Rev. Frank Peterson, of Minneapolis preached at the Baptist church Sunday evening to a large audience. He is a forcible and spiritual speaker and stands in the front ranks of the Baptist church to-day.

On Sunday morning smoke was seen rising from the large coal shed belonging to the Green Bay Lumber Co. in which some thirty tons of coal were stored. In a few minutes a number had gathered with shovels and soon threw the coal out, a portion of which was smoking and would have soon been ablaze. The cause of the fire was spontaneous combustion. Luckily it was discovered in time or our town would have had a repetition of several weeks ago.

A fracas which might have ended serious had not authorities interfered took place on our peaceful streets Saturday, the participants threatening to shoot and kill. Threats of such nature the law deals with severely.

Some one hundred and fourteen people joined the excursion train at Kiron Sunday morning for Lake View to spend the day. Quite a number of these were professors of religion who deserted the places of worship to spend the day at the amusements of the lake. Such a way is far from Christian obedience to the God they profess to serve. This hot weather which has hurt the pastures considerable, has reduced the amount of milk at the creamery to be tween four and five thousand pounds.
