

U. G. JOHNSON & COMPANY

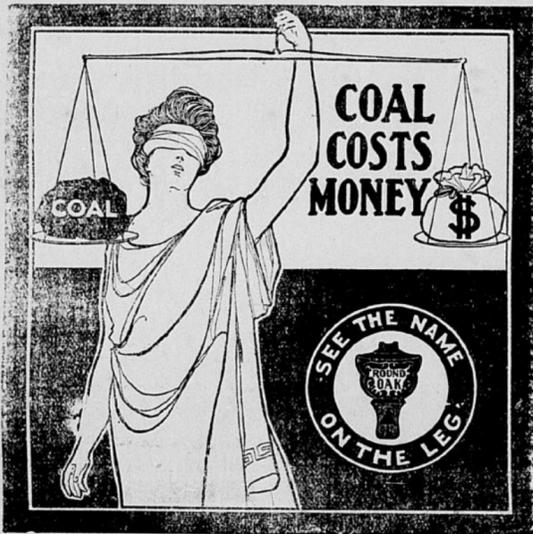

PPROMISES the trade the biggest and cheapest line of Holliday Goods ever shown in the city. We are showing a line of $1.00 Kid Body Dolls that are record breakers for size and quality. Early inspection invited. Goods bought now will be stored for you.

U. G. JOHNSON & COMPANY

Not Out of the Range Business

Just because we sold over forty Majestic Ranges and made forty house wives happy recently is no sign that we have no more of the same Ranges to sell. We can make every housewife happy if you will but give us a chance. Money was never better invested than in one of these Majestic Steel Ranges, and every Range we have put out is a testimonial to that effect. Ask those who have them. Besides Ranges we have a complete line of other Stoves, the best makes on the market, and at prices other dealers never attempt to meet.

Hard and Soft Coal and Wood Heaters

COMPRISING THE FOLLOWING WELL KNOWN MAKES:

ROUND OAK LINE, STEWART LINE, ESTATES, RADIANT HOME, HOME STOVE CO. & GREAT WESTERN

Remember, We are the Stove Dealers of Crawford County.

The J. B. Romans Company.

BULK OYSTERS

Served in any style, and free from ice. Parties wishing can procure them in any quantity. Oyster Crackers fresh from the factory.

Palace Bakery. M. M. Bradbury, Prop.

The Fact of the Business!

Is that we have a stock of goods has has been bought to give good service. The object we have had in view in buying our full stock is to get good quality as well as a large quantity. We have switched the markets of the United States for highest possible grades and we wish to impress upon your mind that we have a line of goods that we can recommend you solely on their merits. We wish to thoroughly convince you that by buying an article of us you are protected, that we have bought goods that will give satisfaction. If by chance an article fails to do so we are glad to make it right. You had better come in and see our new styles of Ivers & Pond Pianos—they cannot be excelled. It pay to buy of

E. C. CHAMBERLIN, The Jeweler,
Next Door to Johnson's Book Store, Denison, Iowa.

MANILLA NEWS NOTES.

Walter Wohlers of Manning, visited with his young friends at this place over Sunday.

F. L. Van Slyke and family spent Sunday with his parents at Dunlap.

Mrs. Ora Dilley, of Moorhead, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Williams, of Defiance, attended church at this place Sunday evening.

Miss Laura Keifer, who has been the guest of her sister and other relatives for the past two months, returned to her home at Schuyler, Neb., Tuesday morning.

J. J. McDermott spent Sunday with friends at Defiance.

Miss Aggie Ryan returned home Saturday night from an extended visit with relatives at Keokuk.

Mrs. J. Rohdes and daughter, Bertha of Manning, visited old friends at this place the fore part of the week.

Miss Lottie Blakesley returned to Weston Ia., Monday, after several weeks visit with friends in Manilla.

Mr. Eggen and family have moved into Mrs. Milligan residence in the north part of town.

Mert Ryan, of Vail, was on our streets Monday.

Riley Fadden and son, of Dunlap, are in town this week, painting on the new brick building.

Will Fitzsimmons, of Vail, transacted business in Manilla Monday.

