

Mrs. Sears McHenry returned yesterday from a Logan visit.

Mrs. Hugh Menagh enjoyed a visit from her mother last week.

Dr. W. B. Evans of Arion was a Thursday visitor in Denison.

Mr. R. Shaw Van visited Carroll Thursday on legal business.

Mr. A. L. Rogers returned on Thursday from a trip to Fort Dodge.

Matt Mill went to Carroll on Thursday to purchase hay for use here.

Mr. Ed Ahart left on Thursday for a trip through western Nebraska.

Mr. C. C. Walters of Schleswig was a Denison visitor on New Year's day.

The Whist Club will meet next Wednesday evening at the Balle home.

Mr. F. J. Young spent Thursday attending to state business in Carroll.

Pat Lane, Pete Eifers and Chas. Lemsar were passengers for Boone on Thursday.

Mr. M. P. Ryan, of Vail, was a Thursday visitor in Denison. He came to see about the purchase of a piano for the Vail opera house.

Cards are out for a reception to be given on the evening of Jan. 7th, by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Laab in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Romans.

Mr. Benton Miles of Seattle is a welcome guest with his brothers and sisters in Denison. The far west seems to have agreed with him as he is looking both healthy and prosperous.

We regret to learn that Mr. S. V. O'Hare has been on the sick list all the week, being threatened with lung fever. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

The Review is thirty-six years old just beginning the prime of life history in good condition and with a larger circle of friends and readers than ever. It is the oldest institution under the same name continuously, in Denison.

Did you swear off?

Board meets next Monday.

District court will be in session for a short time to-morrow.

Miss Janet Rae of Arion is a pleasant Denison visitor to-day.

Mr. Gus Schlofeldt of Schleswig, spent New Year's with Denison friends.

Mr. Wm. McBride enjoyed a visit from his father of Defiance on Thursday.

Trinity Guild held their first meeting of the season at the home of Mr. S. L. Wright on last Thursday.

MARRIED—At Denison Dec. 31, 1901, Rev. A. G. Martyn officiating. Geo. W. Lingle and Charlotte E. Kuebler.

Miss Underwood who has been visiting at Mrs. S. L. Wright's the past two weeks returned to her home in Omaha Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Campbell returned last evening from their holiday visit to Humbolt, Neb. Ollie says he didn't do a thing but eat and have a good time generally. Those who know anything of his gastronomic capabilities would not be surprised to hear of a famine in Nebraska.

Mrs. Scott Wheeler entertained more than a score of her ladies friends on Wednesday afternoon. The affair was complimentary to Mrs. H. A. Cook, Mrs. Fullick, Mrs. F. Woolston, and Mrs. Florence Aylesworth. A very clever guessing game was the occasion of much amusement, the first prize being won by Mrs. C. L. Voss. Mrs. Wheeler served very elegant refreshments and in every way proved herself an ideal hostess.

The young people of Denison enjoyed one of the most elaborate and altogether pleasant social events of the season at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. C. Lally on New Year's Eve. The function was given by Mr. and Mrs. Lally in honor of their daughter, Miss

THE NEW OFFICERS.

Mr. E. L. Hogue who will be the republican senator from this district is an able, large-hearted, big-brained man. He has every reason to be grateful to the republicans of Crawford county for it was they who made his nomination possible and who afterwards surprised even his most sanguine friends by the splendid fight made during the campaign. We believe Mr. Hogue appreciates the facts as they exist and that he will be found ready at all times to do all in his power to further the interests of this county and its republican workers.

Mr. Hugh Langan as the next representative, has behind him the hopes and the aspirations of the republicans of the county. He may safely be relied upon to cast his vote for the election of Senators Allison and Dooliver and in all important matters to represent well and ably the sentiment of the republican and independent democratic voters of the county. So far as we know Mr. Langan enters upon his legislative career unhampered by pledges of any kind and he is peculiarly happily placed to make a record for himself and the county.

Of the county officers, perhaps the most is expected of Prof. C. W. Von Coella in his new position as county superintendent. He has promised to visit the schools of the county and we trust and feel certain that he will do so. He has promised to raise the general efficiency of our schools and we believe he will do so. He certainly has the education, the experience and the will to do these things and we look forward to his administration as one that is apt to prove the best the schools of the county have ever had.

The people also expect a great deal of Mr. John G. Smith as a member of the board. They look to him to be absolutely honest and fearless. They expect him to keep a sharp eye on the expenditures of the county. In the bridge matter they believe he will vote regardless of favoritism for the lowest responsible bidder. The people look to him to be careful and considerate of their interests and to look well after the bridges of his part of the county. The voters have great confidence in him and this confidence imposes a grave responsibility.

Of Dr. W. B. Evans the coroner, it is expected that he will be economical and careful and that he will in every way expedite the ends of justice where a crime is involved. Of Morris McHenry it is expected that he will bring in fair and just bills for his work and that his work shall be the best and most correct possible. In short the people expect and have a right to expect that each officer shall do his duty thoroughly and well. Doing this they will strengthen the republican party in Crawford by showing that the men elected keep their promises and act in the interest of the tax payers.

GREAT SENSATIONAL COMEDY.

