

J. H. Tamm visited Omaha Monday on business.

John Osborn left Saturday for a visit down in Kansas.

The Penelope club meets with Mrs. Frank Pfarr this afternoon.

The whist club will meet with Mrs. Carl F. Kuehnle on next Wednesday evening.

Attorney, L. E. Goodwin of Charter Oak is in Denison on legal matters this week.

Bert Holbrook, formerly of the Boys store is spending a few days in Omaha this week.

Attorney Harding, of Charter Oak, was in town early Monday morning to be on hand when court sets.

Emil Kruger of the German bank at Schleswig, accompanied by Mr. Bleesman were Dedison callers Monday.

Frank Leahy of the Main street bowling alleys is again at his post of duty after having a seige of the gripple.

W. C. Rollins came in from a two weeks trip out through Nebraska Saturday night. He reports business good.

The Germania Society will hold a masquerade ball at opera house on next Friday. Mrs. Pfeifer of Council Bluffs will furnish costumes.

Mr. Bert Hill has purchased the vacant lot of Mr. Wygant just west of the old home and will erect a new dwelling house thereon in the spring.

Rev. Douglas, of Mapleton filled the Episcopal pulpit Sunday last both morning and evening. Rev Douglas is a pleasing speaker and his sermons were enjoyed.

Ben Bartcher, the accommodating salesman at Salomon's was released from quarantine Sunday. Ben is glad to be out again and going to work with wed energy.

The accident of which Mr. P. E. C. Lally was the victim leaves him still unable to attend legal business and as a result a large number of important cases before this term of court have been discontinued.

Master James Sims of Council Bluffs spent Saturday in Denison with his father, Mr. Jacob Sims. James is a bright sturdy lad and we wish that he and all the Sims family would decide to come to Denison.

Jim Benton, who extinguished Jud Gary at Deloit last fall, is a candidate for the republican nomination for Mayor of Des Moines. Mr Benton is a self-made man, wide a wake and energetic, an enthusiastic party worker and we should be glad to see him nominated.

Mr. John A. Kellar tells us that he expects to leave for Ponca, Nebr., on Thursday next. He has rented a farm near that place and will try farming in Nebraska for the coming year. We regret to see this excellent family leave Crawford County, but wish them prosperity in their new home.

Mr and Mrs. Hiram McQuillen, of Ida Grove, spent the past week in Denison and vicinity. Mrs. McQuillen was a relative of Mrs. Will Smith and was in attendance at the funeral. Learning of the death of Mr. Runkle they remained and attended his funeral also. During their stay they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckels returned on Monday from their sad journey to Missouri Valley. On Sunday occurred the funeral of Mrs. Eckels' mother, who died after a brief but severe illness. We wish to express our deep sympathy with these worthy people in their great grief, and to express the hope that the God in whom their faith is so strong will bring comfort and consolation to them.

Other towns along the line of the Northwestern are demanding that crossing gates be erected. The Northwestern should forestall all such requests by putting them in at all crossings in cities and towns. We believe it would be money saved in the long run and we should think the necessity would be greater in small towns where the fast trains do not stop than in larger towns where they do.

On yesterday a permanent injunction was granted restraining M. McGregor from continuing his abusive attacks upon Secretary Shaw. The court listened to the argument in the case together with the evidence and decided that the temporary injunction previously granted should be made permanent. This action of the courts ought to make the Des Moines News and other papers of its stripe feel like thirty cents.

Mr. Jasper Woodland has just moved into his new barber shop immediately west of Randall's meat market. Mr. Woodland has had the shop fitted up finely and it looks very neat and attractive. He has ordered a fine two-chair case and a second chair of improved make. His assistant is Mr. George Fouts, who is well known to Denison people. Both of these gentlemen are skilled workman and there is no reason why a new shop should not flourish.

It is with sincere regret that we learn of the death of Mrs. John F. Grote, of West Side, whose obituary is published in another column. Mrs. Grote was a bright, healthful and intelligent woman, and she will be mourned not only by the circle of her relatives in the home, but by all of the people of West Side and her many friends throughout the county. The Review tenders its sincere sympathy to the stricken husband and sorrowing children.

