EUROPE IS STORM BOUND.

Lower Portion of Rome Flooded. Many Towns Isolated.

London, Feb. 4.—Reports of damage caused by the wind and snow storms on the continent and in Great Britain continue to be received. Some of the towns in northern Spain are isolated and fruit trees have been destroyed. In Switzerland many villages are cut off from communication. Telegraphic communication with Italy has been interrupted. There is now more snow in Venice than at any time in the past 25 years. The River Tiber rose 25 feet. The lower portion of Rome is flooded, as well as the Forum, the Pantheon and the Temple of Vesta. The water of the Tiber is now receding. Several more wrecks of the British and French coasts are reported and the crews of some of these vessels have been lost. Numerous ships are overdue. There are heavy snows in the northern part of Great Britain.

MANGLED BODIES RECOVERED.

Sixteen Men Barely Alive and 84 Dead Taken from Hondo Mine.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Feb. 4.—Eighty-four bodies and 16 men barely alive, some of them horribly mangled, have been taken from the Hondo mines. The search for the bodies has stopped on account of the stench, but disinfectants have arrived and work will be resumed. The shaft had 118 men enrolled and 18 are still missing. Twenty-five head of dead mules have been taken from the shaft. The damage to property is very great. The scene at the opening of the mine was horrible. Mothers, wives and children of the dead and mangled victims were screaming and crying and refused to retire.

EXPLOSION KILLS FOUR.

Crowd Watching a Fire Caught Under Falling Walls.

Boyetown, Pa., Feb. 4.—Four persons were killed and one was probably fatally injured as the result of an explosion of gasoline in the bakery of George Carver of this place. The dead: Henry Shaner, Frank Shaner, George Gorman and Charles Hough. George Fry was injured internally and may not live.

Fire had broken out in the bakery and the explosion occurred while the firemen were fighting the flames. The explosion blew out the whole front of the building and several persons in the large crowd watching the fire were caught under the falling wall. Many persons were more or less hurt by flying debris.

Stockmen Having Trouble.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 4.—Stockmen in western Kansas had trouble last night in protecting their cattle from the cold. The mercury took a sudden drop yesterday afternoon to below zero. The night was the most severe of the winter. The cold was accompanied by a stiff wind from the north. The ground is completely covered by snow to the depth of several inches, which makes it hard for the cattle to obtain the necessary food and water. Stockmen expect large losses to result if the weather does not moderate.

Schley Ends Nashville Visit.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 4.—Yesterday was Admiral Schley's busy day in Nashville. It marked the close of his visit, as he left early this morning for Chattanooga, and the people vied with each other in doing honor to him and his wife. Demands on their time came thick and fast, ceasing only at a late hour, when the reception in their honor at the University club came to an end.

Mrs. Lucy Black on Trial.

Bozeman, Mon., Feb. 4.—The trial of Mrs. Lucy Black, who is charged with poisoning her husband, a wealthy ranchman, was commenced in the district court here. Mrs. Black is charged with having administered poison to her husband on Oct. 1, 1894, and for each day and including Oct. 1, 1900. John Black was reputed to be worth over $100,000.

Rough Time in Nova Scotia.

Hullfax, N. S., Feb. 4.—Last night's storm was the wildest in Nova Scotia for years and reports indicate that shipping has suffered severely. It is roughly estimated that the damage to sail vessels alone will reach $50,000. Fourteen vessels have been seriously damaged.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

Fire destroyed the F. M. Marsluf & Co. shoe factory at Janesville, one of the largest in Wisconsin. The loss is $80,000.

The Chicago city council by a vote of 56 to 9 decided to remove all restrictions in the height of fire proof buildings.

James W. Tufts, the millionaire soda water fountain manufacturer of Boston, died suddenly Monday of apoplexy at Pinehurst, N. C.

At the meeting Monday of the board of stewards of the Western Jockey club, turf privileges were restored to a large number of "outlawed" owners and jockeys.

Engineer A. O. Nuts and Fireman Goodlow Ward were instantly killed Monday as a result of a train going through a trestle on the Gauley railroad near Berry's Siding, W. Va.

Joseph Pratt, Ida Pratt, William Rousharn and Catharine Anderson were captured by the police in two small rooms at Cleveland in the act of counterfeiting half dollars and dollars. Seven bandits entered the Pecos Mercantile company's store at Fort Sumner, N. M., shot F. B. Beaulion dead, beat Francisco Searona senseless, stole $600 worth of goods, robbed the postoffice and escaped.
