A CHURCH DEDICATION DINES AT WHITE HOUSE

METHODIST CHURCH AT DOW CITY COMPLETED.

Impressive Ceremonies Held. Large Congregation Present and Donations Very Liberal.

The occasion of the dedication of the Methodist Episcopal church at Dow City last Sunday was an event long to be remembered among the eventful occurrences of the town and that section of the country. It was a day of suspense, anticipation and victory. The day was perfect, bright and mild.

NEW METHODIST CHURCH AT DOW CITY.

Early in the congregation commenced to arrive. By 10:30 the auditorium was full and in half an hour it was shown that the provision for seating 450 people had not been labor lost. The people were interested. The church had been out of their building for seven months. They had been looking forward to this occasion for months. They knew that a most excellent program had been provided and they wanted to see and hear Dr. H. C. Jennings who was to preach. They also knew that a considerable deficit needed to be provided for. The official board were hopeful. The people had given liberally and many felt that they could ill afford to give more. On entering the building each one confessed to incredulity that so much had been accomplished. A dream of beauty caused the astonishment. Dr. Jennings himself confessed that he did not know of a church anywhere where so symmetrical, modern and beautiful a building had been secured from an old building with the amount expended. The symmetry of the auditorium, vaulting ceilings, large doors opening into the Epworth League room, decorated walls and ceiling in panels and frescoed in varied colors; the art glass windows, special gifts of the Priscilla Club, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rae, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Green, the Epworth League and the Sunday school classes of Mr. Thos. Black, Mrs. Margaret Talcott, Mrs. Jno. Rae and Mrs. Frank McHenry, altogether costing $600.00; the neat carpet covering the entire floor, the new gas chandeliers and side brackets, the highly polished oak circular pews, the most comfortable on the market, seated on a moderate inclined floor; the new pulpit of most modern design and minor accessories to a complete modern church, all gave the impression that the building committee has rightly appreciated the feelings of the community and distrust gave way to hope and anticipation. In the pulpit were Dr. H. C. Jennings of Cincinnati, O., Rev. D. W.

C. Franklin D. D., Rev. L. K. Billingsley D. D. of Jefferson, Iowa, Rev. Mr. McNeel and the pastor, Rev. D. M. Houghtelin B. D. After an excellent and inspiring sermon by Dr. Jennings, Mr. Thos. Rae, chairman of the building committee read the financial statement. The improvement had cost $4,770.00. There was a deficiency of $1,860.00. Dr. Jennings asked for subscriptions. Mr. H. S. Green started the list with $200. Ten followed with $100, eleven with $50, twenty-five with $25 and others with smaller amounts. The entire receipts amounted to $2,889.86. A thousand beyond the absolute cost. Everybody was happy.

After an anthem, "Except the Lord Build the House," the beautiful dedicatory service was given. The trustees came to the altar and the chairman, Mr. Geo. Rae, presented the building for dedication which Dr. Franklin, assisted by the visiting pastors solemnly dedicated to God. In the afternoon Dr. Franklin conducted a Love Feast which proved to be one of the most precious parts of the services. The building was almost completely filled for the service. Letters were read from former pastors, and after a beautiful memorial address to the memory of the dead in Christ the afternoon services were closed by a solemn sacramental service. The Rev. Mr. Martyn from Denison was present at this service.

At 7 o'clock occurred the anniversary of the Epworth League. The President, Mr. Woodruff, presided. After a general song service and a song by the Sunday school chorus choir, Dr. E. M. Holmes delivered the anniversary address. It was a thoughtful and beautiful discourse of christian obedience and one of the finest parts of the program.

Dr. L. K. Billingsley preached an elegant and helpful sermon and at the close of his sermon three penitents came to the altar and were converted to God—the most beautiful and grandest consecration of all the services of the day. Bro. Billingsley will assist the pastor in special services during the week and a gracious revival is anticipated.

Palma Formally Elected President. Havana, Feb. 25.—Dr. Tomas Estrada Palma and Senor Estevez were yesterday formally elected by the electoral college respectively first president and vice president of the Cuban republic. Senators were also elected. The day was observed as a holiday throughout Cuba and there was a large parade of school children in Havana.

Date of Woodward Hanging. Casper, Wyo., Feb. 25.—Charles Woodward, convicted of the murder of Sheriff William C. Ricker, the Natrona county official who was shot down at Woodward's ranch in the Rattle Snake mountains last month, is to be hanged on Friday, March 28. Judge C. W. Bramel passed sentence yesterday.

Killed by Premature Blast. Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 25.—By an explosion of dynamite on the grading of the Colorado railroad at Bobtown, 25 miles south of this city, Archibald Johnson of this city and C. Andrews of Marshalltown, Ia., were killed. They thought the fuse was frozen and went to examine it, when the shot went off, killing them.

Bride Held for Poisoning Husband. Mariana, Ark., Feb. 25.—Mrs. George Wooten, a bride of five weeks, is held on $3,000 bond to answer to the charge of poisoning her husband. The couple lived in the country. It is said they had a quarrel about some property. The husband took a drink of whisky and lay down to sleep. He never awoke.

