

Miss Jennie Owens is teaching in No. 2 Paradise Twp. this spring.

Miss Nellie Pollock is teaching in District No. 3, Denison township.

Mr. Boger, who has been sick for some time is able to be out again.

Mrs. Francis Gibson, who has been very sick the past week, is recovering.

A. C. Butterworth expects to return to his work on the Central Wednesday.

Mr. Frank Gibson commenced teaching in District No. 1, Paradise township Monday.

Supt. and Miss Von Coello enjoyed a visit last week from Mr. and Mrs. Conner of Tama City.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Beardsley.

Addis and Genevieve Lally are visiting their sister Maggie, stopping at Du buque for a short visit.

Miss Agnes King returned from Council Bluffs Saturday, where she has been spending her vacation.

Miss Erma Shaw visited relatives in Denison over Sunday returning to Davenport Monday morning.

A number of members of the Masonic order went to Charter Oak last evening to assist in some special work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hughes and son of Omaha, are visiting Mrs. Hughes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Owens.

At the late election held at Rockwell City it was decided to change the name from Rockwell to Rockwell City.

Miss Minnie Marshall went to Jackson township yesterday where she will teach the coming term at the Dexter school.

Fred Richards is again in the barber business, starting a shop under the Wilcox laundry. He will also put in a billiard table.

John G. Smith was down from Sioux City on Saturday. He says he is nicely located and thinks he will enjoy a good business.

C. L. Voss is in Sioux City today on business.

John O'Hare of Omaha spent Sunday in Denison.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Campbell, on April 4, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goff leave this week for Atkin county, Minn., where he has leased some land and will stock it with young cattle. Mrs. Goff's health has not been good for some time and she is in hopes the change will be beneficial.

Mrs. Rev. Wm. Wright is enjoying a visit from her sister Miss Margaret Reynolds of New Canaan, Conn. Miss Reynolds made a visit to Denison about twenty years ago, and has not been here since therefore the visit is a very pleasant one to all.

Cecil Rhodes left an estate valued at $20,000,000. The contents of his will has just been made known. Under the terms of this remarkable document Iowa gets two Oxford scholarships, as does each state and territory in America. The bulk of his fortune is bequeathed to public use.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould have returned from a stay in South Dakota. Mr. Gould has purchased Mr. Tom Bateman's blacksmith shop near the Healey livery stable. The location being a desirable one Mr. Gould will undoubtedly enjoy a good trade. We have not learned Mr. Bateman's intentions.

Mrs. F. B. Philbrook entertained the Penelope club Tuesday afternoon. It being all fool's day it was hard to keep to fancy work, and the ladies related a series of April fool jokes which provoked much hilarity. The hostess served a dainty menu which was fully up to the standard of excellence maintained by the club.

Attorney I. V. Jackson took the early morning train Monday over the Central for Riverside, California. Business in connection with his law practice requires his taking the trip. He will go over the Santa Fee and will probably return by way of the Great Northern. During his absence his brother, Mr. Ed. Jackson, will have charge of the office.

JAMES HOWORTH DEAD.

Dies in Omaha Hospital Where He Was Taken for Treatment.

Many regret to learn of the death of Mr. James Howorth of Dow City. He died Sunday night at the hospital in Omaha where he had been taken to be treated for jaundice and liver complaint. Mr. Howorth was a Crawford county boy having lived here most all his life. He was a son of Mr. Edmund Howorth, one of this county's most highly respected citizens. The deceased had been married to Miss Beach whom all will remember, and who died some years ago. For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. Howorth lived two and one-half miles north of Denison and their home was always a place of welcome. The funeral will be held at Dow City on Wednesday and burial will take place in Denison cemetery. To the children who are now orphans and the relatives, we extend our sympathy.

GARNET ROMANS FIRST.

Wins First Prize in Declamatory Contest at Belle Plaine.

Denison's High School carried off first honors in the Declamatory contest at Belle Plaine, and Miss Garnet Romans, the representative, is receiving congratulations on every hand. The contest proved a very enthusiastic one as there were numerous representatives and all good ones too. Miss Romans may well feel proud, it is no small honor, and well worth the trying for. She not only won the honors of representing Denison but the entire district and she will now represent the district at the State Contest at Anamosa which is held there three weeks later.

GEO. MAKEPEACE INDICTED.

The Lawyer of Many Names Charged With Concealing Stolen Good.

George W. Makepeace known in Denison as Geo. Quackenbush has been indicted down at Marshalltown by the grand jury on the charge of receiving and concealing stolen good. As is usual with him there is a woman in the case, a Mrs. Georgia Mason who has been sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. She was a client of Makepeace and it is alleged he aided her in secreting stolen property.

To Business Men.

The REVIEW office has just received a large line of calendars for 1903, also a fine line of fans and other advertising novelties which we will be glad to show. It is not necessary to send out of town for anything in this line. The Denison offices are just as well prepared to do this work as any where. Reserve your orders.

