WEDDED ON SUNDAY MORN

J. B. ROMANS, THE DENISON MERCHANT, TAKES A WIFE

Mrs. Christine Snyder of Creston, a Prominent Iowa Woman, the Happy Bride.

On the morning Dec. 29th Rev. E. M. Holmes of the First Methodist church performed the ceremony which made Mr. J. B. Romans of Denison and Mrs. Christine Snyder of Creston, man and wife. The ceremony took place at the residence of the groom in Denison and was attended by nearly sixty guests including the intimate friends and relatives and the employees of the J. B. Romans firm and others in Denison none but a small circle of friends had known of the approaching nuptials and the event came as a total surprise to our people. The rooms of Mr. Romans handsome residence were beautifully decorated with plants and flowers and it was in the sitting room thus embellished, that the simple but solemn ceremony was performed. The ceremony was delayed somewhat by the fact that for some reason the license had been forgotten and a rush search had to be made for County Clerk Frank Faul, to procure the important document. The incident only served however to increase the good nature of all concerned and Mr. and Mrs. Romans drove from the house after the ceremony amidst a shower of rice and old shoes and congratulations. They took the morning train on the Northwestern for Chicago where they will spend a few days before returning to Denison. They will be at home to their friends after January 20th.

Mr. Romans is well known in this community. He is a prosperous business man and a man of large affairs. His energy in whatever field he may enter has made him prominent in social, business, political and church circles. We can sincerely congratulate him upon having secured the lady of his choice. She is a woman of many charms both of mind and character. She has been prominent in good works, is a brilliant conversationalist and possessed of excellent judgment. Last year she was Department President of the Woman's Relief Corps of Iowa and she is prominent in the Rebekah Lodge. We believe that Mrs. Romans will prove a most pleasant and valuable addition to the social life of our city and we can most heartily commend her to the good graces of Denison people.

A Christmas Wedding.

A very beautiful wedding occurred Christmas evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Salem Town, when their eldest daughter, Miss Minnie, and Mr. S. L. Gable were happily united in the bonds of matrimony. The house was prettily decorated in winter colors, cotton and evergreens giving a realistic appearance of a snowy park, also covering a large bell suspended from the bridal arch, while carnations and roses were tastefully arranged around the rooms.

The bride wore a dress of white organdie trimmed with chiffon and ruching.

Promptly at 6 o'clock Mrs. Lida Sands began playing Wagner's "Lohengrin Bridal March" when the happy couple, accompanied by Miss Olive Town and Mr. Merle Gable, entered the parlor and the Rev. D. M. Hough, told them their husband and wife. After the ceremony all partook of a bountiful Christmas dinner when the bridal party left for Sioux City.

Both are well known around Denison having spent most of their lives in the community. The bride attended Denison college and for a time was a stenographer in Chicago. Last summer she made an extensive western trip visiting her sister and brother in Montana and the National Park. She also has been one of Crawford's best teachers.

Mr. Gable was a resident of Denison for many years he attended school at Cornell college and now is in the Real Estate business in Wagner S. D. where they will begin house keeping in a new modern cottage prepared for them. The guests besides the family were: Mrs. Lida Sands, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Misses Ethel and Florence Williams, Mrs. Maggie Talcott, Messrs. George and Bert Talcott, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Wilder, Miss Pearl Easley, Messrs. Merle and Lewis Gable.

SOCIAL NOTES.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Scott Wheeler will be at home to her friends complimentary to Mrs. H. A. Cook, of Ft. Dodge, Mrs. Florence Aylesworth of Council Bluffs and Mrs. Fullick and Mrs. Woolston of Allendorf, Iowa.

Mrs. C. L. Voss will entertain on Thursday afternoon in honor of her friend and school mate, Mrs. Frank Woolston.

The event of the social week was a party given on Monday evening by Mrs. R. A. Romans. The party was in the nature of a reception to the ladies of the Friday Club and was in special compliment to Mrs. Romans sister, Mrs. Frank Woolston, of Allendorf, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harris of Boone, Iowa. For a wonder the gentlemen were invited and considering the unusualness of their environment, they behaved very well.

The reception was perfect in all its appointments as affairs at the home of this most hospitable hostess always are. A humorous and literary program had been arranged and the different numbers were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. H. A. Boyle favored the company with a solo. Dr. B. F. Philbrook read from the inimitable Dealey. Mr. Carl F. Kuehne gave a selection in German dialect, from Kipling, and Prof. Martin of Denison college gave a number of fine readings which were enthusiastically encored.

A bountiful and delicious three course lunch was served and the guests enjoyed themselves until a late hour. The always beautiful home was still further beautified with profuse decorations of red roses, carnations and ferns and Mrs. Romans certainly contributed largely toward making the old year of Denison's social life draw to its end with a blaze of glory.

The young people of the Catholic church will give one of their popular dances at the opera house to-morrow evening. Good music and a fine time are guaranteed.

Cards are out for a New Years party this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. C. Lally, complimentary to their daughter Miss Lally. The young people are looking forward to a splendid good time and they will surely have it.
