Death's Sad Summons.

Death is always cruel. It always carries with it heartaches and grief and unfulfilled hopes and ambitions. But sad as death is at best it seldom comes in so unrelenting a garb as in the death of Mrs. Nettie Chapin Smith, a beautiful and attractive young woman whose friends were myriad, whose hopes were bright and who was surrounded on every hand by love and kindness.

Mrs. Smith died on Saturday afternoon but a few hours after giving birth to her first born child. She was apparently well and strong and prepared for the terrible ordeal of maternity but soon after the little daughter saw the light of day the mother was attacked with convulsions and before the evening her spirit had gone out into the great Unknown.

The funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at the First Baptist church, Rev. F. W. Bateson, assisted by Rev. A. G. Martyn and Rev. E. M. Holmes officiating. Many friends attended and the floral tributes were many and beautiful.

We cannot express our grief too deeply for the young life that has gone from us. She was a bright helpful, sweet-souled young woman beloved by all who knew her, we know that she is now with the Heavenly Father whom she served so diligently on earth, and that He has soothed her pain and comforted her sorrowing and has given His promise to watch over and protect those whom she loved on earth.

Mrs. Smith was born at the Fargo House in Denison, Dec. 21, 1880. She lived nearly all her life in Denison and was one of the brightest of Denison's bright young girls. In 1898 she graduated from the high school and she was known as one of the best pupils that our schools have sent forth. On March 27th, she was married to William Smith, a young man worthy in every way of her love and who has done everything within his power to bring happiness into her life.

On Friday evening she appeared well and with her husband visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Campbell. Her daughter was born early on Saturday morning and for a time the mother seemed to rally and no danger was feared. The convulsions came and she died on Saturday evening. She leaves a husband and infant daughter, her mother and two sisters, Carrie and Una, all of whom have the sincere and heartfelt sympathy of the community.

A Wedding.

On Wednesday Feb. 5, 1902, there occurred a very pretty yet quiet wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Wickwire of Willow township when their eldest daughter Miss Effie Wickwire and Mr. Horace W. Hodkin, were united holy bonds of matrimony in the presence of a few friends and relatives, Rev. E. N. Miller D. E. of Shenadoah Ia. officiated. Miss Daisy Hodkin, sister of the groom and Mr. Bert Wickwire brother of the bride acted as bridesmaid and groomsmen.

The bride is an accomplished young lady of good talents. She has spent most of her life in Willow township and is well known by the people of that community. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hodkin also of Willow township. He is a prosperous young farmer and he and his estimable bride will make their future home on one of Mr. Wickwire's farms. After the short yet impressive ceremony all sat down to a bountiful wedding dinner.

The presents received by this happy couple were very useful. Among which was a bed room set, rocker, silver knives and forks, a beautiful clock, a large family bible, three water sets, two parlor lamps, a berry set, and other useful articles. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hodkin, wish them a long and happy life with smooth sailing o'er life's rugged sea.

Died.

Died, February 6, at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, Helen M. Gunn, of heart failure, buried at Clinton, Iowa. Miss Gunn's home was in Jackson twp. PATERSON DECLINES AID

City is Badly Damaged, but Can Repair Its Own Losses.

MARTIAL LAW IS ESTABLISHED.

Estimate of Total Destruction by Sunday's Conflagration Now Cut to Eight Millions—Work of Clearing Up Burned District.

Paterson, N. J., Feb. 11.—A feeling of confidence in the future pervades the minds of citizens of Paterson. Mayor Hinchliffe has the situation well in hand and to an offer of assistance which came from Mayor Low of New York an answer was returned containing thanks and the assurance that Paterson is managing to care for those in need.

Money and securities said to amount to $3,000,000 were recovered from the two huge vaults under the ruins of the First National bank yesterday afternoon. Books, papers, bullion and paper money were found uninjured.

Mayor Hinchliffe said that he thought the loss would reach at least $8,000,000.

A well informed insurance man said that it would be safe to say that the real estate lost in the fire was insured at about two-thirds of its value, or perhaps a little more. It is understood that the insurance on public property will not figure more than 35 per cent.

The work of clearing up the burned district has not begun, but the firemen were busy with ropes and dynamite, tearing down the shaky walls that endangered those who had to be inside the burned area. So well did this work progress that after a conference with Major Ross, commanding the militia, the public was admitted to the ruins and sentries were posted at every important point, keeping the crowd moving briskly. Thousands passed about the choked streets and viewed the ruins during the two hours and a half allowed them. At the expiration of the time the sentries began moving outward and gathering up the extra men at each step, soon had the entire district cleared. The conduct of the soldiers was excellent. There has been no disorder and the authorities believe there will be none.

