Brown's team defeated Wright's Hamburgers two out of three games and a total of 60 pins on the Lane & Leahy alleys last Friday night. This game was scheduled for Christmas night, but members of both teams expecting to be absent from the city on this day, the captains agreed to roll the game as above stated. The result of the games places Browns tie with Chambers for third place. Score by games:

NOTES OF THE GAME.
Cramer no longer holds the high individual average. His poor rolling last Friday night lowered his average two per cent. This leaves Huetman and Kelly of the Schuler team tie for first place.

Even the "peerless" Tighe could not find the head pin Friday night.

What has become of Captain Wright? Has he deserted his team entirely?

It was not the good work of the Brown team that won the series. It was the poor bowling of the Hamburgers that did it.

Wright vs. Chambers at the Denison Bowling Co. alleys next Friday night.

The game scheduled for Christmas night between Wright and Brown was rolled last Friday night.

The Vail team will play a return game with the Denison Juniors on the Denison Bowling Co.'s alleys Thursday night.

Wright vs. Brown Christmas morning at 9:30.

Died, Dec. 14, Mr. John T. F. Schoening. Born Nov. 7, 1858, in Lehman, Holstein. Died 16th, of heart failure and dropsy. Aged 43 years, one month, and seven days. Relatives, wife, three children, three step-children and one sister. Rev. Lothringer officiated at the house and grave.

Married, Dec. 18, Mr. Louis Wollensen of Wall Lake township, Sac county, to Miss Math. S. Dreessen, of Jackson township. Witnesses, Wm. Schultz, Mary Petersen, Aug. Evers and Lizzie Schwecke. Also Mr. Herrn. J. Sievers to Miss Christine M. Hinricksen, both of Charter Oak township. Witnesses, Herbert Sievers and Mary Hinricksen. Rev. Lothringer officiated in both cases.

Saturday matinee and evening, Lew Rose and his comedians. You should not fail to hear the sweetest of singers. The opening, "Mulcahey's Visit," is said to be one of the funniest farces ever written, replete with comical situations and witty dialogue. The olio is composed of McRobie and Rose, rapid fire conversationalists; Baby Flo, talented child artist; the DeClavilles, electrical aerial act; Mason and Pillsbury, German comedians; Zelma Summers, coon shouter, cake walker and dancer; Ryan and Ryan, in "The Irish Lords"; John W. Flood, sensational barrel jumper. There will be two performances, Saturday matinee and evening.

The Small Boys Band will meet at the City Hall Friday evening Jan. 3, 1902 to organize and elect officers. Parents are requested to accompany their children at this meeting. Rehearsal will be given on Monday and Thursday of each week from 4:30 until 6 p. m. T. W. COATS.

Prof. and Mrs. H. V. Failor of Lincoln Neb. are welcome Christmas guests at the Gilmore home this week.

Denison friends of Mr. George Davies formerly principal of Denison schools will be pleased to learn of his marriage which occurred on Dec. 19, at Lisbon N. Dak. The fortunate bride is Margaret Van Woert Whipple. The happy couple will be at home at Minto N. Dakota. Mr. Davies is now in the ministry filling a pulpit in the Baptist church.

The return of Horace Gegory from the State University the last of last week was made the occasion of a happy surprise party given by his mother. Horace is a prime favorite among the young people here and he has a mother who never neglects an opportunity to show her affection for him. He is a good student and seems destined to fully repay his mother for all love and kindness to him.