Amos Mills, of Manning, was on our streets Tuesday.

T. Connors resigned his position in the Commercial barber shop at this place and left Tuesday with his wife for Cedar Rapids.

Mrs. Rennington, of Neola, was the guest of Mrs. Sachra on Tuesday.

Ezra Coder returned Tuesday from Oklahoma, where he has been for several months. He is on his way to his home at Dedham and stopped for a few days visit with friends here.

Jim Edwards has been entertaining his niece from Nebraska the past week.

Mrs. Hoes left for Osmond Neb., Wednesday to look after her interests at that place.

Theo. Kuhl of Denison, was in Manilla Tuesday on business.

Mrs. August Schweisow, of Aspinwall, visited her parents at this place the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Spencer enjoyed a visit from her sister Wednesday. She was on her way to Chicago.

G. D. Brokaw arrived home Thursday morning from an extended visit with relatives in Ohio.

Mrs. D. P. Robertson, who has been the guest of her son, D. P. at this place for several weeks, returned to her home at Eagleville Missouri, Thursday evening.

F. W. Meyers of Denison is billed to speak at the Barber school house in this township on Friday evening of this week.

Mrs. Cliff Lyon spent Thursday with Mrs. O. T. Woodyard.

Quite a number from this place were summoned to Denison Thursday as witnesses on the Rafenberg case.

Born, to John McNertney and wife on Wednesday, Oct. 24, a boy.

Robt. Graham, who is attending school at Omaha, came home Friday night to spend Sunday.

Mrs. Milosowsky was a Shelby visitor Thursday.

J. J. McDermott transacted business at Omaha Friday.

The dance given at the Germania hall Friday evening was a grand success as usual. A large number from surrounding towns were present and a most enjoyable time is reported. Supper was served at Mrs. Haley's restaurant.

John Sorensen and family, who moved to Dakota several months ago returned to this place Thursday.

Miss Beryl Hathaway, of near Manning attended the teachers meeting at this place Saturday.

Gov. Shaw will speak at Manilla on the afternoon of Monday Nov. 4. Preparations are being made to entertain the big crowd which is expected at the meeting.

NEWS ABOUT DELOIT.

Mrs. S. Horr, Correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Thwing entertained Mr. Thwing's father and mother at their home a few days the past week.

J. D. Hattery went to Ells, Friday, to take charge of the section at that place vacated by Mr. Larson, who was run over by the train Thursday and died shortly afterwards.

Dr. W. Cook came over from Mt. Pisgah, Iowa, the latter part of last week on professional business.

Mrs. James T. Newcom and son, Firman, accompanied C. J. Newcom and family to Jackson, Minn., the last of the week.

Earl Winans took first prize in the horse race at Kiron, on Dolliver day.

Mrs. J. D. Newcom and her mother, Mrs. Johnson, were Deloit visitors Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Sarah McKim, Mrs. Libbie Beaman, Elsie Beaman and Lucy Flint were in Denison, Saturday.

Miss Millie Duckett of Benan, was a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. J. Hunt, the past few days.

Miss Emma Kruger went to Denison, Saturday, to work for Mrs. Hill.

Mrs. Lineke, mother of Carl and Otto Lincke, died at her home near Deloit, Saturday, at the age of 65 years.

James Neary returned from Polk county, Wisconsin, the latter part of the week. He is well pleased with the country and thinks of locating there. He shipped a car load of potatoes to Mondamin and one to Schleswig.

The Arion band gave us some very nice music Monday evening at the Jas. M. Brenton speech, which was rendered to a full house.

HAPPENINGS AT VAIL

Mrs. Dr. Wright of Denison visited Vail friends last week and attended the bazar.

Miss Maud Paine returned Friday from Battle Creek where she has been teaching school.

Mrs. Ed Ryan and Mastor Eddie are spending a few days in Vail.

Alfred Wright and Frank Leahy attended the R. N. A. bazar Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Fansie are here from Cedar Rapids for a couple of weeks visit with her son.

The Misses Franky Duffy and Katie Fitzgerald are home from their school duties in Charter Oak township.

Peter Portz and wife of Denison were Vail visitors Sunday.