Reception to Prince Henry Culminates in Brilliant Banquet.

ENJOYS VISIT TO CONGRESS.

Kaiser's Brother Observes With Interest Ways of American Lawmakers—Views Dramatic Scene in Upper Body.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The visit of Prince Henry and his suite to the capitol yesterday must have been not only a gratifying experience to the royal visitor on account of the warm and flattering reception he received at both the house and senate, and of the opportunity it afforded of meeting personally the leaders of both houses, but it must have been an extremely interesting experience as well. The prince not only saw the houses of the American parliament at work, but in the senate he witnessed one of these rare and intensely dramatic moments which come in that body occasionally at the conclusion of a great debate. The prince and his party in carriages, escorted by a troop of cavalry and flanked on either side by a bicycle platoon of police, arrived at the eastern entrance of the capitol at 4 o'clock, exactly on schedule time. Prince Henry no longer wore the brilliant uniform and plumed chapeau in which he had appeared earlier in the day. He was attired in the simple dark blue fatigue uniform of the German admiral. In the matter of gold lace and braid General Corbin and Admiral Evans, still in the splendor of full dress uniform, far outshone the prince and his staff.

The prince and his party, under the protection of a half hundred police, were conveyed through solid walls of people packed in the rotunda to the room of Speaker Henderson, who formally welcomed him. The prince thanked the speaker for his courtesy and without further ceremony the party proceeded to the gallery of the house.

An impressive sight met the gaze of the prince as he reached the gallery. The surrounding galleries were crowded to the doors and below on the floor, in the long concentric circles of the vast hall, the members sat at their desks. His appearance at the door of the gallery caused an enthusiastic demonstration. The prince paused, smiled through his blonde beard, and acknowledged the greetings with a slight bow. Then advancing with the German ambassador and Mr. Hitt on either side, he descended to the place reserved for him in the front row of the gallery. Instantly every eye was upon him. He seemed perfectly oblivious of the fact that he was on exhibition at close range. Mr. Gilbert of Kentucky was addressing the house at the time on the Philippine question. Prince Henry seemed interested, listening attentively for several minutes to what Mr. Gilbert had to say and appearing much pleased at the hearty applause which followed the statement of the Kentucky member. The "Anglo-Saxon and German races are one." The demonstration as the prince left the gallery was even more enthusiastic than when he entered. A number of members rose to their feet and cheered. The house at once adjourned to afford the members an opportunity to meet the royal visitor personally.

Dramatic Scene in Senate.

The prince's first view of the senate of the United States hardly could have been more dramatic and thrilling. The chamber was brilliantly illuminated from above, the overhanging galleries were thronged to suffocation, every senator was in his seat, the sides of the chamber were fringed with representatives drawn thither by news of the fierce conflict that was raging and on the floor the youthful senator from Texas, Mr. Bailey, was hotly engaged with several of the older leaders on the Republican side over the right of the two senators from South Carolina, who are in contempt of the senate, to vote on the Philippine bill. The excitement at the moment was so great that even the entrance of a foreign prince, unwonted as it was, could hardly divert attention from the great debate which was in progress. Senator Frye, with the prince at his side, mounted the rostrum and invited him to be seated. The senators on the floor and spectators in the galleries had arisen at his appearance, but there was no audible demonstration. He watched the scene keenly as the young Texan tried the mettle first of one adversary and then of another. The two South Carolina senators, of whose encounter last Saturday the prince was fully advised, sat on the right of Mr. Bailey, with only a single chair between them. The prince several times glanced at them, but appeared far more interested in the question at issue than the personality of those it affected. For fully 26 minutes he sat completely engrossed by the scene before him. At last the prince departed through the main door, the senators remaining on their feet until he had disappeared. The plaza at the time was filled with people, who cheered as the prince was driven hurriedly away, accompanied by his cavalry escort.

PHILIPPINE BILL WINS GETS A BANK ON NERVE

Senate Passes Tariff Measure by Vote of 46 to 26.

PARTY LINES ARE ADHERED TO.

Amendment to Restrict Operation of Sedition Laws Is Accepted—Tillman and McLaurin Denied Vote—McComas and Wellington Have a Tilt.

Washington, Feb. 25.—After eight hours of tumultuous debate yesterday the senate, shortly after 7 p. m., passed the Philippine bill—46 to 26—a strictly party vote. Tillman and McLaurin, the two senators from South Carolina, who, on Saturday last, were declared by the senate to be in contempt because of their fight in the chamber, were not permitted by voice or by vote to participate in the proceedings. The question as to their right to vote precipitated a sharp debate, lasting nearly two hours. Turner (Dem., Wash.) contended vigorously for the right of the two senators to cast their votes and he was sustained by Patterson (Colo.), Bailey (Tex.) and other Democrats. They held that even though the senators were actually under arrest and in the custody of the sergeant-at-arms, they could demand that they be allowed to vote, as the senate had not passed on their case.

Not Allowed to Vote. Foraker, Aldrich and other Republicans held that the senators clearly could not participate in any of the proceedings of the senate until they had purged themselves of contempt, and the senate had removed the ban placed upon them. The president pro tem, Mr. Frye, held that the two senators could not vote and he was upheld by the senate.

