Physical Decline

CURED BY
DR. STOCKDALE'S TREATMENT.

It relieves the most distressing symptoms at once. The cure is speedy and permanent. Ten years of cures removes all doubts as to any possibility of failure. It is the one recognized, established treatment.

Consultation and Advice Free.

Dr. Stockdale's treatment is today the recognized established cure for physical decline since it insures absolute success. It effects immediate beneficial results and a speedy cure. When the laws of health have been violated and there is a consciousness of some gradually growing disease or weakness, visible or invisible, that is sapping the strength and exhausting the system, these symptoms follow: sleeplessness, nervousness, twitching of the muscles, trembling of the limbs, dizziness, loss of flesh, indigestion, heart palpitation and lack of concentration. Weaknesses are created by these strains upon the nerve forces, and the life's blood is sapped away. Dr. Stockdale's treatment removes weakness, strengthens the nervous system, creates new tissue, induces a free circulation of the blood and cleanses it from all impurities. It is the most rational, safe and positive curing treatment.

Free consultation and advice gives every sufferer an opportunity of understanding their exact physical condition before considering the question of treatment.

Do not let prejudice stand in the way of your selecting the right treatment. There is only one right treatment—the one that cures—that's Dr. Stockdale's CATARRH. The successful treatment of catarrh, diseases of the blood and skin, rheumatic complications and physical decline, require more than ordinary medical skill. Dr. Stockdale has treated these diseases for ten years—and his experience insures positive cures.

The Doctor will visit

Denison, Tuesday, Feb. 4.

At the Hotel Wilson.

One day only, returning every four weeks. Address,

DR. B. A. STOCKDALE,

231 Main Street,

Council Bluffs, - - Iowa.

The doctor is in Council Bluffs office every Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Strikes and Spares

What the Bowlers are Doing.

STANDING OF TEAMS.

TEAMS.	WINS.	LOSSES.	PER CENT.
Tamm	30	17	13
Brown	30	14	13
Schuler	27	15	15
Chambers	27	15	15
Wright	30	13	17

The past week has been an exceptionally quiet one in the bowling circles. The local bowlers not having fully recuperated after their holiday vacation. The only game bowled this week was that of Tamm vs. Wright last Monday night. Tamm winning the score by 225 pins instead of 184 pins as was previously reported in this column.

The league season is about one half over. The first half of the season finds some very high scores made, nevertheless a much better showing is expected in the remainder of the games. The only score over the 900 mark being credited to the Schuler team, next comes Wright's with several games near 900. Tamm leads with team percentage with Brown's a close second and Schuler's third. So close are the three above mentioned teams that a loss of three games by Tamm's and the winning of the same number by Schuler's, would place Schuler's again at the top of the list.

The Tammites are determined to hold their position at the top of the list, and it is not likely they will lose it for they are unquestionably the strongest team as has been proven by their steady bowling.

The game scheduled for Wednesday night between the Schuler and Brown teams was postponed until next week.

We understand that a series of games have been arranged between two of our local teams and two Omaha teams. The first to be rolled in Omaha in about two weeks and a return game here shortly afterwards. We do not hesitate to say that our boys will win the majority of games, as much better scores are being made here than the Omaha teams makes on their home alleys.

Quite a number of our local bowlers expect to attend the contest between the Boone and Greater New York teams to be rolled in Chicago, January 27th.

The contest games between Denison and Carroll have been postponed from tonight until next Wednesday.

Chambers vs. Brown on the Denison Bowling Co's alleys tonight.

Captain Schuler has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Resolutions.

Jan. 2, 1902.—At the regular meeting of John A. Logan Woman's Relief Corps No. 56, held in McHenry Hall, Jan. 4, 1892, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Since the last regular meeting of John A. Logan Woman's Relief Corps No. 56, our sister and co-worker, Emma K. Meyers, has been called to the Higher Life. In her death we realize that the Corps has lost a faithful member and the Union Soldiers a true friend. The principles for which the soldiers fought were sacred to her and often discussed with the writer. She was prevented by affliction from being active with us for some time. But she did all she could in her shut-in hours, for those who were in need and her good works will be a monument to her in the years to come. Therefore be it

RESOLVED, That John A. Logan Corps No. 56 at the next regular meeting hold Memorial Services in memory of our sister. Services to be conducted by Mary Sears McHenry, one of her most intimate friends and that we, members of John A. Logan Corps, extend to the bereaved children our love and sympathy in the great sorrow that has come to them and commend them to the God who never forsakes those who trust in him.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be given each member of the family and a copy be filed with the records of this corps.

