

Mr. Chas. Smith went to Chicago Monday.

Miss Edith Luney spent Sunday in Dow City.

Editor J. F. Harthun made West Side a visit yesterday.

Mr. Will Seeman spent Saturday and Sunday in Omaha.

Mrs. J. B. Dunbar and Mrs. F. W. Ley spent Monday in Omaha.

Miss Mabel Robertson of Dow City was a Denison visitor, Monday.

Mr. J. B. Romans and daughter, Ione, spent Saturday in Omaha.

Mayor J. V. Campbell and wife of Manilla, were Denison visitors today.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Peters of Charter Oak, were Sunday guests in Denison.

Messrs Fred Soehl and Perry Marshall visited Manning on Sunday last.

Mrs. James Owens went to Omaha last Saturday to visit her daughter Mrs. Hughes.

Mr. Sears McHenry spent a portion of this week in Chicago on a business mission.

The date of Mr. N. W. Nash's sale has been changed to Thursday Nov. 21. Do not forget it.

Mr. Chas. Tabor shipped one of his thorough-bred hogs to E. W. Houston at Dunlap today.

Mrs. L. M. Shaw returned to Des Moines on Monday after a brief visit with Denison friends.

Miss Lizzie Rollins is spending the week visiting with Mrs. D. H. McWilliams at Charter Oak.

The Misses Myrtle Sauland Margaret Owens spent a few days at their homes in the country returning to College on Tuesday.

Deputy Postmaster E. E. Clauson, S. N. Sandstrom, A. F. Lundberg and J. P. Orgen of Kiron, spent a portion of Monday in Denison.

Mrs. I. E. Scobee is expected to arrive in Denison from Maquaketa Ia. and will assist her husband in his practice of osteopathy.

Mesdames Eltz and Guelck of Battle Creek, are the guests of Mrs. Henry Seemann this week.

Mr. Ross Saunders and Miss Grace Brown of Manilla, visited Denison friends on Sunday last.

Dr. C. H. Bolles leaves tomorrow for Palestine, Texas. He will return to Denison before finally settling in Texas.

Mr. W. D. McAhren, Mr. I. V. Jackson and the Misses Mabel and Clara McAhren and Maude Hunter spent Sunday in Dunlap.

Mr. J. R. Brocklesby and a party of land hunters from Vail, expect to leave the last of the week over the I. C. for northern Minnesota.

Mr. Jasper Woodland left this afternoon over the I. C. for El Reno, where he will spend the winter months in a milder climate than that of Iowa.

On Friday evening a merry party of dancers gathered at the home of Joseph Bauman and had a most enjoyable time. Music was furnished by Mr. Evans.

Editor J. F. Herre of the West Side Journal paid us a pleasant call on Monday. Like the rest of the printers at this season he is very busy and was looking for an additional printer.

Clyde Rowland writes that he has left Canon City and is now in the employ of the National Hotel at Cripple Creek. Clyde finds that the climate of Colorado agrees with him finely and he is doing well there.

Aunt Jerusha is billed for Wednesday, Nov. 20 at the opera house. The attraction is first-class and merits a good attendance. Manager Sibbert has been fortunate in booking good attractions this season and his efforts are appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. King returned last Friday from their extended visit in California and other western states. Mr. King reports that while on pleasure bent he had an eye to business and secured many good orders for his prosperous firm.

"The Boys" have just received a car load of potatoes shipped from Toppin, Washington. It seems odd indeed for Iowa to have to go to the Pacific states for its food supply of any kind. The potatoes were sent over the I. C. and the freight amounted to more than $300.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Sing a song for November. Sing of hearthfires blazing bright O'er the gloom of coming night!

Sing a song for November. Fill it full of love and light. Put in mirth and right good cheer. Put in thanks for all the year: Don't forget the merry meetings. Don't forget the cheery greetings.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Hugo Gebert entertained her friends by giving a "T-party" with especial emphasis on the "T." The game which was a new one, consisted in finding thirty-two words, all of them beginning with "T" a clue to each word being given in the question. It was a very interesting hunt and made time fly. Miss Meyers won the prize owing to the large amount of help she received—a very pretty cup and saucer, the hostess remarking that since it was a "T" party she thought a tea cup an appropriate prize. The near approach of Christmas was outlined in the number of ladies who had their work with them. After the game Mrs. Weiland, Mrs. Gebert and Miss Osborne served a very nice two-course supper. Miss Osborne played for the guests and it was after six before farewells were said. The party was a very pretty and social affair.

The Friday club will meet with Mrs. Lena Ley this week.

Upon Saturday afternoon Mrs. Kuehnle gave a large at home, about sixty ladies being in attendance. The rooms were bright with flowers and the cheery spirit of welcome and we believe every one of the large number present enjoyed every second of the time. A game—"Islands of the Sea" consumed much time and made a great deal of fun. A number of islands were discovered that were entirely new to many and some of the answers that were given were fully as clever as those that were given by the author of the game. Miss Agnes King and Mrs. A. J. Bond were tied for the first prize—a delicately painted candle stick. A number of ladies had made only one error and Miss Whitten received the second prize in their tie contest, a hand painted pin tray. After the game the guests were served to a two-course lap supper by the Misses Sewell, Jones, Ayres, Gulick, Shaw and Meyers. Mrs. Kuehnle's refreshments are always perfection and this was no exception to the rule. Among other tempting dishes was an orangeine served in orange shells, entwined with smilax and crowned with candied cherries a combination that was as pleasing to the eye as to the palate. This afternoon was the third of a series given by Mrs. Kuehnle during the week, and all three have been successes.