Elmer Walter's new sensational comedy, "A Thoroughbred Tramp," has scored many hits, but the hit of the season was scored in Chicago at which time all records were broken. While comedy predominates in this play it contains a very pretty plot with a wife gone wrong, a heart crushed and a life hunt for the erring one. The scenic effect is novel, prominent among the many being the flying express train. All this will take place at the Germania opera house on the evening of January 7.

A Business Change.

We are informed that with the first of the year the firm of Nicholson Bros. has ceased to exist. The half interest here-tofore owned by Mr. Lew Nicholson having been purchased by Mr. John Rohwer formerly a prominent merchant of West Side. Mr. Rohwer has resided in Denison several months and we are glad he has decided to cast his lot with us permanently. The new firm will be a strong one and it is easy to prophesy continued success for it. Mr. Lew Nicholson has been a most popular business man and it is with pleasure that we note that he is to remain in the city and engage in the real estate business.

Prize Fight at Schleswig

Two professionals, Clarence English and Kid Hogan gave a prize fight soiree at Schleswig on Tuesday evening. There were some good athletic events on the side and the main bout is said to have been a lively one. About a dozen lovers of the game attended from Denison. English knocked his man out in the sixth round although he had scored a knock-out blow earlier in the match. It is an open question as to whether the principles did their best or whether it was a put-up job. At any rate the sports were satisfied that they had had their moneys worth. Editor G. L. Caswell of Denison acted as time-keeper.

The dancing party given by Miss Fay Cook on New Year's eve was a most enjoyable affair. It was something of a novelty for Denison young people and they enjoyed it to the utmost. The old year was danced out with flying feet and the New Year greeted with light and happy hearts. Miss Cook is to be congratulated upon giving the young people a most pleasant evening.

The Fraternal Choppers entertain themselves and wives and invited guests tonight. They will undoubtedly have a most enjoyable time.

There will be a grand Masquerade Ball given at the Deloit Hall on the evening of Jan. 8 1902. The best of music and order will be had. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

The new train west on the I. C. is a splendid one for Denison people and fills a long felt want. It leaves here at 8:07 in the morning, makes all the local stops and reaches Council Bluffs at 10:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Maude Hall-Lockwood of Harlan, was the welcome guest of Mrs. B. F. Philbrook during the week. Mrs. Lockwood has been a Denison visitor before and a number of our people are pleased to call her their friend.

The W. O. W. and the ladies of the Woodmen Circle will hold a joint meeting to-morrow evening for the purpose of installing the new officers for 1902. All members of the two orders are requested to be on hand as the meeting will be a memorable one.

A pleasant family gathering took place at the home of Mr. A. Bowling this week. Mrs. Bowling entertained her mother Mrs. Stanzinger of Tipton, her brother Harry Shopshire of South Omaha and her sister Mrs. F. Empkins and Mr. F. Empkins also of South Omaha. The visitors all departed on Thursday.

Mr. Harry Wiblishonser left on Wednesday morning for a month's visit with relatives in Muscatine, Wilton Junction and Davenport. Harry has not had a vacation for two years and he feels that he is entitled to a good long one this time. He is one of the best principled and most steady and industrious of Denison's young men and we hope he will have the best time on the market.

A merry gang of young folks left for Iowa City on Thursday morning. They were all bound for the State University at which place Denison has gained as much honor as it has in political and business circles. Those leaving were Gene Miller, Blaine Hunt, Ralph Walker, Guy Whaley, Harry Morris and Miss Sophia Balle. Horace Gregory leaves the last of the week.

Margaret, who is at present spending her vacation at home from her college at Sinsinawa Wise. Between sixty and seventy guests filled the spacious parlors which were decorated with roses, carnations, evergreens and smilax. "Going to Boston," proved a simple game with no end of fun to it, and Merle Gable won the prize and was the only one to reach the Bean City. A guessing game was on the program and the young folks guessed the names of authors from titles of their books and from the names of leading characters of fiction. A delightful program was given consisting of readings by Prof. Martin, a vocal solo by Addis Lally, a violin solo by Genevieve Lally and piano solos by Prof. Hover and Miss Lally. The refreshments were fully in keeping with all the other delightful appointments of the evening. The old year was ushered out with much hilarity and the New Year was well started before the young people started for their homes. Miss Lally is one of the most popular of our young people and her many friends were glad of the opportunity to wish her a Happy New Year and to wish her the best of luck in her college work which she resumes next week.

The Gulick home was the scene of a very pleasant event on Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Gulick being at home to a large number of her lady friends in honor of Mrs. J. B. Harris. The ladies spent the afternoon most agreeably and were pleased indeed at this added opportunity of again meeting Mrs. Harris before her return to Boone. Mrs. Gulick's hospitality did not end with the ladies, however, and a number of the gentlemen were invited for a most bounteous dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. Harris were the guests of honor.

Henry Messenbrink and his wife and John Langholt seem to be involved in a series of personal difficulties which it is probable that the courts must unravel. Yesterday Messenbrink was brought before the Mayor on charges preferred by Langholt, but was dismissed. Mrs. Messenbrink is said to be about to obtain a warrant against her husband charging him with cruelty and the end is not yet. We have not been able to arrive at all the facts of the difficulty, but we are informed that a jug of whisky, a butcher knife and an uplitted chair were all parts of the stage property at the time of the difficulty.
