We are glad to note that Mr. R. B. Morrow and Miss Harding, who were injured in a runaway accident last Sunday, are both improving, nicely and that except for the temporary suffering there will be no serious results from the accident.

Mr. A. A. Runkle of the Review office is in Des Moines this week on business connected with this office and to take examination before the civil service commission with a view to obtaining a position in the government printing office. He will return to Des Moines the first of next week. Mr. Norris is a bright young man and is fully realizing the fondest hopes of his friends for his success.

The North-Western has decided to put in guard gates at the crossing on Main and Sweet streets. We are glad that the company has agreed to do this without pressure and for their own protection as well as for the protection of the lives of the people. The North-Western is a good road and can usually be relied upon to do the right thing. We understand the settlement made with Mr. W. D. Luney was made without much controversy.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

Monday morning the H. S. was favored with several selections from Prof. Martin of the college. Mr. Martin is a reader of great talent and his selections were appreciated by us.

The boys have organized their football team for the season with Willie Lehfeldt as their captain. They expect to have some good games this season.

Among our visitors this week were Mr. Brink, Carrie Staley, Una Chapin and Miss Crandall. We are always glad to welcome them.

A girl's chorus has been organized under Miss Polster. The girls have improved from year to year and they expect to do still better this year for Miss Polster comes excellently equipped for this work and will give it her best effort.

Miss Garnett Romans taught a quarter day this week for Miss McAhren, who was ill.

Misses Beatrice Kirkup, Carrie Klick, Beatrice Jorgensen, Allie Wilson and Lawrence Carter and Clifford Randall were among the absent this week who were sick.

Mrs. A. D. Randall and sister visited the kindergarten one morning this week.

Our building can now float a new flag by the kindness of the Board. The old one was badly whipped out for further use.

The literary societies have all been organized within the last few weeks. They have each had one meeting and take up their work with as much interest as in other years.

The school enrollment shows a healthy growth over last year. The opening month registered 735 against 701 of last year at the same time.

The general attendance and punctuality seems to be somewhat improved over last year but much of loss is yet experienced by these irregularities throughout the schools. Only by the most earnest cooperation of parent can this great school hindrance be reduced to the minimum.

IN MEMORY OF WM. MCKINLEY.

Light and brilliant, splendor-laden,
Gorgeous in its bright array,
Like a gem in matchless beauty
Proudly poised on Eric's bay,
Lies the magic place of beauty
Which has charmed so many hearts
With display of art and science
Gathered from the world's best parts.
Listen to the ceaseless humming
Of this surging sea of life.
All are joyous, and forgotten
Are all cares, all toil and strife.
Softly borne on gentle breezes
Flows sweet music from the Hall,
Where a scene, dramatic, fearful,
Spreads o'er gaily sorrow's pall.
Hear the cries, the fearful message,
See commotion's billows roll,
Listen to the sobbing accents
Driving fear to every soul.
From the Hall of music yonder
Comes the word like death's own knell,
In his prime the Nation's Chief slain,
Pierced by murderous bullets fell.
Human passions in their fury
Burst their floodgates open wide,
Cries of "lynch him," "burn him," "slay him"
Could be heard on every side.
But the Law sublime, majestic,
Stemmed the tide upon its course.
"Hurt him not," the victim pleaded,
Love and justice, what a force.
But the passions are subsiding,
Grief is read in tear-dimmed eyes,
Tenderly the wounded Chieftain
Is considered where he lies
On his bed of pain and fever,
Calling for his faithful wife,
That companion who has ever
Been the fullness of his life.
Day and night the Nation watches,
Lest that precious life be gone,
While the dying hero murmurs
"Not our will, but God's be done."
But at last his sturdy nature
Yields to death. His spirit free,
Goes to dwell with God forever,
While he whispers, "Nearer Thee."
Home again, the last sad journey
Ended, and with grief we lay
In the grave our well beloved
Ruler, Chieftain, while we pray
That the blessings of our Father
May descend in richest grace
O'er the life of her whose sorrow
Casts a gloom o'er coming days.
As a nation now we gather,
Solemn masses around his bier,
Learning lessons from his patience,
From his life, devoid of fear.
In the sacred Hall of Martyrs
Do we place him with the two,
Lincoln, Garfield. Sacred honor,
Honor given but to few.
Soldier, statesman, husband, brother,
Valiant, wise and loving, true;
Long his life shall be remembered,
Spur us on to efforts new.
While the loathsome hand that slew him,
Raised aloft 'gainst Law and Man,
Shall impotent, nerveless wither
Never to be raised again.
—C. Sundstrom.

The bowling match which was to have taken place on Thursday evening between Missouri Valley and Denison was indefinitely postponed on account of the fact that no one had any desire for amusements while their friend Oren McAhren lay on his death-bed.

The following are the high scores at Lane and Leahy's new bowling alleys: Ten pins, Leon Young 232; four black C. Blackman, 71; cooked hat S. V. O'Hare, 35; nine pins C. Erickson, 7. A number of tempting prizes are offered to the one beating the ten pin record.

Attorney P. W. Harding, of Charter Oak, has been in town this week at tending court. He tells us that the Sioux City paper which published the libellous matter concerning him and the Harm case, was made to apologize and to pay several hundred dollars as damages. Newspapers should be more careful as to what they print and not take the word of a correspondent without investigation as a basis for sensational attacks upon men's characters.

This, the first of the REVIEW's twice-a-week papers, has been a hurried affair as a change is always difficult to make. By next week we will have things running smoothly again on the twice-a-week plan. The Bulletin suggests three-a-week papers. This would suit the REVIEW as the two papers could be issued on alternate days thus giving Denison a daily news service.

The Redmen representatives have returned from Des Moines in a very jubilant frame of mind as one of their number, Mr. H. F. Hodges was elected Supreme representative to attend the national meeting of the order at Norfolk, Va., next September. This was a high honor worthily bestowed, as no one takes a greater and more intelligent interest in the order than does Mr. Hodges.

The North-Western Bowling Alley Company will open their alley next Monday, Oct. 14, with a prize of $5.00 to the person making the highest score during the week. The alleys are in a new building, built especially for the purpose, which gives ample room for the players and also numerous seats for the spectators. The alleys are of standard regulation size and everything is first class.

A match game on Tuesday evening between the Schuler and Campbell bowling teams resulted in a score of 221 to 209 in favor of the former. In the second game the Schuler team composed of W. For next Tuesday evening a game is scheduled between the Schuler team and the Hamburgers.

November first Denison is to have a new exclusive grocery. Mr. W. E. Terry who has a host of old time friends in this city is to be the manager, and the firm will be known as Leverich and Terry. Mr. Leverich is the owner of a number of fine and successful stores and the opening of the new store means lively competition among the grocers of the city. The store will be in the Gallek block which is certainly a fine location for a store of this character.
