A FAITHFUL BAND.

The republicans of Crawford have certainly been faithful to their trust. Year after year they have kept up their organization, have made an earnest campaign and have done all this, practically without hope of victory. This year they have been successful in electing a large majority of their ticket, and the fruits of this victory must not be thrown away. The success of this fall should give republicans renewed hope and confidence and inspire them to even more strenuous effort next year.

In order to do well next year it is necessary that the work be commenced at once. The long winter evenings are upon us, when the people have the most time for the consideration of public questions. We would urge the formation of republican clubs or lyceums in every township. These clubs could meet regularly for the discussion of public questions and for papers to be read upon the history and the accomplishments of the republican party. There are many fair minded democrats who would be glad to attend and who might perhaps be influenced by what was said. The chief good however would come from the help it would give republicans. It would set them to thinking, make them more fond of their party and reader with argument in defense of its principles. We believe that occasionally, there would be no trouble in obtaining outside speakers to address these clubs if the clubs so wished. We should like to hear from some of our good republican friends along this line and should be pleased to assist in any way possible in the formation of such clubs. There is another way in which you as republicans can be helpful to the party. If you know anyone who usually votes the democratic ticket and who shows signs of weakening in that faith, report his name to your fellow republicans and to the county central committee and see to it that that man is surrounded as far as possible by republican influences, that republican literature is sent him and that he is helped to think along republican lines. Another good way is to see that your democratic neighbor takes the REVIEW and thus keeps in touch with the doings of the republicans throughout the county. If you cannot get your neighbor to take the REVIEW, and if you can afford it, subscribe for him. It will not hurt you and the seed thus sown may produce great good. All these are legitimate ways of campaigning throughout the year. We are so firm in our belief of the righteousness of our cause that we feel that if the people can but be made to think about the problems of government and the history of the two parties they will vote the republican ticket. Put on your thinking-caps now, you old time republicans, and see if there is not some way in which you can help to keep Crawford in the republican column.

QUEENS OF SONG-- unite in praising the celebrated Kimball piano—Adelina Patti says: "The 'Kimball' has a wonderfully sweet and sympathetic tone." Emma Eames words it thus: "I am charmed with the beautiful tone of the 'Kimball'."—Lillian Nordica puts it in this language: "The more I use my 'Kimball' the better I like it."—Marcella Sembrich's opinion is: "The 'Kimball' ranks with the best instruments before the world."—Emma Calve says: "The 'Kimball' is a superb piano."