On Saturday night Miss Faith Pierce entertained a number of her girl friends at six o'clock tea. Miss Pierce's school has begun and this was in the nature of a good-bye for a short season.

Monday evening Mrs. E. T. Cochran entertained about a dozen ladies, serving a very excellent supper and the guests having a very social visit during the evening.

Mrs. Kahler, of Traer, Iowa, will be a guest of her brother, Mr. C. F. Kuehnle, the last of this week.

Mrs. L. M. Shaw spent Sunday in Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Phelan, of Omaha, will be guests of Mrs. Malony on next Sunday.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hodges entertained a number of friends with a party at whist. Delicious refreshments were served and the party was a most enjoyable affair.

Fall and Winter trade has opened up well for the merchants of Denison and their is every evidence of a successful season for the enterprising and progressive merchants. Others will take a back seat as usual, but Denison will be found to contain a number of splendid stocks of holiday and staple goods at prices the lowest in the county.

Rev. A. G. Martyn was called to Vail yesterday to conduct the funeral services of Norman C. McComb, a young man whose sudden death occurred on Sunday. He was well known and respected at Vail where he had been reared. He was a soldier in the 52d Iowa Regiment and his casket was draped with his country's flag, while the soldiers present were a guard of honor. The services were very largely attended at the Presbyterian church and the obsequies at the cemetery were in charge of the Modern Woodmen.

We regret to learn that Mr. W. F. Gouly is about to move his family to Sioux City where he has obtained an excellent position in a hardware store. Mr. Gouly has called Denison his home for many years and has a host of friends who will regret his permanent departure. It will be especially hard for Mrs. Gouly who has been a Denison girl all her life and who has known no other home. She will be greatly missed by an exceedingly large circle of relatives and friends. All join how in wishing them the best of success and the utmost happiness in their new home and in expressing the hope that their visits to the old home may be many and not far between.

Born, on Monday, Nov. 18th, to Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Mullen, living five miles south-east of Denison, a son. We extend congratulations.

The Bulletin has now arrived at the stage where it is con doling with the "ignorant" people of Vail who have "no regard for principle."

Mrs. F. W. Meyers and babe returned on Monday evening from a three weeks visit in Iowa City and there is joy in the editor's household.

Mr. James Reagan, well-known in Denison, is now superintendent of boarding cars for the North-Western. It is a good position and Jim fills it well.

The Coterie Club is to meet with Mrs. H. H. Savage next Thursday. The rather puzzling invitation reads: "Come, but leave your 'yeas' and 'nays' at home."

On Sunday the child of Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Missen of East Boyer, and also, a child of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Schneider of East Boyer were baptized by Rev. E. C. Clausen.

Dr. R. P. Pimpton paid the Review office a pleasant call on Monday. He is not settled as yet but hopes soon to be and will be pleased to meet old friends and new.

The young ladies of the Catholic church will give a grand ball at the Germania hall next Friday evening, Nov. 22, 1901. The Coates-Knowles band furnishes the music. You are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. J. I. Gibson is spending the week in Des Moines attending a meeting of the State Board of Health. Dr. Gibson is a prominent and much esteemed member of the board.

Mr. T. J. Kelly went to Clinton the first of the week to look up an investment in a bowling alley. Denison seem destined to become a bowling center, not only as to players but as to proprietorship.

Mrs. J. P. Conner spent Sunday in Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Cards are out for an evening at whist at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Brown to night. It is quite a while since the ladies and gentlemen have been invited together and we are sure the evening will be a most enjoyable one.

About ninety invited guests assembled at the home of Mr. Pete Burk on Tuesday evening and enjoyed themselves hugely dancing until a late hour. Delicious refreshments were served by the Misses Burk.

Mr. W. W. Jackson has purchased the Kinnan tract of twenty-two acres just south of Denison and we understand that he will plat it into city lots and will offer them for sale. The location is desirable and there should be no difficulty in disposing of building lots there.

The annual declamatory contest will be held at the college on Tuesday Nov. 26th. A small admission fee of 15cents will be charged. All are invited to be present and can be assured of a pleasant evening. All surplus will go towards the college library.

Word was received last Friday evening of the serious illness of Mr. Eli Laub at his home at Wastha Iowa. Mrs. Isaac Gillmor and Hon. H. C. Laub started at once for that place. Later it was reported that Eli was out of danger and that he is now on the road to recovery. His many friends will be glad to learn of the favorable turn in what was at one time feared to be a fatal illness.

Mrs. J. C. Phillips is very proud of her baby and she has a right to be. The Pilgrim a monthly magazine that has many subscribers in this county offered a series of prizes for the photograph of the prettiest babies. There were over four thousand pictures sent in and Mrs. Phillips baby was judged one of the twenty prettiest ones. Crawford County produces the finest and best and handsomest of every thing.

TO THE PUBLIC

Having purchased the Photograph business of A. H. Brown we will continue the same at the old stand in the Laub block and earnestly solicit a continuance of your patronage. We will endeavor to give you the very best work and will guarantee satisfaction and fair dealing. The studio will be remodeled throughout and put in the best possible shape for producing first-class work. All those desiring pictures for holiday gifts should call and sit for them as soon as possible and thus avoid the rush previous to Xmas.

W. W. FERGUSON, PHOTOGRAPHER,
Successor to A. H. Brown.