And Thou Brutus!

Mr. Wm. Flaherty of the board of supervisors was inclined to disagree with us last fall when we stated that the Denison bosses of democracy had agreed to consign him to oblivion. The "bosses" assured him that it was only a wicked "REVIEW Lie" and Wm. got out and worked for the democratic ticket like a Trojan. Now comes the Bulletin and gives Mr. Flaherty as hard a roast as it dares. It "damns with faint praise," and invokes the aid of sarcasm to belittle the democratic supervisor. Perhaps Mr. Flaherty will get his eyes open now, to the treachery which has been planned against him. He will soon realize, as others have done that "REVIEW lies" are pretty reliable statements after all. The following is the Bulletin's roast of the man whose election it advertised less than two years ago. Perhaps the fact that Mr. Flaherty voted to let the bridges to the lowest bidder had something to do with the Bulletin's attitude.

Supervisor Wm. Flaherty was in Denison Friday and Saturday, greeting those who wish to see him renamed for the office he now holds. That included everybody, for Wm. is one of those broad, sober, industrious, economical fellows who always makes a success of everything. He stands high as a leader of the democracy of this county, and it was largely by his efforts that the county ticket was saved last fall. His work on the board is that of a leader. He understands without much study the true nature of all questions that come up and the other members of the board all look to him for advice and the measure of their own conduct. The board would be only a hollow mockery without William Flaherty and the county would go to the demolition bow-wows without his counsel and guidance. He saves the county many law suits and costly actions by his fine judgment and of course he will be renominated and elected.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Romans and their daughter Beth leave this week for a weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Hansen of Fairbury, Neb.

Mr. Bert Holbrook has resigned his position in the Boy's store. He has not yet decided as to whether he will accept a similar position elsewhere or go on the road.

Henry Seemann and A. F. Barber went hunting yesterday and returned with a rabbit apiece. Whether they were acquired by purchase or right of discovery deponent saith not.

Miss Pearl Ley will entertain the Whist Club next Wednesday evening with a valentine party. This will be something different from the regular order and will doubtless be enjoyed by all.

Marshal Howard Wilson informs us of his intention to leave April 1st, and take charge of his father's ranch in western Nebraska. Howard is a good boy and has made an excellent officer. We will be sorry to have him leave us.

The Dunlap reporter contains an extended account of a pleasant surprise given to Mr. George Gregg Wednesday evening in that place on the occasion of his 37th birthday. Mr. Gregg seems to have made many friends in Dunlap and his old time Denison friends extend congratulations.

Mr. E. F. Tucker went into Chicago on Monday evening to arrange for the purchase of a thirty-four inch power paper cutter for use in the offices of the REVIEW and the Omaha Ticket Co. The volume of work has become so great that the old lever hand cutter does not suffice.

Mr. and Mrs. Ph. A. Schlumberger were invited to Carroll last week to attend a concert given by the Juvenile band of that place. They report having had a most enjoyable time and that the band trained by Mr. Eggemeier shows great proficiency and is a credit to his abilities as a musical instructor.

Are we to understand that Brother Caswell is laying his wires for the democratic nomination for municipal dog and cat catcher at the next election.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hodkin of Charter Oak were Denison callers on Monday. They began their wedded life wisely by becoming subscribers for the Great and Only.

Mr. I. O. Orem has purchased a lot opposite Dr. Wright's residence on Main street, and has already commenced the erection of what promises to be a neat and pretty home.

Mrs. Eckles of the REVIEW office was called to Missouri Valley last week by the serious illness of her mother. We trust that her mother may recover and be spared to her for many years.

We learn that the Monday Club has seen fit to change its name to the Stoddard Club. The officers of the new literary organization are; President, Mrs. W. H. Laub; Vice President Mrs. R. A. Romans; Secretary, Mrs. E. M. Holmes; Treasurer, Mrs. Eugene Gulick; Critic Mrs. T. J. Garrison; and Parliamentarian, Mrs. J. B. Romans.

The beautiful home of Mrs. Eugene Gulick was the scene of a large party given to the young ladies on Saturday afternoon. More than fifty guests responded to the invitation and the afternoon was one to be marked with a Red Letter. The young ladies were made to illustrate the titles of books and then to guess the results of each other's artistic efforts. A delicious two-course luncheon was served in the dining room. Misses Irene Austin and Garnett Romans presided over the coffee and Miss Grace Temple, Miss Beatrice Kirkup, Miss Ethel Gulick and Mrs. C. L. Voss assisted with the serving. It is not often that the busy young ladies of Denison have such an opportunity for a social gathering and they enjoyed the afternoon greatly.