SCHOOL BOARD NEWS.

President N. L. Hunt of the school board has appointed the following committees for the coming year:

- Teachers and Complaints—Nicholson, Sewell and Knaul.
- Library and Supplies—Knaul and Romans.
- Repairs and Janitors—Sewell and Romans.
- Fuel—Nicholson and Romans.
- Text Books and their Handling—Romans, Knaul and Nicholson.

On Wednesday night the board will meet to elect teachers for the ensuing year. There will probably not be many changes made in the corps of teachers.

Funeral of Daniel Riddle.

The funeral of Mr. Daniel Riddle, who died last Friday was held Sunday at the home in Coon Grove, Rev. F. W. Bateson of the Baptist church officiating. There was a very large attendance, over 40 teams following the remains to the cemetery, many old settlers from all parts of the county attended. Mr. Riddle came to Crawford County in the year 1854. He settled down and he and his estimable wife reared a family of 10 children, only three—a son and two daughters, of whom are now living. His devoted wife remains to mourn the loss of a loving husband and a kind father. May her son and daughters ever remain near to comfort and cheer her in the remaining days of her life. Her husband's name will stand prominent in Crawford county history as one of its best and most highly respected citizens.

TEACHER'S MEETING.

The semi-annual teachers' meeting of Crawford county will be held at Denison on the 19th day of April, one week from Saturday.

Owing to delays in answers the program is not quite ready. We expect to have an all-day session, beginning at 9:30 a. m.

The morning sessions will be meetings by sections; High school, grammar school and primary.

The afternoon session will be general and we hope a goodly number of the teachers from all over the county in attendance. C. W. VON COELIN, County Superintendent.

Mrs. Carl F. Kuehnle and children returned from Chicago the latter part of the week.

B. J. Sibbert has purchased the residence formerly owned by Mrs. Bagge in north Denison.

Mrs. S. G. Wright leaves this evening for a two weeks' visit with Mrs. E. B. Bannister at Chicago.

Mr. John Reynolds of Dow City, for over thirty years a reader of the REVIEW was a pleasant caller today.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cose of Deloit were Denison visitors today. Mr. Cose is now in the hardware business at Deloit.

J. P. Anderson of Kiron drove to Denison today while here he remembered the REVIEW with a pleasant call.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow, Wednesday, afternoon with Mrs. John Kott.

Miss Agnes Owens returned from a visit in Omaha, Saturday, and began teaching in District No. 7, Denison township, Monday.

Miss Edyth Luney, who has been quite ill the past couple of weeks, is rapidly recovering. Her many friends will be glad to learn of this.

Chas. C. Komming has moved into the Henry Schwartz residence in North Denison. Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz have gone to Montana where they will spend a year or so with their sons.

The large graphophone at E. C. Chamberlins store proves quite an attraction. The machine is a very good one and E. C. keeps adding new records until now he has a large variety.

The board of supervisors is now in session; the newly appointed member, Mr. Chas. Dugan of Vail was duly sworn in and qualified. The board will be in session more than a week.

Mr. Fred Bock of West side was a Denison visitor this morning.

Mrs. E. Gulick and Mrs. C. L. Voss returned from Omaha Saturday.

Trinity Guild will meet with Mrs. O. E. Patterson on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. W. J. McAhren and Mrs. J. B. Dunbar expect to start on their trip to California Saturday. Mrs. McAhren's health has not been of the best of late and her friends trust the trip and change of climate may be beneficial to her. Mrs. Dunbar expects to remain in California about a year.

Mr. C. O. Faus tells us that spring cement walk laying is to begin in earnest next week. There is to be a cement walk and walk around the Sievers properties in north Denison; Mr. Chas. Bullock's handsome residence will be still further beautified by cement walks and wall and Messrs. Chris Otto and Frank Paul will have a cement walk in front of their residences in east Denison.

Harold Bartlett while playing with a number of boys of his own age last week, was accidentally shot with a 22 rifle, the weapon being in the hands of a playmate, one of Mr. Barnes' boys. The ball struck him in the right hip, but the wound is not at all dangerous. He has been confined to the house for some days. Otherwise he is getting along nicely. Boys cannot be too careful in the handling of firearms.

The Ladies of the Methodist Foreign Missionary Society gave "Auntie" Harker a glad surprise on the 7th of April, being the anniversary of her 75th birthday, at the home of Mrs. Weeks where the daintiest they could concoct were served as refreshments and an elegant wicker chair and foot rest was given in hopes of contributing some rest and comfort. It was a beautiful expression of respect and affection and is profoundly and fraternally appreciated.

Will the person addressing letter to M. B. Haskin the last of February and signing his initials B. C. please call at the residence of Thos. Pierson, where he will find Mr. Haskin.