Earl Hoffman and Henry Gronemeyer attended the foot ball game at Denison Saturday.

Perry Dempster a former resident here but now of Nebraska is visiting relatives at this place.

John Kelly and son T. J. of Denison visited Vail relatives Sunday.

Miss Taylor daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Taylor came Sunday having been teaching school at their former home.

Night watch McCarty discovered someone in Ryan and Ratchfords store Sunday night about 12 o'clock having entered by a rear window. Jimmie instructed some parties to watch the front of the store while he entered the rear but the thief evidently heard them and drew the bolt of the front door and forced it open, several shots were fired at him but he escaped. He had selected a pair of shoes to take with him.

The Royal Neighbors bazar last Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Opera house was a grand success and the ladies realized a good sum for their labors. A musical entertainment was given Thursday night, a grand ball and basket supper Friday night and a free dance Saturday night. Articles were on sale during the days and many articles were voted away during the evenings. The voting contests at times were quite spirited.

The old printing office building, for years standing north of the Beck building has been purchased by the city and moved to the city lots south of the bank and will be used for an engine room.

Soul Williamson a former Vail resident is visiting his daughter Mrs. Art King.

Mrs. Chas. Joenson and children of Honey Creek are visiting with Vail friends.

Mrs. Slocumb visited Arion friends, Monday. She lives now at Ainsworth, Nebr.

Dr. Coon is still confined to bed by the operation he underwent in the hospital three weeks ago.

Pearl Green is home again after a long visit at Council Bluffs and Dunlap and is much improved in health.

Mrs. H. S. Downs is visiting friends in Omaha.

Susie Scott visited Arion friends over Sunday.

Mrs. Chancy Williamson is spending a few days at the home of her son, Mr. Geo. Williamson, south of town. She has sold her farm on account of poor health.

Dr. W. T. Wright was in town professionally, Thursday.

Prof. W. A. Ginn was in Denison on business, Thursday.

Miss Hilda Rohwer came up from Denison Saturday for a short visit with her former schoolmates.

Mrs. John Morgan returned to her home in Denison, Sunday, after a few days visit with her brother, Isaac Patterson.

Geo. Dieter of Vail, visited friends here, Sunday.

Sam Kemp and wife of Maple River Junction, visited the latter's parents in this city over Sunday.

West Side was honored by a visit from County Attorney Sam V. O'Hare and the democratic candidate for state senator, John Carey. John is kept pretty busy these days trying to find enough complimentary votes to land him in the senate.

Miss Emma Bock concluded her fall term of school in the Winter district last Friday.

The republicans are making great preparations for their rally next Wednesday evening. Hon. P. E. C. Lally will be the principal speaker of the evening. Prof. Von Coelln and Hon. Hugh Langan making short addresses. The West Side Glee Club led by Prof. Ginn will render some excellent selections. The cornet band will also be on hand and give the people some good music.

E. O. Wegoner spent several days last week in northern Iowa looking up a location to engage in the butcher business. We are informed that he purchased a meat market at Garner, Hancock county, and made arrangements to take possession in about two weeks. Fred Kracht, a prominent farmer living east of town, will be associated with him in the business. This will certainly make a strong firm and we predict for them a successful business.

George S. Ohnsman has sold his property on the corner of First and Cedar streets to Mrs. Truesdell of near Deloit, who will take possession next week. Mr. Ohnsman has not yet decided where he will locate. He will leave next Tuesday for El Reno, Oklahoma, to which place he may move if that country suits him, otherwise he will probably rent a farm near here and remain a citizen of Crawford county.

The program presented at the M. E. church Sunday by the District Sunday School Union was well attended, many being present from Vail and the surrounding country. There were some excellent papers read at both the afternoon and evening session, and many good points were brought out, which, if put into practice, will no doubt result in much good. At the business meeting in the evening the old officers were re-elected for another year.