Submitted in F. C. and L.

THE MAJOR'S VENGEANCE.

McKinley and the Reporter Who Persistently Assailed Him.

During one of his congressional campaigns Major McKinley was followed from place to place by a reporter for a paper of opposite political faith, who is described as being one of those "shrewd, persistent fellows who are always at work, quick to see an opportunity and skilled in making the most of it." While Mr. McKinley was annoyed by the misrepresentation to which he was almost daily subjected, he could not help admiring the skill and persistence with which he was assailed. His admiration, too, was not unmixed with compassion, for the reporter was ill, poorly clad and had an annoying cough. One night Mr. McKinley took a closed carriage for a nearby town at which he was announced to speak. The weather was wretchedly raw and cold, and what followed is thus described:

He had not gone far when he heard that cough and knew that the reporter was riding with the driver on the exposed seat. The major called to the driver to stop and alighted. "Get down off that seat, young man," he said. The reporter obeyed, thinking the time for the major's vengeance had come. "Here," said Mr. McKinley, taking off his overcoat, "you put on this overcoat and get into that carriage." "But, Major McKinley," said the reporter, "I guess you don't know who I am. I have been with you the whole campaign, giving it to you every time you spoke, and I am going over tonight to rip you to pieces if I can." "I know," said Mr. McKinley, "but you put on this coat and get inside and get warm so that you can do a good job."—Chautauquan.

BEAVER TAIL SOUP.

A Michigan Lumber Camp Delicacy That Amazed a Marylander.

"Although I am a Marylander and an Eastern Shore one at that," said an epicure from that state, "and consequently know what good things to eat are, I want to tell you that I'll have to take off my hat to the lumber camp cook of the upper Michigan peninsula as the discoverer, fabricator and dispenser of a dish that knocks the Eastern Shore cuisine silly. And that rare lumber camp dish is beaver tail soup."

"I was with Colonel Park of Columbus, O., deer hunting in the Rainy Lake region of Michigan one fall. We lived at a lumber camp boarding shanty."

"There were signs of beaver at the upper end of the lake, and a trapper succeeded in trapping one of the wily dam builders."

"When the beaver was brought into camp, the camp cook went nearly wild, and so did the lumbermen when they heard the news, all because they had been trying to trap a beaver for weeks, not for its fur, but for its tail, as they were pining, they said, for beaver tail soup."

"The cook took that broad appendage of the beaver, mailed like an armadillo, took from it the underlying bone and meat, and from it made such a soup as never came from any other stock at the beck of the most expert and scientific chef that ever put a kettle on."

"We could do the same thing and perhaps better on the Eastern Shore, but we lack one thing. We haven't got the beavers to yield us their tails."—New York Sun.

Providing for a Wayward Son.

Lord Chesterfield gave advice to his son in sundry letters, which might or might not be followed, but in his will he took good care that "my godson, Philip Stanhope," should have strong inducement to follow his advice on at least one point. All the bequests are subject to the condition that if Philip should keep race horses or hounds or stay one night at Newmarket, "that infamous seminary of iniquity and ill manners," during the course of the races there, or should lose on any one day by betting or gaming as much as £500, then in such case he shall forfeit £5,000 to the dean and chapter of Westminster for every such offense.—All the Year Round.

Know Your Own Capacity.

If the people about you are carrying on their business or their benevolence at a pace which draws the life out of you, resolutely take a slower pace; be called a laggard, make less money, accomplish less work than they, but be what you are meant to be and can be. You have your natural limit of power as much as an engine—ten horsepower or twenty or a hundred. You are fit to do certain kinds of work, and you need a certain kind and amount of fuel and a certain kind of handling.—George S. Merriam.

Business Announcement.

The business heretofore conducted by F. J. Gable has been changed to the firm of F. J. Gable & Co., Mr. H. A. Carpenter having purchased a half interest. The business will be conducted as heretofore, with the best stock of books, stationery, confectionery, novelties, cigars, etc., that can be obtained. All accounts due the old firm are payable to F. J. Gable.

We solicit your continued patronage and know we can please you.

F. J. GABLE,
H. A. CARPENTER.

Dated, Denison, Iowa, Jan. 8, 1902.

Notice.

The trustees of Milford township will receive bids for road work for ensuing year at Clerk's office Deloit.