Fred Davis received a telegram Saturday, informing him of the sudden death of his father at Horton, Kan., but did not get the particulars of his death. It was afterward learned that his father W. H. Davis was burned to death in the Rock Island Rail Road machine shop situated at that place, in which he was a laborer. The report also said that he was the oldest employe in the shops, having been in the shops for years. Mr. Davis has the sincere sympathy of his friends in Charter Oak, in his bereavement.—Charter Oak Times.

Many Denison friends of Mr. I. L. Pease will be surprised and pleased to learn of his marriage, which occurred in Dunlap today at 11:40 o'clock. The marriage ceremony took place at the home of Mr. Pease's parents and the bride's name is Miss Mildred Black, of Omaha. Rev. H. H. Barton performed the ceremony. The happy couple immediately took the train for Denver where they will visit a few days. Mr. Pease is at present holding a responsible position with the Union Pacific, with headquarters at Omaha; the bride is one of Omaha's fairest daughters and is highly accomplished. They will be at home Omaha after March 1st.

Mr. Tom Ryam of Vail was a Denison visitor today.

Mr. R. J. Overing of Ute is spending the day in Denison.

Doty's Faust at opera house tonight. This promises to be good.

Ed Wescott was an Omaha visitor on Monday, where he transacted business.

We learn that the firm of Mundt & Rowland have dissolved partnership, Mr. Rowland retiring from the firm.

We understand that Mr. D. L. Boynton expects to re-enter the practice of law at this place, occupying rooms in the Gulick block.

Rev. A. G. Martyr went to Des Moines on Monday morning and is spending a few days watching the Iowa legislature.

Miss Hedwig Broderson entertained a number of her little friends with a Valentine party on Saturday afternoon. The youngsters had a delightful time.

Mr. J. H. Mahoney spent the first of the week visiting in Boone, Ia. and later attending a convention of the Northwestern agents at Cedar Rapids. He returned Monday evening.

Although this is not strictly official business we would suggest to our readers that hereafter if they will just give their news items to the postmaster they will some way reach the columns of the Review.

The Misses Sarachon are in Chicago this week, making purchases of spring millinery preparatory to the Easter trade. The Sarachon Sisters have built up a fine business here and are doing better every year.

Dr. Bames the Optician eye specialist of Omaha and Denver has been at the Wilson Hotel and will return again inside of sixty days. The doctor is highly recommended and guarantees the very best satisfaction in every respect.

We learn that Mr. Wm. Larin will go to Chicago this week where he will prepare for an examination for the position of revenue inspector in the Philippine Islands. Wm. is well suited for the position and we trust he will be successful.

Mr. Bartcher was released from quarantine on Sunday morning and is around town noting the many improvements since he was wiped off the map. He reports that in his case the smallpox was very light, and although disagreeable, was not serious at any time. We are glad to see him about again.

That Blaine Hunt is considered as one of the leaders at the state University is evidenced by the fact that he has been nominated for editor-in-chief of the University paper. These editors are elected by the students, and it is certainly an honor for Blaine to be recognized as one of the leaders. We hope that he will be successful in the election also.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Balle was the scene of a merry party of young people Saturday evening. Miss Balle had issued a large number of invitations to her friends in honor of Miss Hurst of Leon, Iowa, and Miss Huebner of Woodbine. The house decorations were very beautiful, choice flowers being in abundance. Various amusements were provided for the entertainment of the guests and the refreshments were pronounced delicious. Miss Balle is very popular in Denison society and an invitation to her home is always pleasing.

Our democratic friends are all stirred up over the rumor that John G. Smith is about to resign from the board of supervisors. We trust that this will not be the case as Mr. Smith has already proven himself to be one of the best men Crawford county has ever had on the board. It was his election which made it possible for the bridge contract to be let to the lowest bidder instead of as a matter of favoritism and in every way Mr. Smith has proven himself to be intelligent and honest. John Holland is anxious to step into Mr. Smith's shoes should the latter resign and it is said that he is slated for the place although there is strong opposition from the people of his own township. It will indeed be too bad that the republicans cannot have one member of the board.

Friday Club "Guest Night."

On last Friday night Mrs. C. L. Voss entertained the Friday Club and their guests at her home in east Denison. There were about forty guests responded and the evening was the most enjoyable one the club has ever held. It being St. Valentines night Mrs. Voss had decorated the house with hearts, the wall, furniture portiers being handsomely decorated. The guests were highly entertained with music, both vocal and instrumental, and each person was presented with a souvenir in the form of a folder tied with a red ribbon on which was a heart and the date of the party. During the evening refreshments were served reflecting credit upon the ability of the hostess.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Smith spent Wednesday evening with Miss Polster.