ARION NEWS LETTER

E. P. Wigg and wife and Dr. and Mrs. Wingert drove to Ute to visit with friends on Sunday.

W. B. Evans was a Sioux City visitor, Friday.

W. W. Coon and W. J. Wagoner were Denison visitors, Saturday.

J. L. Maurer and L. C. Butler went to Montana on Friday with cattle for the H. S. Green Cattle Co.

Mrs. Houlette, who moved to Washington, is reported to be dangerously sick.

Editor Clarke was in Omaha on business, Friday.

Gus Copeland has bought the Parmentier building and has rented one side to Jas. Snyder for a barber shop, and the other side to Hans Nathan for butcher shop.

Chas. Galland is sick a bed with malaria.

J. N. Lee has purchased six lots east of Quade's and will build a home home thereon.

Dr. Wingert has purchased two lots opposite the postoffice and expects to build a home.

Pat Henry has purchased two lots in the east part of town and will build in the spring.

Jas. Snyder has begun the erection of a home north of Lot Roberts' in East Arion.

Wm. Butler has sold his home to his sister, Mrs. Evans, and will move to Nebraska.

The mill stock is selling rapidly, one man in Kansas bought 25,000 shares one day last week, and some of our best and most substantial farmers are buying stock.

Chas. Green, who is sick in a hospital in Montana, will be brought home this week. He has rheumatism and is so homesick he is not improving.

Arion people have decided to bear their own minister in the future, and have joined together and all denominations will help to pay the new man who will reside here and preach the Gospel, not favoring any denomination or creed.

O. M. Underhill was in town over night, Wednesday.

Wm. Marr has purchased the Willey House and will move out of Hotel Arion next Monday. The new hotel man is from Carroll, we have not learned his name.

Mrs. Slocumb visited Arion friends, Monday. She lives now at Ainsworth, Nebr.

Dr. Coon is still confined to bed by the operation he underwent in the hospital three weeks ago.

Pearl Green is home again after a long visit at Council Bluffs and Dunlap and is much improved in health.

Mrs. H. S. Downs is visiting friends in Omaha.

Susie Scott visited Arion friends over Sunday.

Mrs. Chancy Williamson is spending a few days at the home of her son, Mr. Geo. Williamson, south of town. She has sold her farm on account of poor health.

Dr. W. T. Wright was in town professionally, Thursday.

Prof. W. A. Ginn was in Denison on business, Thursday.

Miss Hilda Rohwer came up from Denison Saturday for a short visit with her former schoolmates.

Mrs. John Morgan returned to her home in Denison, Sunday, after a few days visit with her brother, Isaac Patterson.

Geo. Dieter of Vail, visited friends here, Sunday.

Sam Kemp and wife of Maple River Junction, visited the latter's parents in this city over Sunday.

West Side was honored by a visit from County Attorney Sam V. O'Hare and the democratic candidate for state senator, John Carey. John is kept pretty busy these days trying to find enough complimentary votes to land him in the senate.

Miss Emma Bock concluded her fall term of school in the Winter district last Friday.

The republicans are making great preparations for their rally next Wednesday evening. Hon. P. E. C. Lally will be the principal speaker of the evening. Prof. Von Coelln and Hon. Hugh Langan making short addresses. The West Side Glee Club led by Prof. Ginn will render some excellent selections. The cornet band will also be on hand and give the people some good music.

E. O. Wegoner spent several days last week in northern Iowa looking up a location to engage in the butcher business. We are informed that he purchased a meat market at Garner, Hancock county, and made arrangements to take possession in about two weeks. Fred Kracht, a prominent farmer living east of town, will be associated with him in the business. This will certainly make a strong firm and we predict for them a successful business.

George S. Ohnsman has sold his property on the corner of First and Cedar streets to Mrs. Truesdell of near Deloit, who will take possession next week. Mr. Ohnsman has not yet decided where he will locate. He will leave next Tuesday for El Reno, Oklahoma, to which place he may move if that country suits him, otherwise he will probably rent a farm near here and remain a citizen of Crawford county.

The program presented at the M. E. church Sunday by the District Sunday School Union was well attended, many being present from Vail and the surrounding country. There were some excellent papers read at both the afternoon and evening session, and many good points were brought out, which, if put into practice, will no doubt result in much good. At the business meeting in the evening the old officers were re-elected for another year.