.

Mr. A. F. Johnson of Akron Iowa arrived last week to join his wife who is visiting here and will remain a short while visiting and taking a well earned rest from his store work.

Mrs. E. E. Clauson and Mrs. A. F. Lundberg went to Ellis early Wednesday morning when they took the passenger train for Pomeroy Iowa to visit relatives and friends over Sunday.

Rev. A. Anderson of Marathon Iowa preached to large audiences Sunday morning and evening at the Mission church. It is possible that a call will be given him to succeed Rev. A. Modig as pastor of the free Mission church.

The large residence of Mr. Fred Quade three miles east of Kiron burnt down Tuesday morning with all its contents. The origin of the fire is at present not certainly known. Only two years ago this house was destroyed in the same manner. We understand the property was insured but still they lose many articles that money can never replace. This is hard luck for our industrious farmer and his wife.

The memorial services were fittingly observed at the church Sunday. Elder Webster of Dow City delivered the sermon and the choir rendered music suitable for the occasion.

Dr. and Mrs. Coon expect to go to Lake Okoboji on Tuesday to remain until July 3rd, when they will go to the Pacific coast for a two or three months' pleasure trip.

Dr. L. M. Coon has sold his office and practice to Dr. H. C. Wengart, a pleasant gentleman who will move his family here next Wednesday and make himself one of us. We wish him success.

On Tuesday George Talcott met with quite a serious accident. While shelling corn at George Rae's he was in the act of oiling the machine when his foot slipped and he fell with the left hand between the cog wheels of the gearing of the sheller and most of the flesh was loosened and torn from all the fingers together with two nails. No bones were broken, however, and the hand is doing nicely.

On Wednesday evening of this week at the M. E. church occurred the graduating exercise of the Dow City high school. Jean Wiggins, Otto Crandall, Julian Butterworth and Jennie Talcott were the graduates. Instead of the regular essays from each graduate Rev. Houghtelin delivered an address.

Decorations day at Dow City was as it always is a very pleasant occasion to all who attended. More people attended this year than usual and all join in saying that Dow City is always in the lead when it undertakes anything. The absence of the band was quite a disappointment but the beautiful flowers made it a day long to be remembered. Mr. Shaw Van of Denison delivered the oration.

BELL BICKERINGS.

James Sharp was over on Paradise Sunday visiting friends.

Charley Boorman of Charter Oak has been fitting up a dwelling house for Mr. Neethen.

Geo. Hollowell with his spade and hoe went to Sioux City last week to remain this summer.

There was a game of ball in Bell Saturday between the talls and the shorts, the shorts winning.

We understand Tom McGuire and his sister will visit here, and the first of the month and will be gone about five months.

Corn is looking fine, all that is up. A few parties have a little to plant yet. Small grain is looking well but could stand a little more rain.

The mayor and marshal of Bell gave an exhibition in town a few days ago. The mayor proved the best acrobat, doing our marshal up in a few minutes.

Several from Deloit and vicinity attended Decoration services in Denison Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis were in town Thursday taking advantage of O. T. Turner's hard ware clearing sale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Darling, of Ellis, came down Wednesday to visit with relatives and friends, returning Thursday.

Mr. J. D. Newcom was in Deloit Monday afternoon and took home a load of rock salt for his stock from the "Boys" store.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Winans are the happy parents of a fine daughter which came to make an indefinite stay with them Monday.

Mrs. E. A. Stowell sent some lovely peonys to Independence Wednesday to be used in decorating her mother's grave Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hunt gave a reception Wednesday evening to a number of old people of Deloit, which was greatly enjoyed.

J. N. Turner sold out Tuesday to Dick Johnson and will go with his father to Kansas. John Worley will take his place on the creamery route.

Z. T. Nixon wrote to his son from Armour, S. Dak., this week that the crops were ahead of those here. They will probably return the last of this week.

Mr. Geo. Winans and wife, Mrs. J. L. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Winans Mrs. E. A. McKim and Aleatha Tucker were among those in Denison Sunday afternoon.

Elder C. J. Hunt went to Dow City Thursday to attend the services to be held there beginning Thursday evening and lasting over Sunday, by the L. D. S. church.

Mrs. M. Hunt went to Denison Wednesday evening where she attended Decoration Day services at that place Thursday. From there she will go to Dow City to attend the L. D. S. quarterly conference over Sunday.

Among those that drove up to the cemetery Thursday were Mrs. J. L. Ainsworth and niece, of Denison. Some of the school children also walked up and the graves of loved ones were remembered with a token of flowers.

Mrs. Juliet Johnson returned from Benan Wednesday where she has been staying a few weeks with her niece, Mrs. Amos Tayne. The many friends of Mrs. Tayne regret to learn of the death of her little baby, and extend sympathy to the bereaved parents.

While the Deloit section men were out on the road Monday their attention was drawn to some bones in the side of a bank; the bank having caved off leaving some of them in view. Upon examination they found the skulls and bones of eleven human beings that had been buried years ago in one hole about three feet underground. They gathered up every bone and carefully buried them again. They could not tell whether they were Indians or white people.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

Splendid congregations were present last Sunday morning at Deloit and in the afternoon at Boyer.

The theme next Sunday morning will be "Sabbath Observance." The evening subject will be "Why we do not approve of certain popular amusements."

The third quarterly conference will convene at Deloit June 22, at 2:30 p. m. The Presiding Elder, J. J. Luce, will preach at Deloit June 23, at 11 o'clock, a. m., and at Boyer the same day at 3:30, p. m.

The report that $86.00 was subscribed for foreign missions on May 19th, was quite erroneous. $82.00 was subscribed toward all the benevolent collections at Deloit and Boyer. $24.00 had been previously provided for, making a total of $106.00 for the charges, which will make a very creditable showing.
