Jack Griffen, of Neola, was here visiting with his parents last week.

WILLOW WHISPERINGS

Plenty of rain. Crops look favorable and corn planting has commenced in earnest.

Fred Winer of Denison spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Helser were Dunlap callers Saturday.

Dr. Manchester of Dunlap drove through our vicinity Sunday.

A number of our young people attended the dance Saturday eve at the Oak.

A number of the neighbors hauled lumber from Dunlap Monday for H. Hanson, who is going to erect a new barn.

M. L. McElwain, of Denison is doing some veterinary work this week in our vicinity.

Mr. C. Wickwire finished plastering his house this week. Charley has a most complete home now.

Considerable repairing of wind mills is being done since the wind storm.

Mrs. A. B. McElwain left Saturday for Moorhead, where she was called to the bedside of her sick mother.

The lightning struck Hans Hansen's barn Friday evening about five o'clock while Peter Hansen and Roy Cook were in the barn. They were both knocked senseless and somewhat injured but are slowly recovering. The fire could not be checked and in less than thirty minutes over $1000 worth of property was destroyed.

WEST SIDE TIDINGS.

E. B. Fanske, Vail's popular jeweler, was in town on business Friday.

The West Side Drug Co., is putting in a soda fountain which will no doubt be a relief to the town pump.

The school entertainment Friday evening was very poorly attended on account of the inclemency of the weather. The program, however, was a very creditable one and highly pleasing to those present.

D. P. Lawler, who was severely injured in the I. C. wreck in which his neighbors, Mike Lawler and L. Pfannkuch were killed, came to town Saturday, the first time since the accident. He was compelled to give up farming this year on account of his injuries and is only able to get around now by the use of a cane.

Will Hope of Omaha, spent Sunday with relatives and friends in this city.

J. C. Suhr visited over Sunday with friends in Boone.

About twenty members of the Denison chapter of Eastern Stars attended a special meeting of the local Chapter here last Monday evening. Refreshments were served by the Chicago Restaurant at the close of the meeting.

Rev. C. G. Coulter, M. E. pastor at this place has accepted a pastorate at Palisades, Colorado and expects to move his family to that city at once. Rev. Coulter is making the change on account of ill health but regrets very much the circumstances which impel him to sever his connection with this charge and with the Northwest Conference. Presiding Elder Rev. Lacey is expected to arrive here this evening from Colorado, where he has been visiting and will make some arrangement about applying this charge for the remainder of the year. Rev. Coulter and wife have gained a very high place in the affection and esteem of the people of West Side both in and out of the church and the news of their departure will be received with genuine sorrow and regret. We trust they will be pleased with their new home and that Rev. Coulter will find the climate beneficial to his health.

The ladies of the Home and Foreign missionary societies rendered a very interesting program in the M. E. church Sunday morning.

Mail carrier, C. R. Kracht went out on his route yesterday for the first time since his recent illness.

Miss Alice Woolhiser went to Omaha Thursday for a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. T. C. Marsh.

Mrs. E. E. Jenkins and family moved last week to Marshalltown, where they will make their home until Mr. Jenkins decides on a permanent location in the west, where he has been for the past year. He is now in Colorado and as his health seems to steadily improve in that climate he will undoubtedly have his family join him there in the near future.

Miss Anna Roemer, sister of Mrs. J. H. Effert returned last week from Germany where she has been living for the past two years.

Quite a large delegation from the Masonic Order in this city attended a meeting of that order in Vail last Tuesday night. They report a very pleasant time.

Wm. Gottsch is hauling material preparatory to building a large residence on his farm west of town.

I. Patterson is in Kansas City this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bollinger returned early in the week from an extended visit with relatives in Indiana.

T. A. Carter, of Boone, spent Wednesday with his parents in this city. Mr. Carter is now holding an important position in the dispatcher's office in Boone.