Miss Florence Hall Sundayed under the parental roof near Buck Grove. Messrs. Addis Lally and Mike Houlihan drove to Charter Oak last Saturday.

Mr. James Harvey made the college a formal call last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Frank Joyce is again in school after a week's visit at his home near Dunlap.

Miss Mabel Jordan was absent from school one day last week on account of illness.

Miss Quade, of Denison, visited with her sister, Miss Maude, Friday afternoon.

Miss Willie was absent from school a few days the past week on account of vaccination.

Miss White, of Deloit, visited with her sister Miss Lou at the dormitory over Sunday.

Prof. Martin and his Sunday school class enjoyed a sleigh ride last Tuesday evening.

The Misses Luella Cole and Mary Behneman have recently added their names to the reading class.

Miss Mabel Theobald, of Manilla, is again in school, after several days absence on account of illness.

Miss Zella Hover visited at the college Wednesday forenoon. Miss Hover was a D. N. C. student last fall.

Among the visitors of the Athenian Society last Friday night were Mr. Myric and the Misses Mabel Cushman and Minnie Reipen.

We are pleased to learn that Miss Myrtle Saul, who has been absent the past few weeks, expects to resume her work at the college this week.

Prof. Martin, while showing Prof. Core some new trick in wrestling last Friday evening, accidentally sprained his knee and is yet unable to leave his room.

Coasting was the evenings' amusement the past week for the boys and girls. Friday evening after society a goodly number of the college crowd spent some two hours coasting west of the college.

Messrs. T. A. and James Harvey, also Frank Jackson visited the Zoanian Society last Friday night. The Messrs. Harvey were former members of this society and Mr. T. A. gave a few words of encouragement to the now active members. We always appreciate such visitors.

Hon. J. B. Romans was a welcome visitor at chapel last Tuesday morning and talked on "The way they should improve their time." Although many of our chapel visitors refer to this same thought, not many were ever so fully appreciated by the students as this one given by Mr. Romans.

The Misses Hattie and Edith McWilliams entertained a number of the college girls last Saturday evening. The evening was spent in games, music and taffy pulling followed by dainty refreshments. Those present report an excellent time and that the Misses McWilliams maintain their high reputation as ideal hostesses.

Mr. Lyon, of Boone, agent for the "Teacher's and Pupil's Cyclopaedia," spent the latter part of the week at the college showing his books to the students and teachers. A number invested. Mr. Lyon talked to the students in chapel Wednesday morning on "Thinking," which was very interesting.

Mr. E. S. Garrison and son Raymond of Logan, spent Sunday in Denison, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Garrison.

Duroc Jersey Sale.

Great sale of Duroc Jersey sows to be held at Pleasant Hill stock farm 7 miles southwest of Odebolt and 4 1/2 miles north of Kiron, on FRIDAY, FEB. 23, 1902.

The offering will consist of 2 herd boars, 10 yearling and 9 fall sows and 27 spring gilts. The older sows are sired by such noted boars as Flash Light No. 7281a, and Carla No. 6715 and others of equal merit. The fall sows are sired by Perry Victor II, No. 10839 the spring gilts are mostly sired by Clark Perfection No. 5891 and Samuelson's Choice No. 9929 and others. The greater number of the sows are bred to my herd boars, Iowa Prince No. 9556a, and Pericles Hero No. 8087 and three other good boars. Both old and young sows should be a good investment for breeders desiring to add to their herds or farmers desiring to obtain a start in good, business, money-making hogs; and for that purpose it is hard to beat the Duroc Jerseys. Come and get some good representatives of the breed at your own price.

I extend a cordial invitation to my brother farmers and breeders to come to the sale and say what this stock is worth. If interested in breeding, send for catalogue which tells the whole story. Sale will be held in heated and seated sale tent; no postponement. TERMS: One year's time will be given on bankable note drawing 8 per cent. interest. Parties from a distance please bring bank reference. Visiting breeders from a distance will be met at Odebolt and Kiron on sale day and returned to said stations free of charge. Free lunch at 11:30, sale begins 12:30. B. A. SAMUELSON, Prop. COL. F. F. LUTHER, } Auct'rs. A. S. TEAQUIST, } W. F. BAY, Clerk.
