PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

Prof. Brown the State High School Inspector, from Iowa City, visited our school on Wednesday. He spoke to the High School immediately after school opened at noon. His speech deeply impressed his hearers. He visited the work of every instructor in the High School and made a thorough examination of the work being done in all of the classes. It is the business of Dr. Brown to visit all of the high schools in the state and determine the standing of the work in its relation and the entrance requirements of the State University and the other colleges of Iowa. He saw fit, while here, to commend highly the new course arrangement adopted this year, and the work being done by each instructor, saying that the work throughout meets the demands of the University. It was his opinion that our greatest need is some added equipment for science work. The High School appreciated this visit from Dr. Brown and his words of encouragement.

Misses Carrie and Levina Morris, Irene Garber and Ione Romans were welcome visitors during the week.

The literary societies gave their programs Friday afternoon at the usual time. Misses Randall, Elsie Orr, Ethel Gulick, Effie Norris, Luella Cole, Edna Bagge, Carrie and Levina Morris, Stoner, Sewell and Ancil Wheeler were Emersonian visitors.

We are glad to note that Lucy Weeks has returned to school after some days of absence caused by a severely sprained ankle.

Jay Wiggins missed school part of the week because of the death of a grandfather.

The "A" class has organized its reading circle under Miss Rollinson. Their first study will be "The Last of the Mohicans." They have decided to meet on Wednesday nights. Their first meeting will be held at the home of Emma Carter.

"Aunt Jerusha," one of the greatest, if not the greatest, of the so-called rural plays, has been booked for the people of Denison by Manager B. J. Sibbert, and therefore W. S. Campbell and his splendid organization, will be seen here one day, Nov. 20th. It is worthy of uncommon congratulation, that this great dramatic prize has been secured. "Aunt Jerusha" is now on its seventh Annual Tour, and everywhere it has appeared, it has packed the theatres with extraordinarily enthusiastic audiences. The pretty conceits, the interesting story, the plentiful supply of good, wholesome humor, the excellence of the cast, and the beauty of the scenery, have each contributed their share toward the success of the play. Aunt Jerusha, who is a kind hearted, whole souled, loyal, and motherly kind of a country woman, is the most conspicuous figure in the play. The vivid interpretation given this character by Jennie Wetmore is a dramatic triumph and achievement which is deceiving for the very art shown in concealing the art employed. Her supporting company, who have all been selected with rare care, for their especial fitness for the parts assigned them, are among the best and most known in the dramatic profession. The scenic and electrical effects are said to be grand. One of the features is the singing by the famous Bitter Root Farm Rube Quartette.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Montgomery have just returned from Dow City where they have been for the past two weeks at the bedside of Mrs. Montgomery's sister Mrs. Frank Thompson who has been very ill but who is now on the road to recovery.

Messrs. E. Gulick and C. Green left on Monday morning for Okiboji. Mr. Gulick goes to make his cottage secure for the winter and Mr. Green to purchase a cottage for next season. Both of the gentlemen took their guns and will have a shot at the ducks.

On Wednesday Nov. 6, at 12 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hatheway southwest of Manning, occurred the marriage of Miss Ida Hatheway their eldest daughter to Mr. Fred. N. Brown of Manilla, Iowa.

About 50 invitations had been issued, and 85 guests were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. G. E. Bertsch of Gray Iowa.

The bridal pair marched into the parlor to the strains of "Narcissus".

They stood under a beautiful arch made of evergreens and white carnations.

During the ceremony "Remembrance" by Pratt was played.

The bride looked very lovely in a pretty gown of white mercerized lawn, she carried a large bouquet of carnations and bride's roses.

The groom wore the conventional black.

Immediately after the ceremony an elaborate and delicious six course dinner was served.

Four pretty waiters, friends of the bride from Manning served at the two tables.