During the debate McComas and Wellington became involved in a controversy, during the course of which the latter declared that if McComas would make his statements outside of the senate chamber he would brand them as a malicious falsehood. He was called to order promptly and resumed his seat.

Many amendments were offered to the Philippine bill, but except those offered by the committee, only one, an amendment restricting the operation of the sedition laws enacted by the Taft commission, was adopted. The amendment of Foraker fixing the rate of duties on products coming into the United States from the Philippines at 50 per cent of the Dingley rates instead of 75 per cent, as fixed in the bill, was lost, but it received a large Republican vote. Had the Democrats voted for it as a party it would have carried, but many Democrats voted against it.

Provisions of the Bill. As passed the measure provides that articles imported into the Philippines from the United States shall be required to pay the duties levied against them by the Philippine commission, and paid on like articles imported into the archipelago from foreign countries; that articles imported into the United States from the Philippines shall pay a duty of 75 per cent of the rates fixed by the Dingley law, less any export duty on articles sent from the archipelago. All articles now imported free into the United States shall hereafter be exempt from import duty imposed in the Philippines. The bill exempts the commodities passing between the Philippines and the United States from the navigation laws of the United States until July 1, 1904, and authorizes the Philippine commission to so regard the craft engaged in lighterage or exclusively harbor work, provided such craft are built in the United States or the Philippines and owned by citizens of the United States or citizens of the Philippines. Taxes and duties collected in pursuance of this act shall be paid into the treasury of the Philippine islands and used for their benefit.

All articles manufactured in bonded warehouses of imported materials, or material subject to internal revenue in the United States to the Philippines when exempt from the internal revenue and all taxes paid on such articles shipped to the Philippine islands since Nov. 15, 1801, shall be refunded.

Los Angeles, Feb. 25.—E. J. (Lucky) Bakwin is reported seriously ill at his Santa Anita ranch. He had an attack of the grip about two weeks ago, which developed into pneumonia. As he is 74 years old, his chances for recovery are regarded as poor.

Ships Lost in Storm. New York, Feb. 25.—The barge Lichtenfels Brothers, formerly the bark Ceres, 1,136 gross tonnage, lies sunken in the main ship channel here, one mile north of the Southwest spit, and it is believed Captain Walter Grindis and the crew of three men were drowned while asleep in their berths. The coal barge Cardenas, with a crew of five men besides her captain, and the barge Juniata, from which the crew was taken by the tug Mars, which had her in tow, are drifting about the ocean somewhere.

Wanted for Bank Robbery. Wichita, Kan., Feb. 25.—The governor of Kansas has sent a requisition to Arkansas for John Dunn and George Dunham, under arrest here for the robbery of a bank at Clarksville, Ark., four weeks ago. Dunn came to a hospital here ten days ago to have a bullet wound in the groin taken care of. He would give no information about himself except that a jealous woman shot him. The wound seemed to be two weeks old. Dunham followed here to take care of him, and was arrested. His attendance upon Dunn aroused suspicion and he was also placed in custody.

Republican Conference Called. Washington, Feb. 25.—A conference of the Republican members of the house has been called for tonight to discuss the recommendation of the ways and means committee as to reciprocity with Cuba. There is said to be considerable opposition in some quarters to the action of the committee on this subject. The Michigan members held a caucus and decided unanimously to oppose the recommendations of the committee.

According to advices from Skagway the trail to Dawson is in excellent condition, but travel is light, both in and out.

The war department was informed Monday of the death of Major E. A. Ellis, Thirtieth cavalry, at Hot Springs, Ark.

Senator Lodge introduced a bill creating the bureaus of drainage, irrigation and highways in the department of agriculture.

The postmaster general has issued a general order announcing the increase of pay of rural free delivery mail carriers $100 each per annum.

YACHT READY FOR THE EVENT. Emperor's Vessel Awaits the Christening by Miss Alice Roosevelt.

New York, Feb. 25.—The finishing touches on the emperor of Germany's new yacht were given and everything is in readiness for the launching. The union jack was hoisted at her bow, and from a small temporary staff amidship floated the imperial German standard. The American flag flies aft. Directly under the cut water of the yacht is the bunting-decked stand on which Miss Roosevelt, Prince Henry and President Roosevelt and two or three others will stand. In the center of this little platform is a box about three feet high. Into this box are run the steel wire ropes from the yacht's cradle. These are caught by a line which Miss Roosevelt will cut with a specially made silver hatchet. The cutting of this rope will release the weights and the yacht will immediately start down the ways.

President Off for Launching.

Washington, Feb. 25.—President Roosevelt and party left Washington shortly before midnight for New York, where today the president will witness the launching of the yacht Meteor, built for the emperor of Germany. Accompanying the president were Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice Roosevelt, who is to christen the yacht; Secretary Root, Mrs. Root, Miss Root, Secretary Hitchcock, Commander and Mrs. Cowles, Senators Lodge and Spooner, Representative Littauer, Dr. Pickler, Assistant Secretary Loeb and a stenographer. The president's train pulled out of the station a few minutes before the one occupied by Prince Henry and his escort.
