THE KIRON CHRONICLE

E. E. Clauson, Correspondent.
Quite a few have been suffering with inflamed jaws, the consequences of entertaining the mumps.
Rev. Aug Olson, Baptist State Missionary, preached at the church here last Thursday evening.
Arthur Johnson, of Woodbury county, was a visitor with relatives here last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Stephens, of Arthur, Iowa, spent the latter part of the week visiting at the home of B. N. Benson, going to Denison Saturday afternoon to visit over Sunday.
Mrs. P. S. Mauritz has sold her farm west of town to A. M. Larson. The consideration we have not learned. She advertised a sale of her stock and farming machinery to be held on Thursday the 18th.

Our implement dealer has decided to quit farming, and having rented his land will hold a sale of his farm machinery on Friday, the 14th. His time and attention are required constantly at his business.

Peter Staw, one of the earliest settlers of this settlement, died recently at his home in Clay Center, Kansas, at the ripe age of 81 years. He has many acquaintances and old time friends here who will learn of his death with sadness.

Rev. Oscar Wennstrand and wife of Odebolt, and Mrs. P. A. Lindskoog and daughter from Wheeler township attended the services at the Mission church Sunday evening.

Mr. F. L. Johnson held meeting on Sunday afternoon last at the home of C. J. Johnson east of Kiron.

William Peters, a former farmer southeast of Kiron some years ago, died on his farm near Charter Oak on Tuesday last week, after a long and painful illness. He was a highly respected German farmer.

Mr. C. J. Hoaglund, a former farmer of this locality, but for the past several years engaged in the merchandise business at Arthur, has purchased a business lot and intends to erect a store building at once and will put in a stock of general merchandise. He will also erect a residence and move to Kiron.

Mrs. Mary Mauritz entertained a large number of scholars and several teachers of the Free Mission School at her home Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in singing and listening to talks by Rev. D. Anderson, Jno. Cedargren, Mary Mauritz and the Superintendent. Refreshments were served before the company dispersed.

Mrs. Mauritz was presented with a handsome album by her visitors as a token of esteem and friendship and of appreciation of her labor in the Sunday school.

R. C. Edgerton, of Omaha, spent a few hours in Kiron Saturday afternoon transacting business with the firm of Clauson and Johnson.

Mr. Chas. Dolk made his first trip on the road for the Minneapolis Binder Co., having been assigned this territory. A good job for Chas. if he sticks to it.

Married at Ida Grove on Wednesday last, Mr. John Lantz and Miss Jennie Johnson both from this locality. They went to housekeeping in the former B. N. Benson residence west of Kiron. May all the joy and happiness possible be enjoyed by human beings be theirs.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Selander moved away from this locality last week and are now located on a farm south of Denison, if our informant is correct.

Mr. C. F. Clauson has material on the grounds for a new residence to be erected on his farm south-east of Kiron, as soon as the weather gets settled.

JOHNSONVILLE ITEMS.

Miss Anna Anderson went to Omaha last Monday.

We regret to learn of the continued illness of Mr. Mauritz Sjogren. His many friends wish for his speedy recovery.

Miss Lydia Johnson arrived home from the Highland Park College, Des Moines, last Tuesday for a few weeks vacation. She returns again in April to take up her school work.

Mr. C. W. Lindgren, of Ida county, was a Johnsonville caller last Thursday.

Aug. Samuelson, of Ida, was a business caller in our burg on Thursday.

It is reported that the Farmers' Mutual Telephone Co. will extend their line further south and as far as Johnsonville. We think that there are quite a few down this way who would want phones in their houses.

The Johnson brothers threshing corn stalks for Mr. Frank Nelson last Saturday.

Horrible if True.

There are times when the mere recital of an alleged act of atrocious brutality fires the blood almost to madness. If it is true what is charged against one Levi VanScoy who resides in the vicinity of Lake City then most of the tales of demonology are easily believable. A report comes to this place that about six weeks ago VanScoy's little three years old son was suffering from an attack of scarlet fever. The little fellow was not naturally of a robust constitution and while sick was indeed puny. As often happens the little sufferer hesitated about taking his medicine and then the devilish brutality of the parent's nature seems to have asserted itself. With the ferocity of a brute he took a chisel and knocked out several of his baby's teeth, shattering the jaw, and the wonder is death did not result. Through fear of the man the neighbors kept the matter quiet until this week, when public sentiment becoming thoroughly aroused the child was moved to Lake City and the unnatural parent placed under arrest. The preliminary trial of the alleged cowardly brute will occur at Lake City next Monday.—Rockwell City Advocate.
