NEWS ABOUT DELOIT.

Mrs. N. F. Chauey has been on the sick list the past few weeks.

Bruce Roark secured a job of work with a farmer at Canton, S. Dak., at $20 per month for nine months, through the kindness of his friend, Mr. A. E. Stowell. Bruce took the train Thursday for his work.

Robbie Roark is working on the Adams ranch.

Hans Sibbert expects to start to Montana this week.

The I. C. freight ran a car off the track just above the depot last Friday night.

Mr. C. Montgomery of Penn. nephew of J. Phillips arrived last Thursday for a few days visit at the home of his uncle. Mr. Montgomery will take a tour through the west before his return home.

M. and Mrs. S. Langhery took the train Thursday eve to look up a new location for a home.

Miss Blanche Shupiter took the afternoon train on Wednesday to visit her sister Mrs. Bunnit near Carroll Ia. She will remain about two weeks.

C. J. Hunt bought the old frame school house and is having it torn down this week he will work a part of it in a coal house and a part he has sold.

Mrs. Nash was a guest of Mrs. J. L. Miller between trains Saturday evening.

Mrs. C. F. Prentice and mother, Mrs. Brogdon and her two daughters Minnie and Myrtle took the train Sunday evening for their new home at Turtle Lake, Wis.

Mr. Harry Childress and Miss Josie Winans were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ann Winans, on last Sunday evening, March 23, 1902, her uncle, Elder Wm. McKim officiating. Harry is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Childress, and Josie the only daughter of Mrs. Ann Winans. Both have been raised in this neighborhood and are well and favorably known. They have a host of friends that wish them happiness and success through the journey of life.

"Cashus Newcom on last Friday, March 14, 1902, planked down $4100.00 spot cash for Ludwig Horn's farm about two miles north-west of Bonesteel, S. Dak. The steady and sure advance of land values in Gregory county is illustrated by this sale. Mr. Horn having bought this quarter only a little over two years ago for $1050. A $3,000 profit besides the proceeds of two seasons good crops in the short space of 30 months is pretty good for a section of the country that eastern papers delight in saying is arid, unproductive and beastly. Blessed be the ignorant."

Copied from the Gregory county newspaper. Cash Newcom was a prosperous farmer of Deloit many years and has many friends who will be glad to learn of his future prosperity. His daughters, Cassie and Mae, have just closed their winter terms of school near Bonesteel in districts 12 and 14 with interesting exercises. The paper says of them, "The Misses Newcom are popular and successful teachers." Cassie and Mae were educated at Deloit and attended the Denison Normal school awhile. They have been teaching ever since they moved away. Cassie also taught in our county the year before she moved away. Their friends here will be glad to note their continued success.

Mr. Frank Messinbrink and wife received a visit from his mother Monday.

Miss Myrtle Scott, of Salix, Iowa, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Chadwick.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

Easter will be celebrated in Deloit next Sunday. The program has been well prepared and a good time is anticipated. The school at Boyer will render a program one week from Sunday. On account of bad roads and weather they have not been able to practice.

A new carpet has been placed on the pulpit platform at Boyer. The ladies purchased the same, and propose soon to put in a pulpit set.

Rev. J. L. Gillier will preach in the Deloit church next Sunday evening and administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, assisted by the pastor. Bro. Gillier is pastor of our church at Charter Oak and is an able preacher. All should hear him.

Quarterly Conference will convene at 10 a. m., Tuesday, April 1st. All official members urged to be present.

Mr. Abel Peterson of Odebolt Ia. is spending a few weeks with friends.

As a number of our citizens were called to Sac City last week to testify in the saloon case, many will with interest learn of the results which we copy from the Sac Sun. "The case of Mary D. Byrne vs. Adam Anchteller et al, was placed on trial Tuesday. It was a suit brought against the defendant's bond as a saloonkeeper at Kiron, Crawford to recover damages for injuries received on the railroad by the plaintiff's husband while intoxicated, it is alleged by liquor sold in the defendant's saloon. Part of the evidence was submitted yesterday but this morning it having been shown in evidence that the saloon was conducted by a partnership and that the bond, one of the sureties of which resides in Sac county, was not valid, the plaintiff dismissed the suit without prejudice in order to bring it against the defendant Anchteller in Ida county, his place of residence.

The cellar is completed and the erection of the new Hoaglund store building will be commenced and pushed at once.

The homes of P. A. Johnson and Henry Brinkmans were released from quarantine for small pox last week.

DOW CITY HAPPENINGS

E. J. Ballengee, Correspondent.

The tug of war will take place about next Monday.

Mrs. E. H. Sweeney returned home Saturday, after spending some five weeks in Chicago.

Death claims another victim from among us. Mrs. Alma Graves died about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning, March 24. Chloe Alma Dow, daughter of Simeon Elbridge and Chloe Ann Dow, was born August 24, 1848, at Lagrange, Cass county, Michigan, and removed with her parents to Harrison county, Iowa, in 1859 and again to Crawford county in 1855. Was baptized into the Baptist church at Denison by Elder George Scott at the age of fifteen and continued a consistent member of the same until her death. She was married to Mr. Abner Graves May 28, 1868, at the home of her parents in what is now Dow City. The life of Mrs. Alma Graves, though perhaps not always strewn with flowers, was always kind and consistent, always loving and obliging. She appeared to live for those by whom she was surrounded, never having a harsh or unkind word for any. To see Mrs. Graves was to respect her and to know her was to love her. She was stricken with the disease that terminated her life on New Years day and grew gradually worse from the first. All the ministrations of kind friends and the best medical aid failed to stay the ravages of the disease. She suffered greatly and entered that deep sleep from which there is no awakening as noted above. The funeral will occur from the M. E. church on Thursday, March 27th. Services by Rev. Mr. Bateson of Denison assisted by Rev. Mr. Houghtalin, pastor of the M. E. church at Dow City. The body will be laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery a mile west of town.

Dan Howarth went down to Woodbine Tuesday.

John Howarth, Jim Howarth, John Creagan and Dr. Toon went to Omaha Tuesday.

JOHNSONVILLE ITEMS.

A large number of friends took occasion to invite themselves to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Swanson last Monday evening, the object being to express their congratulations and best wishes to this newly married couple and also to get better acquainted with Mrs. Swanson and bid her welcome among us. A very pleasant evening was spent in social conversation and song. A nice present in the way of some table linen was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Swanson as a remembrance of the evening.

"The Boston Hand Bell Ringers" will give a grand concert at the Swedish Baptist church of Kiron on Tuesday, April 1st, at 8 p. m. This quartet comes very highly recommended and rare treat is promised the lovers of music.

Mrs. F. L. Johnson is on the sick list.
