 Hon. J. F. Grote came home Saturday morning and remained until Sunday evening when he left for Bloomington, Ill., where he was sent for the purpose of meeting two other inspectors and instructing them more fully in regard to the rural delivery work. Mr. Grote is one of the most efficient men in this service and is the recipient of many letters from the department complimenting him upon the excellence of his work.

The Denison Bulletin is endeavoring to create prejudice against Hon. Hugh Langan, the republican candidate for representative, by insinuating that he is a citizen of Crawford county for office only. If the editor of the Bulletin had his way about it he would undoubtedly disfranchise every republican voter in the county, as this is along the line of democratic reform which has been instituted by that party in the south. This method of campaigning may be all right but we fail to see wherein the voter will be convinced that Davie is the better man to vote for. There is no one living in this part of the county, who knows Mr. Langan, that puts any stock in such slurs upon his integrity as a man. They know that he would not allow his name to be brought before the people for any office within the gift of the county were he not entitled to it. The fact that he was not one time a citizen of Sioux City does not prevent him from becoming a citizen of West Side again any more than his previous residence here would have prevented him from becoming a citizen of South Dakota. We feel confident that intelligent voters will stamp their disapproval of the Bulletin's course in this campaign by their votes on election day.
